

LOCKE MAY RUN IN KAGGIE MEET

Sprint Star, Recovering From Tonsillitis, Scheduled To Dash Saturday

COACH ANNOUNCES TEAM

Roland Locke, Nebraska sprint ace and world's record holder in the 220 yard dash, will make his first appearance of the 1927 season in an exhibition dash at the Nebraska-Kansas Aggie dual track and field meet Saturday afternoon on the indoor track of the East stadium if present plans materialize. Locke has been troubled with his tonsils and has been slow in getting into shape. Barring a recurrence of the tonsillitis, the blonde star will work out at the meet.

Other dash stars will compete with Locke, including Art Easter, fast Cambridge freshman. Weir, Trumble, and Keiss are expected to run some exhibition flights of hurdles at the Saturday meet also. The meet will start at 2:30 with both Kaggies and the Huskers entering full squads. The meet is a "toner" for the Valley indoor meet at Des Moines next week.

KAPPA SIGS WIN FROM SIG EPS

Quintet Places Second in Interfraternity Basketball Tourney by Winning 23 to 16 Score

The Kappa Sigs won the second-place skin in the interfraternity basketball tourney by virtue of their victory over the Sig Eps last night, at the Coliseum, 23 to 16. It was one of the fastest and hardest played games of the season.

Every member of the Kappa Sig quintet was working in fine style, with Owens and Kronright the leading scorers. Owens managed to get five goals from the field slipping under the basket for each one. Miller and Hecht led the attack for the Sig Ep five with six points each.

The first half ended with the Kappa Sigs on the long end of the score, 12 to 4, but the second half the Sig Eps soon garnered three baskets to almost tie the score. The Kappa Sigs immediately got hot and from then on the game was on ice.

IN THE VALLEY

By JACK ELLIOTT

Four Iowa State basketball players and their variety playing days in the game with Nebraska at Ames on Thursday night, and the last game of the 1927 season for the Cyclones. They are Captain Aron Miller, Earl Elliott, Herman Fennema and Harold Klingaman.

The Cyclones will have a real job on their hands that night, not only will they have to contend with Captain Clark Smaha, who is one of the best shots in the Valley and one of the high scorers, but they will also have to stop Page, Cornhusker center, who is six feet seven inches in height and the tallest center in the conference.

At Captain Miller's back guard position Coach W. S. Chandler will use Brown. Brown's work in stopping "Lefty" Byers, Kansas Aggie scoring ace who leads the Valley in total points, and Myers, Drake's high point man have been features of the last two games. Brown will be given the assignment of trailing Smaha, stellar Nebraska forward, who is third in Valley scoring with 103 points.

The University of Kansas is back at the head of the Missouri Valley conference basketball standings at the beginning of the final week of the season. If Kansas wins again this year, it will be the sixth season for the Jayhawkers to cop the title. The Jayhawkers need only one of the two remaining conference games to cinch the championship. Even if both games are lost a tie for the leadership is assured. Missouri met Kansas on the K. U. court last night and the Kansas Aggies came to Lawrence for their final conference game of the season on Friday. Kansas has defeated both teams, and on the home court they are favored to win again.

While the roar of 3,000 persons rose and fell, the Oklahoma Aggie wrestling team downed the strong Iowa State grapplers at Stillwater Saturday 18-1-2 to 4-1-2. It was the first defeat for the Cyclones this season and took the first place in the conference away from them. Grooms, Iowa State 145-pounder was the only Ames wrestler to win a match.

Missouri had a disastrous week down at Oklahoma last week-end losing both of their tilts to the Sooners and the Oklahoma Aggies. It was the upset of the week, because the Tigers had beaten both teams on the Columbia court. This may go to prove the old saying that the Oklahoma teams think they are the best in the Valley when they are on the home court. The Aggies have not lost a game on the home court this season while the number of games won on the road total nothing. The Tigers put out a hard luck story at the beginning of their southern invasion, saying that all of their first string players were injured and the team would have a hard time winning either game. This may be true, but the Mizou five lost both games to the Oklahoma teams.

The Oklahoma Sooner basketball team has been the greatest scoring machine in the Valley this season. The Sooner lads have run up a total of 331 points in ten games. This is an average of over 33 points to a game. The Kansas Aggies are second with an average of 32 points per game or 333 points in eleven games for the season. The Kansas Jayhawkers have the ranking of being the best defensive team with a total of 208 points scored against them during the season.

