DEBATERS HAVE FULL PROGRAM FOR SEMESTER

Professor White Announces Eleven Scheduled Spring Meets

TRYOUTS HELD FRIDAY
Candidates' Applications Must Be in by Wednesday; Posted Thursday

The schedule for the spring debates has been drawn up and the subjects for debate have been chosen, according to word given out by Professor White, who is in charge of the debate team. Eleven debates have been scheduled to date for the University team.

The three subjects of controversy and debate center upon business ethics, government interference and Secretary Kellogg's policy in regard to Central America. The questions as they read for debate are: 1. This house thinks that the ethics of the modern business world are incompatible with sound morality. 2. This house deprecates the tendency of governments to interfere in the rights of individuals. 3. Secretary Kellogg's policy in regard to Central America should be discontinued.

Begin at 3:45 O'clock
On Friday, February 3, beginning at 3:45 o'clock, trials will be held to choose teams for question 3. The names of persons trying out should reach Professor White's office, 106, Law building, not later than Wednesday evening. The drawing for tryouts will be posted in University hall on Thursday afternoon.

Complete arrangements have not been completed as to sides to be taken on debates and conditions of conveniences of these institutions planning debate trips. The schedule drawn up to date is as follows:

Nebraska versus Kansas Agricultural College, at Beatrice, February 15, question 2.
Kansas Agricultural College versus Nebraska, radio debate at Manhattan, February 16, question 2.
University of Missouri versus Nebraska, February 16, question 2.

TWO APPOINTED ON CORNHUSKER

Ruth Palmer and Archibald Eddy Named Student Life Editors

GROUP PICTURES WANTED

Archibald Eddy, '28, Lincoln, and Ruth Palmer, '28, Holdrege, have been appointed editors of the student life section of the 1928 Cornhusker, according to Dwight Wallace, editor of the book. Both are seniors in the School of Journalism and have had experience on the staffs of student publications.

"Novelty and variety" is to be the slogan for this section of the book. Some new features are to be introduced which, the staff hopes, will fill this division with a clean-cut type of humor, interesting and representative of Nebraska.

The paper to be used in this division of the book will be entirely different than has been previously used while the amount of space to be given to this section will probably be proportionately the same as in previous years the type of thing to be worked out, as planned, will be so entirely different in its scope that Cornhusker purchasers can well be assured, the staff members point out, of a most novel humor section.

Work on other divisions of the book is well under way editors report. The senior and junior panels are being proofed and checked. The sorority and fraternity panels are being made up and will soon be ready to have the Greek group members check names with the original group lists.

Frederick Daly, editor of this section, declared last evening that organizations should report to the campus studio for reservations before Thursday February 2. This section is to be made up within the next month or so and it is imperative, Mr. Daly pointed out, that picture reservations be made at once.

Workers May Sign for High School Tourney

Men wishing to work during the high school basketball tournament to be held here March 8, 9, and 10, are requested to sign at the athletic office, Herbert Glish announced yesterday. There will be a great number of teams and all those that are willing to work the games will probably be given a chance.

Positions Open for Nebraskan Reporters

Students wishing to report for The Daily Nebraskan for the second semester should report to the Managing Editor in the Nebraskan office in the north basement of University Hall afternoons after three o'clock. Several regular "runs" are still open for applicants.

Plans Finished For Roosevelt Visit Thursday

Preparations to receive Colonel Theodore Roosevelt Jr., upon his visit to Lincoln have been finished. His principal address during his stay in the city will be given in Memorial Hall at 11 o'clock Thursday. In addition he will deliver a short speech at the Chamber of Commerce luncheon and also talk to a group of American Legion members.

Colonel Roosevelt is visiting several educational institutions in the middle west and was secured through the efforts of Colonel John G. Maher. Colonel Roosevelt received his degree from Harvard. He took part in the world war and has ventured on hunting trips in search of big game, which has taken him to nearly every country in the world. In 1924 he was the Republican candidate for the governor of the state of New York, prior to which he held the office of assistant secretary of the navy.

Colonel Maher will introduce Colonel Roosevelt to the Nebraska students Thursday. The program includes music by the Fine Arts Band under the direction of Wm. T. Quick.

WORLD FORUM TALK POSTPONED A WEEK

Unavoidable Circumstances Cause Regular Meeting to Be Dropped Today

The World Forum luncheon and meeting, scheduled for this noon, has been unavoidably postponed until next week, according to Dorothy Nott, in charge. Mr. Palmer, announced as today's speaker, will give the same address at the meeting next week. Tickets holders may save their tickets until the next meeting of World Forum, when they may be used.

