

TRI-COLOR MEET TO BE STAGED

Non-Varsity Track and Field Men to Participate in 1928 Extensive Program

TWO DIVISIONS PLANNED

Non-varsity track and field men are assured plenty of competition with the announcement by Coach Henry F. Schulte of plans for a series of tri-color track and field meets to be held from February through April for all men not on the varsity squad.

For two years Coach Schulte has conducted a series of tri-color meets for freshmen and novices but the 1928 program is the most elaborate he has yet outlined. Two divisions are planned for this year in order to furnish competition for the less sensational performers as well as those of near-varsity caliber and stars of the yearling class.

Men with points in competitive novice meets and a good start toward their numerals will compete in the senior division meets. Other men with more than one numeral point will take part in the junior division meets. Three teams will be formed in each division.

Four Meets Monthly
According to present plans of the Husker track mentor, four meets will be held each month from February to April. Teams will be formed for the February meets shortly. The two losing teams will furnish a feed for the winning team.

After the February meets, the teams will be reformed to make them as nearly equal as possible and the competition will be repeated through March. The teams will again be revamped before the April competition. The two losing teams will feed the winning team at the end of each month.

All regular indoor events will be run as long as the meets are held on the indoor track. Outdoor weights will be added and sprint and hurdle distances will be increased as soon as the weather permits Coach Schulte to take his squad onto the outdoor track.

Varsity regulars, varsity candidates, and the freshman are all taking it easy still. With the completion of the cadet track meet this week and final examinations next week, intensive training for the Cornhuskers' indoor season will be begun. Meanwhile the coaching staff will give the squad a chance to build up ready for real work.

IN THE VALLEY

By JACK ELLIOTT

Saturday night on the Coliseum floor Nebraska's basketballers take their stand on the home court to prove to Cornhusker fans that they have the real Nebraska spirit. Should the Huskers lose to the Aggies, it is almost hopeless that the Scarlet will make a creditable showing in the Valley basket race this season.

The Kansas Farmers and Nebraska are tied for eighth place in the race. Not so good for two Big Six quintets. The Aggies beat Kansas, Missouri or possibly Oklahoma Aggies. The Soomers are rushing towards a title and probably will not be stopped until they get it. About the only quintet in the Valley to take the count of Holt and Co. will be Missouri or possibly Oklahoma Aggies.

The giant Soomer five, all of them over six feet have scored a total of three hundred points for seven games while their opponents have sunk the sphere through the rim for 165 points. The Soomers' average of points per game is well beyond 40.

Iowa State will hit the road for a game with Kansas Aggies tonight and Kansas University tomorrow night. The Cyclones have demonstrated their ability on the court this season and are expected to give a good account of the invasion in Kansas. Coach Bill Chandler is pleased with the showing the basketballers have made this season, especially in the victory over Washington.

Kansas Aggies is still seeking a football coach for next season. Out of about fifty applications it has simered down to six. The Kansas school desires a coach that follows the Notre Dame style of coaching but as yet have not found the man.

Fait "Chief" Elkins, national decathlon champion and student at the university may go east to train for the Olympics elimination trials. Elkins and "Gip" Locke are working out twice daily on the stadium track under the east wing of Memorial Stadium. Both Locke and Elkins are training under the direction of Coach Henry "Indian" Schulte. Locke will go to New York within the next few days where he has accepted a position in a law firm.

The Kansas Jayhawkers, Nebraska, and Kansas Aggies are the three Missouri Valley fives that seem to be stumbling along in the hectic 1928 basketball championship race. Kansas has suffered three defeats while Nebraska has been reversed in four starts. This almost puts these teams out of the running while the giant Oklahoma Sooner speed demons are tearing up everything and anything they meet.

The season is almost one-third gone and Kansas, Nebraska and the Kansas Aggies may speed up sufficiently to pass enough Valley quintets to finish in the first division but at the present it looks doubtful. The Soomers are rushing towards a title and probably will not be stopped until they get it. About the only quintet in the Valley to take the count of Holt and Co. will be Missouri or possibly Oklahoma Aggies.

The game between Delta Chi and Delta Sigma Lambda was a slow affair, characterized by wild tries at the basket. Delta Sigma Lambda Kansas has totaled but 117 points, the lowest average in the conference. Of this number 90 have come from goals from the field. Kansas has stood by and watched its opponents score 152 points. Even the Huskers have done better than the Jayhawk scoring 125 points to the 152 of the opponents.

Nebraska has some scoring power in "Dutch" Witte, "Jug" Brown and Elliott but all three of these men play inconsistent and can not be figured on to heap up baskets in every game. At the guard posts Elmer Holm and Krall are two fast guards, but Krall lacks experience and is erratic at times.

DELTS, SIG EPS, SIG ALPHS, D.S.L. WIN

Games Show Improvement Over Last Class B Games. Dox Leads Delt Scorers

Delta Tau Delta, Sigma Phi Epsilon, Sigma Alpha Epsilon and Delta Sigma Lambda were the winners in the Class B games held in the interfraternity tournament Tuesday night. These games were an improvement over the last Class B session, although most of the time the playing was quite ragged and basket shooting wild.

Dox led the scoring in the Delta Phi Psi contest with a total of seven points. Turner and Schoeneman also were important factors in the Delt's final tally of 19 against the 14 of their opponents. Bishop of the Phi Psi camp made six points for his side.

In the second Class B game, the Sig Eps took Theta Xi into camp by the narrow margin of three points, the score being 20-17 at the finish. Morgan of the losing side piled up twelve points, but lacked scoring support from his team-mates. The Sig Ep offensive was working nicely, led by Rogers who made eight of their points, followed closely by Smith and Krause with six apiece.

Battle Staged

The Sig Alpha Alpha Sig battle was the most interesting of the evening, the final tally being 15-12. The Alpha Sig basketballers were pretty badly swamped the first but came back in the second period, holding their opponents down to two baskets. They were unable to overcome the lead, however, though they threatened to forge ahead several times. The Alpha Sigs often broke the Sig Alpha offense, only to lose the ball under the goal through wild shooting. Sharpe led the winning team in points, with a total of nine, and was the strongest factor in their victory. Whitmore was usually the one to retrieve the ball for the Alpha Sigs, though Anderson and Larson played good games also.

The game between Delta Chi and Delta Sigma Lambda was a slow affair, characterized by wild tries at the basket. Delta Sigma Lambda finally came out on the long end of a 8-4 score. D. and E. Eisenhart each scored for the winning side, Louthan also making one field goal. Reed played the best game for the Delta Chis.
