

TO INVESTIGATE SELF-SUPPORT

Will Ascertain Number of Students Working for All or Part of Education.

UNIVERSITY OFFICIALS PLAN QUESTIONNAIRES

Questionnaires, the answers to which will be given by all students in the University, from which statistics the percentage of self-support of students will be figured, will be circulated in Wednesday classes by instructors.

In accordance with the statement issued by Chancellor Avery urging cooperation of the students and faculty in the securing of the figures, general sentiment seems to be highly in favor of the plan, according to those in charge.

Individual answers will not be investigated, and, since no signatures are asked or required, identification of writers will be virtually impossible. Statistics will be compiled from the entire mass of answers, and not from selected material. No students are forced to answer the questions, but are urged to do so in as accurate a manner as possible, in order that definite knowledge of the percentage of self-supporting students may be made up. A similar plan inaugurated in the College of Law a few weeks ago proved highly successful. More than half the members of the college were found to be self-supporting.

No questions will be circulated among the student body. All lists of questions will be in the hands of instructors. Instructors will inquire of the members of their classes throughout the day if there are any who have not had opportunity to answer the questions, and will give them opportunity if they desire it. Students are urged to adhere strictly to the numbering system, in order that checking and listing the results may be facilitated. Answers to questions will be turned in to instructors, who will turn in the group answers to the Registrar. Compilation of the statistics will be completed as soon as possible.

Students are urged to prepare their answers beforehand by using the following list, in order that as little time as possible will be taken from classes:

1. Are you entirely supported by parents or friends?
2. Are you wholly or partially self-supporting? A. Wholly self-supporting? Note: If it is your own money you are using to defray your expenses, or money you have borrowed and are under legal obligations to repay, you are wholly self-supporting. B. Partially self-supporting?
3. State, in rough approximation, what proportion of your support during this college year is derived from the following sources:
A. Parents or friends. B. Wages received as a result of your own endeavor before entrance in the University. C. Wages earned during the last summer vacation. D. Wages received from labor during the whole college year. E. Money borrowed which you are under legal obligation to return. Note: The total of the above five classes should be one hundred per cent. If not, indicate by note the source of the balance. If you are receiving "room and board," or any other particular item from parents or labor, estimate its proportion to your expenses for the college year.
4. What are your approximate expenses for the college year?
5. If you are engaged in putting yourself through college, how many hours, approximately, do you spend per week on such labor during the school year?
6. What is the nature of outside work, if any?
7. What is the occupation of your parents? Note: If they are not alive, state their occupation prior to their decease.
8. Sex?
9. In what college in the University are you entered?
10. What is your major subject?
11. To what class do you belong?
12. How many hours of University work are you carrying?

Extension Division Publishes Booklet

The Extension division of the University has published a booklet of outline questions on the literary values of Chaplin's "Five Hundred Dollars," and other stories for use by teachers in the state. The booklet, prepared by Prof. F. A. Staff, will be distributed at fifteen cents each copy. This is the seventh of a series of lesson plans which have been published by the University. They have received wide demand and are generally used by high-school English teachers in the state.

Announce Three Million Dollar Guggenheim Memorial Foundation

Ex-Senator Provides for Research by Men and Women of Proved Ability.

Announcement was made Monday of a preliminary gift of three million dollars by Simon Guggenheim, former United States senator from Colorado, and his wife, for the endowment of the John Simon Guggenheim Memorial Foundation Fellowships for advance study abroad.

The foundation is a memorial to the son of Senator and Mrs. Guggenheim, who died in 1922. It offers to young men and women world wide opportunities with the freest possible conditions to carry on advanced study and research in any field of knowledge, or opportunities for the development of unusual talent in any of the fine arts.

No age limits are prescribed. Appointees however, must be old enough to have shown marked ability in their particular subject. It is expected that ordinarily they will be not younger than twenty-five nor older than thirty-five years.

