GIANT PARADE WILL WELCOME NEW YORKERS

Students To Hold Traditional
Torchlight Procession On Wednesday Evening

RALLY IS ALSO SCHEDULED

Pep-meeting in Coliseum Will Consist of Talks, Cheers,
And University Songs

Cornhusker students will welcome the New York football team to Nebraska with their traditional torchlight parade tomorrow evening. A short rally in the Coliseum, starting at 7:15, will precede the torchlight procession.

Speakers for the pep-meeting in the Coliseum will be announced tomorrow. Following the program in the Coliseum, the Corn Cobs and Tassels will lead the Husker torchlight parade to the Cornhusker Hotel where the New York team plans to stay. Here, New York coaches will address the students.

Short talks, cheers and songs will make up the program at the Coliseum, with the Nebraska cheer-leaders, the Corn Cobs and Tassels officiating, assisted by the R. O. T. C. band. The main event of the evening, however, is the torchlight parade. All students are urged to take part in the procession, whether in cars or on foot. Red torches will light the entire length of the route taken by the parading rosters. Cooperation of fraternities and sororities has made it possible for the innocents society, who are sponsoring (Continued on Page 2)

NOTED GUESTS TO ATTEND BALL

Prominent State and Local People Are Invited To Formal Party

MILITARY MEN WILL COME

Invitations to the honor guests of the Military Ball, which were mailed out Monday, were sent to prominent state and local officials as well as the leading military men of neighboring states. This completes all final arrangements for this year's formal opening party.

General Harry A. Smith and staff of the Seventh Corps Area have received invitations. Cadet colonels of all valley schools, Missouri, Kansas, Kansas Aggies, Iowa State, Creighton and Oklahoma have been invited insuring the patrons that the ball will not be lacking in formal atmosphere.

Chancellor Emeritus Avery will be present, with the deans of the various colleges, and leading instructors also being requested to attend. Governor and Mrs. McMullen, Mayor and Mrs. Hedges, and Miss May Pershing, sister of General Pershing, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank D. Eager, all of Lincoln, will come to the ball.

Senior advance course men will wear white ducks, as inaugurated last season, adding to the colorful atmosphere of the ball. Tickets are selling fast and attendance promises to surpass all previous years. Those in charge are leaving nothing undone that will prevent a successful formal opening.

CONVENTION WILL BE HELD

Many Lincoln Churches Cooperate
in Holding Meetings

More than fifty Lincoln churches are cooperating in sponsoring the Christian Men's Loyalty convention, which will be held in St. Paul church November 30 and December 1 and 2. A number of leaders in church and missionary work will speak at the convention. Registrations are now being received at the city Y. M. C. A., 13th and P Streets. Students may attend this conference.

A partial list of the speakers follows: Bishop James Wise; Frederick Sullens, editor of the Jackson (Mississippi) Daily News; Warren Clark of Chicago; Bruce Kinney; W. F. Felt, missionary in India; Dr. Frank W. Bible, missionary in China; Arthur J. Orner; F. W. Burnham.

Fordyce Lectures at Meeting of Parents

Prof. Charles Fordyce of the Teachers College went to Aurora this week end to speak before a meeting of parents on "The Father's Obligation to the Boy in Character Building," and to a group of high school boys on "The Dynamic of Manhood."

Students Must Return Proofs To Studios Soon

All Juniors and Seniors who have not returned their proofs to either Hauck's or Townsend's studios must do so before Wednesday afternoon at 5:00 o'clock, or their pictures will not appear in the annual.

Fraternity and sorority members should have their pictures taken before the 15th of December, for at that time the studios will stop taking student pictures until after the Christmas rush.

ART FEDERATION OPENS SESSIONS

Western Sectional Convention
Hears Many Noted Artists
In Monday Meeting

MANY BELONG TO GROUP

The western sectional convention of the American Federation of Arts was opened Monday morning at the Lincoln Hotel with an address of welcome by Mayor Verne Hedges of Lincoln. About 125 were present at the opening session. Many of them were university students. Welcome was also extended by F. M. Hall, president of the Nebraska Art Association. Royall B. Farnum, member of the board of directors of the national federation and president of the Massachusetts School of Art, gave the response in behalf of visiting artists. Mr. Farnum presided in place of Frederick A. Whiting, who was scheduled to preside.

Following these introductory remarks, the main address of the morning was given by Miss Leila Mechin, secretary of the federation. Miss Mechin told of the history and scope of the organization. It was organized by a group of art connoisseurs in Washington, who wished to create a channel "for the expression of public opinion that would effectually induce congress to recognize art as a factor in national life."

