You Can't Keep Your Head on Your Work

If Your Pen Demands Your Attention

YOU cannot compose your thoughts—cannot note the points of a lecture, if you are writing with a pen that loses step as you go along. That pen is a mental drag.

The sooner you replace it with the never failing, never ailing Parker Duofold, the quicker you will hit your stride in college work and social correspondence.

Duofold not only gives the mind full play and the hand full swing—its fit and balanced symmetry and jewel-smooth point inspire and stimulate. They tend to develop a hand of speed and character.

And we guarantee the point, if not mistreated, for 25 years' WEAR. So Duofold at $5 and $7 is the most economical pen—less costly than short-lived pens priced lower.

Any good pen counter will sell you Parker Duofold—flashing plain black; or black-tipped lacquer-red, a color that makes it handsome to own and hard to lose.

OPEN GATES TO GRID PRACTICE

Husker Coaches Let Students See Varsity and Freshmen Scrimmage.

TEAM STILL HAS HARD WORK AHEAD

Varsity football practice Wednesday evening was open to the public and a fair showing of Cornhusker football fans turned out to see the Varsity team and the reserves scrimmage.

The scrimmage demonstrated that much more work is still ahead of the Cornhuskers to prepare for the Illinois game, little more than a week off.

The work was somewhat ragged. Several men were tried out and showed fairly well. Tryba and Tomson were playing with the reserves, alternating at halfback. Mielenz, halfback, was shifted to fullback for the afternoon's fray. Scholtz, big lineman, went well in practice.

Varsity Superior.

The Varsity aggregation was easily the superior, not so much because of smooth teamwork as sheer power. Two touchdowns were scored by the first string.

The necessity for giving signals orally, occasioned by the fact that both teams knew the regular signals, of course added some to the confusion, but the Scarlet and Cream machine is still not as smooth working as it must be to meet the Illinois.

Locke and Mandery were still at the halfback positions, Myers at full and Bloodgood at quarter. Bloodgood got away for several good gains and Myers is showing ability as a line plunger. The defense was rather ragged throughout.

Rhodes and Robertson worked at ends, Captain Weir and Molzen at tackles, Hubka and Ogden at guards and Hutchinson at center.

May Drill on Passes.

Drilling in the passing game and unusually hard workouts at running signals are predicted for the next week. The aerial branch of the sport may be reverted to in the Illinois game, for the eastern men are known to have a line that will be hard to puncture.

Nothing particularly startling in the line of new plays has been developed. The team is too green to execute complicated plays successfully, and it will be necessary to stick to the old game of hit-the-line and run-the-ends.

On the second string in the workout, Bronson, quarterback, showed up very well in defensive work. Mielenz and Tomson were also doing well. Dailey, while not as strong on defense, was one of the stars so far as offensive work is concerned.

Coach Dawson dressed his second squad in blue freshman jerseys for the evening's entertainment, to distinguish them from the Varsity. There was changing of jerseys as men were taken out and put in.

