

MARCH 24 SET AS DATE FOR ANNUAL SHOW

University Night Shifted Back A Week to Meet Playhouse Date Schedule

SIX SKITS ARE TAKEN

Committee Approves Acts at Friday Meeting; Awards Announced Later

University Night, according to the committee, has been postponed from March 17 to March 24. As originally planned, the show will be held at the Playhouse, but due to a conflict of dates it was necessary to set the show back a week.

At a meeting Friday afternoon, the University Night committee definitely decided on six skits that will be accepted.

The skits are:
Alumni Act
Kappa Delta skit
Phi Gamma Delta skit
Kappa Sigma skit
Sigma Delta Chi act
Tassels act

Rehearsals will begin next week. Campus Cracks Wanted
Any material that might be suitable for slides to be shown on the screen is welcomed by the committee. This material should be placed in the Campus Cracks box in Social Science.

The above listed organizations must have complete manuscripts in every detail ready for the University Night committee by Thursday of this week. A list of members for the casts should be included at this time. These may be handed to members of the committee which includes Wilbur Mead, Sherman Welpton, Frederick Daly, Evert Hunt, Maxine Mathers and Pauline Bilon.

Prizes Announced March 24
Winners of the best honorary organization act submitted and sorority or fraternity act will not be announced until University Night. A col-

AWGWAN PLANS FEATURE ISSUE

Three Members Added to Staff of Magazine Working for March Number

PICKERING IS ART EDITOR

Because of the increased interest shown by contributors to the Awgwan, campus humorous publication, the "Automobile" number, to be issued about March tenth, will be one of the best numbers of the year, according to Alan C. McIntosh, editor. The addition of three new members to the art staff will also add to the editorial staff in getting out a publication that will be clever, witty, and full of fun, Mr. McIntosh states. The Automobile number will be the second one put out this semester.

The March number will be featured with four stories of page-length. Munro Kezer has written a same-back on automobile restrictions at the University, Lynn Cox compares automobiles with co-eds, William McCleery submitted two short stories, and Clarence Clover turned in two act playlets.

Many Contributors
Short jokes and verse have been written by Douglas Timmerman, Harriet Davis, Alene Miner, Jack Lewis, Raymond Murray, Esther Adams, Lloyd Kennedy, George

Scientific Method Does Not Lend Itself to Set Ways, Says Marvin

(Editor's Note: The following is the sixth of a series of interviews with University of Nebraska scientists concerning scientific dogmatism, which will be published in The Daily Nebraskan.)

(By Paul Nelson)
There is a certain element of dogmatism in it. Some scientists do believe in dogmatism," was the reply of H. H. Marvin, chairman of the department of physics, when asked whether or not he thought the charge of dogmatism in science is becoming dogmatism in its statements is justified.

However, scientific method is mainly not one which lends itself to dogmatism," he continued. "As I see it, the scientific method is about as far as we can go. We have certain concepts and certain words to describe these concepts. The fundamental characteristics of these in nature are all sciences is such that, in a sense, it is impossible to define

Dean Thompson Will Talk at Next Vespers

Dean T. J. Thompson will talk on "Some Student Problems on the Campus" at the Vespers service which will be held Tuesday evening in Ellen Smith Hall at 5 o'clock.

This is the second of a series of special talks which are being given during the Lenten season.

VOCATIONS ARE LECTURE TOPICS

Series of Five Talks Starts Wednesday Evening in Social Sciences

PETERSON IS SPEAKER

A series of five lectures on the subject of "Vocations," intended to assist students who have not as yet selected a profession or calling, will begin Wednesday evening, February 29, at the Social Sciences auditorium.

The lectures, being sponsored by the Federation of Church Workers, consisting of the university student pastors and the secretaries of the student Christian associations, will extend over a period of five weeks.

First Topic Is "Law"
C. Petrus Peterson, Lincoln attorney, will give the introductory address on Wednesday evening of this week. His topic will be "Law." The second lecture of the series will be delivered a week later, March 7, by W. B. Ryons, cashier of the First National bank of Lincoln, on "Business."

