

DOCTOR WELCH DELIVERS TALK ON 'MEDICINE'

Lincoln Physician Addresses Student Group at Fourth 'Vocation' Meeting

'MINISTRY' IS NEXT TOPIC
Clifton H. Walcott, Baptist Minister, Will Speak Next Wednesday

"The best asset a doctor has is a pleased patient," declared Dr. J. Stanley Welch, Lincoln physician and surgeon, speaking before a group of students on "The Medical Profession" at the Social Sciences auditorium last evening. This was the fourth of a series of addresses being given under the auspices of the Federation of Church Workers on the subject of "Vocations".

An interpretation of the medical profession as viewed by one of its members was the central theme of the lecture, which was primarily intended for those students who have not as yet determined a profession or specialty in life. The attractions of this particular calling were especially emphasized by the speaker.

Five questions answered designed to assist the student in deciding his life's work were presented and dwelled upon fully by Dr. Welch. The first of these questions was "What do I most like to do?"

In answer to this question the speaker said: "Fundamentally, a man should be able to do best that which he wants to do. Often a young man creates a dislike for the work or profession of his father or that with which he is familiar because he knows too much of the unpleasant" (Continued on Page 2.)

DEADLINE IS NEAR FOR AWGWAN COPY

Contributors Have Until Saturday To Submit Material for Spring Number

Contributors and cartoonists on the Awgwan staff must prepare their material and hand it in within the next three days or it will not be accepted for the Spring number, was the announcement made Wednesday by Alan C. McIntosh, editor. The deadline for copy is Saturday, March 24.

Copy should portray some phase of spring if possible, but cartoons of merit depicting any situation will be accepted if handed to any member of the editorial staff before Saturday, the editor stated.

Klein Draws Cover
The cover page has already been drawn by Alan Klein and it is now at the engravers. James Pickering, Margaret Ketting, and Philip Warner are preparing art work for the April issue.

A number of clever jokes, poems, short skits, and feature articles have been prepared by members of the editorial staff. Bill McCleery, Ray Murray, Elmont Waite, Warren Chiles, Doug Timmerman and others have submitted material.
Not quite enough copy has been turned in as yet to make a successful issue of the Awgwan, the editor stated, and the more copy the staff has to pick from, the livelier will be the publication.

Miss Hill Is National Officer of Sorority

Miss Luvicy M. Hill, chairman of department of commercial arts and instructor in typewriting, has been appointed national officer of Pi Lambda Theta, an educational sorority, according to an announcement received from the grand president, Miss Maude McBloom.

Miss Hill became a member of faculty here in 1917. She attained the rank of chairman of the department of commercial arts in 1923.

Rev. Erck Discusses Religious Significance of Lenten Season

Editor's Note: This is the first of a series of interviews with the University's student pastors concerning the Lenten season and its relation to University life which will be published by The Daily Nebraskan.

(By Cliff F. Sandahl)
"The word 'Lent,' itself, has no religious significance," declared Rev. Henry Erck, Lutheran student pastor, when asked "What is the meaning of Lent?" in an interview Wednesday afternoon. "Etymologically, it comes from 'lengthen' as in lengthening of days in the springtime," he continued.

Dr. J. S. Welch

Dr. J. Stanley Welch, Lincoln physician and surgeon, who spoke at the fourth 'vocations' meeting last evening on the subject "The Medical Profession." Dr. Welch discussed the various phases of a doctor's work.

Students Will Go to Party Via Big Yellow Bus

(By Bill McCleery)
"I'm going out on a big bus Saturday night!" declared some nice University student. And that isn't a misprint—he was nice, and that doesn't saybus. Maybe you haven't noticed it, but a big yellow bus goes by every sorority and fraternity house and on out to the Ag college. That's a solution of the problem of how-get-the-date-to-the-varsity-party. Arch Eddy, now varsity dance chairman, has planned a "Spring Frolic" for Saturday evening. This dance will be held at the Student Activities building, reported to be the best place in Lincoln for a University dance. We never heard this report before the varsity dance committee got the building for the pre-summer push-around, but it must be true.

