MANHATTAN, Kans., Nov. 14.-(Special) The Kansas Aggies and the Cornhuskers fought inch for inch and man for man here this afternoon and when the sixty minutes of hard football were up both teams were on an equal footing. In a game of punting, the Aggies and the Huskers split even, with a score of 0 to 0.

Two teams could hardly have been more evenly matched. Nebraska out-yarded and out-downed the Kansas team, but the Wildcats took advantage of the wind when they had the chance and fought off the Huskers for four periods. Old Man Weather again denied the Nebraskans a good field to play on, rain during the morning put the gridiron in a soggy condition. The Huskers had a driving offense at times, built chiefly around Choppy Rhodes, but they could not keep up the pace long enough to cross the final chalk-line. Kansas Aggies showed some power in the last half, too, but their heralded
