TRACK SQUAD LEAVES FOR VALLEY MEET

Twenty Men Make Trip to Des Moines for Annual Valley Indoor Meet

TITLE HOPES ARE SLIM

Team Should Place High But Has Small Chance to Take Honors

Conceded only a fighting chance to win, Nebraska's squad of twenty track and field men accompanied by Coach Henry F. Schulte, "Doc" McLean, and Junior Manager Robert Dubois, are all set to leave this afternoon at 1:40 on the Rock Island for Des Moines and the annual Missouri Valley conference indoor track and field meet.

High school athletes attending the tournament will be given a chance to watch Nebraska numeral athletes and freshmen stars perform at the stadium this afternoon from 3:30 to 5:30. "Choppy" Rhodes, assistant track coach will be in charge of a series of exhibitions.

Rhodes and the other assistant coaches will give interested high school students instruction on the various track and field events. Track men who will report to the stadium today for exhibitions are: Keiss, Trumble, White, Elkins, Richards, Bauer, Raugh, Raue, Easter, Sneathen, Dexter, Kezer, Griffen, Witte, and Wyatt.

Papers in the Middle West have been doping the Huskers as favorites to repeat this year for their third successive title but fans in the know around Huskerdom figure that Nebraska has a hard row to hoe Saturday. Coach Schulte stated Saturday evening that it would take a miracle for Nebraska to win.

Should Place Near Top
The Cornhuskers should place up near the top of the heap but to hope for another championship from as green a team as will represent Nebraska at Des Moines is almost too much. With only three members of last year's point-scorers on the squad, Johnson, Wirsig, and Wyatt, and one of those, "Perly" Wyatt in questionable shape, the Nebraska team will be one of the newest aggregations to represent the University on the track in years.

Kansas, Iowa State, Oklahoma, and Missouri are all recognized as likely to take the meet. Team strength indicates that the points will be well split up. Coach Schulte predicts that no team will be able to garner more than 25 points in the meet. Last year the Huskers won with 36 3-4 points.

DR. RICE SPEAKS AT CONVOCATION

"Jesus Today" Subject of Talk Given By Tulsa Pastor at Meeting Held Wednesday

"Jesus Today" was the subject of Dr. John A. Rice's address before a general convocation yesterday morning in the Temple. He declared that he had lived through the storms caused by various forms of religious upheaval and disturbances and in so doing had come out with newer and more reasonable views of God and life.

He asserted that the Bible had been saved from discard by higher criticism in this scientific age, and that when rightly interpreted, it is as adequate today as it has ever been. He declared that God is all love as well as all law, and that it is necessary to get to the bottom of nature before it is possible to thoroughly understand God.

Annual Exhibition of Art Club Opens Friday

An informal opening of the fourth annual exhibition of the University Art Club will be held in Morrill Hall March 18 at 8:30 p. m. There will be a very interesting display of original work by the members, including oil paintings, charcoal drawings, illustrations, china designs, and applied work.

The program will be opened by a piano solo by Ida Lustgarten. Hazel Snavely and Leora Chapman will give a dance, followed by a reading by Mildred Matson. Miss Gertrude Moore of the faculty will talk on the exhibition.

SENATOR MEANS WILL SPEAK

U. S. Senator Will Address Students At Convocation Tuesday

United States Senator Rice W. Means of Colorado will speak at a University convocation next Tuesday, according to an announcement made by Prof. Paul H. Grummann, in charge of convocations. While in the city, he will be entertained by the Lincoln ladies' auxiliary.

He will be met at the Burlington station Tuesday morning by a committee having charge of his entertainment, and will speak at a banquet to be given by Spanish War veterans.

COPPOCK DRIVE MOVES SLOWLY

Less Than $350 Has Been Secured Toward Goal Set at $1,700

Nearly a hundred dollars was turned in on Grace Coppock drive at 3 o'clock Thursday afternoon. Any money turned in after that time will not be counted until this afternoon. The drive is moving slowly with less than three hundred and fifty dollars toward the seventeen hundred dollar goal.

Helen Anderson's team still leads, but Team B under Edna Schirck has forged into second place. Team C under Helen Eastman remains in third. The fund now totals $344.25. Tea was served Thursday afternoon by the Grace Coppock committee for all university women from 3 to 5 o'clock in Ellen Smith Hall. The tea was used as a meeting place for team workers and other university women, for the discussion of drive work and the work of the Grace Coppock fund in general.

