A new adventure book has just been published by New York City "The Adventures of Grover" and it is a story that many of our young friends will enjoy. The author, Grover, is planning a book tour to publicize his latest work. When Andy Hanna was touring for Congress in 1903, he was a member of the National Youth Commission appointed by President Roosevelt. He later became the first Secretary of Commerce. It is possible that you are interested in reading this book.

The book is available at local bookstores.

NOTICE

There is a new concern for the health of our city's residents. Mayor Smith has announced that a new clinic will be opened in the downtown area to provide free medical services to those in need. The clinic is scheduled to open next week.

ACADEMIC ANARCHY

With the University of Nebraska, a state of seeming peace and order has been established. The administration is in charge of the affairs, and the students are expected to follow the rules. Professor Jones was recently granted tenure by the Board of Regents, and now his students are expected to follow his instructions. The students are urged to follow the rules of the University, and to attend classes regularly.
