

UNI NIGHT IS BIG SUCCESS

Good Audiences Greet Players at Both Orpheum and Temple Theaters.

SCANDAL-MONGERING IS CHIEF PASTIME

Enthusiastic, applauding audiences greeted the annual presentation of University Night, stunt night and fun-fest sponsored by the University Y. M. C. A., at the Orpheum and Temple theaters Saturday evening.

"Is We or Ain't We," the Tassel act, symbolizing a hypothetical "swinging" party somewhere, with various and sundry campus characters imitated, with delving into the mysteries of scandal with the aid of two singing "school mams," was easily the headliner of the evening.

Corn-Cobs and Dramatic Club skits were exceptionally well received. Ireland and Young in their farcical Russian dance, Kelly and Crouse in the monkey fandango, and the well-trained chorus were the effective numbers of the Corn-Cob act.

The portrayal of a "typical" meeting of the Student Council, with imitation of members, and no little scandals uncovered by activity of the detective force, made up the lines of the Dramatic club skit.

"Where Men are Men and So are Women," curtain skit presented by Frank Mielenz, Lyle Holland, and Lois Butler, featuring the eccentric dancing and costume of the two who juggled together, scored greater applause than any other.

An orchestra act, "The Major-Minor Revue," with Harriett Cruise, "Al" Gould, "Sis" Champe, was a little out of the line of the rest of the program, being more in the character of straight vaudeville. It seemed to be a diverting and interesting act.

The Engineers act, with a representation of Eva Faye, and her wonder mind, was also one of scandal-mongering nature.

Judd Crocker and George Johnston in their curtain skit, "Mike and Ike—They Look the Same" had a circus of their own and ran rampant over the stage. Bill Norton and the Goat, the Prologue, led off the programs at both theaters. Showing of slides on which were printed bits of news about people everyone knows took up the time between acts.

Bennett S. Martin, '25, Oregon, Mo., was general chairman of the University Night committee. Clayton Goar, '26, Kansas, City, Mo., was business manager and Marion Woodward, '26, Shenandoah, Ia., was secretary.

RIFLE TEAM SCORE IS AGAIN LOWERED

Last Five Men to Fire Pull Down Average of Team Considerably.

The best five men shooting on the Nebraska rifle team last week failed to keep up the record made by the first five who fired, and as a result the team score for the week remained at 3604, the mark established the week before. An increase of seven points was made by the shooters in the top division of the Nebraska team, but the others fell down just that much below their marks of last week.

Harold Shafer, who established a new season record for the four-position shooting, was high man on the team with a score of 373. He was followed closely by E. L. Plotts who made a score of 372. Dale Skinner dropped to eighth place, and Mark Fair, who fired the first 100 prone of the season, failed to make the high-ten team on account of low scores in the kneeling and standing positions.

The firing was against the University of Nevada, Kansas Agricultural College, University of West Virginia, Knox College, and Culver Military Academy. Seventeen men competed during the week for places on the team.

The corps area shooting was completed last week, and the results for the four stages of firing will be published in the Daily Nebraskan Tuesday. Hearst trophy match firing will commence in the near future. Freshmen will be eligible.

The scores for last week follow:

Harold Shafer	373
E. L. Plotts	372
W. Lammi	370
D. P. Roberts	369
R. M. Currier	364
R. F. Russell	359
B. F. Kossek	356
Dale Skinner	355
D. D. Lewis	345
W. D. Dover	341
Team score	3604.
Average	360.4.

Dr. Meikeljohn's Wife Passes Away

Mrs. Nannine Meikeljohn, wife of Dr. Alexander Meikeljohn, former president of Amherst College, who lectured in Lincoln this winter, recently died at the Johns Hopkins University hospital, Baltimore, where she went last fall to undergo an operation. Dr. Meikeljohn was recently ill in California where he went from Lincoln on his lecture tour. He gave the Phi Beta Kappa oration at Nebraska in 1923.

LOCKE STAR OF ILLINOIS MEET

Wins Firsts in 75 and 300-Yard Dashes in Relays at Champaign.

WEIR AND RHODES ALSO IN SCORING

CHAMPAIGN, Ill., Feb. 28.—Roland Locke, Nebraska star, flashed to victory tonight in both the 75 and 100-yard dashes before a picked field at the eighth annual Illinois Relays.

Locke's time was fast, and in the qualifying rounds he tied the Illinois Relay record of seven and three-fifths seconds for the 75-yard dash.

Ed Weir, Nebraska's entry in the hurdle events, ran third in the 75-yard low hurdles and fourth in the highs, in the finals of those events. He placed first and second, respectively, in the first heats.

Choppy Rhodes pushed Norton, the Olympic star, hard to win the all-around event. Rhodes scored 5,246 points for a second place, only two hundred points behind Norton. Nebraska's medley relay team, the only runners entered in any of the eight relays, placed fourth.

