

Many Alumni Plan To Come for Round-Up

An alumni council meeting will be held Friday morning at 10 o'clock at the Temple. A law barbecue will be held at the Auto Club park at noon, and an "N" club luncheon is to be given for alumni of that organization. Competitive drill is scheduled in the afternoon for the entertainment of the alumni. A number of campus organizations will have their annual alumni banquets on Friday evening.

The final day of the Round-Up will begin with class breakfasts at 8:30 o'clock at places designated for the reunion classes. At 11 o'clock the "College Corral" will be presented at the Ag College Plaza.

Luncheon Planned
The alumni luncheon will be given at 12:30 at the Student Activities building on the Ag campus. The regular annual business meeting will convene at 1:30 o'clock, and will be followed by an address by W. Ross King, '08, who is a prominent attorney in Omaha.

The final all-university event will be the alumni vs. varsity baseball game at 2 o'clock, on the Ag College diamond. The varsity team is being selected by Coach "Choppy" Rhodes, and the contest promises to be a warm one.

Alumni banquets of campus organizations in the evening will complete the three-day program.

Replies Are Received
A number of replies have been received by the alumni office to the appeal for alumni news. Among others was one from T. F. Mueller, '08, who now lives at Howell, Michigan. In his letter he relates how the commencement procession of that year was held up during a mixup with a street car. The procession, he states, was held up at Eleventh and O, and the trolley wire was promptly pulled down by members of the graduating class. An encounter followed between members of the procession and the car crew. After the excitement had subsided the procession proceeded to the auditorium where the exercises continued as scheduled.

He also tells of a dual track meet between Nebraska and Minnesota that took place that spring, in which Nebraska trounced the Gophers, 84 to 25. The surprise of the meet, he declares, was the defeat of the Cornhusker McMasters in the pole vault by Srane of Minnesota, who took the event at 10 feet.

Delegates Come
The alumni council meeting which will be held Friday morning will be attended by delegates from the alumni clubs and class delegates. The list of the delegates for the classes is as follows: 1889, Miss Edna Bullock; 1890, Hugh LaMasters; 1891, R. O. Williams; 1893, Frank D.
