Candidates Will be Checked for Eligibility at Office of Registrar

Applications for the positions of class presidents, honorary colonel and Student Council representative from the Teachers' College must be filed in the Student Activities office before five o'clock this evening.

A large number of applications have been received. The complete list of applications will appear in Sunday's Daily Nebraskan as well as the list of those men from the various colleges who have been named by the deans as representative Nebraskans.

Candidates to be Checked

The names of all candidates will be carefully checked for eligibility at the registrar's office. They must have completed twelve hours of the preceding semester and twenty-seven the previous year.

Positively no names will be accepted after five o'clock and no applications can be withdrawn after that hour.

All election rules are to be enforced. No electioneering will be permitted inside of the Temple and those violating this rule will be prosecuted.

The ballot for honorary colonel will be counted by the council representative and Colonel F. F. Jewett of the Military department.

FRESHMEN COUNCIL DISCUSSES TOPICS

"What Looks Wrong in University Life" Is Subject Considered at First Meeting

"What looks wrong to me in university life," was the topic discussed by the Freshman Council, Wednesday evening at the Temple. The council consists of all freshmen who wish to meet to discuss topics of interest in school life.

The first topic discussed by the freshmen was that of study. Many maintained that they have to study twice as hard as they did in high school and receive grades only half as high.

Get A Slogan

All those driving to the game at Columbia will please obtain "Beat Missouri—Break that Jinx" slogans from the Student Activities Office in the Coliseum.

Nebraska's Stellar Backfield Quartet

GLENN PRESNELL Halfback

Nebraska's triple threat man for the Tiger-Husker game Saturday. Presnell plays the position of half and is one of the best ground gainers in the Missouri Valley.

"JUG" BROWN Quarterback

Captain "Jug" Brown who will be calling signals in the annual Missouri-Nebraska clash at Columbia Saturday. Brown is the best safety man on the Husker squad and never misses on punts and kickoffs.

ARNOLD OEHLRICH Fullback

Bear's four horsemen who will be backing up the defensive line against Mizou tomorrow. Oehlrich will also be called upon to do a great amount of the ball lugging in this important Valley game.

BLUE HOWELL Halfback

Blue Howell, who was injured in the Iowa State game, will be back in the Husker backfield against the Mizou Tigers. Howell is Bear's consistent line smasher and is considered one of the hardest hitters in the Valley.

Nebraskans To Support Team Over the Radio

Co-operating with KFAB, the Nebraska Buick Radio station, the Corn Cobs are sponsoring the first radio football frolic ever held at Nebraska. During the play-by-play announcement of the Nebraska-Missouri game, between halves and at other lapses in play, the Corn Cobs, assisted by the sophomore cheerleaders, will take charge of organizing the spectators into a cheering section.

The cheering done by this group will go into the microphone to be broadcast not only to the many Cornhusker followers in Nebraska but to be received and re-broadcast in the Missouri stadium.

The band has also been asked to perform and every member who is at liberty tomorrow afternoon is urged to be at the Studio of KFAB to help make this frolic a success.

Such an undertaking as this, it should be understood, is not of a private nature or designed for any commercial advertising purpose.

Some very valuable models of Neanderthal man and Cro Magnon man were added to the Morrill Geological collection yesterday. Also a few specimens of skulls of anthropoid apes.

Human Skull Models Are Added To Morrill Geological Collection

In addition to the models of men's skulls, some choice examples of their art were presented, such as: Sculptured Poindars, Work Flints, and Work Bone.

George A. Herzog of the Zoology department brought back from his vacation male and female specimens of the Water Vole. He has since mounted them and presented them to the museum.

RHODES GROUP MEETS FRIDAY

Preliminary Committee Confers with 1928 Candidates For Scholarship

SIXTEEN HAVE APPLIED

The University Committee on preliminary selection of candidates for the 1928 Rhodes Scholarship will have its first conference with candidates Friday afternoon from three to five o'clock, at which time all who have not secured earlier appointments should come to Social Sciences 213.

Candidates must have their applications in the hands of the committee before the time of the meeting, if they are to be considered in the group's recommendations. There has been some misunderstanding in regard to the date at which these applications must be in, because of several other dates concerning the Scholarships which have had publicity.

Sixteen applications had been received at a late hour Thursday afternoon. Prof. J. D. Hicks, chairman of the committee, announced that he would accept applications up to the time of Friday's meeting, although the regularly scheduled deadline was the first part of this week.

Blair Prophecies Fair Weather For Missouri Contest

When the Huskers trot out on the Tiger gridiron Saturday, it will, in all probability, be in an element rather strange to a Nebraska team, that of fair weather. Thomas A. Blair, meteorologist of the Weather bureau of the Department of Agriculture, stated that conditions point toward ideal football weather at least in the matter of humidity.

BASKETBALL MEN CALLED

Coach Black Announces Initial Practice to Be Held Next Tuesday

FIVE LETTERMEN RETURN

The first call for basketball material for the 1928 squad, will be issued by Coach Charles Black next Tuesday, when the initial practice session of the year will be held. Workouts are scheduled on Tuesday and Thursday, during the remainder of this month, according to the present plans of Coach Black, but those who can, are urged to avail themselves of as many individual workouts as possible, so that they may be in tip-top shape when the first early scrimmage is held.

