Thanksgiving Is Finale For 14 Gridmen
 The next season found the Lincoln high school back playing on the Scarlet squad at the position of quarterback. For three years the Nebraska captain has given his best on the gridiron for Nebraska and Thursday afternoon on Stadium field before a crowd of 35,000 Thanksgiving football fans the "Jug" will play his last. The football curtain will ring down on the career of three more Husker backfield stars this week. Glenn Presnell, thundering Cornhusker halfback and one of the foremost backfield men in the country will don the Scarlet for the last time when he appears against the New York eleven this Thursday. Presnell's career on the Husker gridiron has been a brilliant one and his final season climaxed his career as one of the outstanding backs in the Missouri Valley. Only once all season did the Nebraska ball lugging ace call time out for an injury. He played in the thick of every game and now leads the scorers for high honors in the conference. His loss to Nebraska will be a great one and his absence next season in the Husker backfield will be hard to fill. Arnold Oehrich, Nebraska fullback and Willard Bronson, quarterback are the remaining Cornhusker backfield men who graduate this spring. Oehrich is one of the most valuable backs in the mid-west and played consistently all season for the Scarlet. "Bill" Bronson has been alternating with Captain Brown this year at the pilot position and will end his career as a Nebraska football star on field Thursday.

In the line Nebraska loses some of the most brilliant men that have ever played in a Husker wall. Line Captain Ray Randels from Anthony, Kansas, veteran tackle on Coach Bear's eleven will play his last for Nebraska when the Scarlet lines up against New York Turkey day. Randels has established his name on gridirons throughout the Valley as well as the country. Seldom this season has an opposing back gone through Randels' side of the line. His Husker fight and endurance has won for him the respect of all the players and students.

Vint Lawson and Eward Lee, the two Nebraska ends will play for the Husker school no more. Their career on the Husker gridiron ends with Thursday's clash. Both these wingmen have played consistently in every game all season. Their loss to the Husker squad will be keenly felt next season.

Other members of the Scarlet line who will be lost to Nebraska are Lloyd Grow, center, Clarence Raish, guard, George Shaner, end, Leon Sprague, end, and Robert Whitmore, guard, Don Lindell, quarter, and Victor Beck, half. "We've been pals for four years and now we fight together for the last time. It's sure tough that we are going to quit." This was the sentiment expressed by members of the Husker team who will appear before Nebraska fans for the last time Thanksgiving day on Memorial Stadium field.

 thirteen pieces, will arrive this afternoon from Omaha where they play at the Roseland Gardens. This band has been secured to play for the "Turkey Trot." The entertainment committee reports this orchestra to be one of the best in the state, and that it is their first appearance in Lincoln this season. Both the amplifiers and cyclorama will be used at this party.

Chaperones Chosen
 The following chaperones will attend this affair tonight: Professor and Mrs. J. D. Hicks, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Ramsay, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Gish, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Colbert, Mr. W. G. Hill. Wayne Gratigny, chairman of the Varsity Party Committee, commenting on the success of the last Varsity Fall Frolic, said, "We are trying to cooperate with other organizations in making the Varsity dances the best possible entertainment features, and wish to work up a real University patronage. We want to take the place in student life which they do at other schools."

Admission for the "Turkey Trot" is 80 cents for couples and forty cents for single admissions. Instruction in journalism is given in 193 colleges and universities in the United States.

 do so. Students are urged to buy torches, for the success of the parade depends in some measure upon the number of torches. A short pre-rally will be held in front of Social Sciences this morning at 11 o'clock. Singing in classes is urged as an effective means of pep-stimulation. The varsity "Turkey Trot" tonight is being featured as a rally dance, and the Kosmet Klub variety show tomorrow morning also includes a "Beat-New York" in their program. "The greatest rally, however, is the one tonight, and everyone who is able to walk or drive a car in the parade this evening is urged to do so," stated a member of the rally committee.
