

PHI SIGS COP TITLE FROM D. U. QUINTET

Champions for Two Years Go Down to Defeat, 18 to 10

GRACE THE POINT MAKER

The Phi Sigma Kappa basketball team won the interfraternity championship by defeating the Delta Upsilon five on the Armory court Tuesday afternoon by an 18 to 10 score. The Phi Sigs lead throughout the contest with the exception of one time when the D. U.'s got a 10 to 9 lead.

The contest was slow and both teams resorted to long shots at which Grace of the Phi Sigs was outstanding. The game was rough and many personal fouls were called. Cass being rejected from the game in the last three minutes for personal.

Grace of the winners was the only player on the floor that was able to locate the hoop with any regularity. He connected for six field goals and one free throw for a total of 13 points. Dana, D. U. forward, who is one of the leading scorers of the tournament had an off day. He registered only two field goals and missed six consecutive gift tosses.

Westoupal was the leading scorer for the losers. He registered six points with two baskets and two field goals. Cass played a nice floor game for the losers, while Nicholson was the outstanding defense man for the Phi Sigs.

Westoupal scored for Losers. Andrews of the Phi Sigs drew first blood in the game with a long shot from the center of the court. Westoupal scored on a free throw and Grace batted the ball through the hoop on a follow-in shot. Westoupal made good on his second free throw and Grace brought the Phi Sig total to six with a long shot. Dana end the scoring of the first period with a short side shot. The half ended 6 to 4 for the Phi Sigma Kappa five.

Dana tied the count at the beginning of the second half with a nice side shot. Grace followed one in to put his team into the lead again. Westoupal brought the score to a tie at eight when he went under the basket for a goal. Grace shot a free throw and Westoupal's second basket gave the D. U.'s the lead for the first time during the game.

King was fouled and made good one of his two free throws to tie the score. Grace got a basket from beneath the hoop and a moment later dribbled the entire length of the floor for a basket. He brought the Phi Sig total to sixteen by getting his third basket in as many minutes. King dropped in one from the center of the court and the game ended before the ball could again be put in play.

Y. M. C. A. WORK DEPENDS UPON FINANCE DRIVE

Need $1000 to Carry on Activities; Campaign Opens With A Dinner

WILL NOT TAKE PLEDGES

Canvas Entire Student Body in One Evening to Raise Money to Make Up Deficit

"Whether or not the University Y. M. C. A. can continue its work unhampered by debt, depends on the success of this finance campaign," declared General Secretary Arthur Jorgensen yesterday in speaking of the drive Thursday evening in which two hundred student workers expect to raise more than one thousand dollars.

If the campaign fails, it is pointed out, the organization will be forced

ENGBERG'S STATEMENT

To the Men of the University: Last autumn the University Y. M. C. A. presented its financial needs to the men of the University, but for some reason only about one-half of the sum needed was subscribed. At this time another effort will be made by the students interested in the work to secure the remainder of the funds so that the year may be closed without debt.

The amount needed for this purpose is somewhat over a thousand dollars. The alumni throughout the country and the citizens of Lincoln, through the Lincoln Community Chest, have done more than was originally expected of them, and it is to be hoped that the students will do at least their full share of the work, especially in view of all that the Y. M. C. A. does for them.

This work is so quietly and unostentatiously done that many are not aware of it until they stop to think of the tremendous help the "Y" gives in so many ways, such as helping new students find rooms, securing work for the needy whereby they are able to stay in school, supplying the handbook that is distributed to all the Freshmen, conducting the open forum for discussion of civic and religious problems, and not least of all, the friendly assistance that is so frequently and so constantly given to the students who do not have the fraternal or other personal relations in Lincoln.

The University would be lost without such an agency as the Y. M. C. A., and therefore a student can make no better investment than by subscribing to this work, even though it may mean giving up a social pleasure or two.

I do not believe in urging others to do what I myself will not do, and so, although I have already given freely, I will again subscribe to this fund, if the student body will come to the rescue and raise the amount needed.

Very Sincerely yours,
CARL C. ENGBERG,
Executive Dean.

ed into debt, and consequently its activities the rest of this year and next year will have to be greatly curtailed and many projects dropped.

The drive will open with a dinner at the Grand hotel at 6 o'clock Thursday evening. Judd Davis, finance chairman, and Mr. Jorgensen will each speak for a few minutes, explaining the way in which the drive is to be carried out. Prof. O. R. Martin, chairman of the advisory board of the 'Y', will also make a short address, as will Ed Weir.

Each of the two hundred workers will be given a list of about ten men living near him to see. It is expected that the entire University commu-

Summer School At Trinity College, Dublin, Is Arranged For Americans

A summer school for American students, teachers, and visitors, similar to those held annually at American universities, will be held at Trinity College, Dublin, in 1926, from July 15 to August 26. By this unprecedented arrangement a course of study has been planned to cover thirty hours, and provisions has been made for final examinations and certificates to be given to those completing the course and passing the examinations.

