Nebraska Men Plan Traditional Affair to Honor Gridsters.

COMMITTEE PREPARING ELABORATE PROGRAM

Nebraska's annual Cornhusker banquet will be given this year at the Scottish Rite Temple December 12, according to preliminary plans being worked out now.

Plans for the celebration call for several orchestras and many speakers. It is the idea this year to provide many short speeches instead of only a few long ones.

The banquet is a big feature of the social calendar and is held each year after the close of the football season. Its object is to fete the football team and coaches.

The banquet has become a tradition at Nebraska. Last year motion pictures were shown of the Notre Dame game and representatives of the team, faculty, and coaches spoke.

Harvard Freshmen In Favor of Hazing

Hazing was approved by an overwhelming majority in the Harvard University freshman discussion group recently. The theory advanced was that sophomore-freshman rivalry tended to unify the entering class and help stamp out indifference.

SIMPSON PLAYS WESLEYAN TODAY

University Students Will Be Admitted On Season Tickets.

Many University students will attend the Nebraska Wesleyan-Simpson college football game in the Stadium today at 2 o'clock as a part of the Armistice day program.

The game is said to be one of the best on the Wesleyan schedule. Simpson college, at Indianola, Iowa, has not been defeated this season and is one of the strongest teams in its conference.

The advance ticket sale for the game has been good, and a delegation from Simpson has been provided for. A special train will make the trip from Indianola to Lincoln.

OPEN GATES FOR FINAL PRACTICE

Varsity Will Clash With Freshmen In Practice Game.

A practice game between the Varsity and the Freshman gridiron teams will be staged in the Memorial Stadium at 4:30 Wednesday afternoon.

The gates will be open to the public. The Freshmen have been using Irish plays against the first team in the scrimmages this week.

This will be the last workout the Varsity will have before entraining for South Bend Thursday.

"We want every student to see this game," Coach Dawson declared. "If the students are there and cheering for the team it will do wonders to bring the fighting spirit to its peak."

WIN BIBLE CERTIFICATES

Several university students completed the course in Bible study given at the city Y. M. C. A. last winter and were awarded international certificates at a banquet given by the board of directors of the Lincoln association last week.

UNIVERSITY OF FLORIDA—Flo Ziegfeld, the renowned connoisseur of feminine beauty, will act as judge for the beauty section of the 1924-25 Seminole, University of Florida yearbook.

The Will to Win

We have the team. We have the spirit. We have THE WILL TO WIN.

Notre Dame has swept the east and the midwest for the third successive year. The chance is ours next Saturday once more to demonstrate the heights to which Nebraska football elevens can rise.

Last year, on the day we met Notre Dame, our team was invincible—unconquerable. Nebraska had made, up to that time, only a mediocre record.

Nebraska—the team—fights hard, because there is an enthusiastic student body with the highest confidence in its team.

The energy of the thousands of loyal Cornhuskers is centered on the rally Wednesday evening—almost the last chance they will have to carry to the team the spirit that triumphed over the "fighting Irish" last year.

ANNUAL OFFERS SALES AWARDS

Cornhusker Will Give Individual and Sorority Prizes In Contest.

ALL WOMEN ELIGIBLE IN NEW COMPETITION

Prizes will be awarded the five highest individuals and the two highest sororities or other organizations competing in the sales campaign for the 1925 Cornhusker to be held from November 17 to 21, according to an announcement made Monday by the business manager, Robert Lang, '26, Wymore.

A recent ruling by the Women's Pan-Hellenic Association makes it possible for sororities to enter the contest. This ruling repudiated the previous action of the association discouraging sororities from taking part in sales drives.

Dormitories and organized rooming houses may also compete for the prizes. Any woman attending the University of Nebraska may enter the individual competition.

The exact nature of the prizes offered was not announced but it is understood that they will be valuable, useful articles.

The price of the Cornhusker will be $4.50, the same that it was last year. The entire amount may be paid at the time of purchase or a first payment of $2.50 may be made and the balance paid when the book is delivered.

If 3,500 copies of the annual are sold a refund of fifty cents will be made to all those who paid the full purchase price of $4.50.

Each organization competing in the drive will appoint one girl who will take charge of her group. She will be responsible for seeing that the sales books are checked in each night so that the standings in the contest can be announced in The Daily Nebraskan each morning.

A large section giving a pictorial story of campus events during the year will be one of the features of the book.

ARTIST TO VISIT LINCOLN

Patterson Will Exhibit Paintings Here For Two Weeks.

