

THE DAILY NEBRASKAN

VOL. XXIV—NO. 77.

THE UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA, LINCOLN, NEBRASKA, SUNDAY, JANUARY 25, 1925.

PRICE 5 CENTS

APPOINT FAIR COMMITTEES

Manager Culbertson Names Chairmen for Annual Farmers' Fair.

PREPARATIONS START FOR AFFAIR ON MAY 2

Farmers' Fair committees have been announced by Joseph Culbertson, '25, Sioux City, Nebraska, manager. Preparations will be started at once for the affair to be held May 2.

The Fair Board members are: Nat Tolman, '25, Lincoln, assistant manager; Loyal Rulla, '25, Lincoln, secretary; Raymond Swallow, '25, Lincoln, treasurer; Leona Davis, '25, Lincoln, Betty Bosserman, '26, Lincoln, Alice Slama, '27, Paxton, Home Economics. The general committee to arrange for exhibits is: Chauncey Smith, T. H. Gooding, E. B. Engle, C. W. Ackerson, R. A. Braun, Don Whelan, L. V. Skidmore, Mason Yerkes, William Fox.

Committee chairmen are: Hugh McLaughlin, parade; Glen Buck, publicity; Frank Hunton, guide book; Nathaniel Foote, purchasing; Dan Siebold and Genevieve Freeman, materials; Jay Heppery, construction; Walter Tolman, transportation; Orlando Bare, police; Dick Rogers, tickets; Amos Gramlich and Frances Weintz, concessions; George Beadle, signs; Alfred Engle, Snorphem; James Barnes, dance; Russell Kendall, wild west; Glen Dunlap, Yellow Dog; Dorsey Barnes, Monte Carlo; John Pospisil and Della Caster, barbecue and doughnuts; Ester Eisenbarth, pageant; Honor Oschner, band.

Other committees will be announced later.

WILLIAMS EXTENDS THANKS FOR GAVEL

Engineers Give Silver-mounted Walnut Token to Lieutenant-governor.

Lieutenant-governor Geo. A. Williams extends appreciation in a letter to Dean O. J. Ferguson of the College of Engineering for a silver-mounted walnut gavel produced in the woodwork division of the department of mechanical engineering. This gavel is one of three presented to the president pro tem of the Senate, the lieutenant-governor, and the speaker of the House of Representatives in accordance with the biennial custom of the College of Engineering. The letter follows:

January 21, 1925.
To the Engineering Department of the State University,
Lincoln, Nebraska.

I desire to extend to you this morning my sincere gratitude for the expression so kindly extended by your department to me through State Senator Clark Jeary in the gift of a gavel, for use as president of the Senate of Nebraska.

I am reminded again how inadequate are words to express the sentiments and emotions of the heart, but I desire to assure you of my sincere appreciation of your very thoughtful kindness and I hope you will believe that this gavel presented to me shall be used for no other purpose than to carry out the principle of justice and fair dealing.

I shall be very pleased to have any of your department call upon me at any time.

Sincerely yours,
GEORGE A. WILLIAMS,
Lieutenant-Governor.

INSTALL AMPLIFYING DEVICE

Nebraska Men Correct Acoustic Properties at State House.

University men and materials were utilized by the House of Representatives of the State Legislature to correct the acoustic properties of Representative Hall. Prof. T. T. Smith of the department of physics assisted in planning the improvements which were carried out, under the direction of L. F. Seaton, operating superintendent and purchasing agent, by O. A. Ellis, superintendent of buildings, R. R. Saxson, assistant purchasing agent, and John Gunnarson, foreman of the woodworking department. Large curtains were strung below the west balcony and a deflector was placed above the speaker's desk. R. A. Cushman of the University's broadcasting station installed electrical amplifying devices.

Condra Speaks Before State Fair Association

Dr. George E. Condra, director of the conservation and survey division, spoke before the State Fair Association Wednesday evening, showed pictures of the Fair, and explained the Fair's relation to state development.

RETURNS FROM WASHINGTON

DeBaufre Discusses Arrangements For New Helium Plant.

Professor W. L. DeBaufre, chairman of the department of mechanical engineering, returned last week from a short trip to New York and Washington. The purpose of his trip was to discuss arrangements for the installation of a helium-producing plant at Fort Worth.

The larger pieces of equipment have been contracted for and a few have already been delivered. Installation is to be begun at once. The purpose of the plant is to reduce the cost of producing helium for the army and navy.

SCHEDULE TIME TO PAY SEMESTER FEES

Bursar Will Receive Money at Army; Sets Late Fee of Three Dollars.

Following is the schedule by which students will pay their fees for the second semester:

Monday and Tuesday.
Students in the Colleges of Agriculture, Dentistry, Pharmacy, Engineering, Law, and Teacher's.

Wednesday and Thursday.
Students in the Colleges of Business Administration and Arts and Sciences, including those in the Schools of Fine Arts and Journalism and Pre-Medical, Pre-Dental, and Pre-Law students.