Twelve courses of lectures, in accordance with the following schedule will be offered:

Group 1. Political Economy and Social Science; Political Economy; Social Science; The Problems of Europe at the Present Day; Theory of Education.

Group 2. History and Literature; Modern English History; Modern French History; English Literature; Anglo-Irish History.

Group 3. Languages; French, German, Spanish, Irish.

Men students will be accommodated in college chambers, and women students of the Women's Hostel, Trinity Hall. The fees are as follows: University Registration Fee $3 (about $15). Examination and Lecture Fee in each course taken $3. Residence in the college or at the hostel, including breakfast and dinner in the dining hall of the college or hostel, $20 for six weeks. Lunch can be obtained at cheap rates at the luncheon buffet in the college. Servants will be provided for the college chambers, but students will have to make their own arrangements for laundry.

The carrying out of this program depends upon not less than 275 entries for single courses from not more than 120 men and women. The courses offered are planned to meet the requirements of American educational institutions and many of these institutions have already signified their willingness to give credit to students who pursue these courses at the summer school in Dublin. All students will be required to forward, with their applications, a certificate of good standing from their academic authority.

The Institute of International Education, 522 Fifth Avenue, New York, N. Y., will answer inquiries and furnish application blanks. Each application should be accompanied by a deposit of five dollars. This will be credited towards the total fee payable in Dublin.

OFFER PRIZES FOR BEST SKITS

A. W. S. Board Will Give $15 And $10 For Winning Stunts in Co-Ed Follies

HOLD AFFAIR MARCH 26

The A. W. S. board, which is promoting and sponsoring the Co-Ed Follies the night of March 26 in the Armory, announces a first prize of fifteen dollars for the best skit presented that night and a second prize of ten dollars.

Although this is the first year that the Co-Ed Follies have been attempted at Nebraska, if everyone will cooperate, there is no reason why they should not prove as successful here as at other universities.

Any organization or any group of girls may enter a skit. They should not be too long, and may be any type that the girls playing it desire. They must be prepared soon, for the last day to hand them in is March 8. They may be left at the A. W. S. office, on the second floor of Ellen Smith Hall, or may be given directly to a member of the A. W. S. board. The best ten will then be selected for the performance and the girls will be notified.

Similar student productions have been held at many other state universities, and have become one of the most entertaining evenings of the year. If this year's performance is as successful as the board hopes it will be, the following year may see the production taken down town to the Orpheum. Plays or skits by students always appeal to downtown audiences, and Nebraska has as much talent along this line as any other school.

There will be no professionals entering this contest so all persons should feel free to put in their skit. Besides the enjoyment which will come from this entertainment, not to mention the two prizes, the board hopes to create a spirit of co-operation among the class organizations, sororities, inter-sorority groups, literary societies, or any group of girls who are interested.

The board urges all the individual groups to hand in the skits to the Associated Women Students' office in order that the Co-Ed Follies may appear on the campus and be entirely successful.

The Y. W. C. A. staff will entertain the members of the team winning at dinner after the drive. All money to count in this contest, must be checked in by Friday evening. The goal has been set at seventeen hundred dollars.

The team workers and all other interested will meet at Ellen Smith Hall on each noon of the three days of the drive for luncheon. The luncheons which are twenty-five cents each are being served by the social committee of the Y. W. C. A. under the direction of Mariel Flynn.

No Certain Amount Will Be Asked. Every woman in the University will be interviewed before Friday by a member of one of the teams. The fact that each woman would be interviewed this year instead of simply asking her for her money, was stressed by Elsie Gramlich who spoke to the team workers at the meeting on Tuesday evening. No certain amount is being asked for. This question is being left to the ability and interest of each individual.

The members of the Grace Coppock committee who are directing the campaign include, Eloise McMonies as chairman; Eloise MacAhan, Frances Waterman, Geraldine Fleming, Wilma Searson, Eloise Keefer, Caroline Buck, Dorothy Thomas, and Agnes Hentzen.

ANNUAL WRITE-UPS COMING IN SLOWLY

Organizations Which Have Space in Cornhusker Should Hand in Articles This Week

Write-ups for organizations that have space in the 1926 Cornhusker are coming in slowly, according to Donald F. Sampson, editor of the book. The write-ups should be in by Saturday of this week, as some of the forms of the annual are already being laid. The articles may be left in the Cornhusker office in the basement of the University Hall, with either the editor or managing editor.

The write-ups should be two hundred words in length, with an account of the history of the organization or activity, with its purpose and function. Stress should be laid on the future work of the organization.

Several organizations, as announced yesterday in the Daily Nebraskan, have not made an appointment for a group picture at the campus studio. This must be done so that the picture can be taken this week, in order to have it in the book.
