300 HUSKERS GO TO KANSAS

CORNCOBBS, TASSELS WILL MAKE JOURNEY

Probably 300 Cornhuskers will make the trip to Kansas on the special train to witness the Nebraska-Kansas football game.

Ticket sales Wednesday evening reached 250, and there are only fifty tickets left. They are on sale at Latsch Brothers.

The University band, the Corncoobs, Tassels, the freshman football squad, and all Varsity reserves will make the trip also. The total Husker representation should reach more than 500.

The special will leave at 11:30 Friday night and arrive at Lawrence at 8 o'clock the next morning. The return trip will begin at 11:30 Saturday night and the arrival in Lincoln will be at 8 o'clock Sunday morning. The fare is $8.94 for the round trip, chair-car. Lower Pullman berths will cost $7.50 and uppers, $6. Tourist lowers will cost $3.50 and uppers, $3.

Plans have been made for a parade from the train up town in Lawrence. All Nebraskans will also form in a column and march to the football field. They will be led by the band and the Corncoobs. Both Corncoobs and Tassels will be in uniform. Glenn Curtis, president of the Corncoobs, is in charge of arrangements for this organization, and Winnifred Steele, president of the Tassels, will take charge of the women's "pep" body.

The crowd will join in Nebraska yells. The Huskers will have a special section. It is expected that this Husker spirit will aid the team materially. "It is important that we have a good representation to support our team," Mathias Volz, chairman of the committee in charge, declared.

FLEHERTY EXPLAINS PARTY DIFFERENCES

Democratic Candidate for Attorney-general Addresses World Forum.

The fundamental difference between the Republican and Democratic parties were explained by Harry B. Fleherty, Omaha attorney, and Democratic candidate for attorney-general of Nebraska, at the World Forum luncheon Wednesday at the Grand Hotel. The proposed constitutional amendment to remove the party circle and party designations from the ballot was attacked by the speaker.

"Since the time of Alexander Hamilton those in the party now known as the Republican party have believed in the absolute sovereignty of the government. They have held the government is supreme and that the people have only such rights as the government gives them," declared Mr. Fleherty.

Parties Not Same. "The followers of Thomas Jefferson, the Democrats, believe that the people are supreme and that the government has only such powers as the people confer upon it. The idea advanced recently that the two parties are fundamentally the same is absurd," continued the speaker.

Following up the difference between the parties, Mr. Fleherty showed how this difference was evident in the tariff policies of the two. The Republicans aid certain individuals by erecting a high tariff wall protecting a certain industry while the democrats favor tariff only as a means of raising necessary revenue.

Tariff Not for Farmer. "It is absolutely impossible to help the farmer by putting a high tariff on agricultural products," said Mr. Fleherty, "because the farmer is not confronted with an incoming supply which he must compete against; his problem is to market a surplus."

Mr. Fleherty opposed the amendment to take the party circle and designation off the ballot. He said that the principles of the parties, which he held were fundamental and necessary differences, would be lost and the entire responsibility thrown on the individual.

WILL DEBATE ON KLAN QUESTION

Teams Argue Over "Should State Governments Make the Klan Illegal?"

STUDENTS ASKED TO TRY OUT FOR SQUADS

The question selected by Delta Sigma Rho, national intercollegiate debate society, for the interclass debates this year, has been changed. The question now reads, "Should State Governments Make the Ku Klux Klan Illegal?"

The change in the question was made because of a lack of definite understanding of the meaning of the word "legislate." The subject for the debate as the question is now stated, is that of making the plan illegal, and not merely legislating against it.

Students who wish to try out for the teams should leave their names with Hugh Cox in the Daily Nebraskan office, by Monday evening. The time and place of the Tuesday tryouts will be announced Tuesday morning.

Each speaker in the tryouts will be given five minutes and should use both direct argument and refutation in his speech. The first speaker will be limited to four minutes of direct argument, but will be allowed two minutes for rebuttal after the other speeches.

Debates will be held within a month after tryouts. The freshmen debate the sophomores and the juniors and seniors meet in the first-round debates. The two winners will meet later in the finals. Last year the freshmen came out winners, debating on the question of the unicameral legislature.

All students with debating experience in high schools or in University are urged to compete in the tryouts. Judges will be composed of the faculty and alumni debaters in the city.

Most of the members of the Council were formerly in Hi-Y work in their high schools.

WANTS MARKSMEN FOR RIFLE SQUAD

Captain Eggers Says Letters Will Be Given to Men Shooting in Matches.

