

THREE TEAMS USED IN DRILL

Coach Black Tries New Plan Of Working Aspirants For Cage Team

Using three teams at the same time, Coach Charley Black inaugurated a new scheme for practice at the Tuesday afternoon basket drill. While one team rested, the other two mixed things up at one end of the court. When the defensive quintet wrestled the ball from the other team, it took the leather oval down the floor and worked it through the rested quintet.

Coach Black believes this to be an excellent method for drilling his squad members in the blocking and short passing game. Nearly every member of the squad receives an active workout and actual experience at the basket game.

Tom Elliott, Harvey Grace, "Olie" Olson, "Kenny" Othmer, Bob Krall, and George Goehde worked out on the stage where two baskets have been erected to take care of the overflow from the Varsity court. These candidates turned out early in the season to Coach Black and are deemed to have put in enough floor-work practice for the present.

Freshmen Scrimmage

Coach "Bunny" Oakes and a large crowd of yearling basketballers occupied floor 2 and spent the afternoon in active scrimmage. He had enough candidates to put four quintets in the field. Football Coach Ernest Bearg and Clarence Raich assisted Oakes in coaching his numerous hopefuls.

Glen Munn, tall boy and recent tackle on the Varsity football eleven, is showing rare promise in the daily workouts. According to Black, Munn will make an excellent center when he improves his floor and passing game. Munn is fast on the floor and uses his height to good advantage.

One of the quintets worked out on the Varsity court yesterday included Ed Armstrong, Cy Yordy, and Pete Milecki. These three presented a smooth working combination and got the ball through to the goal on numerous occasions. "Lew" Lewandowski actively upheld his forward position on one of the teams and displayed a nice short pass game.

Nothing but hard practice is on the slate for the squad this week and next. Opening the season December 15 at Washington, Black recognizes the necessity of developing his squad as rapidly as possible during the coming days of drill.

Women's dormitories at the University of Wisconsin have devised the plan of exchanging 50 guests for Sunday dinner with the men's dormitories. This innovation will become a regular feature of dormitory life in the future.

CLOSE GAMES ARE FEATURE OF B PLAY

Delta Sigma Lambda, Kappa Sigma, Delta Sigma Phi, and Theta Chi Win

Featured by close wins for Delta Sigma Lambda over Alpha Sigma Phi and Kappa Sigma over Theta Xi the class B interfraternity basketball tourney finished the second slate of games for this week.

Delta Sigma Lambda defeated the Alpha Sigs by a single basket, winning 2 to 0. Carter and Winfrey each tossed a free throw to account for their team's total. The work of Winmore at guard kept the score down to 14-0 points.

Theta Xi lost a hard fought game to the Kappa Sigma quintet by a point score of 5 to 1. Dowd and Bailey carried off the scoring honors for the victors. Eusch played a good floor game for the losers.

Delta Sigma Phi easily defeated the Beta Theta Pi quintet, 28 to 6. Rogers and Gabrielson were high point men for the winners scoring 12 and 10 points respectively. Tau Kappa Epsilon lost a hard fought contest to the Delta Tau Delta quintet, 16 to 8. Bronson and Keating scored the majority of points for the Deltas and contributed a nice passing game.

In the only other game scheduled for Tuesday night, Pi Kappa Phi forfeited to Theta Chi, 2 to 0.

IN THE VALLEY

By JACK ELLIOTT

The Pitt Panthers, conquerors of Nebraska, will meet Stanford university in the tournament of roses at Pasadena, on New Year's day. This will be the second clash in four seasons between the universities in post-season games. For the second time the intersectional clash will bring together an eleven coached by Glenn "Pop" Warner and a team guided by one of his pupils.

In 1923 the Warner-coached Pitt team met Stanford at Palo Alto and won 15 to 7. Stanford was then coached by a Warner protege—"Andy" Kerr, now mentor at Washington and Jefferson. Now Warner is coach of the Stanford team and another protege of his, Jock Sutherland.

Any idea of getting the name Missouri Valley for the newly formed Big Six was shattered in St. Louis when the officials of the "little four" and the new conference met Saturday. The four schools not included in the new conference intend to continue the name Missouri Valley and ask three or four other members to join them.

Next week Nebraska ventures out on the basketball court for their first Missouri Valley game. The Scarlet basketballers will journey down to St. Louis to mix with the Washington Bears. Last year on the home court the Bears gave Black's aggregation quite a game and this early in the season critics book the Washington-Nebraska game to be a hard fought contest.

The second week of freshmen basketball practice is under way at Kan-land, is the mentor of the Pitt Panther eleven.

Notre Dame has "fighting Irish" on its football eleven and also millionaires. Fred Miller, tackle on the Rockne eleven is rated as one of the best linemen in collegiate football and is heir to a five-million dollar fortune. Miller resides in Milwaukee, Wis., where his father was a wealthy brewer.

Georgia university's hopes for an American championship football eleven was bitterly wrecked last week when the Yale victors fell before the onslaught of Georgia Tech. Georgia was rated as one of the strongest eleven in the country. In nine straight battles the southern eleven had failed to lose. And the team from Georgia Tech came out of the battle on Dec. 3 with the long end of the 12 to 0 count.

Which all goes to show that even the best of them are bound to lose sometime. Wet field and a slippery ball was the alibi.

"Come on in and spread!"

COMES day when your family pry themselves loose and send you a box of eats... cake four stories high, turkey, candied orange peel, fudge, and other good things.

The cry goes round. Your friends gather. Wash down the eats with "Canada Dry." This ginger ale has a delightful flavor... tang to it... dryness... sparkle. It has a subtle gingery flavor because it is made from pure Jamaica ginger. It contains no capsicum (red pepper).

"CANADA DRY"
"The Champagne of Ginger Ales"

Extract Imported from Canada and bottled in the U. S. A. by Canada Dry Ginger Ale, Incorporated, 25 West 43rd Street, New York, N. Y. In Canada, J. J. McLaughlin Limited. Established 1890.

Play it dark and easy! The name "Canada Dry" on the bottle can mean that no one can get over a just one on you.
