

TENNIS WORK IS UNDERWAY

Players Practice on Outdoors Courts; Coach Short of Veteran Material

NEW MEN ARE WORKING

With the coming of the warm weather, Coach Bearg has his tennis proteges working out on the outdoor courts. The clay courts are at present a trifle soft but will no doubt be in good shape by the first meet. The Nebraska coach is short of veteran material with Captain Elliot the only letter man back, but a wealth of new men are working out daily and Bearg promises the Nebraska tennis fans a classy team.

The Missouri Valley competition will be unusually strong this year with Harris Coggeshall, in 1925 second ranking junior player in the United States, of Grinnell; Fred Royer, Valley singles champion last year and finalist in 1925, will play under the Oklahoma colors; and Charles Sigoloff and Herbert Weinstock will again see varsity competition for Washington.

The Cornhusker tennis chief announces that there will be a meeting of all the men, also freshmen, who are interested in making the Varsity squad, at the Coliseum, Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock. First matches will be played the coming Saturday in order for the Nebraska coach to get a line on his prospects for the first match which will be held April 23 with the Kansas Aggies.

IN THE VALLEY

By JACK ELLIOTT

The Mexican runners who were featured at the Texas Relays recently will run from Kansas City to Lawrence finishing at the University of Kansas Stadium during the Kansas Relays on April 23, Dr. F. C. Allen, director of athletics has just announced. Efforts are being made to get the three Indian girls who also were at the Texas Relays, to appear at the Kansas Relays.

The Indians are of the Tarahumara Tribe, in the mountain State of Chihuahua, and are noted for their ability to cover long distances. The route from Kansas City to Lawrence has not been determined, but from the Kansas City Athletic Club building to the K. U. stadium is about forty-five miles.

Coach Noel Workman is asking the question at Ames "Who has become of the freshman grid stars?" Of the 25 yearling Cyclones who received numeral awards last fall, 13 have survived the scholastic requirements and other troubles of college life to come out for spring football practice. Of the 13 yearlings left, 11 are working out on the football field.

Scholastic requirements account for the absence of seven promising football players, while financial troubles and the call of the road have taken four other men. Coach Workman's football inventory reveals that there are not enough freshman numeral men to make up a team for scrimmage, and that only two backfield men are back.

Captain Ray Conger, Iowa State middle distance star, will meet Alva Martin, known to Nebraskans as "the flying parson" on a special match race sometime during the all-college exposition at Ames on May 12. This will be Conger's last appearance wearing the Iowa State colors before a home crowd. Martin will run under the Illinois Athletic Club banner. Although it has not been definitely decided the two famous runners will likely meet in a half mile or special 1,000 yard race.

Martin, former Northwestern track captain, broke into national prominence last June when he clipped a half second from Ted Meredith's world record in the half mile. Since then he has competed in eastern track events, running against Lloyd Halm, Edwin Wide and other nationally known cinder experts.

The Cornhusker cinder pounders experienced very little difficulty in taking the dual track meet from the University of New Mexico at Albuquerque last Saturday. When the meet closed the men of "Indian" Schulte had amassed a total of 104 points, allowing the southern school but 22 points. The Cornhuskers took every first place and Everett Durisch, set a new University of Nebraska varsity record with a mark of 134 feet 6 inches in the discus event. Ralph Andrews and Frank Wirsig in the broad jump and pole vault bettered their Denver record. Captain "Bobby" Stephens did not compete in the broad jump. The Husker tracksters left Albuquerque for the big meet of their cross-continent journey, when they meet the University of California at Berkeley Saturday afternoon.

Relays all over America will begin next month and the great carnivals of America have grown so much in favor yearly that the foremost athletes from all the colleges and universities in the country enter into competition in a single afternoon.

The idea of the relay carnivals started at Pennsylvania and has spread until now nearly a dozen such carnivals are staged annually in the United States. In the east are the Penn and Ohio State Relays, in the middle-west and north the Drake, Illinois, Kansas and Dakota, in the south the Rice, Texas, and Southern Relays, and on the Pacific coast the Washington Relays.

The following is a table for best records in any of the major relay carnivals of 1926 compiled by the Kansas University News Bureau.

440-yard relay—42 seconds, Kansas (Kansas Relays)
880-yard relay—1:26.6, Nebraska (Kansas Relays)
Two-mile relay—7:53.6, Columbia (Penn Relays)
One mile relay—3:19.8, Georgetown (Penn Relays)
Four mile relay—18:11.6, Oregon Aggies (Washington Relays)
100-yard dash—9.5 seconds, Locke, Nebraska (Drake Relays)
120 yard high hurdles—14.8 seconds, Dye, Southern California (Drake Relays)

NEBRASKANS ARE IN A. A. U. FINALS

Curtis Poet, Karl Holm and Harlan Owen Take Part In Boxing Meet

In the semi-finals and finals of the Midwestern A. A. U. Boxing Championships, held at Creighton gymnasium in Omaha, Saturday, April 2, the University of Nebraska was represented by Curtis Poet, '30; Karl Holm, '30, and Harlan Owen, '30.

Poet, welter-weight, knocked out both men in his preliminary fights to reach the finals where he met Lanman, of Omaha, who also knocked out in the second round. Winning the welter-weight championship entitles him to go to Boston to fight in the National A. A. U. competition.

Holm, middle-weight, won a decision over Ackerman, of Osceola, after an extra round of fighting. He met last year's champion in the finals and made a very good showing, only lacking in experience.

Owen, light heavy weight, earned a draw in his bout of the finals. Lack of condition caused him not to fight an additional round and consequently he took second place.

Next year's boxing tournament will be held in Omaha, too, and will be a combination of the Midwestern A. A. U. championships and the try outs for the Olympic team. Coach Vogler expects to enter a full team next year, with one or more men in each of the weight classes. He declares that he is in great need of more men in the weight divisions over 160 pounds and under 185 pounds.

CALIFORNIA MEET FACES CINDER MEN

Locke thrilled the southerners with two exhibition races. He coasted through a 75 yard dash to be clocked in 7.8 His competition was Brodie of New Mexico and Davenport who were given a 3 and 4 yard handicap respectively. The North Platter ran against Tappan and Clark in a 300 giving them an 8 yard handicap. Track officials turned in 32.5 for the distance.
