PRICE 5 CENTS

COMPETITION IS CLOSE IN SALE OF CORNHUSKER

Honorary Societies All in Running for $50 Prize on Wednesday Night

DRIVE CLOSING FRIDAY

Two Days Remain in Which Students May Reserve Copies of 1926 Year-Book

The count made of the subscriptions turned in at the end of the third day of the Cornhusker sales drive found the honorary societies all in the running for the prize of $50. Many in each organization have failed to check in their subscriptions at 5 o'clock each afternoon.

Competition is growing very strong, as the campaign closes Friday night. At the latest check of organizations there was not a difference of more than five subscriptions from the leader to the last of the list.

Only two days of the subscription drive are left and students are asked to make arrangements to buy during that time if possible. Checks to John K. Selleck may be postdated for a short time if necessary.

The 1926 Cornhusker will contain many new features, according to Donald Sampson and Tom Varney, editor and business manager of the publication. Arrangements have been made with the Bureau of Engraving to secure work from some of the foremost artists in the country.

The book will contain everything pertaining to college life and should prove a valuable companion in future years. In the past some students have bought an extra copy for their parents and it is hoped that the practice will be continued this year.

WILL HOLD TRACK MEET OCTOBER 22

Annual Fall Event Is One of Series Planned by Coach "Indian" Schulte

The annual fall track and field meet, which is one of a series of meets Coach Schulte has planned to hold this fall, will be held on the afternoon of October 22. This meet will be the first opportunity this fall for the men out for track to score points toward the track numeral. All events will be of regulation A. A. U. distances except the hurdle events. Instead of the 110-yard high hurdles the 60-yard hurdles will be substituted instead, while the 220-yard low hurdles will be cut down to 110-yards.

More than a hundred men have been out for fall track work this season including the distance men who are devoting their time to cross country. Coach "Indian" Schulte has been permitted to give his entire attention to track in the fall for the first time in years and he has been taking advantage of this privilege. Assisting him are all of the older track men. Billy Hein has been working with the sprinters while Frank Wirsig has been helping the men in the pole vault. In the distances Jimmy Lewis has been in charge under the direction of Schulte who is handling the Husker barriers.

The fall meet will give the men a chance to test themselves in competition. It is a sort of goal for the men who are spending their first year out for track, or who are not competing in cross country this fall. The numeral requirements which are posted on the track bulletin in the stadium will be the basis for the scoring. Twelve points in two or more events must be made in order to win a numeral, and only eleven points can be made in one individual event.

Mortar Board Acts as Hostess at Weekly Tea

The second of the weekly teas sponsored by the Associated Women Students for all University women will be held this afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock at Ellen Smith hall. Members of Mortar Board, honorary society for senior women, will act as hostesses. There will be a program and dancing.

The schedule of hostess organizations for the remainder of the semester will be published in The Daily Nebraskan within a few days. Teas will be given each Thursday from 4 to 6 o'clock. Their purpose is to provide an opportunity for all University women to meet on an informal social basis.

EXPECT DIRECTORY OUT IN TWO WEEKS

Students Asked to Make Corrections of List of Names Posted in the Temple

Work on the student directory this year is progressing rapidly. Arthur Jorgenson, secretary of the University Y. M. C. A., states that the date for the appearance of the student directory cannot be set, but that it will probably be out within the next two weeks.

The list of students has been posted on the bulletin board of the Temple for corrections and each student is asked to check up on the spelling of his own name, his address and his phone number. The fraternity and sorority lists have already been corrected by each organization.

The business staff has decided on the plans at a meeting some time ago and the officers are betting the book out as fast as possible.

Marion E. Stanley, '26, Journalism, Aurora, has been appointed editor of the "Lincoln Y's Krax," a weekly publication of the Lincoln Y. M. C. A. The appointment was announced by Frank Harrington, '26, chairman of the Y. M. C. A. dormitory committee.

It's the Women Who Are Spoiling University Lawns, Say Engineers

Charges that the women of the University are responsible for the tramping out of the grass along the sidewalks in the main sections of the campus have been lodged by observant engineers.