"I want to supplement the great Rhodes Foundation by providing a similar opportunity for older students of proved ability, and for women as well as men. Furthermore, I want to make it possible for these persons to carry on their studies in any country in the world where they can work most profitably," was the statement made by Mr. Guggenheim.

While it is expected that the fellowships will ordinarily be used for study in Europe, they may be used as well in other parts of the world, as, for example, the United States, Latin America, Australia or the Far East.

The fellowships are open not only to candidates engaged in research work along academic or artistic lines but also to those interested in the workings of foreign systems of government, in the study of social or business conditions or in productive scholarship in the fields of the vari-

WOMEN SHOOTERS IMPROVE RECORD

Increases Four-Position Score 52 Points for Week Ending Yesterday.

The Nebraska women's rifle team improved its four-position score 52 points last week. The new high team score is now 2995. The increase was made entirely in the more difficult positions of standing, sitting, and kneeling. The prone shooting was not as good as last week. The firing was against the University of West Virginia, Cincinnati, and Washington.

Complete reports for the firing which ended February 14 were received last week. The team suffered one defeat at the hands of the University of Vermont 927 to 919 and won a victory over the University of Montana 470 to 427.

Three schools forfeited their matches. Rippon college women's team has been disbanded for the year on account of sickness among team members. The State College of Washington asked for another match sometime in March. The Michigan Agricultural College forfeited, giving no reason. The match announced with Missouri University was a mistake and will take place in March.

I. Lawless led the shooting this week in the four-position matches. Her score was 321. K. Jensen was second with 318, and D. Abbott was third with 315.

The highest marks in the prone position were made by D. Abbott, 95; E. Kidwell, 82; and G. Foster 92. Miss Abbott also made the only score in the 90's in the sitting position where her mark was 96.

The ten member team four-position score:

|--------------|-------|
| I. Lawless | 321 |
| K. Jensen | 318 |
| D. Abbott | 315 |
| K. Kidwell | 314 |
| E. Cox | 304 |
| E. Stively | 302 |
| L. Reckmeyer | 293 |
| G. Foster | 282 |
| M. Hermanek | 280 |
| L. Bauer | 276 |
| Team Total | 2995 |
| Average | 299.5 |

The women's team is firing this week against four schools, the University of Nevada, University of Maine, University of Michigan, and the University of South Dakota.

Inhabitants of Frozen North Hear Jazz and Lecture through WFAV

On the lower Yukon, 150 miles from Bering Sea, and 40 miles from the nearest white people, Mrs. Inez E. Moore, Pilot Station, Alaska, "listened in" to University Broadcasting Station WFAV.

Fifty days were occupied in the journey of the letter to Operator R. A. Cushman; a fraction of a second was required in the transmission of the test program which Mrs. Moore heard so clearly on the evening of December 29.

"The colder the weather in the states," writes Mrs. Moore, "the better we get your programs, so we

NO NEW CASES ARE REPORTED

Believe That Danger of Smallpox Epidemic in University Is Over.

MANY STUDENTS RECEIVE INNOCULATION RECENTLY

No new cases of smallpox have been reported to the City Health office this week, and it is almost assured that there will be no epidemic in Lincoln. One pharmacy student attended classes after he had been infected with the disease, and exposed several hundred others, but the prompt action of the health officers and Dr. Lyman's force removed the danger.

"If no other cases are reported, it will be a miracle, and we are hoping for a miracle," said Dr. Lyman yesterday afternoon.

Up to date more than one thousand students and employees of the university have been vaccinated on the downtown campus, and over one hundred have received the inoculation at the College of Agriculture.

Students who have not been vaccinated yet should be at once at the Pharmacy building. A new shipment of vaccine has been received, and is ready for use.