Chinese Decorations Are Used
The dining room was in charge of the university Y. W. C. A. social staff which is headed by Mabel Doremus. Alice Leslie and Katherine Beekman presided at the tea table. Nellie May Howe, Frieda Curtis, Aileen Strubby and Vera Hanson served in the dining room. Ernestine McNeil was in charge of the decorations. Chinese scrolls and a huge golden Dragon on a black background were used as decorations.

The Grace Coppock memorial fund will this year go into the general budget of the Y. W. C. A. in China. This fund was originally started to pay the salary of Grace Coppock, a Nebraska graduate who started the work of the Y. W. C. A. in China. Since her death it has gone as a memorial to the support of recreational work for Chinese women.

Work Directed by Alumnus
Recreational work in China is under the direction of Vera Barger, also a Nebraska graduate, who visited this campus a year ago on her way back to China. Now she has nearly completed the training of a Chinese woman to take her place, and for this reason the memorial fund will go into the general budget.

Miss Agatha Harrison who has been studying industrial conditions in China, and who is to a large degree responsible for the reforms in the way of shorter hours and better working conditions for Chinese women visited the Nebraska campus about a month ago. She spoke at Vespers and twice during the following day to university women interested in the work she has done in China.

RICE ADDRESSES AG FORUM

Speaks on "What Science Has Done For My Religion"

Dr. John A. Rice of Tulsa, Oklahoma, who is visiting the University under the auspices of the University Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. spoke before the Ag College World Forum on "What Science Has Done for My Religion" yesterday noon.

In discussing the various attitudes toward the old and new testaments of the Bible, he divided them into those who believe it from "kiver to kiver"; those who regard it merely as bits of Hebrew literature; and the most worthwhile class, those who study it to find the "trunkline principles" of human conduct and experience.

He stated that if the books of the Bible were arranged in the order of their appearance, it would show a progressive development of the principles of life. It would bring out a development of the idea of God and an evolution of ethical standards, idea of a future life, sound ideals, after life, redemption, worship and other important principles of righteous living.

Bid For State Championship

The Lincoln High School basketball squad, one of the teams expected to go into the last rounds of the Class A state championship this week-end, when teams gathered from all over Nebraska vie for honors. Hastings and Crete are expected to be formidable rivals with this aggregation for the championship.

The players are: Upper row—Assistant coach Overman, Harvey Bauer, Leo Erk, Russell Hacker, Mark Martin, Art Berry, Coach W. H. Browne.

SEAVEY RECEIVES LAW APPOINTMENT

Former Dean is Made Professor Of Law at Harvard; Was Here for Six Years

Former Dean W. A. Seavey of the College of Law at the University of Nebraska, has been appointed a professor of law at Harvard University to work with Professor Bohlen, a famous legal expert, was the word received yesterday at the office of Dean H. H. Foster. Torta, a phase of law in which he is greatly interested, will be his specialty.

When Dean Seavey left last year to fill a position in the law faculty of the University of Pennsylvania, he ended six years of service as dean of the law school in the University of Nebraska. While here, besides fulfilling his duties as dean he taught Torts and Agency and wrote extensively on legal subjects for law journals. His "A Case Book on Agency" was published a short time ago.

Has Held Various Positions
Positions in the law schools of the University of Oklahoma, Turbano University, and Pei-Yang University in China have been held by Mr. Seavey. In 1921 he came from the University of Indiana to be dean of the law school at the University of Nebraska.

Harvard was the place of most of the education, for there he received all his undergraduate work, his A. B. degree and his L. D. degree. He took his preparatory work at the Boston Latin School.

"This appointment of Mr. Seavey is significant since it comes from the greatest of law schools," says Dean H. H. Foster, a personal friend of Mr. Seavey and who filled the vacancy in the law college left when Mr. Seavey went to the University of Pennsylvania.

Poster Contest Will Close At Noon Tomorrow

The poster contest held in connection with the Health Carnival to be held March 17 and 18 by the department of physical education for women will close by noon March 12. It is urged that everyone hand in their poster by this date or they will not be eligible for the award of five dollars to be given for the best poster on health.