Friday and Saturday.
New students.

All fees will be paid in the Army which will be open for that purpose from 9 to 4 o'clock each day except Saturday when it will be open from 9 to 12 o'clock.

A late fee of three dollars will be charged all students who do not pay their fees at the specified time. Graduate students will pay their fees in Administration 102.

Examinations Will Consume One Week

Semester examinations at the University of Nebraska in all the colleges will consume Monday-Friday of this week. The examinations in the College of Law (four hours instead of two) started Friday.

Within ten days after the close of the examination period, the instructors will report the students' standing. Those students who are "Failed," "Conditioned" or "Incomplete" will be referred to the scholarship committee.

PLANS NEW LABORATORY

Course Allows Option of Substituting Assignments on Daily Nebraskan.

PROF. FOGG ANNOUNCES ADVERTISING ADDITION

Practical experience in advertising—in advertisement writing and selling—for Journalism, Business Administration, and other students on the business staff of The Daily Nebraskan will be offered beginning the second semester in connection with the course in Advertisement Writing (Economics 132) conducted by Prof. A. G. Hinman, according to announcement on the Student Publication bulletin board Saturday by Prof. M. M. Fogg, director of the School of Journalism and chairman of the Student Publication Board.

Students in that course will have the option of substituting assignments on The Daily Nebraskan for other written assignments given the class. Carbon copies of the advertisements they write for sale to Lincoln merchants will be submitted to Professor Hinman for criticism and

(Continued on Page Three.)

350 AT ANNUAL BIZAD BANQUET

Dean LeRossignol Acts as Toastmaster at Dinner in Chamber of Commerce.

LeROSSIGNOL, SEARSON, AVERY, RHODES SPEAK

Nearly 350 students in the College of Business Administration attended the third annual banquet of the college at the Chamber of Commerce Friday evening. "It is a good evening. I am glad to have been here. There is a fine representation from the College. It is the most successful banquet we have ever had," declared J. E. LeRossignol, Dean of the College, just before it closed.

"The products of the College will make or mar its reputation," declared Chancellor Avery, in responding to his toast, "The College of Business Administration from the Top." "You are early products of one of the newer colleges of the University. There is a special challenge confronting you, not only from your friends and personal pride, but from the College, to try to make good to the utmost when you are graduated and enter the business world."

"The men of commerce and trade rate the training you receive in the college very highly, placing more value on it than on any other such training in the United States," began James Searson, of the University Publishing Company, in his toast upon "The Bizad College from the Outside."

He cited instances of the practicing of the Golden Rule in business, as evidenced by the numerous civic clubs which are internationally organized. After telling of the experiences of men seeking to establish such organizations in cities in the Old World, where the motto "Let Purchasers Beware" prevails, he urged the students of the college to play the game fairly and squarely in

(Continued on Page Three.)

Twenty-Four File For Nebraskan Positions

Twenty-four students have filed as candidates for appointment for the second semester to the editorial and the business staffs of The Daily Nebraskan—an unusually large number. The Student Publication Board will meet this week to consider the evidence as to the qualifications of the applicants for the various positions—editor, managing editor, news editor, assistant news editors, business manager, assistant business manager, and circulation manager.

TO ORGANIZE FOUNDATION

Presbyterian Students Meet to Consider Establishment at Nebraska.

OFFERS OPPORTUNITY FOR RELIGIOUS ACTIVITY

A representative group of seventeen Presbyterian students who are active in campus activities and young people's organizations in the churches of the city met Thursday noon at the Grand hotel at the invitation of Dr. Dean R. Leland, University student pastor, to consider the establishment of the Westminster Foundation at the University of Nebraska. John Allison, '26, Lincoln, president of the Pan-Presbyterian club, presided at the meeting.

The idea of the Westminster Foundation is to give opportunities for religious instruction and activity for students through co-operation with the religious organizations of the University and the local churches. It is a representative body of the Presbyterian churches of the state, working in co-operation with the Board of

(Continued on Page Three.)

LEAGUE ELECTS OFFICERS

Lutheran Bible Members Meet to Adopt Constitution.

The Lutheran Bible League of the University of Nebraska met Wednesday evening to adopt a new constitution and elect officers for the new semester. The constitution which was necessary to suit the fast growing league, was drawn up by Ervin A. Jones.

The following officers were elected: Ervin A. Jones, president; Selma Vahl, vice president; Alene Finke, secretary; and Ruth Schrank, treasurer.

The League is sponsored by Reverend H. Erek, the Lutheran University pastor.

PLANS FOR CHARTER DAY ARE UNDER WAY

To Give Annual Program February 16 Consisting of Speeches and Music.