Adrian Newens Will Give Reading Friday

Adrian M. Newens, director of the University School of Music, will give a character reading entitled "To Him that Hath," at 8 o'clock Friday evening, February 3, at the Westminster church. Musical numbers by Mrs. L. P. Davis, contralto, and Louis H. Babst flute soloist, will also be a part of the program. The program is being sponsored by the Circle 3 of the church. Mrs. W. H. Brehm is president of the club.

Washington Fraternity Men Have 'Black Hope'

Seattle, Wash., Jan. 31.—(IP)—Sophisticated fraternity row opened its heart the other night, and welcomed into its fold two African infants abandoned in freezing weather on the front porch of the Phi Gamma Delta house.

The twins, nestled each in an old galosh, tagged with a crimson bow, slept peacefully through the abandonment, little realizing their cruel plight until they were taken into the house by the University of Washington fraternity men, who answered the door after the bell had been rung.

A single scrawled note, attached to one of the infants, read, "Treat them kindly." A thorough search of the neighborhood, immediately instigated, failed to produce any persons connected with the little darkies. "We are thoroughly astounded," one of the fraternity brothers said in an exclusive interview, "as it is rather a stupendous task for 40 fraternity men to undertake the rearing of two abandoned black infants. But we will do our best."

And so, Phi Gamma Delta has in its possession twin persian kittens, which it is willing to offer for Tolo dates, new ideas for fraternity rushing, or what-have-you.

GROUPS DISCUSS CAMPUS ISSUES

Freshmen and Upperclassmen Turn to New Subjects For Meetings

CHANGES BEGIN MONDAY

Students and campus problems will be stressed by the Freshmen and Upperclassmen Commission Groups this semester, instead of the intensive Bible study which was carried on last semester.

A complete reorganization of membership in the groups will be started Monday. Any girl interested in becoming a member of one of the groups may sign up for it in Ellen Smith Hall. Membership in the Y. M. C. A. is not necessary to affiliation with the groups.

The only group for upperclassmen will be held on Wednesday at 4 o'clock and will be led by Mary Ball.

The leaders and the hour for meeting of the Freshmen Groups are as follows:

Monday at 4—Catherine Beekman.
Tuesday at 2—Edna Schrick.
Tuesday at 4—Jane Glennon.
Thursday at 11—Margaret Adams.
Thursday at 3—Irene Davies.
Thursday at 7—Helen Witherpoon.

Friday at 11—Maurine Drayton.
Ruth Barker, chairman of membership in the Y. W. C. A. and Helen Clarke, chairman of groups, have general charge of the reorganization of these groups.

School Agent Has Charge of 145 Buildings

L. F. Seaton, purchasing agent for the University of Nebraska, is one of the busiest housekeepers in the state.

His "house" consists of 145 buildings spread over 5,236 acres of land. Something like 15,000 tons of coal are required each year to heat the buildings, and there are 400 telephones. The magnitude of the state university's physical plant is revealed in a few more figures:

- 870,000 square feet of floor (20 acres).
- 250 laboratories.
- 200 class rooms.
- 1 mile of steam tunnels, all large enough for a man to walk upright in them.
- 100,000 feet additional underground steam mains.
- 3,000 miles of telephone wire.
- 16 miles of underground cable.

PLAN VARIED PROGRAM

Kosmet Klub Promises Action And Entertainment for Full Evening

Fifty tickets for the Interfraternity Ball, scheduled for this coming Saturday evening in the Scottish Rite Temple, will be put on sale in the entrance to Social Sciences this morning from 9 until 12 o'clock. Of the 300 tickets put on sale originally in fraternity houses, only these fifty remain, and will be sold for three dollars each to those who have not had an opportunity to buy through the fraternity representatives.

An elaborate decorative theme promised to excel anything ever attempted in the University is being worked out by James Pickering. The entire interior of the Scottish Rite Temple will be lavishly disguised to present a spectacle of unusual beauty and originality. The theme of decoration will be kept secret until Saturday evening.

The Kosmet Klub has made arrangements for excellent entertainment for the entire evening. The College Club orchestra will play for the dance, with "Chuck" Wiles, famous (Continued on Page 2.)

WRESTLERS TO COMPETE SOON

Varsity Squad Will Enter Second Meet Saturday At Coliseum

WILL MEET KANSAS MEN

Nebraska's varsity wrestling squad will compete in their second meet of the season Saturday evening in the Coliseum against the University of Kansas. This will be the first home exhibition of the squad; the first out of town meet being at St. Vernon, Ia., against Cornell College, where Coach Kellogg's proteges were met with a 18 to 0. Cornell also holds verdicts over Wisconsin, Purdue, and Northwestern. Nebraska carried two of the matches into extra period affairs.

Joe Toman, wrestling in the 175 pound class for Nebraska, showed real promise in his match against Appleton, Cornell grappler, who has not lost a match in his college career. There may be changes made in the squad before the meet Saturday evening. (Continued on Page 3)

BURNETT SPEAKS AT ROTARY LUNCH

Acting Chancellor Discusses Vast Production Versus Quality From School View

The question of vast production versus quality was the theme of the address given by Acting Chancellor E. A. Burnett, at the Rotary Club luncheon Tuesday. Education Day was observed by the Club at the meeting.