Judges have not been selected but they will be members of the faculty of the department of physical education and the winner will be announced during one of the afternoon programs of the carnival.

Members of the committee in charge composed of Kathro Kidwell, chairman, Marjorie Easterbrook, Marie Hermanek, Helen Moorehead, Hazel Snavely, and Helen West will accept the posters or they may be handed in at the office of the Women's Physical Education Department.

Oldfather Will Lead Readers' Hour Sunday

Prof. C. H. Oldfather of the department of history will have charge of the readers' hour at the University Club Sunday afternoon at 6 o'clock. He will talk about women of Troy in relation to what is probably the first historical protest against war, illustrating his theme with readings from Euripides.

Big Sister Luncheon Will Be Held at Noon Tomorrow

The annual Big Sister Board luncheon will be held Saturday, at 12 o'clock at Ellen Smith hall. Members of the old Board and the advisory council will be present.

Initiation of new members will take place and announcement of the newly elected president will be made. Miss Heppner, Miss Piper, and Mrs. Lantz will be present as honor guests.

GRADE STUDENTS VISIT AG CAMPUS

500 Seventh Graders Study Outdoor Occupations; Talks Given for Vocational Guidance

Five hundred seventh grade students of the Lincoln city schools representing the Junior Civic League, were guests of the College of Agriculture today.

They were studying out door occupations and were particularly interested in farming as a vocation. The purpose of the talks which were given by the different members of the faculty of the college of agriculture was that of vocational guidance.

Ross Miller and R. R. Thalman of the animal husbandry department talked to one group on the four principal classes of farm livestock, hogs, cattle, horses, and sheep in which they told something about the various breeds and their care.

Importance of Dairy Products
Those interested in dairying were told about cattle and the importance of dairy products by Professor H. L. Davis and P. A. Downs. These men spoke briefly on the dairy breeds and told something about the manufacturing of ice cream, butter and the care of milk.

C. N. Shear of the poultry department talked to the poultry group, telling them of the industry and describing the most important breeds of chickens.

The entomology group listened to Prof. D. B. Whelan who talked on bee culture telling them something about the care of bees and how to get started into bee keeping. Ray Roberts, also of the entomology department, talked on injurious insects.

AYLSWORTH TALKS TO DINNER CLUB

Opposed to Proposed Change in City Government; Present System Superior to New Plan

In a talk before the Knife and Fork Club, Prof. L. E. Aylsworth, of the Political Science Department, stated that he was opposed to the proposed change in government for the City of Lincoln, because he was of the opinion that it would serve as an encouragement to petty politics. He further stated that there was nothing to guarantee the permanence of office tenure, and that there was too much chance of getting a poor executive at the head of the administration.

Professor Aylsworth does not consider the present form of government perfect, but declared it superior to the plan that will be up before the vote of the people in the spring election.

SISTERS GIVE TEA TOMORROW

Freshmen are Invited; Program Has Been Planned

A tea will be given for Big and Little Sisters Saturday from 3 to 5 o'clock at Ellen Smith Hall. All freshman girls are invited to attend.

Chairmen of the committees are as follows: decorations, Florence Brinton; refreshments, Abbie Brick; entertainment, Viola Forsell.

An interesting program has been planned consisting of games, dancing, and vocal selections. Helen Clark will be in charge of the games and Leora Chapman and Hazel Snavely will sing Irish songs in carrying out the spirit of St. Patrick's day. Ida Lustgarten will play for social dancing and will give a piano solo.

HASTINGS HAS DIFFICULTY IN DEFEATING UNI PLACE
Favorites in Class A Win in First Clash; Fremont Takes 21-to-10 Bout From St. Paul, Lincoln Disposes Of North Platte by 25-to-8 Count

Basketball players from all parts of the state continued to report at the Coliseum yesterday for the seventeenth annual high school basketball tournament. Of the 258 teams registered only two failed to report. They were Wausa and Cambridge. Wausa was scheduled to meet Ogallala, while Cambridge was to tangle with Gordon.

PLANS COMPLETE FOR SPRING HOP

Opening Event Will Be Held At Scottish Rite Temple Saturday Evening

SPONSORS ARE CHOSEN

The Spring Hop, the opening party of the spring season, will be held at the Scottish Rite Temple tomorrow night. Final preparations have been completed and reports of sub-committees on the dance point to one of the most successful parties of the season.