Bus Is Good Idea
This bus deal is a happy thought. According to "Chuck" Bruce it is a long way out to the Ag College. "When I was a boy," remarked Murray, "it was a good two-day drive with horse and buggy." Of course things have progressed considerably since then, but it still quite a ways out—better take a bus. (We aren't getting any commission—we don't even know how to spell it for sure.)

"The activities building will be fine—nice and cool," says Eloise Keefer. It will probably snow for the Spring Frolic. Pardon us for getting to the "Inquiring Reporter's" territory, but anything is excusable in time of war or varsity dances.

Just a word of warning: be sure to find out where the Activities building is before you go out and get kicked by a horse. You'll get walked on plenty anyway.

'Fungi' Is Subject of E. C. Stakman's Talk

Dr. Elvin Charles Stakman, head of the department of plant pathology at the University of Minnesota, delivered an address in Bessey Hall Tuesday evening on the subject of "Physiological Specialization of Fungi."

Experiments covering a period of about ten years have proven to Dr. Stakman that many fungi differ in behavior but not in form. He has succeeded in presenting some fifty-one or fifty-two different forms of wheat rust. A recounting and presentation of conclusions of these experiments took up the major part of Dr. Stakman's lecture.

SUPERINTENDENTS SEEK TEACHERS FOR SCHOOLS

The department of educational service of the Teacher's College has received visits from the following Nebraska superintendents: J. L. Irwin of Mitchell, Jay B. Worley of Waverly, and H. F. Quimby of Tobias who are looking for teachers.

BOTANISTS MAY GO TO CONGRESS

International Botany Meeting Invites Doctors Walker, Pool, Anderson

IS HELD AT CAMBRIDGE

Invitation to the Fifth International Botanical Congress to be held at Cambridge college in England in 1930 has been received by the department of botany. Drs. R. J. Pool, Walker, and Anderson are considering accepting the invitation.

The congress will be a meeting of authorities on botany from every corner of the world. It is organized into sections, each taking up problems of interest to it. Short excursions to Switzerland and Scotland are planned to follow the congress. These will be personally supervised by the scientists from that country.

Former congresses have been held in Belgium, Austria, one was planned for London in 1915 when the war interrupted, and one held in Ithaca, New York, in 1926.

STOCK JUDGES WILL COMPETE

Annual Contest Will Be Held Saturday at College Of Agriculture

FERRIN WILL BE JUDGE

The annual college students judging contest will be held at the Ag campus Saturday, March 24. Any upperclassmen and any freshmen who are taking Animal Husbandry 3, and anyone who has not been a member of an International Judging team is eligible for the contest.

The person making the highest score in each class will have his name engraved on the plaques in the Block and Bridle room in the Judging Pavilion. The names of two high individuals of the contest will also be engraved on the plaques.

The contest will start at 8 o'clock and will consist of ten classes of cattle, hogs, sheep and horses. Professor E. E. Ferrin from the Minnesota College of Agriculture will be the official judge, assisted by M. L. Baker, from the Nebraska School of Agriculture at Curtiss.

PLANS FOR PARADE ARE PROGRESSING

Spence Sets March 28 as Deadline For Completion of Plans, Specifications

At a meeting of the Farmers' Fair committee held last evening in Agricultural Hall, Chairman Robin Spence urged immediate functioning of the various float committees.

This year's parade will show the past and the present in agriculture. There will be sixteen floats, and each float will bring out one certain phase of the old or the modern agriculture. There are twenty-one parade committees working on the parade for this year.

Chairman Spence set a deadline for next Wednesday evening, March 28, for the completion of plans and material specifications. He stated that it is necessary to get the material bills to Henry Beachel before spring vacation in order to give the committee more time for its work.

Movie Official Talks To Advertising Class

Guy Greene, exploitation director for the First National Pictures corporation, lectured before the advanced advertising class Tuesday morning on the subject of the meaning of exploitation and described practical examples of this work.

