

CHAMP KANSANS PLAY SATURDAY

Jayhawks Start Quest for Sixth Consecutive Valley Title; Meet Washington

Lawrence, Kan., Jan. 6.—With two non-conference basketball games stowed safely away, the champion Jayhawks will have their first conference contest with Washington university at St. Louis Saturday night.

Since 1909, the two teams have met 48 times, and from these contests, Kansas has emerged victor 37 times. The Kansas teams have piled up an aggregate score of 1600, to the 1057 total for the Washingtonians.

Kansas' next game will be Jan. 12, with the Kansas City Athletic Club at Kansas City, a non-conference contest, and the first home game will be with Iowa State at Lawrence on Saturday, January 15.

The home games will be broadcast by the University's station, KFKU, on a 275-meter wave length.

CYCLONE MATMEN HAVE GOOD GRADES

All Wrestlers at Iowa State Are Up in Grades and Prospect is For Good Season

Ames, Iowa, Jan. 6.—Special: Cyclone wrestling hopes this year will not be scrambled by scholastic difficulties, according to the grade sheets for the fall quarter. The Iowa State wrestlers without exception, have made good records in the class room as well as on the mat in the past quarter.

Following the good news as to scholastic work, Coach Hugo Otopalik has announced that he will again grant three gold medals to varsity wrestlers. One medal will go to the wrestler scoring the highest number of points in competition during the season, another will go to the man showing the most improvement in wrestling during the year and the third gold medal will be granted to the Cyclone varsity wrestler maintaining the highest scholastic average while wrestling with the Cyclone team. Captain Curt Lawrence, Cyclone light heavyweight grappler, won the medal last year for showing the most improvement, while Beach, 135-pound varsity man, won the high scholarship award and Harold Boyvey, National A. A. U. Western Conference and Missouri Valley 125-pound champion, won the gold medal for the most points scored against opponents.

It is rumored on the Missouri campus that Gwynn Henry is considering offers from other schools for his coaching services. During the past four years Henry has had a marked success at Columbia. It is hinted that a Big Ten school is after the Tiger mentor.

More Cadets Needed As Ushers at Games

More cadets are needed by the athletic department to usher at basketball games. Those wishing to work should apply early today as the assignments must be completed this afternoon. About twelve more places are to be filled, according to the athletic department.

The pre-season dope shows both teams rated strong in the valley. The K. U. and Sooner teams will meet Missouri, Nebraska, Kansas Aggies, Washington, Grinnell and Ames in their season's encounter. On March 8 at the dedication of Oklahoma's new gymnasium the two teams clash.

Coach "Indian" Schulte is getting his Nebraska track squad into shape for the coming season. With the assistance of "Choppy" Rhodes and Jimmy Lewis he is working out two hundred fifty men daily in the stadium.

Coach E. Bear has a reputation as a hand ball wizard in the coliseum. He is taking on any and all comers in hand ball. Every day you can find him and a half dozen of his football men battling the ball around the courts in the basement of the field house.

The Drake Bulldogs fell before the fast Kansas team 27 to 13 at Des Moines Tuesday, in a non-conference game. A new attendance record for basketball games was hung up, when five thousand people witnessed the game which dedicated the new Drake field house.

"Phog" Allen's lanky Kansas basketballers are using the five man defense this year, and it proved a stumbling block to the opposition, for the Bulldogs tried desperately to pierce the Kansas defense with no avail.

It is rumored on the Missouri campus that Gwynn Henry is considering offers from other schools for his coaching services. During the past four years Henry has had a marked success at Columbia. It is hinted that a Big Ten school is after the Tiger mentor.

SOONERS CONTINUE BASKETBALL TRIP

Oklahoma Five Returns From Texas Trip But Leaves Immediately For First Valley Clash

Norman, Jan. 5.—(Special)—After a trip through north central Texas which included games with Texas Christian University, North Texas state Normal, and Southern Methodist University, the Sooner basketball team was scheduled to stop off in Norman for a few hours Wednesday before leaving again for its first Missouri Valley games with conference members in Iowa.

Oklahoma meets Iowa State at Ames on Friday night and clashes with Grinnell on Saturday night before returning to Norman. A return contest with Iowa State on January 22 will be the first conference game on the home court for the Sooners. University fans, who saw the Sooners defeat Hilyards, the national amateur champions, and who watched the progress of the team on its Texas trip, already are clamoring for an all-victorious season. Coach Hugh V. McDermott, however, is well aware that he is facing a strenuous schedule, with three long invasions into the north and an imposing array of home games. The Sooners meet Iowa State, Grinnell, Nebraska, Kansas Aggies, Missouri and Washington under "home and home" game arrangements, and will wind up the season in a game with the University of Kansas here.

The two games with Iowa State and the one with Grinnell during January will mark the end of the collegiate basketball career of Carol "Bud" Honea, flashy little forward, who will have completed his three years of conference competition at the close of the present semester.

Fads Are Discussed In Ag College Publication

(Continued from page 1) Such as Home Radio sets, bobbed hair, slickers, tortoise-shell rims, and stop signs on autos. All of these have definite utility and have been universally adopted.

Fads sometimes cluster. They seem to center around one central theme. Examples would be that of the bracelets, dresses, pins, house decorations and numerous other things that came into existence with the discovery of King Tut's tomb. Another clustering fad of a more recent date was the Charleston. There were Charleston skirts, belts, and what not originating through the new dance fad. Other fads which prevailed a year or so ago were those that originated through the success of the production of Peter Pan in the movies. There were Peter Pan dresses, hats, bobs, and most everything that could carry the name Peter Pan. Red Grange created quite a sensation among the manufacturers of fads, as well as new names for certain utilities.

The slicker fad is one which is looked upon as a real utility. Some style of raincoat always has been worn by a few who wish to protect themselves from the rain. These first coats were drab looking and unattractive. Someone on the west coast conceived the idea of manufacturing a coat that would be ornamental as well as useful. They were first fashioned at one of the coast universities at a price not too high to make an appeal. The style and fabric of the garment was changed in order to make an article that a girl could wear. We now have slickers of all rain proof materials and of all styles and colors. They have been almost nationally adopted by young and old alike.

IN THE VALLEY

By JACK ELLIOTT

From the appearance of things no matter what combinations are used, Coach Chandler of Ames will have a fairly fast basketball team this year. The Ames quintet plays a clever floor game and an air tight defense game. If Elliott can set the pace he set last year, coupled with some basket shooting assistance from the other forwards and center, the Cyclone team this year should rank as the best seen at Iowa State since back in the dark past.

The Ames combination is settled, as Coach Chandler will have Captain Miller and King at the guard posts, Joe Wagner at the pivot position and Elliott and Ludwig at forward. The Nebraska basketballers will meet the Cyclones at Lincoln on January 29.

A peculiar coincident in the Missouri Valley this season is the fact that Kansas and the Oklahoma Sooner basketball teams play the same valley teams. Both play 12 official valley games with the same teams.