LARGE NUMBER ARE TO ENTER TOURNEY

249 Teams Register for 1927 State High School Basketball Tournament So Far

With the 249-team mark being reached, the 1927 state high school basketball tournament goes down on record as being the second largest entry list in the history of state high school basketball competition. The largest number having been reached last year when 339 teams registered for the tourney.

The entry books are still open and in all probability the final mark will be over 250. Some teams will no doubt be eliminated when their records for the season are examined. It is necessary for each team entered, that at least forty per cent of their games must be victories, in order to compete.

Many New Competitors

Among the leading teams on Wednesday's list are: Auburn, class A winner in the Peru Normal invitation tournament; Mead, Saunders county champion; Waterloo, western Douglas county champion; Eagle, Cass county champions; and Lincoln, one of the leading teams of the state. The last week of the 1927 Missouri Valley basketball season is in swing and the Cornhuskers are taking their final stride in Iowa. Ten basketball men and Coach Black left for the Hawkeye State on the Rock Island last night at midnight for their two remaining conference games with Ames and Drake. Nebraska now rests in third place in the Valley cage race, tied with the Oklahoma Sooners with six games to the win side and four lost. The two games in teams registered:

Atlanta, Auburn, Beaver Crossing, Beatrice, Benkelman, Bingham, Brule, Comstock, Central City, Clark, Colfax, Council Bluffs, Columbus, Dannebrog, Dawson, Dunning, Eagle, Elgin, Falls City, Filley, Grafton, Humboldt, Harrison, Havelock, Henderson, Hebron Academy, Hemingford, Holdrege, Hyannis, Indianola, Jewetta, Lewistown, Lincoln High, Lincoln, Long Pine, Marquette, Milford, Merrill, Muller, Minatare, Newman Grove, O'Neill, St. Marys Academy and High School, Orleans, Palmyra, Scottsbluff, Scotia, South Sioux City, Sterling, Stromsburg, Sutherland, Syracuse, Talmage, Thayer, Walthill, Waterloo, Winnebago, Wood Lake, York, Alton, Lyons, Mead, Rushville, Valentine, Wakefield, Bellevue, Mason City, Walton, Battle Creek, Duncanson, Fulton, Arlington, Aroid, Atkinson, Aurora, Bassett, Bayard, Bennett, Berwyn, Bladen, Blue Springs, Bradshaw, Brainerd, Branning, Bruno, Campbell, Cedar Bluffs, Chappell, Chester, Clatonia, Creston, Clarkson, Deshaer, Diller, Dodge, Dorchester, Fairbury, Farwell, Franklin, Fremont, Genoa, Glenvil, Gordon, Grant, Guide Rock, Hallam, Hastings, Hickman, Holmesville, Hubbard, Johnson, Kearney, Kennard, Lawrence, Leigh, Lexington, Lincoln, School of Aert, Louisville, McCool Junction, Merna, Nelson, Iowa will put the Cornhuskers in second place should the men of Charley Black turn in a win over both quintets.

Team in Final Practice
The final practice session of the 1927 season was run off last night with the usual snap, Coach Black giving his men a light limbering up before going on the road. Basket shooting and close guarding formed the major part of the Nebraska coach's time.

Iowa State, the Nebraska foe at Ames on Thursday night is holding eighth place in the Valley cage race, but are considered one of the hardest teams of the Valley to win from at home. It is the final game for the Cyclones and they are determined to close the season with a win. It will be remembered that the Cyclones and the Cornhuskers are the only two teams in the conference that have been able to put a win over on Coach "Phog" Allen's Jayhawker crew. Nebraska holds a win over the Iowa Staters when they met in Lincoln.

Nebraska May Be Second
Nebraska's loss to Kansas last Saturday and Oklahoma's win from Missouri put the two quintets in a third place tie and if the Huskers take the game Thursday night it will mean a second place for the Nebraska five.

Grinnell plays at Oklahoma Friday and the Sooners are favored to win from the cellar champions which will still leave the Huskers and Sooners tied. The Kansas Jayhawkers have a tight hold on first place and a loss of both their remaining games would still leave them in the coveted first place.

Captain Clark Smaha is holding third place in the Valley scoring column and it is more than probable that the Husker ace will ascend the column of scorers before the season closes. Yunker of Missouri is in second place with five more points than the Nebraska captain and has but one more game left to play while Smaha plays in two more conference games. Ted Page, Nebraska center is in eighth place, with 76 points scored in ten games.

The Board of Editors of the Yale Daily News for the coming year, took office last week without outlining a platform for the year. Instead they published a short editorial, declaring that the newspaper will deal impartially with all affairs connected with the college. The coming year will be the 50th for the News, which is the oldest college daily in the United States.