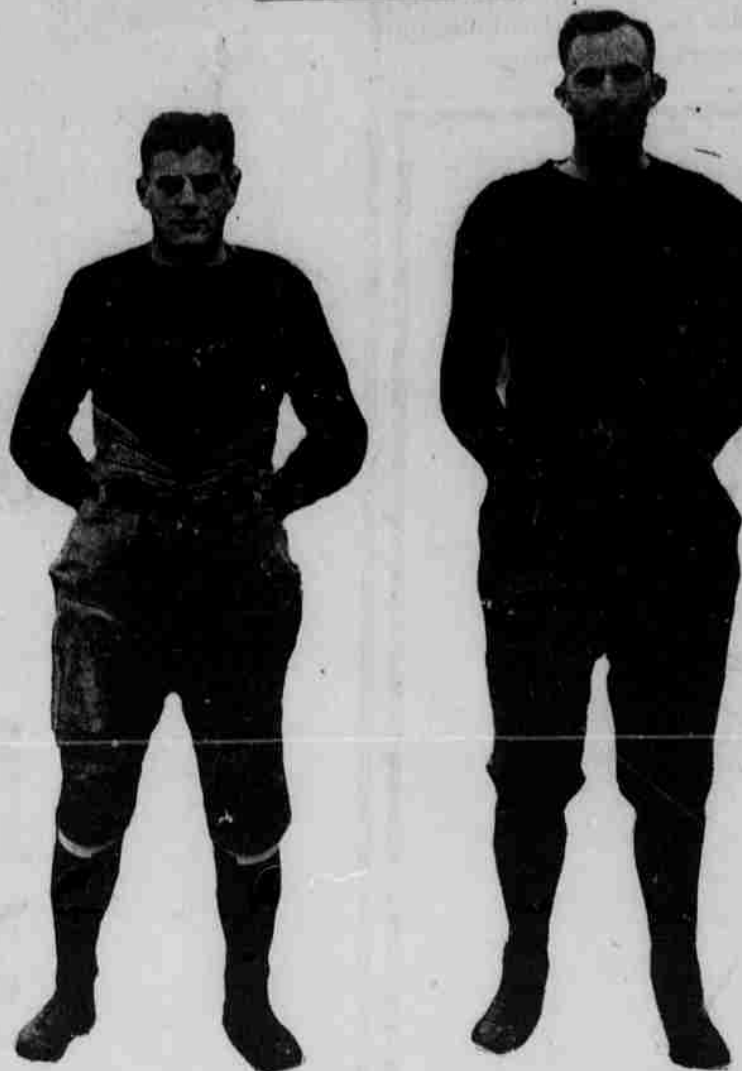

The workout was on the new turf field. The field is now in good shape, a summer spent in watering, rolling and clipping having brought results. The turf should remove the complaint of the Notre Dame team last year that it was handicapped by a hard field.

May Apply for Annual Business Staff Monday

Applications for the business staff positions on the 1925 Cornhusker will be taken Monday the 29th of September instead of this week as was announced in The Daily Nebraskan yesterday. All those interested are urged to apply by Robert Lang, business manager. All positions do not require business experience.

The positions to be filled will be announced in a later edition of The Daily Nebraskan.

Hutchinson and Wostoupal Uphold Husker's Reputation for Centers

HAROLD HUTCHINSON

JOE WOSTOUPAL

—Photos by Campus Studio.

Harold Hutchinson and Joe Wostoupal, centers on the Varsity squad, have upheld the tradition that Nebraska must have a fighting man in the middle of the line.

Hutchinson has usually received the call for regular duty, with Wostoupal ready at any time to relieve him. Both played in a number of games last year.

For the last several years Nebraska has been fortunate in its centers.

Bill Day, Peterson and Hutchinson have formed a trio hard to beat.

Both Hutchinson and Wostoupal have enough weight to make them formidable and their fighting spirit has never been questioned.

Walsh, captain of the Notre Dame team last year, found more than a match in Hutchinson. Walsh was known as one of the best centers in the country.

SEASON TICKETS TO BE FOR STUDENTS ONLY

the Stadium. This exchange must be made by Friday night of the day before the game at the Student Activities office.

"We want to get an organized group of students in the student section to get some real cheering!" Mr. Selleck continued. "That will put more fight in a team than anything else. Every student in school should show his Cornhusker loyalty by buying a ticket and getting his little red N button next week."

Is Up to Students.

"It is up to the students to make what they may of student section—whether it is a real student section or whether they are going to allow some students to sell their tickets and let some outsiders in cheap. With co-operation from the student body this ticket-scalping will be reduced to almost zero. We are making special plans this year to combat this evil and if we find anything of this sort the student who sold the ticket may have a hard time explaining how he peddled his ticket."

A separate committee will be in charge of sales of the tickets each day. These committees will be announced from day to day by the Nebraskan.
