THE HOUSE OF HEARTS

We have the largest assortment of Valentine's day boxes in the city. Boxes from one ounce to five pounds packed with our own high grade chocolates.

There were seventeen days throughout the month that one would have had to cover his car radiator up to prevent freezing.

There was a little less moisture for the month than normally, three inches of snow falling on the 13th with a small amount of sleet on the 26th being the greatest factors.

The relative humidity of the month with a mark of 71.9 percent varies but slightly with the normal tabulations.

On the whole, the month showed normal weather, not bearing out the popular conception that the winters are growing milder, or injuring the coal dealer's business.

MANY JUNIORS ATTEND PARTY

Silver Serpent Novel Hobo Rally Held Last Night Proves to Be Success

Between ninety and one hundred women of the Junior class attended the party held in their honor, by the Silver Serpents, from 6 to 8 o'clock last night in Ellen Smith Hall.

Novelty was the keynote of the event, in attire, decoration, entertainment and refreshments. Every known species and degree of 'hobodom' was represented by the variety of costumes in evidence.

Dancing to Cleo Sigel's Red Jacket Orchestra entertained, in addition to a program in which Kate Goldstein sang several numbers, fitting to the occasion, to her own ukulele accompaniment.

The final and climatic feature of the evening came with the 'handout' served in red and blue bandana handkerchiefs and consisting of a lunch substantial and savory enough to cheer the heart of any 'bum'.

At The Theatres

The story of American family life, as called by the press agents, in "The Pottery," starring W. C. Fields, at the Rialto. There is no reason why this production can be called a story of American family life, for it is concerned chiefly with "Pa" Potter, who invests in some oil stock, and "Ma" Potter, who thinks "Pa" is a sucker.

The Liberty bill for the last half of the week opens with The Three Olympians, physical culture experts in a clever gymnasium act. Jeane Joyson, an excellent blues singer, who is both good to hear and look at.

INGLIS HAS FAITH IN NEW GENERATION

Speaker at Ag College World Forum Thinks Change Is for Better in Student Life

The Rev. Ervine Inglis of the Vine Congregational Church gave a very optimistic interpretation of student life in his talk on "The New Generation" before the weekly meeting of Ag College World Forum on the College of Agriculture campus yesterday noon.

He outlined his experience as a student, stating that it was easier to "be good" when he was in school than it is now.

He did not bemoan this fact, but felt that students were much the same as ever. He divided them into three classes; those who refuse to play the game, those on middle ground and the few at the top who set the standards for the other two classes.

In comparing these classes with those of an earlier day, he felt that any change had been for the better. The Rev. B. F. Wyland, pastor of the First Plymouth Church will lead the discussion at the next meeting of the Forum, according to announcement made by Lloyd Strombeck, '28, chairman of the committee.

A Place To Eat That Is New and Different

I was having dinner with Ellice last Sunday. She wanted a place that was new and different; quiet enough and private enough that we could talk without broadcasting our words for the benefit of the campus; where the atmosphere would soothe her troubled spirits; she'd been working hard. Yet she didn't want a place that was all atmosphere and no food; Ellice appreciates a good meal.

Craig's Wife. Who Is She?

She worshiped her home, barring the family from the use of the front stairs, searching for dust with a practiced eye, ruling out flowers because the petals fall on the boor. She does not trust anybody, and especially she doesn't trust the men. You must see her yourself—this afternoon, tonight, at tomorrow's matinee or evening performance, for the University Players are producing "Craig's Wife," George Kelly's most popular comedy-drama, February 10, 11, and 12 at the Temple Theater with the usual matinees beginning Friday at 3 p. m. and Saturday at 2:15.

A Swanky Suit For College Wear

Can you imagine hand-tailored suits, grey, blue, rosewood, tan, hairline; rough English tweeds; demure navy blue (but not too demure); and swanky checked models that make you want to thrust your hands deep into their patch pockets, and swagger jauntily across the campus? Can you imagine them at $25.00 per suit? But they ARE in town. Mr. Levy at Sternberg's (1317 O St.) has a plan by which he is able to outfit all sizes of college girls in these clever suits at this moderate price.

Champe Says

"Why not get your permanent wave NOW? At our special price of $7.50 for a short time. Your permanent will last you through the summer months, and think of the comfort of having it early! We specialize in rewaves using the Nestle's Circuline Method. Our expert operators assure you of a perfect permanent." Last year Champe's Beauty Shop gave 3,000 permanent waves, and if you want to meet those dreaded spring waves with a guaranteed waterproof wave, you better make your appointment now. At Champe's Beauty Shop, 1229 N street.

The Spirit of Youth For Dancing Feet

Come springtime, the feet of youth are always dancing. Other seasons may insist on sensible footwear, but, come spring, My feet insist on being shod distinctively, don't YOURS! Feet must look different without being at odds with the mode. Fashion dictates PEACOCK SHOES for correct collegiate wear. Hose must match the college girl's dress; her shoes must harmonize. The Marcelle, by Peacock, is such a shoe. Into this creation Peacock has built the spirit of youth. The model is Parchment de la Coral with an overlay of Rose Blush kid extending back in a graceful wave. PEACOCK SHOES are original models Paris designer. Moderately priced at the Peacock Shoe Shop, just a step south of O on the east side of 12th.