Mr. Greene, who has a world wide reputation as a leader in his field, has just returned from Turkey, Greece, and France. While in these countries he was in charge of the theater exploitation operations for the company which he represents.

Wyer Seeks Office in Library Association

Malcom G. Wyer, for seven years University librarian, now librarian at the Denver Public library, has been nominated for first vice president of the American Library association, of which he has been a member for twenty years. The election will take place during the convention May 28, to June 2.

A reel showing still pictures and a daylight screen to enable students to take notes while pictures are shown have been purchased for use in the science work in the Teachers College.

Students Will Be Chosen For Editorial Positions

Students wishing to be considered for the position of contributing editor on The Daily Nebraskan should call at the editor's office between 3 and 6 o'clock this afternoon according to an announcement from the editor.

Any student in school is eligible for the position, although upperclassmen are preferred. Appointments will be announced the first part of next week.

LEWIS MAKES NEW PAIRINGS

Horseshoe, Handball Contests Will Be Completed by End of Next Week

SPRING SPORTS FOLLOW

With the horseshoe and handball tournaments scheduled to be disposed of by the last of next week, the intramural program will be cleared for the spring sports, according to Jimmy Lewis who yesterday scheduled all the remaining games in the horseshoe doubles contests. Handball doubles as well as the singles events in these two sports will be completed during the next few days.

Fraternities have been slow in responding to the schedules in these games. The original plans, according to the inter-fraternity mentor, allowed for the completion of these games several weeks ago.

Will Announce Standings
Lewis will announce the standings of the fraternities in the intramural race as soon as the horseshoes and handball are over.

Horseshoe doubles games for the remainder of this week follow:

Thursday, Court 1, Sigma Chi vs Delta Tau Delta, 4 to 5; Phi Sigma Kappa vs Phi Gamma Delta, 5 to 6; Court 2, Sigma Alpha Mu vs Phi Kappa, 4 to 5; Delta Upsilon vs Phi Delta Theta, 5 to 6.

Friday, Court 1, Sigma Phi Epsilon vs Alpha Sigma Phi, 4 to 5; Alpha Tau Omega vs Delta Sigma Lambda, 5 to 6; Court 2, Phi Kappa Psi vs Theta Chi, 4 to 5; Farm House vs Delta Sigma Phi, 5 to 6.

Saturday (time to be mutually arranged), Sigma Chi vs Beta Theta Pi; Phi Kappa Alpha vs Delta Tau Delta; Delta Upsilon vs Alpha Theta Chi; Phi Kappa Psi vs Theta Xi; Tau Kappa Epsilon vs Theta Chi; Acacia vs Delta Chi; Farm House vs Phi Kappa Phi; Delta Sigma Phi vs Omega Beta Pi; Phi Kappa vs Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

BAND MEN APPEAR IN FINAL CONCERT

R. O. T. C. Musicians Will Conclude Year by Presenting Sunday Matinee Program

The University of Nebraska R. O. T. C. band will appear in its second concert of the season at the Coliseum Sunday March 25 at 3 o'clock p. m.

The program will feature solos by Miss Vera Upton, soprano, and Mr. Ray McCormick, cornet. An excellent program which includes "Stradella" overture, "Funeral March of a Marionette," and "Carnation" march, is in store for Lincoln music lovers.

This will be the last concert of the semester for the band, which will resume military drill next week in anticipation of the coming spring reviews.

The doors of the Coliseum will be open at 2:30 o'clock. All university students and the general public are invited to attend.

12 PIECES WILL PLAY AT FROLIC

Collegians Will Present Two Extra Entertainers at Varsity Party

TWO SKITS MAY BE GIVEN

An augmented twelve piece band with a great array of novelty numbers is going to be presented by Ben Gadd and his Collegians at the Varsity spring frolic at the College of Agriculture activities building Saturday night.

The Collegians is one of the best known University orchestras in the state and usually plays with an arrangement of ten pieces but are including two extra pieces for the Varsity party.