Plans for the annual Charter day program of the University, Monday, February 16, are well under way, according to officials of the Alumni Association. The program will consist of selections by the University band and orchestra and the women's octette and men's quartet; speeches by Chancellor Samuel Avery, Director of Athletics Fred Dawson, Coach Henry F. Schulte, and a number of "old-timers" on the faculty.

All local clubs of Nebraska alumni are planning to meet that night to "listen in" on the program which will be sent by long distance telephone to Hastings where it will be broadcast from the Westinghouse station. Local alumni clubs will also hold business meetings and elections of new officers that night. The University Charter day actually comes Sunday, February 15, but the program was changed to February 16 to avoid exercises on Sunday.

SPONSOR LIST IS ANNOUNCED

Seventeen Women Selected by Lieutenant-colonel, Majors and Captains.

LIEUTENANT-COLONEL NAMES HONOR WOMEN

The list of sponsors for the University of Nebraska R. O. T. C. issued yesterday by Lieutenant-Colonel Emmet V. Maun, '25, Laurel. Four battalion sponsors and all company sponsors complete the list, including the Regimental sponsor selected by the Lieutenant-Colonel.

All sponsors selected will take an active part in the annual "compet," and are presented to their units on that day. Their pictures will appear in the Cornhusker with those of their companies.

The following University women were selected by the Lieutenant-Colonel, Majors, and Captains:

- Regimental sponsor—Marjorie Bell, '25, Lincoln.
- First battalion—Virginia Cornish, '27, Lincoln.
- Second battalion—Frances Ruth Hawkins, '28, St. Joseph, Mo.
- Third battalion—Helen Simpson, '27, Casper.
- Headquarters company—Vera Jorgenson, '26, Lincoln.
- Company A—Katherine Johnson, '27, Fremont.
- Company B—Neva Jones, '25, Neola, Iowa.
- Company C—Alice Purcell, '28, Broken Bow.
- Company D—Florence Enyeart, '26, Hay Center.
- Company E—Blossom Hilton, '28, Lincoln.
- Company F—Grace Lavelly, '26, Corning, Iowa.
- Company G—Florence Counce, '28, Hayes Center.
- Company H—Edith Cook, '25, Lowell.
- Company I—Mary Louise Walsh, '27, Lead, So. Dak.
- Company K—Ruby Teaters, '27, Hyannis.
- Company L—Edna Kent, '26, McCook.
- Company M—Nancy Haggard, '26, Cheyenne, Wyo.

WEDNESDAY IS LAST DAY FOR PICTURES

Seniors in Lists Given Below and Those Omitted Should Meet Appointments.

Wednesday—just three days in the future—is the last day on which seniors can be photographed for the Cornhusker at either Townsend's or Hauck's studio.

In addition to those whose names begin with W, Y, and Z, any seniors whose names have been omitted from the assignment lists published daily in The Daily Nebraskan, or who have for any reason been unable to keep their appointments, should report at Hauck's or Townsend's if they wish their pictures to appear in the Cornhusker.

Following is the list for Monday:

Townsend Studio.
Whittier, Lamont; Whitworth, Arthur; Webbles, Harold; Weideburg, William; Weigund, Eunice; Wiggenhorn, Barbara; Wild, Ethel; Weid, Dorothy; Wilkins, Margaret; Wilkie, Mabelle; Williams, Edwin; Williams, Martin; Williams, Rosanna; Wilson, John; Wilson, Wendell; Winkle, Vernon; Wing, Merle; Wshart, Donald; Witte, Ernest; Wochner, Violet; Wood, George; Woodard, Darleen; Wray, Ward; Wright, William; Wythers, Besse; Yates, Ray; Yoder, Marion; York, Nina; Yost, Charles; Yort, Bessie; Young, Goldie; Yu Lian, Woo; Zellers, George; Ziegenbien, Rudolph; Zimmerman, Paul; Zimmerman, Otto; Zust, Dorothy; Zutter, LaVada.

SPONSORS ANNUAL FETE DAY

University to Determine High School Scholastic Leaders.

Examinations in twenty-seven subjects of high-school curricula will determine the scholastic leaders of Nebraska in the third annual contests sponsored by the University on High School Fete Day, May 9. Preliminary contests will be held Saturday, April 26, in each district of the Nebraska State Teachers Association at the discretion of the participating schools to choose not to exceed five students who shall represent that district in each subject, with the provision that no more than two students may represent each high school in a particular subject. Uniform questions will be furnished by the University for these preliminary examinations. Complete information may be got from the office of Prof. A. A. Reed, director of the University Extension Division.

LEFT TO RIGHT; (top row)—Marjorie Bell; Helen Simpson; Frances Hawkins; Virginia Cornish. (Second row)—Vera Jorgenson; Nancy Haggard; Ruby Teaters; Mary Louise Walsh; Edith Cook. (Third row)—Florence Counce; Grace Lavelly; Blossom Hilton; Neva Jones; Florence Enyeart. (Fourth row)—Katherine Johnson; Alice Purcell; Edna Kent.