Howard Ashman Patterson of Denver, Colorado, well-known painter in oils, is coming to Lincoln about November 20 to give a two weeks' exhibit of his own paintings.

According to Professor P. H. Grummam, Mr. Patterson has painted with great success in the southwest, and is much interested in that semi-arid country. He has also made a study of the ceremonials of the Indians.

AG STUDENTS ARRANGE TOUR

Will Inspect Becker Farm and Give Demonstration at Denton.

ENGINEERING SOCIETY IN CHARGE OF PLANS

An inspection and demonstration trip is planned by the Agricultural Engineers, student society of the agricultural engineering department, for next Thursday evening, November 13.

The next stop will be at Denton, where several demonstrations will be made in the Denton Hall. The following demonstrations will be made: Timing the valves on a stationary engine, trouble shooting on a magnet, adjusting the knotter on a binder, soldering, saw filing, head light adjusting.

The American Society of Agricultural Engineers pays all of the expenses of the trip and puts on the demonstrations. Any student of the Agricultural College or of the Engineering College who is interested is invited to go and arrangements can be made by calling the agricultural engineering department before 5 o'clock, Wednesday evening.

Fifty-nine students had signed up to go at noon last Saturday. If the farmers appreciate the efforts of these students, other meetings may be held later in other parts of the country.

DAWSON PRAISES NOTRE DAME TEAM

Nebraska Coach Says His Team Has Spirit That Is Unbeatable.

"The game is never over until the last whistle blows. We are not conceding anything, and we have a spirit that is unbeatable."

This was the statement of Coach Fred T. Dawson Monday evening. He also commented on the Notre Dame team, which he saw in action Saturday against Wisconsin.

"Notre Dame has the finest team I ever saw. It works like clock-work. The men are experienced, fast and well-balanced. The defense is beautiful. The men are not light, but sturdy. They will outweigh our team, I believe."

"In spite of the fact that several regulars are not in good shape, our team will show a great deal of courage and put up a splendid, manly fight. Never for one minute do we concede that we are beaten."

Meals Average Less Than Thirty Cents at University Cafeteria

Approximately nine hundred meals are served daily at the Temple cafeteria, at an average of 29.2 cents each according to Mrs. Louise Vining, manager.

The cafeteria is owned and operated by the University of Nebraska for the benefit of those connected with the institution. The patronage of outsiders is accepted but not solicited.

The aim of the Temple cafeteria is to provide a variety of wholesome, well-cooked food at a lower rate than is charged elsewhere.

HARTLEY WILL TALK AT RALLY

Former Husker Captain to Share Speaking Honors With Dawson.

FOOTBALL TEAM LEAVES THURSDAY FOR INDIANA

Harold "Chic" Hartley, '23, captain of Nebraska's Missouri Valley championship football team which defeated Notre Dame in 1922, will be the principal speaker at the Notre Dame rally in the Armory tomorrow evening at 7 o'clock.

Nebraska's "Fighting Cornhuskers" will be introduced to the students for the first time since the Illinois game and the University band, which will accompany the team to Notre Dame, will be on hand.

The Nebraska squad will entrain Thursday for South Bend, to keep an engagement in that city for the great game of the season. Rallies for the annual Notre Dame game have always been the biggest of each year and it is expected that this one will be no exception.

The only two opportunities students will have to give the team a good send-off will be at the rally and the departure Thursday. The rally is the only means of the year. Monroe "Duke" Gleason, head cheerleader, is intent on raising the roof off the Armory.

"I want every real Cornhusker who wants to see his team win this, perhaps the hardest and most desirable game of the season, to be out there at that rally," said Coach Dawson. "You who can't go along will have to do this to show us that we've got a bunch back here waiting for a victory."

PLAN SEND-OFF FOR CORNHUSKERS

Students to Give Demonstration As Team Leaves for South Bend.

Nebraska will send off its football team at 4 o'clock Thursday afternoon at the Chicago & Northwestern railway station, Ninth and S streets. The send-off, following the rally Wednesday evening, is expected by many to be the largest demonstration of its kind ever staged.

The impression on the team, cheerleaders say, depends solely on the size and spirit of the crowd. They believe that the remembrance of the exceedingly poor showing when the squad left for Oklahoma will serve to make the crowd a large one.

Classes will not be excused, but it is thought that there are enough students who do not have classes at that hour to make a good showing.

UNIVERSITY OF KANSAS—November 26, the day before Thanksgiving, has been authorized as "Hobo Day." Meth-eaten, worn-out, ragged and torn bits of clothing will be the order of the day.