On March 14, E. W. Lantz, associate professor of secondary education, will speak on the "Teaching Profession." Dr. J. Stanley Welch, physician and surgeon of this city, will present the subject "Medicine" from a professional standpoint on March 21. The last address in the series, on "The Ministry," will be given on March 28 by Rev. Clifton H. Wolcott, pastor of the First Baptist church.

Faculty Members Interested
Plans for this series of lectures, according to C. D. Hayes, general secretary of the University Y. M. C. A., were developed after consultation had been made with faculty members who seem especially interested in the matter of vocational counsel.

TWO ARE INITIATED IN THETA SIGMA PHI

Florence Seward and Harriet Ray Taken into Journalistic Society Friday

Florence Seward, '29, Omaha, and Harriet Ray, '29, Lincoln, were initiated into Theta Sigma Phi, national honorary journalistic sorority, Friday evening at Ellen Smith Hall.

Florence Seward is an assistant news editor of The Daily Nebraskan, and has been a reporter for the past two years, handling news about the University Players particularly.

Harriet Ray is specializing in journalism and has been a reporter on The Daily Nebraskan for several semesters.

Following the initiation, a banquet for all active members was held at the University Club. Eloise Keefer and Regina McDermott were chairmen of the committees in charge of arrangements. A program was given by the initiates, followed by extemporaneous talks by all other members.

Pentathlon Is Added to List Of May Tests

An academic pentathlon for Nebraska high school students will be held at the University of Nebraska May 5 in connection with the sixth state-wide academic contest.

Each accredited high school has the privilege of entering two members of the 1928 graduating class in this pentathlon, which will be based on the five essential elements of entrance to a college of the Liberal Arts type. Each entrant will take the regular academic test in advanced composition, second, third or fourth year foreign language, and the highest semester of mathematics, and a composite test in natural and social science.

Appropriate awards will be given for the four highest places based on total rankings in the events, A. A. Reed, University examiner, announced Saturday.

DEMING'S TEXTBOOK HEADS SALES LISTS

Nebraska Chemistry Professor Has Best Seller; Three Years With New York Company

Dr. Horace G. Deming's "General Chemistry" textbook, according to a bulletin issued by the Wiley Book Publishers of New York City, has been the best seller during three successive years on their list of one thousand technical books.

RAISED SEATS MADE FOR 'IL TROVATORE'

Selleck Drafts Elevation Plan for Half of Coliseum Floor for March Grand Opera

Specially constructed raised seats will be provided for the presentation of "Il Trovatore" in the Coliseum, Thursday, March 29. John K. Selleck has drafted a plan for seat elevation which will cover one-half the floor of the Coliseum.

The stage arrangement of the Coliseum is ideal for the handling of operatic productions, in the opinion of R. S. Jeffers, stage superintendent with the Chicago Civic Opera company. He made a trip to Lincoln recently for the purpose of inspecting the Coliseum layout.

"The University of Nebraska Coliseum has the best stage on which the company will play during its present tour," declared the stage superintendent in a letter written to Mr. Selleck.

HUSKERS LOSE CLOSE BATTLE TO CHAMPIONS

Oklahoma Noses Out 38-36 Victory Over Fighting Scarlet Team

GRACE LEADS SCORING

Nebraska Sophomore Accounts For 19 Counters While Holt Gets 6

(By Doug Timmerman)

In a pulsating, hard-fought contest Saturday evening, the Nebraska basketball team came close to upsetting Oklahoma's perfect record when they displayed a fighting attitude which held the Sooners to a 38 to 36 victory. Never farther behind than four field goals, the Huskers went into the lead late in the first half but ended the initial fifteen minutes of play with the small end of a 21 to 16 score.

Although the work of the Nebraska quintet as a whole was far above the average, it was the all-around ability of Harvey Grace which kept the Huskers on the heels of the Sooner team. With nine field goals and a gift toss, Grace easily won high scoring honors and turned in the best floor game by far.

Sooners Start Fast
Starting with a rush that came close to routing the home cagers, the Oklahoma rolled up seven points in rapid succession. Churchill, Holt, and Drake supplied the markers and seemed to be putting the game on ice for the Sooners. Displaying a fighting spirit which has been lacking hitherto, the Varsity basket shooters started breaking up the perfect Sooner offense and Grace sank his first, but not last by any means, basket of the evening's performance.

