

EXPECT VICTORY FOR AMES TEAM

Cross-Country Squad Chosen to Win Annual Missouri Valley Meet.

DRAKE STADIUM WILL BE SCENE OF CONTEST

Ames, after a decisive victory over Oklahoma and Drake in a triangular meet, again rules as favorite to win the annual Missouri Valley cross-country run to be held at Des Moines next Saturday. More than a hundred runners will represent the nine Valley schools and the smaller colleges when they line up for the start at the Drake stadium during the Kansas-Drake game Saturday. It will be one of the biggest cross-country meets ever held in the Valley.

Ames is noted for its distance runners and has won the annual harrier classic for many years. Captain McIntyre, winner of the race last fall at Kansas, is leading another strong squad of distance men. Drake, winner of the dual with Grinnell, placed second, and Oklahoma had to be content with last even though Rutherford, the Sooner captain, won the race. Grinnell by virtue of their defeat over Minnesota, has a strong team. Kansas Aggies have two victories to their credit this fall over the Missouri and Kansas hill-and-dale teams. In fact the K. S. A. C. should be able to give Ames the big race for first.

Missouri Is Strong.

Though defeated by the Kansas Aggie team, Missouri has some great material for a strong team in Pittinger, Paoge, and Edide. Missouri took second place last fall with these three runners in the lineup. Nebraska is more or less of a doubtful quantity. Oklahoma handed the Husker squad a defeat the first meet of the season but in the next race the Scarlet and Cream aggregation easily defeated Kansas. Washington U. has not been heard of so far this fall.

James Lewis, Husker runner has made the best individual time this fall with a 26-minute, 2-second race to his credit in the five miles. Lewis has been slightly ill the past week so his chances in the classic Saturday are doubtful. Kimport of the Kansas Aggie team has been winning his races this fall with apparent ease. The Oklahoma star, Rutherford, has in winning first, so that the front not as yet experienced any difficulty positions will be hotly contested throughout the race. Among the first ten men to finish the meet last fall, who are running again this season, and the way they placed are:

McIntyre, Ames, first; Bierbaum, Ames, second; Zimmerman, Nebraska, seventh; Pittinger, Missouri, tenth.

Ag Football Team To Play Saturday

The Ag College football team will play the American Business College team of Omaha, Saturday afternoon at three o'clock, on the Agricultural College field. The Ag team is coached by Rufus Dewitz and is made up of men registered in the College of Agriculture. Most of these men are not of varsity caliber but are anxious to get some athletic training. Several of the freshmen who are playing on the Ag team will go out for varsity next year. The Aggies have won games from Cotner College and from the University of Omaha, and lost one game to York College, this season. Admission to the game will be fifty cents.

PRACTICE IS MADE SECRET

Dawson Rules Even Reporters from Football Workouts until November 15.

SQUAD IS FREE OF SERIOUS INJURIES

Varsity football practice was declared absolutely secret by Head Coach Fred Dawson Tuesday night. Newspaper men were among those excluded from practice by the Cornhusker mentor. This rule will hold good until after the Notre Dame game, Nov. 15, according to the coach.

The Huskers came out of the Missouri game last Saturday without any serious injuries, although Captain Ed Weir is at present carrying a bad muscle bruise on his leg and Myers, fullback, has been unable to take part in the heavy work because of a wrenched knee. Moslem and Collins also have minor injuries but should be in shape in a few days. It is safe to assume that the Nebraska coach will leave nothing unturned in his preparation to meet Knute Rockne's Irish at South Bend, Nov. 15. It is for this reason that he has declared practice absolutely secret until after the Notre Dame game.

The fact that the Huskers have no game to prepare for this Saturday, and Notre Dame will be playing Wisconsin is taken as a reason by some sport writers why the Huskers will be the most feared opponents that the Irish will have to meet this year.

Just what Rockne's policy will be in preparing his team for the Nebraska game, is not known, but one thing is sure, the Notre Dame coach is going to use everything he has in an attempt to stem the Husker tide.

Gridiron Encounters of Last Week Result in Little Spilling of Dope

The dope bucket must have been hung high out of reach last Saturday, for in only a few instances were there any great amount of dope spilled. Nebraska in winning from Missouri by a 14 to 6 score, piled up just enough lead to show the difference between themselves and the conquerors of Chicago, Illini and the famous "Red" Grange were true to form and won from Iowa, while the Michigan eleven, slated to win over the Minnesota Gophers, turned the trick, 13 to 0.

The "Golden Bears" from California U. mingled with the University of Southern California eleven, and after a magnificent battle, Andy Smith's men came off 6 to 0 victors. Notre Dame defeated Georgia Tech in the Irish homecoming game, 35 to 3. Coach Rockne, following his usual custom started the game with subs, and it was at this time that the southern eleven scored. After the Irish mentor had sent in his regulars the Georgia Tech team were completely outplayed.

A number of close games were played in eastern football circles, two of the hardest contests being between Pitt and Syracuse, and Yale and Army. Both games ended in 7 to 7 ties. Pennsylvania continued with a clean slate by winning from Lafayette 6 to 3. Penn and Rutgers are now the only important eastern teams which have not suffered a defeat or a tie game, so far this season.

The defeat of the strong Marquette eleven on its own field by Creighton "Hiltoppers" by a decisive 21 to 7 score, brands the Creighton team as strong contenders for championship honors in their conference. Earlier in the season Marquette defeated Navy 21 to 3.