Werner Will Entertain
"Muddy" Werner, feature violinist and eccentric dancer is one of the headliners on the program for Saturday night. Werner is working up several arrangements in college and fraternity song hits.

With Werner will be "Mike," the accordion man, one of Lincoln's foremost accordion players and blues singers. With this arrangement of musicians, the Varsity party committee has selected the best in Lincoln for their spring frolic which will take the place of University night.

Barney Google, who appeared last night at the Lindell, will in all probability be brought out to the party for intermission entertainment along with the orchestra. The entertainment committee has been working on some skits which were to have been presented University night. If the organizations are willing two skits will be presented during intermission at the party.

MORRILL HALL HAS TWO NEW DISPLAYS

Collections of Drawings, Sketches in Color Will Be Shown in Galleries A, B

Drawings and sketches in color by Claude Bragdon for Walter Hampden's dramatic productions are on display in Gallery A of Morrill Hall from March 22 to 29.

This exhibit consists of scene and costume sketches for "Hamlet," "Macbeth," "The Merchant of Venice," "Cyrano de Bergerac," "The Eternal Thief" and "Caponaschi." One hundred and twenty-five drawings and sketches are included in the exhibit.

Another interesting collection will be on display in Gallery B from March 22 to April 8. This is an exhibit of interior decoration by the students of the New York school of fine and applied arts. Drawings, water color sketches and designs for furniture and interiors will be shown.

Both of these collections are circulated by the American Federation of Arts and are open to the students and public free of charge.

Local Pastor Will Speak at Round Table

Subject of 'Who Is Christ' Is Chosen By Rev. H. P. Fox for Friday Noon Discussion

"Who Is Christ?" will be the subject for discussion at the third meeting of the campus Religious Round Table at the Grand hotel, Friday noon. The Rev. H. P. Fox, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church of Lincoln, will be the speaker.

Tickets for the luncheon are available at Rev. Frederick W. Leavitt's desk in the Temple or from any other student pastor. The session begins at 12 o'clock and closes at 12:50 o'clock sharp.

Gridiron Skill Will Decide Who Is To Keep Bell

(By Don Carlson)

"The hand that cranks a Delt Ford shall never toll the bell" is the new slogan adopted by the Phi Delt. For is it not true that the coveted bell which ding-donged merrily from the tower of the some country church or school-house (it doesn't matter anyway) is now in the proud possession of the Phi Delt?

According to information secured from Dame Rumor, the Delt and the Phi Delt know they aren't quarreling over the famous "U" hall bell, but it's so much fun making believe! Football has ceased to be but a national past-time, and has reached the stage where it might be considered a means of arbitration, as the bell shall go to the winners of the annual football game.

Game on Thanksgiving
From the latest gossip given out by the Alpha Phi or the Phi Psi, the Delt-Phi Delt war will be waged, fought and won according to the latest A. G. Spaulding rules and regulations. Each Thanksgiving morning, as the sun peeps from the heavens, (where all good fraternity men hope to go,) two elevens, making twenty-two in all, armed with an excellent $1.98 football, and such uniforms (correct me), as can be scrapped up from the Tri Delt rummage sale, will face each other to do chivalrous, or otherwise, combat for the (Continued on Page 4)

Y. W. Advisory Board Entertains Cabinet

University Co-eds Who Have Been Heads of Staffs Are Feted At Annual Dinner

The advisory board of the University Y. W. C. A. entertained the members who have served on the cabinet during the past year, at the annual dinner Wednesday at 6 o'clock at the city Y. W. C. A. Mrs. John P. Senning, president of the board presided.

The members of the advisory board including Mrs. Senning are: Miss Mary Mason, Mrs. Herbert Brownell, Mrs. E. A. Hinman, Mrs. Roy Green, Mrs. C. B. Anderson, Mrs. B. F. Williams, Miss Florence McGahey, Miss Margaret Fedde, Miss Adeline Reynolds, Mrs. Samuel Avery, Mrs. A. L. Candy and Mrs. R. N. Westover.

