CHANCELLOR AVERY

The retirement of Chancellor Avery in 1928 will conclude a period of service much longer than that of most presidents of state universities.

The ability of the Chancellor to cope successfully with such problems is demonstrated by the length of his tenure of office.

DEAN ENGBERG

The resignation of Dean Engberg, to take effect in September, 1926, leaves vacant an office which has a direct bearing on the life of the students.

Knickers Introduced On Nebraska Campus

At last, the inevitable or perhaps unavoidable has happened, for Nebraska men have decided to wear KNICKERS and the are wearing them on the campus.

Calendar

Sunday, May 10
Sunday Morning Breakfast—Ellen Smith Hall.

Notices

All notices for this column must be written out and handed in at the editorial office, U Hall 10, by 4:00 the afternoon previous to their publication.

Big Sister Initiation
Big Sister Initiation will be held Thursday from 5-7 at the College of Agriculture campus.

Cosmopolitan Club
Members of the Cosmopolitan Club will hold a dinner and election of officers Sunday at 10 o'clock in the Elk's Club rooms.

A new record at basketball games was set the past season. A total of 60,522 persons saw the games at which Kansas played.

WILL GO TO FORT SNELLING

One hundred and ten men will compose the Nebraska R. O. T. C. unit which will attend the summer camp at Fort Snelling June 12 to July 23.

There will be no basic camp this summer as in past years. The Nebraska unit won second place for the general efficiency rating the past three years at the camp but this year the Huskers are making special effort to win first place.

WILL HOLD COMPET MAY 29

The thirty-first annual competitive drill will be held the afternoon of May 29, according to Major Sidney Erickson. The competitive drill proper will be held in the Memorial stadium and the preliminary parade and final review will be conducted on the drill field.

The rating and score of the field problem which was conducted several weeks ago, will be added to the score the companies make in compet. Close order drill and the individual compet will compose the program for the event.

Men Continue Work in Special Weapons Class

The work of the junior men of the Military Science department in the special weapons classes has been very satisfactory according to Captain Huske, who is in charge of the work. The juniors will fire the various types of weapons this week on the pistol range at the penitentiary, the range at Bennett and the flats north of town.

Boys and Girls Clubs Will Meet June 1-6

Three hundred members of the Nebraska Boys and Girls clubs will meet at the College of Agriculture campus the week of June 1 to 6 for the tenth annual Club Week.

Sjogren Leaves For Philadelphia

Prof. O. W. Sjogren, chairman of the department of agriculture engineering, left Tuesday for Philadelphia to attend the regular meeting of the administrative committee of the American Engineering Council.
