

HARRIERS ARE OUT FOR WIN

Scarlet and Cream Cross-Country Men Would Avenge Kansas Victory.

HUSKER TRACK MEN ENTER SECOND MEET

With a defeat of last year to avenge, and a defeat at the hands of the Sooners to make them more determined, the Scarlet and Cream harriers leave today over the Union Pacific for Lawrence, Kas., where they will meet the Jayhawk harriers in the second dual meet of the season. The cross country meet will be held in the morning of the Homecoming game by request of the Kansas management instead of during the football game.

Kansas cross-country men are always of high caliber, and are considered among the best of the valley. This year they have two letter men, Grady and Captain Pratt, along with a new team of fair value. The Husker lineup also includes two letter men, Captain Zimmerman and James Lewis. The other four men, McCartney, Ross, Lawson and Hays have shown speed in the tryouts while only McCartney and Ross have been in competition before. J. Lloyd McMaster, who has coached the harriers for several years will accompany the team.

The meet will be held in the morning according to a telegram from Athletic Director Allen. Temporary bleachers across the track make it impossible to finish the race between halves of the game as has been the custom in previous meets. The Kansas course will be difficult for the Husker distance men because of the steep hills over which the course follows. Though the team will return on the special, the men will leave at 10:45 this morning.

LARGE CROWDS SEE GAMES

Report Record Attendance at Grid-iron Clashes.

Four hundred and six thousand people saw twelve of the important football contests played last Saturday. The largest crowds were in the east and middle west, the Illinois-Michigan game drawing the largest crowd and the Army-Notre Dame fray attracting nearly as many.

The crowds at the games were: Illinois-Michigan, 67,000. Notre Dame-Army, 60,000. Harvard-Holy Cross, 50,000. Yale-Dartmouth, 45,000. Penn U.-Columbia, 45,000. Princeton-Navy, 25,000. Nebraska-Colgate, 25,000. Geo. Tech.-Penn State, 25,000. W. & J.-Carnegie, 20,000. Rutgers-Cornell, 20,000. Syracuse-Boston Col., 14,000. Quantico Marines-Georgetown, 10,000.

In addition to the games listed, there were several that drew crowds of 10,000 and games on the Pacific coast drew over 25,000.

KANSANS ENLARGE COACHING STAFF

Add Three Men in Anticipation of Kansas-Nebraska Grid Contest Saturday.

LAWRENCE, Kas., Oct. 23.—In an effort to point the Jayhawk squad for the battle with the Nebraska Cornhuskers Saturday, several additions to the coaching staff were announced by Coach George "Potsy" Clark Monday morning. Dr. F. C. Allen, director of athletics and head coach of basketball, will be on the field every day during the week and freshman coach John Bunn will devote his entire time to assisting coaches Clark and Karl Schlademan with the varsity. The freshman squad is in charge of Ted Schultz, Y. M. C. A. secretary on the hill and a former all-American tackle selection from Washington and Jefferson.

The innovation produced great effects during the first two nights of practice and the entire squad is now hitting the stride that it should, and is showing better form than ever displayed this year in any of the previous games.

Harold Burt, captain and fullback, who has been crippled most of the season, is in tip-top shape and his work in line bucking looks like his last year stride. Harold Zuber, mountainous halfback, is running, passing and kicking with equal facility and will be a dangerous triple threat man against the northern invaders.

Gene Hart and Wilbur Starr, also halfbacks, are pulling some of the best broken field running seen on the local field in several years. Tuesday night in scrimmage they left the freshmen behind time after time for the kind of gains that "Red" Grange pulled off against Michigan.

Alex Hodges, at quarterback, has been showing up well, and appearance of the entire squad indicates a hard fight next Saturday.

Freshman Commission Entertains Freshmen

The Freshman Commission of the University Y. W. C. A. will entertain at a tea this afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock in Ellen Smith Hall. All freshman women are invited to attend. A program will be given under the direction of Miss Margaret Dunlap, chairman of the entertainment committee. The Hallowe'en idea will be carried out in the decorations.

Notre Dame--Princeton and Other Games Attract Fans This Weekend

A number of important football games the outcomes of which are bound to affect the determining of conference and sectional championships are on the schedule for this Saturday. Chief among them will be the Notre Dame-Princeton game to be played at Princeton. In last Saturday's game against the Army, Rockne eleven showed a brilliant brand of football and although they are handicapped by the loss of Captain Walsh at center, they will enter the Princeton game as favorites. Walsh suffered a broken bone in his hand, and will be out of the game for three weeks.

In the Missouri valley, interest is centered around the Kansas Aggie-Missouri game to be played at Manhattan. Both teams are undefeated in the race for the Valley title, and a great game is expected. Drake and Oklahoma, the other two undefeated valley members will play at Des Moines. A great deal of interest is also being manifested over the Kansas U.-Nebraska game at Lawrence, although the outcome will have no bearing on the championship.

In the Big Ten, Illinois is now the reigning favorite with Chicago U. looming up as the only undefeated team besides the Zuppke squad. The Illini will take things easy this week playing De Pau in a home game. Chicago gets her real test this week in Ohio State. Iowa and Minnesota are scheduled for Iowa City, and Wisconsin and Michigan will fight it out on the latter's field. Other members of the conference have non-conference opponents or are resting this week.

In the east, in addition to the Princeton-Notre Dame game, Yale will play Brown and Dartmouth will play Harvard. It is estimated from advance sales that a crowd of nearly 60,000 will witness the Harvard game. On the Pacific coast, California meets

Washington State, Stanford meets Idaho, and Nevada meets Southern California. The Oregon Aggies will play Washington U.

It will be worthy of mention if as many close fought games are seen this Saturday as there were last Saturday in the east. Out of seven games of major importance, 17 points was the highest score made by any eleven, and 10 points was the most advantage that any team had over its opponent. Another notable fact is that the deciding points in all but two instances were made in the last few minutes of play. The scores were: Princeton 17, Navy 14. Rutgers 10, Cornell 0. Pennsylvania 10, Columbia 7. Yale 14, Dartmouth 14. Notre Dame 13, Army 7. Harvard 12, Holy Cross 6. W. & J. 10, Carnegie Tech 0.

Walter Eckersall in his comments on the various football teams has this to say of Nebraska: "The Nebraska eleven showed the proper spirit and after defeats by Illinois and Oklahoma came back strong and won from Colgate. Associated Press reports of the Nebraska-Colgate game attributed Nebraskas success to the fine work done by her line. They also gave Tryon of Colgate a great deal of credit for his lone touchdown against the Huskers."

In addition to the games already mentioned the following important grid contests are carded for this week end:

Hobart at Colgate.
Louisiana State at Auburn.
Centre vs. West Virginia at New York.
Columbia at Williams.
Bucknell at Georgetown.
Alabama at Georgia Tech.
Fordham at Holy Cross.