Regiment Will Hold First Spring Parade

Lieutenant Colonel F. F. Jewett yesterday announced the first regimental parade of the spring, to be held on Tuesday, March 27. The regiment will form in line on the south side of the drill field facing north.

Members of Pershing Rifles will drill with their respective companies. All cadets will be present, unless properly excused. The first call will be sounded at 4:50 and the assembly at 5 o'clock.

HOOVER LEADS IN UNIVERSITY 'STRAW' VOTE

Students Show Preference For Republicans; C. G. Dawes Is Second

RESULTS ARE INCOMPLETE

One-Third of Votes Counted; Final Results Will Be Published Soon

With more than a third of the total number of votes counted so far in the Daily Nebraskan straw vote, Herbert Hoover leads the list of candidates submitted to the voters, with a total of 369 votes to his credit. Charles G. Dawes is second with 191 votes, Al Smith third with 149 votes, and Charles Hughes is fourth with 108 votes.

One thousand and sixty-five of the three thousand ballots distributed for the voting which was carried on in nine o'clock classes Wednesday morning have been received and counted. The results of the counting of the votes, which have been mailed to the Daily Nebraskan office, will be published as soon as they are available. Complete results will probably be ready on Friday, or at the latest by Sunday.

Votes Give Party
In addition to the vote for one of the fifteen candidates whose names appeared on the ballots, the voters were asked to give the party affiliation of both their parents, their own major study and their classification in the University of Nebraska.

R. S. Bailey, editor of the Independent, is collecting the results of this "straw balloting" from the major colleges and universities where it is being conducted. The Independent magazine will publish the results as soon as they are available.

Hoover, the leading Republican candidate with 6975 votes, and Smith, the leading Democratic candidate with 5676 votes are leading in the survey as it is thus far completed by a group of six eastern colleges and universities, including the universities of Cincinnati, Kentucky, Pennsylvania, Cornell, New York and Middlebury College.

WORK PROGRESSES ON ANDREWS HALL

Workmen Are Putting in Partition Walls on Third Floor; Are Ahead of Schedule

With warmer weather and a large number of workmen engaged in brick-laying, construction activities on Andrews Hall have progressed rapidly in the past few days. Bricklayers are busy putting in the partition walls on the third floor of the building, while the exterior walls are being extended to permit the placing of the window casings.

The Bedford stone trimmings will extend to the cornice and with the addition of a few more sections on each fluted column, will have reached their full height.

Resembles Social Sciences
The class room partitions on the first floor have been started and one can see something of the general layout and room arrangement. It corresponds to that in Social Sciences. Contracts for the heating and plumbing fixtures and wiring have been let, and fixtures are being installed as rapidly as the general construction will permit.

Last week-end, after the concrete had been poured for the third floor, the weather turned cold and necessitated fires being built on the second floor to drive off freezing temperature which would not allow the cement to set. With warmer weather assured from now on work will progress rapidly, according to the contractors. Workmen are ahead of the contract by several weeks now.

Concrete was being poured yesterday for the section of the heat tunnel extending toward the south. The tunnel is constructed of reinforced concrete nine inches thick. It will join the section extending from Andrews Hall.

SENIORS MAY CONFER WITH FREDERICK TODAY

Mr. M. F. Frederick of the General Electric company will be in Social Sciences 306 all day today to talk to graduating seniors interested in his company. Mr. Frederick's stay here will terminate today. He has already spent one day in interviewing seniors.

E. E. LACKEY RECEIVES MAGAZINE EDITORSHIP

Prof. E. E. Lackey has been notified of his appointment as associate editor of the Journal of Geography, the official magazine of the National Council of Geography Teachers.

Furnish Music for Spring Frolic

Ben Gadd and his Collegians will play at the Varsity spring frolic that will be held at the Student Activities building at the College of Agriculture Saturday night. Two extra entertainers will appear with the orchestra.
