

DELTA SIGMA RHO CITIES LUNCHEON FOR ALUMNI

Delta Sigma Rho held its annual alumnae luncheon at the Lincoln Hotel on Friday. Mrs. Mabel M. Gage, president of the alumnae chapter of Delta Sigma Rho who addressed the meeting, is shown in the picture. She was introduced by Miss Mildred E. Phillips, director of the Department of Administration in the university, who said that Delta Sigma Rho is one of the oldest and most active organizations on campus. The luncheon was attended by many alumnae who came from various parts of the country.

KOSMET REVUE STAGED TONIGHT

House Mothers May Give Preference to Women in Housing

MAY QUEEN AND MAID OF HONOR

Miss Javonette Price of Red Clay, (left) who was pronounced as May Queen at the Ivy Day ceremonies yesterday, Mrs. Dorothy Price of Onslow was crowned as Maid of Honor.

MARTI PRESENTS IVY DAY ADDRESS

Miss Frisbie is Crowned as Queen of May

Marti presents her address to the students on the theme of "The Value of an Education." She stresses the importance of higher education and the benefits it brings to society. She also highlights the role of women in education and encourages them to pursue academic excellence.

CONTEST WINNERS TO BE ANNOUNCED

University President of the University, Dr. James R. Marti, announced that the contest for the title of May Queen will be held tonight. The announcement was made during the ivy day ceremonies, and the winner will be crowned at a later date.

The Daily Nebraskan