

CAGERS TO PLAY PAIR OF GAMES

Cornhusker Basketball Team To Meet Two Oklahoma Quints This Week-End

BOTH GAMES TO COUNT

With the hardest week on the Nebraska schedule at hand, the Husker basketballers were successful in disposing of their first opponent, the Missouri Tigers. But the hardest games are yet to come, with the Oklahoma Sooners, who are holding second place in the Valley cage race, and the Oklahoma Aggies who meet the boys of Coach Black on the Coliseum floor Friday and Saturday nights. Both games will count in the conference standings.

Friday night the Nebraskans face the Oklahoma Sooners, who are considered one of the strongest quintets in the conference. Nebraska took the count of the southern team when they met at Norman and should the team from Soonerland win the game on the home court, Nebraska's chance at the title will be almost shattered. Coach Hugh McDermott's line-up will be Victor Holt, the six foot six inch center, battling Page for the tip-off, Captain West and Drake at the forward positions, Haller and Pinkerton at the guards.

Play Aggies Saturday
Saturday night's game will be with the Oklahoma Aggies, would-be contenders for the title crown. The Aggies were successful in trimming the Huskers when the visited Stillwater some weeks back, but since then have gone down to defeat at the hands of Washington and Missouri, causing them to lose considerable prestige in conference basketball circles. The Oilers are in a sixth place tie with the Kansas Aggies and meet the Kansas Staters the night before the clash with the Huskers.

Coach Charley Black took his Scarlet and Cream cagers through a two hour drill last night, devoting most of the time to the inveterate short-pass game, that proved so disastrous to the Bengals Monday. Fifty from the foul line, long high arched shots and passing completed the program of the Husker coach.

No Predictions Made

Ted Page, the Cornhusker giant, was getting his daily exercise tipping them in from under the basket, while Anderson and Holm were arching the ball through the net from the middle of the court. Coach Black is pointing his squad to the pair of games with the two southern teams this week end and makes no predictions as to the outcome.

The games this week are:

Friday—
Oklahoma at Nebraska.
Oklahoma Aggies at Kansas Aggies
Grinnell at Kansas.

Saturday—
Oklahoma at Kansas Aggies.
Oklahoma Aggies at Nebraska.

The Missouri Valley cage race, including games of Monday, February 14:

	W	L	Pct.
Missouri	6	1	.857
Oklahoma	5	2	.714
Kansas	5	2	.714
Nebraska	5	3	.633
Drake	4	4	.500
Oklahoma Aggies	3	4	.428
Kansas Aggies	3	4	.428
Ames	4	6	.400
Washington	2	4	.333
Grinnell	2	7	.222

IN THE VALLEY

By JACK ELLIOTT

The undefeated Kansas University wrestling team will meet the Iowa State grapplers at Ames Saturday for a Valley meet. The Kansas squad is tied for first place with Ames and the Oklahoma Aggies.

There will be several changes in the Cyclone lineup from that which wrestled the Huskers last week. Grooms, who wrestled Captain Brannigan at Lincoln last week cracked a rib in the match and will give way to Rex Campbell, Mid-West A. A. U. champion. Campbell has won every meet entered this year in a decisive fashion. The Ames captain will probably be moved up to the heavyweight and Blair will replace Wolf.

Although Kansas entered wrestling circles only three years ago the Jayhawkers, under the coaching of Guy Lockabaugh, former Oklahoma Aggie 158-pounder, have gone undefeated this year. The Jayhawkers are not on the Husker wrestling schedule this year.

The present standing of the wrestling teams in the Missouri Valley conference.

	W.	L.	Pct.
Iowa State	3	0	1.000
Kansas	2	0	1.000
Oklahoma A. & M.	2	0	1.000
Nebraska	2	1	.667
Oklahoma	1	1	.500
Missouri	0	3	.000
Kansas State	0	4	.000

The Tiger victory over the Oklahoma Sooners certainly gave the Kansas Jayhawkers a running chance in the Valley basketball cage race. But the Kansas quint still have their hardest hurdle to make, Nebraska, who dumped Kansas at Lawrence, Oklahoma and Missouri are still remaining on the Kansas schedule. On February 26 the Jayhawkers enroute for Lincoln for a conference game with Coach Black's cagers and 'Phog' Allen's five will be out to even the old count that night. Black hopes to beat his master again and this time before the Nebraska fans.

