

RABBI STARRELS WILL BE WORLD FORUM SPEAKER

'Americanization and Common Sense' Is Subject of Rabbi's Address MEETING IS WEDNESDAY

Speaker Has Appeared Before World Forum and Other Groups Many Times

TRI-COLOR SERIES CONTINUE TODAY

Third Meet of Season Will Be Run Off Under Stadium; Blue Team Leads

DEBATE WINNERS REWARDED

Certificates and Bulletins Are Sent To High School Debaters

Convocation Will Be Held Tuesday Morning

A University convocation will be presented on Tuesday, February 21, at the Temple Theatre, beginning at 11 o'clock.

'Science Develops Tolerance' Is Statement of Dr. Wolcott

(Editor's Note: The following is the second of a series of interviews with University of Nebraska scientists concerning scientific dogmatism, which will be published in The Daily Nebraskan.)

Forum Speaker

Rabbi Starrels, who will address the World Forum group at their regular weekly meeting Wednesday noon at the Grand hotel.

MURAL NEARS COMPLETION

Large Display in Morrill Hall Will Be Finished Within Next Two Weeks

MISS DOLAN IS ARTIST

Miss Elizabeth Dolan, the artist who is painting the murals for the habitat displays in Morrill hall, announces that the large mural which she is painting on the south wall of "Elephant Hall" will be completed within two weeks.

KOSMET CONDUCTS KFAB SONG CONTEST

Deadline of Songs for 'The Love Hater' Is Saturday; Prize Is Offered Winner

University song writers wishing to compete in Kosmet Klub's radio contest for "The Love Hater" are requested to turn in songs to Herbert Yenne, director of the show, to Harold Turner or Paul Morrow.

Students or members of the University faculty who submit songs will be given an opportunity to present these numbers over radio KFAB during the dinner program on February 25, 26 and 27.

LeRossignol Attends Tri-State Conference

Dean J. E. LeRossignol of the College of Business Administration, attended the tri-state conference of credit men at Cedar Rapids, Iowa, February 15 and 16.

SPRING IS MOTIF IN DECORATIONS FOR PROM BALL

Plan Submitted by Decorator Accepted by Committee; Work Is Started

TICKETS SELLING NOW

Ballroom at Scottish Rite Will Be Transformed Into Garden

Novel spring decorations have been designed for the Junior-Senior Prom, to be held in the Scottish Rite Temple, Friday, March 2, according to announcement made by John McKnight, chairman of the decorating committee, Monday.

The ball room will be in the form of a garden. Lattice work, interwoven with smilax and spring bowers will surround each pillar.

Klub Tryouts Continue Fair And Warmer

"Bring on another one, Steve!" one member or another of Kosmet Klub (see directory) would shout at "Doc" Twineam, and "Steve" would dash madly out of the door and come back with a young Phi Gam on each arm.

A medley of clever hoofers and a couple of nasty stringed-instrument operators performed for Kosmet Klub and (bet you thought we'd forget) Rerb Yenne last evening.

MORE AWGWAN COPY IS NEEDED

Contributors Asked by Editor To Submit Materials Before Friday

More copy for the Automobile number of the Awgwan is needed, although a large number of contributions have been made within the past ten days and is of sufficient merit to insure a successful number.

UNION SOCIETY WILL GIVE UNIQUE PARTY

Literary Group Will Present First Of Series of Constellation Entertainments

"A Carnival on Mars" will be given by the Union Literary Society, Friday night, February 24, according to Miss Belle Dunn, program chairman.

The carnival is a part of Union's regular program for this semester. Some phase of the heavens is being taken as a central theme for each week's entertainment.

Dean LeRossignol Has Translated Articles

Dean J. E. LeRossignol of the College of Business Administration has translated from the German of Reinhold Von Platenekner an article called "Lao-Tse—A Chinese Idealist," which appears in a recent issue of The Chinese Students' Monthly.

Dr. Pool Will Lecture To Lincoln High Club

Dr. Raymond J. Pool, chairman of the department of botany, will give an illustrated lecture Wednesday afternoon before the Biology Club at Lincoln high school.

BLAZES ATTACK GREEK HOMES

Alpha Tau Omega and Omega Beta Pi Houses Suffer Minor Damage

MEDIC HOME ROOF BURNS

Two fraternity house fires have been reported within the last few days. A small blaze broke out in the Alpha Tau Omega house yesterday morning when a pile of papers in the basement became ignited.

KANSAS WILL BE HOST TO GROUP

Midwest Student Conference Will Be Held 24 and 25 Of This Month

SHALLCROSS IS LEADER

Ruth Shallcross will be one of the discussion group leaders at the Midwest Student Conference to be held at Lawrence, Kansas, February 24 and 25.

Farmers Learn Real Worth of Penny Pencils

"A penny pencil has been worth almost five hundred thousand times what it cost a farmer in Cass county," W. H. Brokaw, director of the agricultural college extension service, told the farmers and other business men at the agricultural outlook meetings at the college of agriculture, Lincoln, Monday afternoon, February 20.

