

SPORTS WEEKLY IS PUBLISHED

Eckersall Reviews Grid Race; Recognizes Missouri as Champions.

DEVOTED TO INTERESTS OF VALLEY ATHLETICS

The opening number of Missouri Valley Sports, a weekly publication devoted to the interests of Missouri Valley athletics, was issued Friday at Kansas City and will be distributed on the campus.

An article by Walter Eckersall, famous Chicago sports writer reviewing the 1924 Missouri Valley grid race, is a feature of the issue. Eckersall recognizes Missouri as grid champions of the season in his article. Captain Ed Weir and "Choppy" Rhodes of the Cornhuskers are placed on the first All-Missouri Valley teams of both McBride and Cochrane, Kansas City sports writers, whose selections for the Valley mythical eleven are published in the first issue of the Valley athletic publication.

The complete 1925 Valley basketball schedule is among the features of the opening number. Other outstanding articles are "The Sportlight" by Grantland Rice, a story of the career of "Tug" Wilson, director of athletics at Drake, and a story of the point-scoring of leading Valley grid warriors during the past season.

Missouri Valley Sports is issued every Friday at Kansas City and will cover all branches of valley athletics. The paper is similar to the "Big Ten Weekly," the athletic publication of that conference.

Marion Woodard and Howard Buffett are Nebraska representatives of the publication. They are taking subscriptions for the magazine, which is $2.50 a year, or ten cents per single copy.

TEAMS READY TO CLASH IN SECOND ROUND TUESDAY

high score. The Alpha Sigs showed a better offense in the last half and pulled away from their opponents; the final count was 14 to 3.

Acacia Beats Pi Kaps. Acacia looked good against the Pi Kappa Phi quintet but showed many rough spots. Their superiority over the Pi Kaps was undoubted, but the losers played miserably all the time. Toft, an Acacia, led his teammates with six goals. Omega Beta Pi won decisively over Alpha Theta Chi by a score of 24-8. The winners were practically assured of victory throughout the contest. What little defense Alpha Theta Chi had, crumbled during the second half and their opponents stepped out in front with long strides.

Kappa Sigma in defeating the Phi Alpha Deltas showed some good teamwork and a fair defense. Hill, guard, counted five goals for a majority of his team's points. The P. A. D.'s showed little stuff and did a great deal of roughing. The last battle was the most replete with fouls. Grace of the Silver Lynx team is still high-point man of the tourney with sixteen points to his credit. Toft, Acacia, Andreason, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, and Dickey, Phi Delta Chi, are tied for second honors with twelve points apiece.