Librarian Says No False Names Are To Be Used

Library patrons who have been in the habit of signing false names and addresses when drawing out books at the University library must discontinue this practice or suffer the consequences, according to a notice sent to the Daily Nebraskan by Gilbert H. Doane, University librarian. The following notice was sent out by Mr. Doane yesterday.

"During the last few weeks several students have been securing books from the library and its various branches and signing false names and fictitious addresses for them. This is a practice which the library and university authorities cannot countenance. The librarian and his assistants are attempting to identify the handwriting used in the various cases under consideration, employing the services of a handwriting expert. If the individuals are caught the librarian will recommend that they be summarily dealt with by the University authorities and he will cause to be written upon their records this misdemeanor. The librarian is assured by the administrative authorities that he will have their backing in this matter.

"A student who will deliberately sign a false name in order to secure for his private use a book or books which had been assigned to a class for reading is not only dishonest, but he is also thoroughly selfish, for he is depriving the remainder of the class from using that book and possibly causing them to receive lower grades because they have not had the opportunity to do the assigned reading in that book."

Museum Shows Film At Program Sunday

The feature of the regular educational program given in Morrill Hall, Sunday afternoon was a moving picture on "Abrasive". The picture showed the uses of abrasives in the industrial world. The meeting was well attended, according to Mr. Collins, assistant curator of the museum.

Nebraska Men Go Through
Light Work-out to Prepare
For Thanksgiving Clash

The unbeaten New York Violet football squad will arrive in Lincoln Wednesday morning for the east-west Thanksgiving gridiron classic on Memorial Stadium field. Coach Meehan is bringing his eastern eleven to the stronghold of the Cornhuskers in an attempt to turn back Bear's Huskers and gain revenge on last year's stinging defeat.

Seven football elevens have fallen before the powerful Violet eleven while two games went to a tie. Last year the New Yorkers came to Lincoln reputed to be one of the strongest elevens on the Atlantic seaboard. (Continued on Page 2)

KERR SPEAKS AT CONVOCAION

Secretary of the Rhodes Trust
Talks on Foreign Policy
Of United States

ERICKSON GIVES ADDRESS

Phillip Kerr, secretary of the Rhodes Trust, and C. Telford Erickson, director of the Albanian-American School of Agriculture addressed the students of the university in a convocation held in the Temple, yesterday morning. The Temple auditorium was well filled.

Mr. Kerr, the first speaker of the meeting, was introduced by Paul F. Good, former Rhodes scholar, now a Lincoln attorney. Mr. Kerr's address included an outline of the life of Cecil Rhodes, founder of the Rhodes Trust, which has made possible the Rhodes scholarships, and a survey of the relations of the United States to the other countries of the world.

Rhodes Accumulates Fortune
Mr. Kerr stated that Cecil Rhodes went to Africa for the purpose of rebuilding his health, and later became interested in the diamond industry of the Kimberly fields. From this industry he amassed a fortune (Continued on Page 3.)

FAWELL ADDRESSES CLUB

Cosmopolitan Club Hears Methodist
Student Pastor Saturday

"America has a superiority complex" according to W. C. Fawell, Methodist University Pastor, who spoke Saturday evening in the Temple, before the University Cosmopolitan club. This attitude of superiority is not justifiable, according to Mr. Fawell, who compared unfavorably the attitude of Americans toward law enforcement with that of other peoples.

He declared that America's true leadership lies in the propagation of American religious ideals among the nations of the world. In this connection he praised the work of missionaries in the foreign field.

THREE OTHERS INJURED

Miss Avilda Hauptman, 17, Atwood, Kansas, university freshman and a member of the Alpha Chi Omega sorority, was killed Sunday when the automobile in which she was returning to Lincoln from the Nebraska-Kansas Aggie football game struck a stone culvert and upset, fifteen miles north of Manhattan.

Miss Elaine Nichols, 17, Bird City, Kansas, also a member of the Alpha Chi Omega sorority, received severe cuts on the head and wrist. She was reported by doctors in Manhattan last night to be still in a serious condition. Avery and Austin Michael, Goodland, Kansas, with whom they were riding escaped with minor cuts and bruises.

Car Swerves Into Culvert
The accident occurred when a flat tire caused the car in which they were riding to swerve into a natural stone culvert and pitch over an embankment to a gully fifteen feet below. The car landed on its top at right angles with the road and was almost completely demolished. Miss Hauptman's skull was crushed and (Continued on Page 3.)

Alumni of New York Are Not Overconfident

The alumni of New York University who followed the theory of Horace Greeley and migrated to points in Nebraska, Kansas, Iowa and Missouri, are not overconfident when it comes to meeting the far famed Nebraska Cornhusker eleven, "Griff" Bonner of Topeka, Kansas, New York University western alumni secretary, told a representative of the Daily Nebraskan yesterday.