CHURCH SORORITY WILL BE INSTALLED

National Congregational Sorority Will Charter New Chapter on Nebraska Campus

Sigma Eta Chi, the national Congregational sorority, will be represented hereafter by Epsilon chapter at the University of Nebraska.

Norma Clark Tells of Mexican Conditions at First Spanish Meeting

"Mexicans are happy—very happy and carefree," stated Miss Norma Clark, assistant instructor in Romance languages, in her talk or Mexico at the first meeting of the Spanish club this semester.

Shallcross Will Talk On 'Industry' at Ag Y.W.C.A.

Miss Ruth Shallcross will speak at the noon meeting of the Agricultural College Y. W. C. A. on Tuesday in the Home Economics Parlors, on "Industrialism."

Prof. Hill Will Talk On 'World Politics'

Prof. Norman L. Hill of the department of political science will speak before the monthly meeting of Phi Lambda Upsilon on February 29.

CAGEMEN WORK FOR WEEK-END CONTESTS HERE

Players Ready to Meet Sooners And Jayhawkers in Tilt On Coliseum Floor

KRALL RETURNS TO QUINT

Team in Good Shape; Work on Defensive Tactics to Meet Opponents

Taking two defeats from Kansas quintets last week-end, the Cornhuskers returned home and put in a two hour practice session Monday afternoon preparing for the Kansas and Oklahoma basketball teams this week-end.

Strengthened by the return of Bob Krall, who has been absent on account of the death of his mother, the squad went through a snappy workout Monday afternoon.

Losing a close game to the Kansans by a 33 to 27 score, the Huskers believe they can take the Jayhawkers into camp on the Nebraska court.

Sooners Have Valley Title By pulling out ahead in two games last week, the Sooners have undisputed title to the Valley leadership.

BOXING ENTRIES FOR TOURNAMENT NEEDED

Mr. Vogeler, of Physical Education Department, Will Receive All Applicants

Entries for the All-University boxing tournament are now being received by Rudolph Vogeler of the department of physical education.

DISCUSSION GROUPS ON HOME EC MEET

District Conference Series Ends With Final Meeting Held Here Saturday

On Friday and Saturday Miss Birdie Vorhies, state supervisor of vocational home economics education, conducted the last of a series of five district conferences for vocational home economics teachers and others who were interested.

Ellen Smith Hall Is Scene of Varied Activities Throughout Passing Years

Landmark of Lincoln Views Dances, Receptions, Fraternity Men in Pillow Fights, and Miss Heppner's Office.

(By Helen Day) Merry couples swaying to the rhythm of lively dance tunes, dignified men and women passing down pensive reception lines, church members gathered in solemn meetings, riotous boys ducking and shouting in pillow fights—Ellen Smith Hall, a landmark in the history of Lincoln, has probably been the scene of more varied activities than any other building in the town.

Dean Lyman Will Edit New Pharmacy Book

Dr. R. A. Lyman, dean of the College of Pharmacy, has been asked to criticize and proofread a manuscript on Pharmaceutical Therapeutics with Pharmacology Posology and Toxicology by Dr. Eldin V. Lynn, associate professor of Pharmacology and Chemistry, University of Washington.

The manuscript when published will be used as a textbook in the colleges of pharmacy.

Prof. Hill Will Talk On 'World Politics'

Prof. Norman L. Hill of the department of political science will speak before the monthly meeting of Phi Lambda Upsilon on February 29.

Addresses Omahans

Miss H. Alice Howell, head of the department of dramatics, lectured on "Shakespeare and His Contemporaries" before the Omaha Women's Club Monday.

HOWELL SPEAKS TO OMAHA CLUB

Head of Dramatic Department Addresses Womens' Club On Shakespeare

READS AND QUOTES LINES

Miss H. Alice Howell of the Dramatic department of the University, spoke before the Omaha Womens' Club Monday morning on "Shakespeare and His Contemporaries."

Miss Howell has been the director of the University Players since their inception twelve years ago, and is the present head of the dramatic department of the University. In addition she has been a member of the National Students Federation of America meeting held here recently.

DEBATE SQUAD CLASHES WITH MIZZOU TODAY

Team Uphold Negative Side of Rights Issue in Exchange Contest Tonight

Nebraska debaters will meet the University of Missouri debate team this evening in the Social Sciences auditorium at 7:45 o'clock.

HUSKERS WIN RBLAY RACE FROM KANSAS

Nebraska Relay Team Establishes Second Best Time Record In K. C. A. C. Meet

The Nebraska mile relay team composed of Davenport, Campbell, E. Wyatt, and P. Wyatt, defeated the Kansas University team in the Kansas City Athletic club indoor track meet at Kansas City, Mo., Saturday, February 18.

DEAN LYMAN WILL EDIT NEW PHARMACY BOOK

Dr. R. A. Lyman, dean of the College of Pharmacy, has been asked to criticize and proofread a manuscript on Pharmaceutical Therapeutics with Pharmacology Posology and Toxicology by Dr. Eldin V. Lynn, associate professor of Pharmacology and Chemistry, University of Washington.

The manuscript when published will be used as a textbook in the colleges of pharmacy.