Several of the men counted on to make strong bids for berths on the 1928 quintet are taking part in football, but two lettermen from last year's team, Captain Thomas Elliott, and Kenneth Othmer, as well as a

DATE IS TO BE OCTOBER 31

Nebraska's debate with Cambridge is assured, having been approved by the Institute of International Education, which is sponsoring the Cambridge tour of Western America. It will be held in either Memorial Hall or the Temple auditorium, October 31.

Two members of the Cambridge team are in America at present. The team will begin debating October 17 and will debate almost every night until November 23.

All students with more than 20 hours credit will be eligible for the try outs, which are to be held October 14. Judges from out of town will decide the winners. There will be three chosen for regulars and one alternate.

Each team will be allowed 45 minutes to develop the topic with no rebuttal. Due to the English style of debating, there will be no judges, but a vote will be taken in the audience before and after the debate.

Plans are being made to interest local business men and high school students as well as university students.

Admission will be 50 cents.

LIBRARY INSTITUTE WILL BE HELD SOON

Meetings Will Precede Those Of The National Library Association October 13 and 14

Library Institute conducted by the Public Library Commission and open to anyone interested in that kind of work will be held in Lincoln October 11 and 12. October 13 and 14 are the dates for the thirty-second annual meeting of the Nebraska Library Association.

The Library Institute meetings will be held in the Social Sciences building. Classes and discussions will cover the following subjects: library administration, reference work, book selection and book buying, books "as readable as fiction," poetry for children, the library and the community. A "Question Box" will also be conducted.

Attention Called to Exhibits The meetings of the N. L. A. will completely fill the two days. All sessions with the exception of Friday evening will be held in the Lincoln Public Library. Attention is called to the exhibits of books and library aids which will be found at the public and university libraries.

Special notice is called to the lecture of George B. Utley, of the University of Chicago, on Rare Books.

RALLY SENDS TEAM ON WAY TO MISSOURI

BEARG AND SCHULTETALK

Game May Decide Valley Title; Many Nebraska Fans Plan to Drive

A rally of unusual proportions sent the Cornhusker football team off for Missouri yesterday. The rally started at 4:30 o'clock in front of the Social Sciences building, and ended at 5:30 o'clock at the depot as the train pulled out for Columbia, taking Coach Bear's gridders to one of their hardest and most important games.

The rally started according to schedule in front of Social Sciences building, but the rosters soon formed into a procession, and, with the band leading, marched to the football field. Here some cheering was done, and then one of the greatest parades in Cornhusker history began.

The procession, preceded by a "Beat Mizou—Break the Jinx" banner, and filling the street for more than a block, marched down through the business section of Lincoln. The parade reached the station at 5:15 o'clock and the send-off began.

Cheers, led by Phil Sides, started the rally, and soon a cry arose for "Bear!" Coach Bear came out of the car, and announced that he was "glad to see so many here," and added that the game with Missouri would be a hard battle.

Schulte Praises Student Spirit "No rally is complete without a talk from Coach Schulte," announced Sides, and the crowd demanded Schulte. A cheer greeted the Nebraska trainer as he stepped from the train onto an improvised platform. He complimented the Nebraskans for their spirit and declared that such a send-off as this team was getting would help keep up its spirits when it met the Missouri Tigers.

"We will win or lose fighting!" shouted Schulte as he stepped back into the train. It was next announced that organized Nebraska cheering would be broadcast from Missouri with the report of the game.

Team Members Speak In response to an urgent call for members of the team Glen Presnell, Blue Howell, and "Jug" Brown appeared and gave short talks.

"We would rather win this game than any other," stated captain "Jug" Brown. This sentiment seems to be felt by all Nebraska fans, many of whom are driving to Missouri.

HARRIERS EMBARK FOR INITIAL MEET

Team Leaves for Tiger Camp with Football Squad; Reller is Forced to Drop Out

Nebraska's cross country team is ready for its opening dual meet of the season Saturday, at Columbia, against the University of Missouri. The team left with the football squad Thursday evening.

A last minute change in the team was necessary. Reller, member of last year's squad and alternate on the team for the Missouri contest, was forced to drop out because of heart trouble. His place as substitute was taken by Griffen, a sophomore.

Captain Glen Johnson, Chadderdon, and Sprague of last year's team head the list of harriers who will represent the Huskers. Chadderdon beat Captain Johnson in the tryouts last week. Cummings, substitute last year, looks good for the Missouri meet, having nosed out Sprague, regular from last year's team, in the Missouri trials. Batie, the other regular member of the team, is a sophomore. He beat Reller in the tryouts to win a place on the team.

PERSHING RIFLES ELECT LYON

Miss Nellie Lee Brecht Will Be Co-Sponsor For Coming Year

The Pershing Rifles at their weekly meeting last night elected Captain Lyon, a new member of the Military department, to act as Military sponsor for their organization. Captain Lyon comes from Tennessee, but spent last summer training at Camp Benning in Georgia.

Captain Trout of the Rifles, announced that Miss Nellie Lee Brecht would serve as the Co-ed sponsor for the coming year.