With Munn and "Jug" Brown aiding in the scoring efforts, the Huskers pulled up to a 15 to 15 tie with the tall Oklahoma men who rallied and proceeded to pull ahead again. Baskets by Kirgan, substituted in the last few minutes of the first half (Continued on Page 4)

LASCH MAY ENTER ORIEL AT OXFORD

Nebraska Rhodes Scholar Is One of Two Americans Selected For This College

Robert N. Lasch, who will enter Oxford University next fall as the 1928 Nebraska Rhodes scholar, received word Saturday morning that he would be permitted to enter Oriel college, the college for which he expressed first preference in his application for admission. Only two American students are admitted to Oriel college each year.

Oriel college was chosen as first choice by Mr. Lasch because of the presence of a fine Aristotelian scholar who has been doing for Aristotle's works what Jowett did for Plato's works, according to Mr. Lasch. He will study philosophy while at Oxford. Each of the Rhodes scholars was asked to submit a list of preferences.

Michigan Drafts Plans For Course Paving Way To Professional Study

Ann Arbor, Mich.—By New Student Service)—University of Michigan's university college project, which interposes a two-year preparatory course between entering students and the professional schools, has been sanctioned by the general committee of the University college.

The faculties of the various schools and colleges and the regents must add their approval before the plan will go into effect. No opposition is expected, however, inasmuch as during the two years spent in framing the project, all the faculties had a part in the task.

Under the new order, the College of Literature, Science, and the Arts assumes the status of a professional school to which admission will be granted only upon successful completion of two years of work in the new university college. The same requirement will control admittance (Continued on Page 3)

Dr. Hill Will Speak To Chemical Society

Dr. N. L. Hill of the department of political science will address an open meeting of Phi Lambda Upsilon, chemical society, at 7:30 o'clock Wednesday evening, in the lecture hall of the Chemistry building. His subject will be, "The Effects of Modern Scientific Research on the Political World."

Track Mentor

Coach Henry F. Schulte, guider of the destinies of the track team, who indicated yesterday that he would be in the race for Valley honors this year by taking an easy win over the state college champions. Winning track meets and breaking records has come to be Schulte's speciality since he has been at Nebraska.

TRAVEL TALK IS OFFERED TODAY

Van Zyperden, Traveller, Will Be Feature of Program At Morrill Hall

OTHER EVENTS PLANNED

A travel talk this afternoon will vary the program of art subjects being offered weekly by the Nebraska Art Association at its annual exhibit in Morrill Hall. W. H. J. Ritzmond Van Zyperden will be the speaker and will bring moving picture films which will be shown in the auditorium of Morrill Hall, basement floor, at 5 o'clock.

The speaker's subject, "Art and Travel in France and Northern Africa," will be of interest to those who have toured France or to those who look forward to a trip to the land of Beau Geste.

Speaks Seven Tongues
Mr. Van Zyperden has traveled widely and is a linguist with a command of seven languages. He served in the World War as an interpreter in the Dutch East Indies and later through his knowledge of the Malay language was able to conduct the Sultan of Djocja on a tour of the world.

At another time he led a party of game hunters into the jungles of central West Africa. So Mr. Van Zyperden brings a background of world travel and acquaintance with many cultures to the presentation of his subject on Sunday afternoon.

Gallery Tour Planned
At the usual hour of four o'clock a gallery tour will be conducted by Dwight Kirsch, assistant professor of painting in the School of Fine Arts. (Continued on Page 3.)

GEOLOGISTS MAKE CONVENTION PLANS

Nebraska Chapter of Professional Society Will Entertain for Delegates in April

The Nebraska chapter of Sigma Gamma Epsilon, natural professional geology fraternity, will be the host to the seventh biennial convention of the organization Friday and Saturday April 6 and 7. Nineteen chapters from different universities throughout the United States will be represented at the convention.