Over in "no woman's land" where the engineers hold sway, they point with pride to the untrampled lawn along the sidewalks on the approaches to the group of engineering lawns. Then with scornful words they turn toward the yellowed and battered lawns surrounding the buildings from the Social Sciences to the Library, from Administration to University Hall. "It's the fair maidens who despoil what beauty there is in our wondrous campus. Let them mend their ways that it may all appear as fine around the engineering section," they cry.

"Yea, 'tis true. Our steps are ever on the walks, while our supposed betters trample out the lawns," echo all the men of the campus. And it must be so for where there are no girls, the lawns shine out with a green equal to the greenest freshman. And where the girls are, the lawn is fast receding from the sidewalks.

ARRANGEMENTS ARE UNDERWAY FOR CARNIVAL

Robert Scouler, General Chairman, Publishes Partial Committee List

DATE IS NOVEMBER 14

"Wild West" Attraction Offered by Military Department at Annual Fete

Committee chairmen and some of the committee members for the fifth annual military carnival have been announced by Robert M. Scouler, general chairman, who has charge of the carnival. The carnival will be held in the Armory on the evening of November 14. Details for this affair are rapidly nearing completion.

The civilization of the United States is still barbarous in that it has produced so little in the arts, declared the speaker who stated that it was not at all certain that this nation will ever have an important civilization. A good many nations which have gone as far as the United States have never attained civilization, nor will this country unless more emphasis is put on the less materialistic side of life in favor of a national culture which is characteristically American.

Quoting a well-known architect to the effect that the United States will never produce a domestic architecture until the development of the family has taken place, the speaker pointed out that this nation will never develop monuments of civilization until it has developed its culture. A start has been made in architecture, stated the speaker, and he feels confident that there will eventually be an American art and literature which will be worth while contributions to world civilization.

In opening his speech, Dr. Alexander stated that Italy was now in the hands of the Fascisti and not in the hands of the communists largely because the Fascisti have stood for the ancient civilization of Roman times and have preserved the traditions of past culture which the communists would have swept away.

The civilization of France is hanging in the balance and is in greater danger of extinction than was that of Italy, according to the speaker. He stated that if it is preserved it will be because of the love of the French for their traditional culture and the expressions of the artistic natures of their peoples. There is now in progress a great exhibition of artistic productions in which the French take great pride because of the quality of their work represented in Paris. Although there is a great influx of foreigners who are replacing the men of France lost in the war and in spite of the fact that there will be a new blood injected into the French population, Dr. Alexander declared that he thought their civilization would be preserved because of the pressure brought by their monuments of the past.

The committee chairman and some of the members of the different committees are as follows:

Publicity—Victor Hackler, chairman.

Bar—Clark Beymer, chairman, Paul Treadwell.

Confetti and Serpentine—Forrest Hall, chairman.

Check room—Lloyd Wagner, chairman.

Door—Parke O'Brien, chairman, Donald Malcolm.

Entertainment—Allen Gould, chairman.

The members of the different committees will be made up of the men in the military department who sign up to work on the carnival. This should be done immediately, in the military office, second floor of the Administration building.

Four Nebraska Graduates Listed as Honor Students by War Department

Men Are Chosen on the Basis of Recommendations Made in June By Heads of Military Science Instruction

Four Nebraska students are listed in the 1925 honor graduates roll of distinguished colleges published in a recent circular of the war department. They are Milton P. Beechner, Willard D. Dover, Glen A. Dunkle and Nathaniel Foote.

Five per cent of the graduates of distinguished colleges are annually selected as honor graduates by the war department. Colleges other than distinguished grade are allowed three per cent of their graduating class. The Nebraska men were selected last June on the basis of Erickson, then commandant. High scholarship in school and especially in the department is the basis of recommendation.

Beechner was a captain and second in command of Company G last year. Dover was captain of Company M, Dunkle was captain of Company G, and Foote was major of the first battalion.