In the last ten years the enrollment at the university has increased from a little over 4,200 to over 10,000. The university has had to take care of an additional 500 students each year while already engaged to the limits of its capacity. While privately endowed colleges are limiting their number of students the tax supported institution cannot do this. Yale university, the speaker said, limits its freshmen enrollment each year to 850 while 2,000 enrolled at the University of Nebraska last September.

The responsibility of the teacher in handling students has increased 38 percent. It was shown that in the (Continued on Page 2)

Coach Oakes Calls For Basketball Players

An urgent call for all freshmen who desire to play basketball was made by Coach Bunny Oakes Tuesday afternoon. Several games have been scheduled, according to the yearling coach, and more men are needed at the daily workouts.

"Recent practice drills have been attended by only a few freshmen basketball players," Oakes explained. "I'll need more men out in order to pick a team for the scheduled games," he concluded.

Derby Interest Waxes As Steeds Gnash Bits

Excitement prevails in the "N" Club "stables" as the time nears for the Cornhusker Derby, a feature of the Husker Intramural Carnival Friday evening. Captains of University sport will drive in one of the greatest intramural races of all time.

In view of the great number of steeds who will compete in this epic of the turf, it has been found difficult to pick any probable winners. "Gunner Elliot, Rock Luff, and Horse Holm," announced "Jug" Brown yesterday, "have been placed in the pool, while Barn Door goes on the books as a stable entry only."

Intense interest in the Cornhusker Derby is felt by university students, and it will probably be one of the high-lights of the carnival. The prize for the race is, appropriately, a derby. The "Cornhusker Derby" is now on display in Ben Simon's store.

Realizing the great importance of exercise as a positive health factor, the association gives the advantages of athletics and the proper guidance in taking advantage of them.

Every girl in the University is urged to become a member of the Women's Athletic Association. Freshmen and new students will be especially welcome and will find this a way to meet other students. Mem- (Continued on Page 2)

CARNIVAL PROGRAM NEARS COMPLETION

Rapid Action Promised from First To End of Varied Schedule of Happenings

"Off-color" dancing will be featured in the Husker Intramural Carnival in the Coliseum this Friday evening. The College Club orchestra will play for the dance which starts at 10 o'clock, climaxing the evening of sport.

"The 'off-color' dance will mix you or break you," promises "Jimmy" Lewis, in charge of the program. "You can dance with her all evening, but it will be expensive." The tickets, which may be bought at the door for fifty cents, come in four colors, and are to be pinned to the dancers when the dancing begins. Each man and each woman will have a colored tag, and when certain signals are given from the balcony the colors designated must dance together. "N" Club men will watch the floor for "off-color" dancers, and they will be fined five cents. The purpose of the "off-color" dance is to make it a true mixer.

PROBATION FOR YEARLINGS SET FOR NEXT WEEK

Informal Initiation Date Moved Ahead by General Desire of Fraternities

OTHER EVENTS INTERFERE

Sports Carnival and Ball for Weekend Cause the Period To Be Postponed

Probation week for fraternities will start Thursday Feb. 9 as a result of action taken by members of the Interfraternity Council for its postponement. It was discovered late yesterday afternoon that probation week, or informal initiation week, was scheduled to begin at 10 o'clock tomorrow evening, but with the Husker Intramural Carnival and the Interfraternity Ball this week-end the postponement of probation week was considered advisable by fraternities.

The prompt action of a member of the Interfraternity Council in calling Professor E. F. Schramm, faculty representative on the council, who started on a trip yesterday evening, before he left Lincoln, made it possible for probation week to be postponed after the approval of fraternities had been given. If informal initiation week were to start tomorrow evening it would interfere greatly with the Husker Intramural Carnival Friday evening, and the Interfrater- (Continued on Page 2)

BOOK EXCHANGE HAS GOOD YEAR

Business for Two Semesters Of Existence Totals Over $2,000

900 STUDENT ACCOUNTS

Slightly more than two thousand dollars has been taken in by the student book exchange of the Y. M. C. A., according to the statistics for the school year from the beginning of the second semester last year to the beginning of the second semester this year. A statement was received from C. D. Hayes, secretary of the Uniting Y. M. C. A. to the effect that just short of 900 accounts have been opened with the exchange during the last year.

The total saving to students buying books here last year was nearly one thousand dollars. Four hundred dollars worth was sold during the second semester last year, four hundred dollars worth during the summer period, and twelve hundred dollars worth during the first semester of this school year. This is an example of the prosperity the book exchange is enjoying and the service it is rendering to the students.
