

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE—The all-college record for peanut rolling was broken here recently when the winner of the annual event rolled a goober around the standard course in exactly nine minutes. The former record was established four years ago and was twenty minutes.

OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY—3000 students are expected to make the trip from here to Champaign, Illinois, to see the gridiron clash between Illinois and Ohio State. 7500 tickets were sent to Columbus from Illinois.

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE—Stunts by the housemothers, unusual dance programs, and a prize waltz are some of the features arranged by the committee in charge of the annual co-ed masquerade.

UNIVERSITY OF ARIZONA—The detailed account of the money of the University for the past year shows that approximately $1000 is expended on each student in the University of Arizona. This amount includes everything from postage stamps to an experimental well. Two-thirds of the amount was spent in salaries. $36,000 worth of food was consumed in the year, $21,000 worth of books and $10,000 worth of paper was used to satisfy the craving for knowledge.

OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY—Senior men staged the first annual "Kid's Frolic" here last week. After two hours of playing leap-frog, marbles, and other games of the past, prizes were awarded to the wearers of the best costumes.

Dean W. E. Sealock gave the chief address at the dedication of the new junior high school at Fairbury Wednesday evening.