FACULTY MEMBERS' WIVES ARE GUESTS

Iota Sigma Pi, Honorary Chemical Sorority, Entertains Friday.

Iota Sigma Pi, honorary chemical sorority, entertained for the wives of the faculty members of the chemistry department Friday evening at Chemistry Hall. The entertainment consisted of a one act comedy "Pokey Huntus," presented by the active members and a scandal sheet, which contained items about the faculty members. A two course lunch was served in the club room.

The following cast presented the comedy "Pokey Huntus":
Curtain—Gertrude Lynch.
Scene—Anne Davey.
North Wind—Nelle Laymon.
Squirrel—Frances Maynard.
Situation—Lucille De Camp.
John Smith—Viola Jelinek.
Pokey Huntus—Lucille Bliss.
Powder Can—Maude Cheuvront.
Holy Father—Maude Cheuvront.

The menu and the serving of the lunch imparted a little "chemical flavor" to the entertainment. A desiccator of jonquils formed the centerpiece; bunsen burners were used for candle holders; the olive dish was replaced by culture bottles; the nuts were in individual crucibles; filter papers were used as doilies; beakers took the place of water glasses; and the silverware consisted of porcelain spatulas, and stirring rods. Coffee was served in crucibles, cream from a dropping funnel and sugar with a deflagrating spoon. The menu could only be deciphered by a chemist.

The guests present were: Mrs. F. W. Upson, Mrs. T. J. Thompson; Mrs. C. Hamilton, Mrs. H. G. Deming, Mrs. D. J. Brown, Mrs. C. J. Frankforter, Mrs. M. J. Blish and Mrs. R. C. Abbott.

Major Erickson Gets World War Pictures

Major Sidney Erickson, commandant of cadets at the University, has received ten pictures of war scenes from Colonel Fred Ryons, '18, now stationed at Washington. The pictures are now being framed and will be hung in the classrooms of the military department. All are of actual war scenes, taken by military photographers, and some are rather grim reminders of war.

Meeting Friday Of Campus P. E. O.

The Campus P. E. O. met in Ellen Smith Hall yesterday afternoon when Miss Davis, of Chapter K, Lincoln, spoke on the aims and ideals of the organization. A new constitution was adopted. Hostesses for the afternoon were Pauline Barber, Margaret Watson, Marian Auringer, and Faunell Senter.

COOMBS WILL DIRECT PLAY

Writer of "Tut-Tut" Chosen by Kosmet Klub to Manage Production.

TO HOLD FURTHER TRIALS FOR CAST

Announcement of the directors of the 1925 Kosmet Klub production, "Tut-Tut" was made yesterday by the Klub. Cyril L. Coombs, writer of the play and the 1923 and 1924 comedies, will act as supervising director of all activities. Herbert Yenne has been selected as supervisor of all chorus work and Prof. A. G. Hinman will assist in the general direction of the play.

The cast for the production will be selected at a meeting of the Klub Tuesday night. Over one hundred tried out for parts last week and of this number nearly eighty will be picked for further trials. The cast of forty will then be chosen by elimination at rehearsals which will start immediately.

Kosmet Klub intends to make its annual production a regular school activity. Men in school who want to help in the various preparations for the show can sign up in the Student Activities office starting Tuesday. The work will include advertising, publicity, property, make-up work, costumes and other business duties.

Special costumes and scenery will be needed and a director of this department will be chosen soon by the Klub. The play, which is in six scenes, requires some novel effects. The scenes are laid in America, on board the steamship Acrobatic, Port Said, Arabia and in Cairo.

Some unusual talent was found in the tryouts held last week. Some new as well as familiar faces will be seen in the cast and prospects for the most successful Kosmet Klub production ever presented are especially bright. The play will be given at the Orpheum April 24 and in Omaha at the Brandeis April 25.

STUDY GIRL RESERVE WORK

City Y. W. C. A. Secretary Plans Course for Women.

A course in sponsoring the Girl Reserve movement of the Y. W. C. A. will be conducted for all University women who expect to teach in high school, by Miss Grace Stuff, city Y. W. C. A. secretary.

The class will meet every Wednesday afternoon at 5 o'clock in Ellen Smith Hall. Those interested are asked to enroll by seeing or telephoning Miss Erma Appleby at Ellen Smith Hall. If the enrollment is less than ten, the class will not be organized.

Buck's Articles Are Published in Boston

The Christian Science Monitor of Boston recently published two articles on Ghandi, Indian leader, by Prof. Philo M. Buck, of the University. Professor Buck dealt with the riots between the Hindus and Mohammedians in India and with Ghandi's effort to reconcile these warring factions.

DR. DE BOSIS TO LECTURE

Noted Italian Professor Invited to Speak in Lincoln.