The list of military organization sponsors has been completed, and the identity of each of them will be disclosed at the Hop, where they will be formally presented to the honorary colonel of the cadet regiment. The new sponsors will be featured in the Sunday issue of The Daily Nebraskan, as well as in the society sections of the Lincoln Sunday papers.

Beck's Will Play
The music for the party promises to be the best available in Lincoln, with some new numbers being worked up by Beck's Orchestra. The ballroom floor will be in excellent condition, and the decorations, in the hands of an experienced man, will be finished in an attractive oriental design. The lighting fixtures will be shaded somewhat to lend a more pleasing atmosphere for dancing.

The deans of the various colleges of the University and their wives have been invited to attend the Hop as chaperones. Many of the military department instructors will also be present.

Some tickets for the dance are still available for those who have not already procured theirs. They may be obtained from members of Pershing Rifles for one dollar and fifty cents. Any previously unsold tickets will be sold at the doors tomorrow night. The party will begin promptly at 8:45 p. m.

OUTLAW NUMBER GOES ON SALE

Additional Features Enliven Issue; Number is Dedicated to Annual Tourney

The "Outlaw Number," the March issue of the Awgwan came off the press late Thursday evening and can be secured at the Book Store and all down town news stands. Those who have subscriptions may get their magazine at Station A. in Long's Book Store.

With several additional features, including the Mirror, Aunt Mame's Mail Box and the usual book reviews, the editors have compiled a very interesting number, following the more personal atmosphere that the comic publication has assumed in the last two issues.

Extra Copies Are Printed
"Extra copies have been printed to meet the increased demand among the students and the basket ball tournament and sufficient copies will be available," Frederick Daly, Business Manager, said yesterday. The circulation staff is trying to cover all down town news stands so all desiring the humorous magazine can easily get them. Students will be on the campus today selling copies.

This number is dedicated to the basketball teams and the Annual State Tournament which is in progress at the present time.

SORORITY HOLDS BANQUET

Gamma Alpha Chi Celebrates First Anniversary at Nebraska

Gamma Alpha Chi, honorary advertising sorority, will celebrate its first anniversary on the Nebraska campus with a Founder's Day banquet tonight in the Chinese room of the Lincoln Hotel. Preceding the banquet will be the pledging and initiation of Esther Sniawlsky, '29, Columbus; Frances Beers, '27, Omaha; and Arlene Turnbull, '28, Lincoln.

Favorites came through the first round of the Class A competition with flying colors. University Place almost smothered the dope sheet, making a desperate attempt to supply the needed score in the last few minutes of play. The Uni Place aggregation lead the Hastings quintet 13 to 10 at the half, but in the final period Hastings proceeded to tie the score and sank the deciding goal in the dying moments of the game. Fremont easily disposed of St. Paul, 21 to 10. This was the first defeat of the season for St. Paul.

Crete Has Close Game
Auburn threw a scare into the Crete supporters by leading the Crete basketeers through almost the entire game, except in the final stanza, when Crete slowly forced ahead to win the game, 19 to 16. Lincoln had little trouble defeating North Platte 25 to 8.

In Class B, Norfolk easily outclassed Havelock, riding on the long end of a 21 to 8 score. Ravenna showed plenty of ability by downing Superior 19 to 7. Gothenburg looked good in their 14 to 12 win over Arlington.

MISS RICHARDSON SPEAKS

Field Worker Talks to Home Economics Students at Convocation

Miss Anna E. Richardson, field worker in child development and parental education for the American Home Economics Association, Washington, D. C., spoke to the home economics students at a convocation Thursday at Agricultural College.

Departments where well developed child care laboratories are maintained are visited by Miss Richardson. The work is being financed by the Laurel Speelman Rockefeller fund. The Nebraska home economics department is one of fifteen such college departments where there are nursery schools.

Pleased With Department
"I am very much pleased with the department," Miss Richardson said. "The nursery school is a decided success. The work of Miss Bailey and Miss Staples, instructors in charge, is to be commended."

Before her affiliation with the American Home Economics Association, Miss Richardson was dean of home economics at Iowa State College, and before that chief of the home economics service and Federal Board of Vocational Education.
