WARD SPEAKS TO SOCIETIES

Former Instructor Addresses Joint Meeting of Phi Beta Kappa and Sigma Xi

DANGERS OF FUTURE SEEN

"One of the real dangers in the present situation and in the future development of our societies is a certain aloofness which is a product of the individualism characteristic of American life," declared Dr. Henry B. Ward before the annual Phi Beta Kappa-Sigma Xi meeting held Friday evening in the Social Sciences auditorium.

Dr. Ward further said that "It is easily cultivated to excess, in the particular member, especially when he is young and impressionable, by the emphasis naturally laid upon the value and power of the particular organization."

"Let us, however, not forget that each organization is but a part of the picture; that vital contact between organizations is essential for the proper development of the university organism," he continued.

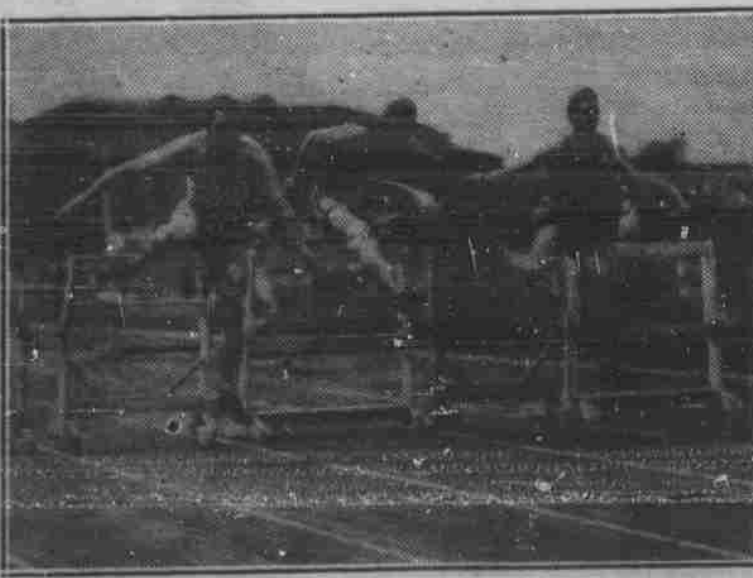

Sigma Lambda Holds Initiation Ceremonies And Founder's Banquet

Sigma Lambda, honorary art sorority, held a Founder's Day and initiation banquet Friday evening at the studio of Miss Teresa P. Emerson, 1732 E. street.

Fremont Gains Way to Last Event After Defeat of Omaha Tech and Hartington

Nebraska's 1927 Interscholastic debate honors went to Hastings high school Saturday morning when it won a unanimous decision from Fremont in the finals of the high school debate tournament at the Temple theater.

Hastings advanced to the finals by defeating Aurora, Auburn, and Holdrege. Fremont chalked up victories over Hartington, and Omaha Tech, last year's champions, to enter the final debate.

Fremont Wins Over 1927 Champs Six of the twelve contesting teams were eliminated Thursday evening. The winning teams met Friday morning. Fremont eliminated Omaha.

Monday Is Date For Distribution Of Cornhusker

The 1927 Cornhusker, the thirtieth anniversary Cornhusker, will be ready for distribution Monday morning at 8 o'clock, according to a statement issued today by the business manager.

Students are asked to have their receipts on hand in order to simplify distribution. All those who do not have their receipts are requested to wait until the second day before they call for their books.

The beauty of the book make it worthy of a prize in the Arts and Crafts Guild annual contest, in which the Cornhusker is entered.

Display of the Cornhusker will be made in several of the prominent stores downtown. Plans are being made to have a table in the corridor of Social Science building over which cash sales will be made in order to lessen the congestion in the Cornhusker office Monday and all week.

Gunderson Reviews For Association General Poor Management By Greeks

"Few fraternities and sororities are properly managed today," stated L. E. Gunderson, finance secretary of the University, in his address given before the Association of College and University Business officers Friday at the Lincoln hotel.

Mr. Gunderson reviewed the annual meeting of the association which includes all large colleges and universities west of the Alleghenias. "The big problem is the centralizing of purchasing," and around this Gunderson's talk centered.

First, to impress his audience with the amount of money expended by organizations and the large number of members, he stated that nearly fifty million dollars of property are now owned by fraternities alone. There are approximately 500,000 members. In Nebraska there are 59

FIVE RECORDS ARE BROKEN IN TRACK TOURNEY

Youths Set New Marks in Pole Vault, Discus, Broad Jump, Shot Put, and 440

LINCOLN CLAIMS TITLE

Gothenburg Takes Championship of Group II and Tekamah Tops Group I Score

Five state records were shattered by high school athletes in the twenty-fifth annual Nebraska high school track and field meet held at the Stadium Friday and Saturday.

Morris of Grand Island annexed a new state record in the pole vault, when he cleared the bar at 12 feet 1 inch. He attempted three times to negotiate 12 feet 3 inches, but failed to make the height.

The first record set Saturday afternoon was in the discus, when Creighton of Gothenburg made a toss of 126 feet 11 inches, to displace that of 124 feet 11 inches, made by Lyman last year.

Bailey of Scottsbluff duplicated his last year's performance of firsts in the 220 and 440 in Group III. Taking it easy in the Friday preliminaries, he went unnoticed except by those who knew him.

The Omaha Central contestants amassed a total of 91 points. Lincoln and York tied for second with 22 each. In close succession were North Bend with 20, Hastings with 18, Madison with 14, and Sutton with 10.

Individual honor went to John Dowling of Madison who made 12 points by taking firsts in American history, French, and spelling.

Competitive examinations were given in 27 subjects. Gold, silver, and bronze medals were awarded winners of first, second, and third places, respectively, in each subject.

In figuring school totals first places counted four points; second, three; third, two; and fourth, one.

A total of 78 Nebraska high schools were represented by 609 contestants. Thirty-one of the schools placed. About twenty more schools entered the contests than last year.

Examinations began at 8 o'clock Saturday morning and continued until 3 o'clock in the afternoon. All the contests were held in the social sciences building at the University.

Medals and certificates were awarded at a meeting of all contestants late in the afternoon. The awards were made by Prof. A. A. Reed, director of the University extension division, and Principal McMasters of the Omaha Central high school.

Three one-man teams were entered in the meet and all succeeded in taking away honors. White of Winnebago, who set the new record in shot put, Reid of Pilger, who tied for first in the high jump, and Randolph of Humboldt tied for first in the pole vault.

The scores of the teams are: Group I Tekamah 20, Nelson 17 1-2, Fairfield 17 1-3, Comstock 11 2-3, Wilber 10 5-5, Arlington 10 1-2, North Loup 9, Hershey 8 1-2, Winnebago 7, Edgar, Farnum, Friend, Peru and Stanton tied with 5, Pilger 3 1-3.

Group II Gothenburg 44, Lincoln 22, York 22, North Platte 18, Kearney 14, Hastings 14, Madison 14, Sutton 10, North Platte 10, Kearney 10, Lincoln 10, Kearney 10, Lincoln 10, Kearney 10, Lincoln 10.

Group III Scottsbluff 44, Kearney 20, Lincoln 20, York 20, North Platte 20, Kearney 20, Lincoln 20, York 20, North Platte 20, Kearney 20, Lincoln 20, York 20, North Platte 20.

Group IV Kearney 20, Lincoln 20, York 20, North Platte 20, Kearney 20, Lincoln 20, York 20, North Platte 20, Kearney 20, Lincoln 20, York 20, North Platte 20.