Captain L. W. Eggers, director of rifle marksmanship, has issued a call for men to try out for the rifle team. As a result of the action of the Athletic department last year, men shooting in a specified number of matches will receive an N. This classifies rifle marksmanship as a minor sport at the University. But recently the N club announced that men receiving the letter awarded for marksmanship would be eligible for membership.

Any man eligible for any other sport is now eligible for competition in rifle matches and eligible for competition for the N, according to Captain Eggers. Placed upon this new basis, it is hoped that instead of winning forty-eight of fifty-one matches as the team did last year, it can carry one of them this year.

No matches have been scheduled yet. It is thought possible that the team may make one trip to fire on another course and invite one team here to fire on this course. As soon as a schedule is arranged and the team is picked, record fire will start.

PICK CHAIRMEN FOR CARNIVAL

Work on Annual Military Carnival Starts; Pi Phi's Will Be Barmaids.

ARMORY WILL HAVE AIR OF WILD WEST

Committee chairmen for the annual military carnival have been announced by Roland Eastbrooks, general chairman of the party. These chairmen, with the aid of other men in the military department will start work at once on the carnival "of, by, and for the west."

The chairmen appointed are: Publicity, Emmett V. Maun. Decorations, Harold Gish. Police, Milton Tappan. Bar, Charles V. Warren. Gambling, John Kellogg. Money Sales, Allen W. Tillotson. Checking, Roy Randolph.

Further plans for the carnival will include the Kandy Kids orchestra with special novelties drawn up for the occasion. Pi Beta Phi members have promised to act as the barmaids and the Spanish dancing girls.

The annual military carnival is held under the auspices of Scabbard and Blade, honorary military fraternity. It is one of the All-University gatherings of the year and is provided as a novelty distinct from any party of the year. Students attend the carnival dressed in all conceivable western or northern outfits. Even the women don sombreros, gypsy dresses, and senorita sashes.

Around the wall of the Armory, concessions run to sell confetti, soft drinks, and favors. Faro and dice games flourish for the price of paper money sold at a great reduction. An orchestra wheezes out "Turkey in the Straw," "The Campbells are Coming," "Red Wing," and other tunes such as Dan McGrew might have heard in the Malamute saloon.

It is always a gay night and thousands of students break away from the regularity of work to forget in a few hours of hilarious play at the military carnival.

DADS' DAY DATE IS MADE NOVEMBER 1

Nebraska Women and Men Will Entertain Parents at Missouri Game.

November 1 has been set as the date for the third annual Dads' Day, and dads of Nebraska women as well as those of Nebraska boys are asked to attend.

The Missouri-Nebraska game will be the main attraction of the day, and Nebraska "dads" will have a special reserved section in the stadium as in former years. The committee is now working on details of food, place, music, and speakers, and will have definite announcements to make soon.

Publicity will be given to Lincoln daily newspapers, to advertise the event throughout the state. Tickets will be on sale for the banquet soon.

The Dads' Day custom is not an old one at the University of Nebraska. It was started three years ago, and over 1,000 Nebraska dads were present at a banquet held before the Nebraska-Kansas Aggie football game. Special rates were offered for seats in the grandstand at that game. Governor Samuel R. McKelvie, Coach Fred T. Dawson, "Chick" Hartley, captain of the 1922 Cornhuskers, and Mayor Frank C. Zehrung spoke. The event was held again last year, when about 1,800 persons were present at the banquet. An excellent program was offered, including the Nebraska-Notre Dame football game and a talk by Dr. George P. Shriver.

Chancellor Avery said in 1923, "Dads' Day is a mighty fine thing, and I certainly hope the students of the University will give the closest cooperation possible to those sponsoring the event. I thoroughly approve of the event, and believe it will meet with only the heartiest support of Nebraskans."

SCHULTE NEEDS MEN FOR WEIGHT EVENTS

Graduation of Hartman and Bassett Leaves Nebraska Weak Track Team.

All men who intend to try out for the 1925 Cornhusker track team in the weight events should report for workouts at once, according to Head Track Coach H. F. Schulte. Ced Hartman, Nebraska weight man on the 1924 track team, is on hand every day at 5 o'clock to coach the aspirants in the weight events. Hartman and Bassett, Nebraska's representatives in this event last year, have been graduated, leaving the Husker track team weak in these events.

Coach Schulte declares that it is necessary for candidates in the shot-put, discus, and javelin to report for this fall training, because the track season will start off with a rush in the spring, and it will be too late to develop any men in these events at that time. Hartman, who is doing the coaching this fall in these events, was a consistent winner in Kansas and Drake relays, as well as all the Valley meets, for the last three years.