DARTMOUTH UNIVERSITY

Twenty-five candidates for the rifle team reported for the first weekly tryout on the rifle range last week. Because of the large number, only thirteen were able to shoot. From these weekly tryouts several high-scoring men will be coached, and given an opportunity to compete with the varsity men.

really hope it doesn't get real warm out there." Mrs. Moore adds that, contrary to the general belief, the winter weather in the "frozen north" has seldom been below freezing temperature. Mrs. Moore is in charge of a school for natives; while her husband oversees two reindeer herds. With the exception of one "squaw man," there are no white families within 40 miles of Pilot Station, yet Mrs. Moore writes that they are in constant touch with the latest lectures, classical and jazz music through the agency of the radio.

REV. INGLIS WILL SPEAK

Students to Hear Third Lecture of Series, "Varying Views of Militarism."

MAY BUY TICKETS AT Y. W. C. A. OR Y. M. C. A.

"Trying to Get Somewhere" will be the subject of the Rev. E. T. Inglis, pastor of Vine Congregational church, in presenting the third attitude of the militarist movement at the World Forum luncheon Wednesday noon at the Grand Hotel.

"I do not hold a 'saddling' attitude toward this subject," declared the Rev. Mr. Inglis Monday evening. "The views I do hold are rather decided views, but I shall not speak of them until Wednesday."

The subject for this third feature on the series subject before the World Forum "Varying Views of Militarism" was previously announced to be "What to do About It," but, according to the Rev. Mr. Inglis, it was incorrectly announced.

Major Sidney Erickson, professor of military science and tactics in the University, addressed approximately 150 students at the luncheon last week on the subject "The Necessity for Preparedness." Dr. A. Bruce Curry, professor in the New York Biblical Institute, delivered the initial address of the series February 11, speaking of the attitude of "The New Loyalist."

The exact plans for further meetings are not definitely made, but it is thought that the same subject will be further considered.

Students desiring tickets may secure them at the offices of the University Y. W. C. A. in Ellen Smith Hall or University Y. M. C. A. in the Temple, or from any member of the committee. Robert Shields, '25, Wyomere, and Marial Flynn, '26, Ulysses, are joint chairmen of the committee. V. Royce West, '27, Cozad, is treasurer. Committee members are: Isabel Fletcher, Dorothy Withers, Herbert Frederick, Alex McKie, Douglas Orr, Julius Frandsen, Fred Chase, Roy Youngman.

DANCE FESTIVAL PRACTICES BEGIN

Women's Athletic Association Announces Arrangements for Rehearsals.

Practices for the annual dance festival given by the Women's Athletic Association started yesterday at 4 o'clock in the art gallery. The gymnasium is in use at every available hour during the day and the women are not able to practice there. Rehearsals will be held every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday until the middle of April, when there will be tryouts for the festival.

Three W. A. A. dance practices will be required for eligibility for tryouts. Any woman who is interested in this sport and is unable to practice in this regular practice hour, should see Dorothy Dougan, the W. A. A. dancing leader, and special arrangements will be made for her.

Plans are under way to make it possible to hold the festival in the Stadium this year. If that is done, the affair will be given sometime during commencement week.

OKLAHOMA A. AND M.—The three pep organizations here are working on the drive to raise money for the building of a stadium at that school. Each student is asked to pledge for two seats and the student body is backing the drive in a loyal manner.

Twenty-Five States Acknowledge Reception of Charter Day Program

Schenectady and Other Alumni Clubs Listen In From Distant States.

Telegrams from twenty-five states acknowledge the reception of the Charter Day program broadcast over Hastings Station KFKX from the University of Nebraska February 16, according to Harold Holtz, alumni secretary. Letters also are pouring into the office rapidly.

"Of the three years in which the Charter Day exercises have been broadcast, this is undoubtedly the most successful," commented Mr. Holtz. He attributed its success in part to the fact that broadcasting took place from a room without echo, whereas the acoustics in art hall and the electrical engineering laboratory, from which respectively the previous two years' programs had been sent, were less favorable.