Besides attending the two-day business meetings, the visitors will be entertained by the Nebraska chapter with a luncheon at Robber's cave, a banquet at the Lincoln hotel, a dance in Morrill hall and a tour of the city campus, Ag college campus, and various places of interest throughout the city of Lincoln.

Gruelling Workouts Feature Pony Chorus Training for Annual Show

Actors Rise to Heights in Love Scenes in Daily Practices of Kosmet Show in Temple; Payne and Lerner Shine

(By Bill McCleery)
"I love you!" exclaimed Roland Wherry soulfully. "That's what they all say," replied Al Ernst in the final Kosmet Klub tryouts in the Temple Friday evening. We put that trick beginning on so the Alpha Phi's would read this.

Kosmet Klub tryouts passed off very smoothly except when Johnny Skiles fell down in the pony chorus workout. This is becoming such a common occurrence, however, that very little was said about it. "Irish" Ireland reported that the exercises the pony chorus has been taking were very satisfactory. Only two were able to bend their legs Friday night, and "Irish" expects to have them all in bed in another week.

Howard Payne and Zolley Lerner exhibited a rare brand of acting, representing the reunited lovers. We rather suspect that Kosmet Klub paid Payne's fees to get him in the show, but it's worth it.

We hate to give the A. T. O.'s so much mention, but Al Ernst makes a wonderful Sylvia. If Clara Bow could see Ernst she'd start taking character parts. "We may have a hard time keeping him away from Kansas City," explained one of the above's, "but we will drive Al through to victory."

Herbert Yenne who is responsible for the writing of "The Love Hater," and who will be responsible for its production, is very well satisfied with the all-male cast selected. How anyone can get a presentable show out of the jumble of talent and Deits that tried out is more than we can see. "I like the part all right," remarked "Bud" Bailey, "but I hate the idea of kissing Hal Childs. It reminds me of probation week."

SCARLET TEAM TAKES VICTORY OVER COLLEGES

Nebraskans Roll Up 88 Points To 31 of Opponents in First Home Meet

PLACE IN ALL EVENTS

Captain Wyatt Wins Feature Run; Alf, Doane Entry, Wins Sprints

Nebraska track men scored a decisive victory over the champions of the Nebraska College Conference, totaling 88 points to their opponents 31 in the first home indoor meet under the east stadium, Saturday afternoon.

The Cornhuskers presented strong representation in all events, while the N. C. C. team was handicapped by being forced to enter substitutes for men who are on basketball squads or laid up with injuries.

Wyatt Takes 440 Dash
Captain Percy Wyatt, of the Huskers, won the feature race of the afternoon, stepping his heat of the 440-yard dash in 52.3 seconds. Captain Ray Alf, Doane entry, won the second heat of the quarter-mile run in 53.2 seconds. Places were awarded according to time made in this event. PROM WILL END FORMAL SEASON

Final Arrangements Made for Annual Junior-Senior Party Friday

DECORATING UNDER WAY

Final arrangements for the Junior-Senior Prom, to be held Friday at the Scottish Rite Temple, have been made and every thing is in readiness for the closing of Nebraska's formal season. Statements from the committee indicate that all attendants of the ball can be assured of a very enjoyable evening, from the opening dance until the final number.

The presentation of the Prom Girl, the feature of the evening, will take place just before intermission. Each couple will vote as they enter the ball room. The votes will be counted by three members of the committee and two faculty representatives.

FINE ARTS RECEIVES FOUR NEW ETCHINGS

Former Nebraska Student Adds to Choice Collection Which He Started in 1924

Twenty-three etchings, the gift to the School of Fine Arts from Will C. Gregg, prominent Hacksack, N. J., manufacturer, are being exhibited in room 212, Morrill Hall in conjunction with the thirty-eighth annual exhibition of the Nebraska Art Association.

Mr. Gregg, who was a student at the University of Nebraska in the eighties, started this collection which he is building up for the School of Fine Arts, when in December of 1924 he presented to the school an etching, "Lace." Critics had acclaimed this to be exceptionally well done. At frequent intervals Mr. Gregg has been adding to the collection, only recently adding four fine etchings, one of them a National Arts club (Continued on Page 3.)