Dr. Lauro DeBosis, member of the faculty of the Royal University of Rome, has been invited to address a convocation at the University in the near future. It is thought that he will accept. Dr. DeBosis has lectured at Columbia, Harvard, Yale, Smith, Washington University of St. Louis and the University of California since coming to this country as exchange professor. Gabrielle D'Annunzio and Giovanni Papini, famous Italian authors, recommend Dr. DeBosis highly. He will probably speak on "Contemporary Italian Poetry."

GLEE CLUB TO APPEAR TODAY

University Singers to Give Sacred Concert at St. Paul M. E. Church.

LAST APPEARANCE IN LINCOLN THIS YEAR

The University of Nebraska Glee Club, consisting of forty-five trained male voices, will appear in an ensemble of sacred music at the St. Paul M. E. church tonight at 7:45. The concert will be a full evening's entertainment and is the second program of the kind given by the Glee club at the St. Paul church.

A concert was given by the club last Sunday at the church, but owing to the small attendance due to the inclement weather, Dr. Walter Aitken has requested a repetition of the program. This will be the last home appearance of the Glee club and Dr. Aitken has extended a special invitation to the University students to take this last opportunity to hear their Glee club this year.

The club will be assisted in a varied concert by its soloists, vocal and instrumental, and also by the male quartet.

The following program will be presented:

Tenebrae factae sunt, Palestrina; Come Again Sweet Love, Lowland; The Club.
Tenor Solo, Light, Scott; Ivan McCormack.
Violin solo, Meditation from "Thais," Massenet; Leland Wood.
Hallelujah, Amen, "Judas Macca-baens," Handel; Chorus of Bacchantes, Gounod; The Club.
Offertory, The Largo, Handel; Marshall Neely.

Part Two.
Come Thou, Oh Come, Bach; Now Let Every Tongue, Bach; The Club.
Bass solo, From the Accursed, "Requiem," Verdi; Dietrich Dirks.
Prayer Perfect, Stenson; Open the Gates of the Temple, Knapp; The Quartet.

Piano solo, Dance in A Major, Debussy; Charles L. Pierpont.
Lo, How a Rose E'er Blooming, Pratoriolus; The Lamp in the West, Parker; The Club.

G. W. Rosenlof of the Teachers College served as judge of the Doane-York college debate at Crete Friday evening.

Prize Picture Is Taken Away

The prize picture, The Recessional, by Eugene Savage, which has been on display in Art Hall, has been taken back to Chicago where it will be displayed in the art gallery of the Marshall Field store. The collection of pictures of New York City by Everett Warner, which was displayed during the latter part of the annual exhibition, will probably be here for a week yet.

Boots Reviews Political Book

A review of Arthur Holcombe's "The Political Parties of Today," by Dr. R. S. Boots, professor of political science, appeared in the February issue of The American Political Science Review. Mr. Holcombe, a professor at Harvard, discusses the trend of the parties and takes up the matter of whether they actually represent the people who form them. Professor Boots regards the book as stimulative of thought.

Buck to Teach Summer Course at Wisconsin

Prof. Philo M. Buck, chairman of the department of comparative literature, will give two courses at the University of Wisconsin next summer. One, a graduate course, will be on seventeenth century English prose; the other, a course for juniors and seniors, will be on early nineteenth century English prose.

John A. Cejnar Visits University

John A. Cejnar, former journalism student at the University, graduate in the class of '21, now in charge of the Iowa State Bureau of the International News Service, Des Moines, visited the campus Saturday. Mr. Cejnar was recently shifted to Des Moines from St. Louis, where he was in charge of the International News Service bureau for over a year. After leaving Lincoln he was first with the Associated Press at Omaha; then he went to the Chicago office of the International News Service in 1923. He covered the recent trouble at Herrin, Illinois, for the International News Service. Mrs. Cejnar was Esther Jones, '22, daughter of Humphrey Jones, editor of the Western (Nebr.) Wave.

HUSKERS BEAT BLUE 15 TO 11

Scarlet Team Beats Creighton in Hard-fought Game at Omaha.

GOODSON AND TIPTON LEADERS IN SCORING

(Special to The Nebraskan)
OMAHA, Neb., Feb. 28.—The Nebraska cage quintet defeated Creighton University here tonight, 15 to 11, before a crowd of 3,500.

It was the fastest game of the Husker season and the invaders flashed a steady, well-working offensive and a sure defense which won the game in the last half. Creighton led, 6 to 4, at half-time.

Defenses of both teams were tight and scoring was at a premium. Nebraska held Creighton sixteen minutes of the first period without a score, but the home team came through with three baskets as the half ended. The Huskers cinched the game in the last half, with a four-point lead and two minutes to play.

PROMOTE SIXTEEN CADET OFFICERS

Assignments Will Be Made by Major Erickson Early Next Week.

