FEW MEN TRY OUT FOR HARRIER TEAM

Only Three Cross Country Letter Men Are Back for Work Outs.

When the roll was called for the cross country tryouts, Coach J. Lloyd McMaster was confronted with the problem of lack of men, there being only three old letter men reporting for the workouts—Captain Zimmerman, Jake Schultz, and Jimmie Lewis.

This year Nebraska will probably have five Missouri Valley conference teams scheduled. The first team the harriers will encounter will be the Oklahoma University, October 11.

The next encounter is with Kansas, October 25, at Lawrence, Kansas. The next opposition will probably be that of Missouri, here, November 11. The big Missouri Valley meet to be held at Ames, November 28, will be the final act in the cross-country episode.

Some of the outstanding men reporting for the workouts are Jack Ross, who last year made his letter in the mile run, Jake Cohen, who made the team last year but was unable to make his letter owing to an operation which necessitated his withdrawal from the squad, Dick Rogers, one of the best men out in the earlier part of last season who was forced to retire on account of injury received during practice.

Coach McMaster reported twenty-eight men out for each evening workout, but that this was insufficient from the standpoint of effective and keen competition.

McMaster has been making some very careful surveys of the running and long-distance game, and after a talk with Joie Ray, and Ray Watson, the worlds greatest mile runners, that the cross-country run was a very helpful aid to men expecting to participate in the sprints.

A new and complete course has been mapped out, with red and white arrows at every turn showing the direction to be followed. It is superior to any of the former courses because there is not as much paving.
The course begins on the cinder path within the stadium and goes out through the northwest gate, over the viaduct on Tenth Street, north to New Hampshire Street, west to Ninth Street, north to Adams and Belmont streets, the S. Y. A. back to the viaduct, and then into the Stadium again. This will be surveyed by the engineers to find the elevations and exact distances.

ANTICIPATE GOOD WRESTLING TEAM

Squad to Have a Letter Man in Every Class Except 135-pound Division.

With wrestling practice already started and seven letter men returning this year, Dr. R. G. Clapp, professor of physical education and head coach of the wrestling team, anticipates a successful season at the mat sport. One letter man is returning in each of the weight classes except in the 135-pound class. Nebraska's grapplers last year started the season with only one letter man back, but finished the year as champions of the Missouri Valley conference and the Western Inter-Collegiate Wrestling Association.

Dr. Clapp expressed the need of more men out for wrestling. The sport has been made a major sport this year and ranks on the same plane with basketball, track and baseball. "We want to have at least two first-class men in each class this year, in order to be able to meet any emergency caused by accident or injury to regular men," said Dr.
Clapp.

Practice is starting this week. At present, and probably for the next few weeks, the teams will work out in the Armory Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 4 to 6 o'clock each week. Later, practices will be held every day.

Claude Swindell, former Nebraska wrestler is assistant coach.

Approximately seven meets will compose the schedule. Northwestern University and Ames are under two-year contracts and will meet the Nebraska squad in Lincoln. Kansas will probably renew its contract, as will Iowa State. In this case, the Kansas meet will be held here and the Iowa competition at Iowa City.
One other dual meet will probably be slated. In addition to these five the Cornhuskers will journey to the Missouri Valley Championship meet and the Western Inter-Collegiate Wrestling Association meet.

The letter men returning this year are: Richard Blore, '26, Columbus; John Kellogg, '26, Lincoln; Dale Skinner, '26, Broken Bow; Albro Lynn Lundy, '27, Sargent; Rob Roy Robertson, '26, Broken Bow, George Highley, '27, Edgemont, S. Dak.