"After seeing Nebraska in action four times this season and considering the difficult schedule that the Nebraska men faced and their most creditable record, any team facing Nebraska must count on having a very busy afternoon.

Backfield Men Are Praised
"Presnell and Blue Howell are two of the finest backfield men I have ever seen and 'Jug' Brown is in the game all the time. The fine work of Lee was also noticeable in the Kansas Aggie game. The Nebraska line gives interference deluxe for the offensive attack," Bonner stated.

"In Frank Briante and Jack Connors, New York has two wonderful backs. I believe that New York will give a good account of itself as ten of our boys played in your stadium last year.

THANKSGIVING CONVOCAION TO BE HELD TODAY

All University Classes Will Be Excused To Attend
Annual Program

ART INSTRUCTOR SPEAKS

Panhellenic Scholarship Pins
Will Be Awarded To Girls
Having Highest Grades

The annual Thanksgiving convocation will be held today at 11 o'clock in the Coliseum. All university classes will be excused at 10:40 so that students will be able to reach the convocation on time. This program will be held in conjunction with the western sectional convention of the American Federation of Arts, which is now in session.

The convocation will be opened with numbers by the University of Nebraska Fine Arts Band, under the conductorship of Professor William T. Quick. The band selections will be followed by "The Pilgrims", sung by the University Chorus, which is conducted by Howard Kirkpatrick.

Harshe Will Speak

Robert Harshe, director of the Art Institute of Chicago, and one of the foremost figures in art instruction in the country, will address the convocation on the subject of "The Value of Scholarship in the Fine Arts."

The Panhellenic scholarship awards will be made at this convocation. These awards are made by the University Panhellenic, and are given in the form of pins to three girls, the highest freshman, sophomore, and junior girl respectively. The names have not yet been announced, but will be published in tomorrow's Nebraskan.

Following the Panhellenic awards, there will be a presentation of honorary degrees by Acting Chancellor E. A. Burnett.

A short rally is being planned as part of the program. This is in preparation for the New York-Nebraska game Thanksgiving day, and the cheerleaders will be in charge.

DEBATERS FOR 1928 WILL BE SELECTED

Tryouts For Varsity Forensic Squad
Will Be Held December 19;
Meets Are Scheduled

Tryouts for Nebraska's 1928 debate teams to debate the question: "This House deprecates the tendency of modern governments to interfere with the rights of individuals," will be held Monday, December 19, Professor H. A. White, varsity debate coach announced Monday.

Tryouts for other subjects to be debated this year will be announced as soon as debates on other questions are scheduled definitely. Professor White hopes to arrange inter-collegiate debates on the business ethics question which was debated with Cambridge and on the Missouri Valley debate question, "Resolved: That Secretary Kellogg's policy in Central America should be discontinued."

All students wishing to try out December 19 have been requested by Professor White to leave their names with him now. All wishing to try out must report to him by Monday December 5, he announced yesterday.

Debates with Kansas State Agricultural college and with the University of Missouri have already been scheduled although the dates are still tentative. The debates with these schools will be held sometime between February 14 and February 17. Debates, as now scheduled will be held at Manhattan, Beatrice, Columbia, and Lincoln.

Negotiations are under way for debates with Kansas University, Grinnell, Iowa State, and the University of South Dakota. Requests have also been received by Professor White for debates from the University of Pittsburgh, University of Oregon, and the University of Southern California, each of which is sending a team this year on a trans-continental tour.

Casteel Gives Lantern Slides To University

J. E. Casteel, a graduate of the department of zoology in 1920, has donated a number of important lantern slides to that department. These concern the malarial parasite, which is peculiar to the South, and according to Prof. Robert H. Wolcott, chairman of the department, will be a great help to the microscopic studies to be carried on. Mr. Casteel is employed by the United States public health service at New Orleans.

New University Quartette

Harold Hollingworth, first tenor; Verne Laing, second tenor; Joyce Ayres, baritone; and Harold Pickett, bass, are the four men chosen to form the varsity quartet. The men were chosen from the University Men's Glee Club.

The quartet will be featured on the Glee Club concert tour. It will make its appearance Wednesday evening at the Nebraska-New York football rally. The organization will present several numbers at the game Thursday. Theater engagements have been booked for the vocalists also.

Sophomore Basketball Manager Place Is Open

All sophomores desiring to try out for sophomore basketball manager may do so by reporting to Carleton Fress, senior basketball manager, Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in the Coliseum. Any second year man who made twenty-seven hours last year and twelve hours last semester, and who is carrying at least twelve hours on his present schedule is eligible.