Sixteen promotions of cadet officers in the University Reserve Officers Training Corps were announced Friday by Major Sidney Erickson, commandant. The list includes promotion of five first-lieutenants to the rank of captain, and eleven second-lieutenants to rank of first-lieutenants.

First-lieutenants promoted to rank of captain are: Edward L. Stemen, Fred J. Wehmer, John J. Wilson, Jacob W. Cohen, and Milton H. Tappan. Second-lieutenants to rank of first-lieutenants are: Max R. Shostak, Rudy M. Lacke, J. Raymond Tottenhoff, David S. Zolat, Orr Goodson, I. Leo Rosenberg, Francis A. Rudolph, George J. Gulmeyer, Clyde M. Shar-rar, Roscoe D. Tutty, and Darrel R. Weaver.

Assignments for the new officers have not been made by Major Erickson. New assignments will be issued the early part of this week. Several line offices will be transferred to the staff, and a few of the staff officers will be transferred to the line, Major Erickson said yesterday.

Advanced Course For Fine Arts Students

Prof. Paul H. Grumann, director of the School of Fine Arts, is offering an advanced course in the continental drama to fifteen students selected from the members of his class in this subject given the first semester before the Teachers Forum at Omaha. He is also offering an open course in the musical drama. The registration for this course is much larger than for the first semester.

Early Books Are Put On Display

Early editions of books of the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries are now on display in the University Library. Among the rare books is a first edition of Milton's "Paradise Lost." The collection deals largely with political subjects.

Telephone Association Addressed by Kirsham

Prof. J. E. Kirsham, professor of finance in the College of Business Administration, addressed a recent meeting of the Nebraska Telephone Association on "Important Principles of Public Regulation."

TWO ARE TAKEN WITH SMALLPOX

Total Number of Cases Among University Students Reaches Four.

AGAIN REQUEST, ALL TO BE VACCINATED

Two more cases of small pox developed Friday, bringing the total number of University students who have the disease to four. They were taken to the isolation hospital Friday afternoon.

"Every student must be vaccinated at once," said Dr. R. A. Lyman of the Pharmacy College, "in order to stop the spread of the disease before it becomes worse."

About 1400 hundred students, employees, and members of the faculty have been vaccinated since the first case was reported. About one third of the total registration had been vaccinated before they entered the University. The city health department reports that about one hundred students have been vaccinated there since the first case. According to Dr. Lyman, there are still about two thousand students who have not been vaccinated and who should do so at once in order to protect themselves and to prevent the spread of the disease.

The four University students who have contracted the disease are:

Walter Hoppe, '28, (Dental), Holdrege.
Lloyd Faschtman, '27, (Pharmacy), Callaway.
Reginald Eichelberger, '26, (Pharmacy), Idaho Falls, Idaho.
James Hakerdon, '27, (Pharmacy) Coleridge.

Three other persons in Lincoln have the disease, one of them being a business college student, one a worker of the new state capitol, and one living in the east part of the city.

Vaccination by private physicians is recommended as they can guard against the only real danger, that of secondary infection. However, the University clinic in the Pharmacy building, or the City Health office, located above the Fire Department building, will vaccinate those who apply, free of charge, with all anti-septic precautions.

Certificates of vaccination should be carefully preserved as they may become a requisite for entrance to classes should the disease spread much further and make such a course necessary. Students who have become exposed and have already contracted the disease, if vaccinated, will suffer only a mild attack.

FORCED TO FORFEIT TWO RIFLE MATCHES

Failure of Members of Women's Rifle Team to Fire Causes Loss.

Two rifle matches against the University of Maine, and Michigan, were forfeited last week by the Nebraska women's rifle team, because enough girls did not fire during the week to meet the terms of the contracts for the matches. Only eight women fired during the week.

A five-member team was picked from those who fired, for the matches with the University of Nevada, and South Dakota. The four-position score of the high five was 1543, against the University of South Dakota. The two-position score against the University of Nevada, was 923.

Captain Eggers, director of the rifle gallery, said yesterday that if any more matches have to be forfeited on account of the girls failing to come and fire, the rest of the schedule will have to be cancelled.

The high score of the week was made in the prone position by Isabelle Lawless who shot a target that scored 98. Dorothy Abbott made the highest four-position score. Her mark was 322. The next highest was 320 by Isabelle Lawless.

The four-position scores against the University of South Dakota were:

D. Abbott	322
I. Lawless	320
K. Kidwell	308
E. Cox	306
K. Jensen	287
Total	1543.

The two-position scores against the University of Nevada were:

D. Abbott	188
K. Kidwell	186
I. Lawless	186
F. Root	182
K. Jensen	181
Total	923.

Prof. Paul H. Grumann, director of the School of Fine Arts, will lecture before the College Club of Omaha Wednesday, March 4, on "Art in European Capitals."