The Nebraskans as they have done all season will have the say-so on the tip-off with big Ted Page in the center ring. Holt, the Oklahoma center measures up to within one inch of the Husker giant and is every inch a real basketball player. It will be a battle of giants when the two pivots meet on the floor Friday night. Page was able to best the Sooner center at Norman and Friday on the home court, the Cornhuskers are favored. Sport critics have estimated that the control of the tip-off means from eight to ten points in every game, so the Oklahomans are going to find it mighty tough to beat the Scarlet and Cream quintet.

Ted Page, Husker center, leads the valley centers for high scoring. Page has played in 4 games and scored 44 points. Peterson, Jayhawk pivotman is a close second with 43 points scored in the same number of games. The tall Nebraska center has snagged 18 field goals and 8 free tosses for his season's record.

More than a dozen Sooner track men will represent the University of Oklahoma in the annual Kansas City Athletic club indoor meet which will be held at Kansas City February 19. John Jacobs, coach, is taking the largest squad he has ever taken to the meet.

GRAPPLERS LEAVE FRIDAY FOR IOWA

Husker Matmen Will Meet Undefeated Iowa University Wrestling Team This Week

Coach Kellogg and his Nebraska grapplers will enroute for Iowa City Friday where they meet the University of Iowa wrestlers in a dual meet. The Hawkeyes have a fast aggressive mat squad this season and have not lost a match.

There will be few changes in the Nebraska lineup from that which faced the Cyclones last Saturday. Karrer will handle the 125-pound class instead of Carpenter. The rest of the squad will be the same that wrestled the Ames squad.

Kish will be in the 115-pound class, Luff in the 135-pound class, Captain Brannigan in the 145-pound class, Toman in the 158-pound class and Davis in the heavy assignment.

In the tryouts last night, Carpenter showed up quite well, but lacked the necessary few seconds of the decision to put the time over on Karrer. The two men went for two extra periods, with neither man having very much of an edge, but after the second extra period, Karrer had the decision and will represent the Huskers at Iowa City. Lundy won the right to represent Nebraska at Iowa City by defeating McBride in the tryouts last night.

In the class B game of the evening the Kappa Sig seconds won over Phi Sigma Kappa 20 to 15. Led by "Red" Molzen the eager Kappa Sig B's took a lead at the start which they kept throughout. However, they had no easy job in staying ahead of the Phi Sigs who threatened continually through the contest. Griffen was high point man of the losers scoring three field goals.

TRACKMEN HAVE BUSY AFTERNOON

Coaches Put Candidates Through Hard Workout in Effort to Choose Squad

Faced with the necessity of limiting the size of his squad, Coach Henry F. Schulte is still undecided as to which men will comprise the Cornhusker team at the Kansas City Athletic Club's indoor track meet Saturday.

The veteran coach, assisted by Jimmy Lewis and "Choppy" Rhodes, sent his long distance candidates through a three-quarter mile tryout Wednesday evening. Sprague, after lagging practically the whole distance showed what he might have done if he had kept up with the leaders when he picked up a forty yard lead on the last lap. He nosed out Lemly with a time of three minutes twenty-four seconds. Ritcher and Frink finished in a tie at 3:28 in this race. Hays and Chadderdon, who ran earlier, turned in a time of 3:26.

Johnson, Tappan, Campbell, Davenport, and Lowe were put through some fast one-lap work and started practice on passing the baton for relay work. Johnson's time of 29.6 seconds was the best for one lap. Campbell, sophomore, surprised the squad by beating out Davenport and Lowe in a lap, circling the indoor track in 29.9 seconds. Krause was put through a hard hurdle workout running on the boards.

Plans are quickly being drawn together for Engineer's Day, at the University of Nevada. This is one of the big annual events at this institution and a bigger and better meeting was assured by the spirited discussion at the Associated Engineer's meeting.

Ten prizes in journalism and in letters, ranging from $500 to $2,000 each, and five traveling scholarships amounting to $1500 each, are being offered by Columbia University as a part of the awards annually made to students under the provisions in the will of the late Joseph Pulitzer.
