Thursday's interfraternity basketball games showed some good teams in action. In the first game, Phi Sigma Kappa outplayed the Sigma Chi outfit. Theta Chi missed Zeta Beta Tau. The Phi Kappa Psi quintet walked on the Acacia hoopsters in the final game. The Phi Phi Sigma Kappa and Phi Kappa Psi teams seemed to be exceptionally strong.

In the 4 o'clock game, the Phi Sigma Kappa team started out well by rolling in two field goals and two free throws. Both teams were playing a good passing game. They were trying quite a few long shots and coming close. Grace flipped in a field goal and King followed with another. McCloud helped the Sig Chis with a long throw, but that was evened up by the opposing team netting another field goal. Excitement stopped the game when Farrow and King had a hand-to-hand argument. They were both put out of the game. After that, both teams started passing wildly, neither was able to keep the ball after they intercepted it. Grace sidestepped to make a shot, and shortly after slipped by the guards for another field goal, bringing the total for Phi Sigma Kappa up to fourteen. The half ended without further scoring, the Sigma Chi five having registered four.

With the second half, the Sig Chis started fighting, getting a lot of chances at the ring, but could not hit it. Finally, McCloud made a pass to Poppe, who slipped the ball through. Burkhardt missed two gift tosses, but made up for them with a field goal. The Phi Sigma Kappa team picked up. Grace flipped in one and Carrothers followed suit with a medium. The game was interrupted again. This time Grace and McCloud were having an argument. They were taken from the floor. Both the teams missed the free throws awarded for this. The scoring kept on till the end, bringing the score to Phi Sigma Kappa, 22; Sigma Chi, 14. Both of these exhibited some good floor work and basket throwing, and the game was probably as interesting as any yet played.

Close Contest

The Theta Chi-Zeta Beta Tau tussle was pretty closely contested until the last few minutes. No much scoring was done, and not many attempts made. Iseman, opened the fireworks with a throw from the sideline. His team was getting most of the shots. They missed two free throws. Barber missed on a neat try. Iseman repeated with another field goal. Barber made two points for Theta Chi. The half ended 4 to 8 for Zeta Beta Tau. The last half opened advantageously for the Theta Chi warriors. Gugenheim fouled and Barber made the resulting gift toss. Benson added two more with a long shot. Theta Chi was improving. Heller gave Barber a basket, by a poor pass. The game got rougher, the teams running up and down the floor, without results. Near the finish, Ravitz tried to stage a rally, counting three points, Zeta Beta Tau's total for the last half.

Phi Psi Win

In the last game of the afternoon, the Phi Kappa Psi crew easily eliminated the Acacians. Holm, Phi Psi, started the scoring. Shepard added two more counters by breaking through the guards for a short one. Holm found a clear field down the floor for another. The Acacians were unable to stop their opponents effectively. Reeves made a gift toss. The Acacians then garnered three points, Hamilton making a free throw, and Weir tossing in a long shot. The whole first period was easily Phi Psi. Nelson made a short shot and Zust a long one. The half ended 14 to 4 in favor of Phi Kappa Psi.

In the second, the Phi Psi outfit started out scoring. Nelson pushed in a short shot. Holm dribbled through the Acacia defense for another. Reeves put in a pretty one from near the center, all of these points counting for Phi Kappa Psi. Auhl had hard luck on a pretty try. The Phi Psi missed about four in a row. They had no trouble in getting the ball within striking distance, but could not always connect. Weir made Acacia's only points of the last part, with a long flip. Shepard, started on a rampage, making three field goals during the last few minutes of play.
