

FRESHMEN TO MEET KAGGIES

Grid Fans Will See Future Stars in Action Saturday

PLAYERS SHOW PROMISE

The first opportunity for Cornhusker adherents to witness future Nebraska stars presents itself next Saturday, November 6, when the yearlings meet the Kansas Aggie youngsters at Memorial Stadium. As the Kaggies possess a team of prowess and balance, the combat promises great results in pigskin handling.

Backfield material at the yearling camp is both abundant and classy. Witte and McBride form a ball-lugging combination whose equal is hard to find. Sloan is an ideal triple-threat man but excels in the pass-snatching department. Farley of Sioux City is powerful as a line plunger and as defensive fullback.

Additional backfield reinforcements include George Miller of Havelock, and "Chief" Elkins, Indian athlete. Roll, speedster from Dayton Ohio; Adam Kahler, Lincoln half, and White of Albion are scheduled to participate in Saturday's clash.

Case, former Curtis Ag player, has had little opposition at the pivot station. Reed, Lincoln southpaw, may perform later in the game.

Weight is Not Lacking
Guards and tackles are husky and weighty. George Ray, Grand Island boy, tips the scales at 208 pounds. Munn, hailing from Caldwell, Idaho weighs 205, and Richards of Pawnee City holds first place at 215. Broadstone, Norfolk gridster, although not so heavy, is fast on his feet. He was a member of the record holding 880 relay team of that place. Craig, Jeffries, Morgan, and Nelson are going strong at the guard position. Hurd, with experience on the Lincoln police force to his credit, is also a weighty contender for a regular berth at right guard.

Wing candidates are as numerous as they are efficient. Toms, hailing from Midland college, and Lewandowski, Chicago protege, regularly get the call. Occasionally, Prucha, South Omaha and Kemper Military academy product, and Rodman of Kimball hold down the flanks.

In the past, the declaration has often been made that the freshman team that year showed more promise than any previous one before. However it is not the duty but the privilege to proclaim that this year's squad is the all-around winner over all. Spectators remark at the playing ability of the youngsters and forecast brilliant things for Nebraska in the near future.

Patched Lineup Drills
A patched lineup drilled on the pass defense Wednesday afternoon. Tomorrow's workout will include a tussle with the "Kansas Ag" team from the Husker squad. An interesting forward pass play will be featured by the freshmen.

No criticism of overconfidence can be aimed at the team which will uphold Nebraska honor Saturday. The fighting spirit was rampant and should go far towards accomplishing a smashing defeat of the Kaggie freshmen.

New York, N. Following the glorious 27-3 triumph over Fordham on Saturday, it was reported that Lassman had been seriously hurt. However the boxing giant was out for the regular Monday practice of the Violet team yesterday, on Ohio Field.

MISS HOWELL GOES TO SEE 'ANNA CHRISTIE'

Miss H. Alice Howell, director of the University Players, went to Omaha Thursday to see the community theater's production of Eugene O'Neill's "Anna Christie."

"Faust" will be taken as follows: Faust—Carl Schaeffer. Mephistopheles—Hermann T. Decker.

Valentin—Ormand Test. Marguerite—Harriett Cruise Kemmer. Siebel—Sylvia Cole.

"Faust" adapted by Gounod from Goethe's famous drama, is one of the most popular of operas, being included in the repertoire of nearly all opera companies. It is especially well suited to concert use, says Mr. Raymond, who has been director of the University chorus for more than thirty years.

Canadian Colleges To Conduct Debate Through Newspapers

(By New Student Service)—Subscribers of student papers in Dalhousie University and the University of Alberta will compose the audience for a printed intercollegiate debate. The debaters have been selected for "combined debating ability and journalistic skill," the text of the debates appearing simultaneously in both college papers.

Alberta debaters will open this curious contest. When their "speeches" reach Dalhousie both papers will print it. Then a Dalhousie man replies, followed by a second Alberta and another Dalhousie man. Rebuttals will follow in due order. Judges in the contest will possibly be editors of Canadian publications.

The debate subject will be "Resolved, that compulsory attendance at University lectures is in the best interests of the student body."

Announcing LOU HILL

This simple announcement would be enough for a public speaker, a vaudeville act or the average individual; but Lou Hill, more favorably known as "Lou" is none of these: he requires something out of the ordinary.

On the campus, in fraternities, in fact wherever "Collegiates" are—Lou is known. He is known because he has made more men the "where-withal" to wear—Clothes—than any other custom tailor in Lincoln.

Lou Hill is now with Ben Simon and Sons Import Shop in the Cornhusker Hotel building. He is going to feature Oxford Clothes, together with his other popular price lines. He is better prepared to clothe college men than ever before, for he's got the clothes.

Pick a Good One

"Rufus," said the wise old senior to the giddy young frosh, "I see you being rushed around a lot. Watch your step and take your time. Pick a good one!"

That's smart "crackin'," whether you're picking a "bunch" or a fountain pen. You want both of them to live with you a long, long time. So it's best to step up to the Wahl Pen counter right now and choose yourself a fine Wahl Pen.

Pick the style you like (Wahls come thin and Wahls come fat); the material you want (Wahls come in solid gold, sterling silver, gold-filled and silver-filled, red, black or mottled rubber); the point that suits your hand—stiff or flexible, fine, medium, stub, oblique or Wahl Standard Signature.

Pick any Wahl Pen, and you get not only the smoothest, best-looking writing tool that ever graced your hand, but also one that from cap to nib is practically indestructible. You could carry a Wahl in your hip pocket through three initiations, and still have the best fountain pen in the world.