ELLEN SMITH HALL IS SCENE OF VARIED ACTIVITIES THROUGHOUT PASSING YEARS

Landmark of Lincoln Views Dances, Receptions, Fraternity Men in Pillow Fights, and Miss Heppner's Office.

(By Helen Day) Merry couples swaying to the rhythm of lively dance tunes, dignified men and women passing down pensive reception lines, church members gathered in solemn meetings, riotous boys ducking and shouting in pillow fights—Ellen Smith Hall, a landmark in the history of Lincoln, has probably been the scene of more varied activities than any other building in the town.

DEAN LYMAN WILL EDIT NEW PHARMACY BOOK

Dr. R. A. Lyman, dean of the College of Pharmacy, has been asked to criticize and proofread a manuscript on Pharmaceutical Therapeutics with Pharmacology Posology and Toxicology by Dr. Eldin V. Lynn, associate professor of Pharmacology and Chemistry, University of Washington.

DEBATE SQUAD CLASHES WITH MIZZOU TODAY

Team Uphold Negative Side of Rights Issue in Exchange Contest Tonight

ADMISSION FEE LOWERED

Entrance Price Is Twenty-Five Cents; Students Urged to Attend

Nebraska debaters will meet the University of Missouri debate team this evening in the Social Sciences auditorium at 7:45 o'clock.

Judge W. W. Wilson, of the Supreme Court Commission No. 1, will preside, at the debate, A vote of the audience will be taken on the stated question.

Mr. M. M. Christensen and Hartley Pollock will debate for Missouri. Mr. Christensen is a member of Sigma Nu fraternity and a junior in the Arts and Science college at Missouri. He has debated for two years, including freshman debating. Pollock is president of the student body at Missouri, a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon honor fraternity, Delta Sigma Rho, honorary debate fraternity, Alpha Pi Delta and is a candidate at Missouri for the Rhodes Scholarship in 1928.

Reginald C. Miller and David Fellman of Nebraska will take the negative side of the debate. Lester P. Schoene and Everett M. Lunt will debate upon the affirmative side of the same question against Missouri at Columbia this evening.

Admission for the debate will be (Continued on Page 3.)

HUSKERS WIN RBLAY RACE FROM KANSAS

Nebraska Relay Team Establishes Second Best Time Record In K. C. A. C. Meet

The Nebraska mile relay team composed of Davenport, Campbell, E. Wyatt, and P. Wyatt, defeated the Kansas University team in the Kansas City Athletic club indoor track meet at Kansas City, Mo., Saturday, February 18.

Coach Henry F. Schulte expressed disappointment in his proteges upon his return from Kansas City but stated that hard luck played a big part in their bad showing.

Hurd placed third in the shot put event in the K. C. A. C. meet with a throw of 41 feet, 4 inches. Becker, freshman star, running unattached, (Continued on Page 3.)

DEAN LYMAN WILL EDIT NEW PHARMACY BOOK

Dr. R. A. Lyman, dean of the College of Pharmacy, has been asked to criticize and proofread a manuscript on Pharmaceutical Therapeutics with Pharmacology Posology and Toxicology by Dr. Eldin V. Lynn, associate professor of Pharmacology and Chemistry, University of Washington.

The manuscript when published will be used as a textbook in the colleges of pharmacy.

ELLEN SMITH HALL IS SCENE OF VARIED ACTIVITIES THROUGHOUT PASSING YEARS

Landmark of Lincoln Views Dances, Receptions, Fraternity Men in Pillow Fights, and Miss Heppner's Office.

(By Helen Day) Merry couples swaying to the rhythm of lively dance tunes, dignified men and women passing down pensive reception lines, church members gathered in solemn meetings, riotous boys ducking and shouting in pillow fights—Ellen Smith Hall, a landmark in the history of Lincoln, has probably been the scene of more varied activities than any other building in the town.

DEAN LYMAN WILL EDIT NEW PHARMACY BOOK

Dr. R. A. Lyman, dean of the College of Pharmacy, has been asked to criticize and proofread a manuscript on Pharmaceutical Therapeutics with Pharmacology Posology and Toxicology by Dr. Eldin V. Lynn, associate professor of Pharmacology and Chemistry, University of Washington.

The manuscript when published will be used as a textbook in the colleges of pharmacy.

ELLEN SMITH HALL IS SCENE OF VARIED ACTIVITIES THROUGHOUT PASSING YEARS

Landmark of Lincoln Views Dances, Receptions, Fraternity Men in Pillow Fights, and Miss Heppner's Office.

(By Helen Day) Merry couples swaying to the rhythm of lively dance tunes, dignified men and women passing down pensive reception lines, church members gathered in solemn meetings, riotous boys ducking and shouting in pillow fights—Ellen Smith Hall, a landmark in the history of Lincoln, has probably been the scene of more varied activities than any other building in the town.

When built, in the prosperous days of the late eighties, it was considered a very elegant mansion, and was freely opened for public affairs, by its owner and builder, Mr. Frank Sheldon, who also founded the street railway service in Lincoln. Until 1913 the house was a private residence; from 1913 until 1918 it was the home of the Alpha Sigma Phi fraternity; for three months in the fall of 1918 it stood vacant, and since November 1918 it has been the center of the women's activities of the campus.