Following is the list of states and the number of telegrams received from each:

Nebraska, 18; California, 7; Illinois, 7; Washington, 5; Texas, 4; South Dakota, 4; Idaho, 3; Montana, 2; New York, 3; Colorado, 2; Wyoming, 3; Alabama, 1; Arkansas, 1; New Jersey, 1; Iowa, 2; Pennsylvania, 1; Michigan, 1; Indiana, 1; Wisconsin, 2; Missouri, 3; Kansas, 2; Minnesota, 1; Ohio, 1; Oklahoma, 2; Tennessee, 1.

The Schenectady, N. Y., alumni club "listened in" to the program at the home of Mr. (24) and Mrs. (ex-'25) Howard E. Brookings.

"On account of bad weather conditions and excessive interference," writes Mr. Brookings, "some parts of the program came in better than others."

Dr. Paul R. Hickok, pastor of the Second Presbyterian church of Troy, New York, and former resident of Nebraska, was the principal speaker in the celebration of Charter Day at Schenectady. His father, Dr. Frank Hickok, was a pioneer. The speaker exhibited to the club a commission (Continued on Page Two.)

Alpha Gamma Rho, represented by Bushnell, Jensen, Ingalls, and Pressnell was sixth in 4:46:0. Seventh place is occupied by Phi Gamma Delta of Burke, Cronk, Tappan, and Glasgow who ran the eight laps in 4:46:4. Delta Sigma Lambda team, Dickey, Standard, Stangel, and Heacock, ran the distance in 4:59:9 for eighth position.

Several fraternities, not running yesterday, will compete in the remaining events of the relays. Coach Henry F. Schulte said yesterday that fraternities may still enter the relays today, and run the 8-lap relay this afternoon, in addition to the 2-lap relay on the program for this afternoon.

Teams running in the 2-lap relay race this afternoon are expected to be on hand at 4:15 if possible. Another heat will be run at 5:15 for those unable to compete at 4:15.

NEW DEPARTMENTS PREPARE FOR WORK

Sociology and Political Science Divisions Will Be Separate Next Year.

Although the actual split in the department of sociology and political science does not take place until September 1, both new divisions are preparing for the work next semester.

The new departments, authorized by the Board of Regents at the last meeting, after a petition had been given to Chancellor Avery by the faculty, are to be known as the department of sociology and the department of political science. Mrs. Hattie Plum Williams, now chairman of both departments will preside over the first. No chairman has been named as yet to head the political science division.

Both subjects are social sciences, but they are not closely related. They became united when Dr. George E. Howard came to Nebraska from Lehigh Stanford, and created the department as one.

They are being divided now because the size of each division is so large that it is thought better work can be done with two separate divisions. The change will make no outward appearance, as the classes will go on in the same way, and the instructors will remain in the same offices on the first floor of Social Science Building.

With the new change, both departments will be enabled to extend their scientific research work out into the state with greater ease. The sociology section is now establishing a branch in the College of Medicine at Omaha. Dr. Williams, chairman of the department, lectures there once a week.

Instructors in each department now are: Sociology—Hattie Plum Williams, Ph. D.; Hutton Webster, Ph. D.; George E. Howard, Ph. D.; Joyce O. Hertzler, Ph. D.; and Miss Merle Draper, instructor in sociology at Medicine, Omaha. Political Science—Leon E. Aylsworth, A. M.; Ralph S. Boots, Ph. D.; and John P. Senning, Ph. D.

It is possible that the faculty will be made larger in the future, and when that is done, more classes in both departments will be added to the list now offered.

Works on Special State Soil Problem

A. W. Goke of the United States Bureau of Soils is at the University of Nebraska on leave of absence for a year to finish his graduate work in the conservation and survey division and receive his degree of Master of Arts. He will work out a special problem in connection with Nebraska soils.

COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY—Seventy-five men turned out to greet Columbia University's new football coach, Crowley at a meeting of the candidates for next year's team. Crowley will carry on with the famous Houghton system which Percy Houghton introduced at Columbia two years ago.
