

BRYAN MEMORIAL TO BE DEDICATED

Hospital Will Be Opened Thursday; Evening Set Aside Especially For Young People

Bryan Memorial Hospital will be publicly opened and dedicated on Thursday, May 21. Thursday evening after five o'clock has been set aside for young people and especially University students. All students who possibly can are urged to attend.

The hospital is a gift to the Methodist churches by the late William J. Bryan. It includes a ten-acre tract of land and Mr. Bryan's old home. The home will be used just as it stands and two other buildings have been erected.

A reception has been planned for the opening night. The Wesleyan Glee Club will furnish the music followed by short talks by Ernest Smith of Wesleyan University, and Mr. Blakesley of the Lincoln Business College, and the Rev. Huntington, representing the University.