PLAN PROGRAM FOR SATURDAY LUNCHEON

McMullen, Bearg and Weir Will Speak on Dad's Day; Musical Numbers Arranged

Plans are completed for a lively noon luncheon at the Chamber of Commerce on Dad's Day, Saturday, October 17. Governor McMullen, Coach Bearg, and Captain Ed Weir will give short talks. The University quartet will sing and other special music will be given during the dinner. Students who plan to attend with their dads should make reservations immediately in the Students Activities office in the Armory.

When reserving places at the luncheon, students may secure seats with their dads for the Washington-Nebraska game. An exchange of student tickets for pairs of tickets is being made at the Students' Activities office for the Washington game with a charge being made for only one ticket. This exchange should be made immediately, for the longer that it is delayed the poorer will be the chance of getting a good seat.

Through the efforts of the Vikings, more than 600 copies of the Daily Nebraskan have been mailed out to the dads of Nebraska students. On Saturday all fraternities will close at noon in order not to conflict with the Dad's Day banquet. The banquet will be over in plenty of time for the Washington-Nebraska game.

Four fraternities at the University of Chicago have forfeited their social rights for the coming year because their scholastic standing was below the average of the rest of the students.—The Minnesota Daily.

ENGINEERS WILL HOLD BARBECUE

Can Only Supply Transportation to Limited Number from City Campus

HOLD PROGRAM TONIGHT

A real honest-to-goodness barbecue is promised for the annual engineering barbecue to be held on the agricultural college grounds this evening by Glen Sudman, chairman of the committee on arrangements. He also promises that there will be plenty of entertainment to satisfy everybody.

The program is scheduled to start at five o'clock this evening on the agricultural college campus. Students should assemble there or in front of the Mechanic Arts building at 4:30. A limited number can be given transportation from the Mechanic Arts building. Any engineering student driving cars can put them to good use, according to Glen Sudman, by helping carry students from the city campus to the barbecue.

Official initiation of the freshmen engineers will precede the barbecue. A rousing reception is generally given the new students by the older engineering students. Entertainment in the form of horseshoes and football has been planned by the committee to enliven affairs before the barbecue proper.

From the barbecue meats on through the menu the committee in charge, composed of Glen Sudman, chairman, R. D. Weaver and D. D. Lewis, believe that the feast will surpass previous celebrations in both quality and quantity. Tickets for the barbecue are thirty-five cents.

The entertainment, initiation and barbecue will be carried through promptly so that the entire program will be completed about seven-thirty.

KFAB BROADCASTS FOR HIGH SCHOOLS

Convocations for State Schools Are Being Sent from University Studio

The University Studio, broadcasting over KFAB is now featuring fifteen minute programs concerning the high school convocation. It is designed for use in the schools of this state and eighteen are now using the idea regularly. The program lasts from 1 to 1:15 p. m.

Five minutes are taken to broadcast the idea. The first five minutes is devoted to music, and in the remaining ten minutes some prominent speakers have been obtained to outline the idea.

More high schools in the state are expected in the future to cooperate on this plan with the University of Nebraska's broadcasting station.

Urge Women to Sign Up on Luncheon Work

The Associated Women Students are urging all University women to come to their office this week, between 2 and 4 o'clock and sign up for work on the Cornhusker luncheon. The committees will be chosen from this list soon.

This is a very good opportunity for girls to participate in preparing for one of the largest events of the year and the Association Women's Students board is very anxious to give every one an opportunity to help.

Will Complete Installation of New Gallery for Rifle Practice Monday

The rifle gallery installation in the southwest basement of Mechanical Engineering building will be completed by Monday of next week. The steel plate protection back of the targets, and flood lights, have been installed. All that remains to be done is the clearing away of some experimental apparatus now stored in the room, and installation of the equipment at the firing points.

There will be eight firing points for the four standard positions of firing, and one for standing shooting only. Pads will be used at the firing point instead of the sand base in the old gallery on the third floor of Nebraska hall.

The new gallery is better lighted from the outside than the old one, access is easier from the outside, although it is removed from the main department class rooms. The room is also better heated than the old one
