

HONOR DEGREES WILL BE GIVEN FOUR PERSONS

Seavey, Evans, Smith, Gould Will Be Awarded at '28 Commencement

THREE ARE NEBRASKANS

Former Dean of College of Law Plans to Visit University For Graduation

In addition to the honorary degree of LL.D., which is to be conferred on W. A. Seavey, former dean of Nebraska's College of Law, three other degrees of honor will be conferred at the commencement exercises of the University of Nebraska, June 2.

Herbert S. Evans, dean of the College of Engineering at the University of Colorado at Boulder, will receive the degree of doctor of engineering. Dean Evans is a graduate of the University of Nebraska. He received his engineering degree in 1901. His wife was Miss Daisy Hiltner of Lincoln, a university graduate of the class of 1900.

Speke in Lincoln

Holmes Smith, director of fine arts at the University of Washington, St. Louis, Mo., was in Lincoln last November as a speaker for the National Federation of Fine Arts, and was considered one of the most distinguished members at the convention. He will receive the degree of doctor of fine arts.

The fourth is Charles Newton Gould, director of the state geological survey for Oklahoma. His home is at Norman. The honor of doctor of science was to have been bestowed upon Mr. Gould at the dedication of Morrill hall last May but was deferred because of his inability to be present. Mr. Gould took his A.M. degree from the University of Nebraska in 1900 and the degree of Ph.D. in 1906.

Professor Seavey will be a guest at the home of Dean H. H. Foster while in Lincoln. He left Nebraska in 1926 to accept his present position in Philadelphia after having served the University of Nebraska for six years as dean of the College of Law.

DELTA SIGMA RHO SELECTS MEMBERS

Honorary Debate Fraternity Will Initiate Six; Alumni Lunch Scheduled Friday Noon

Six men will be initiated into Delta Sigma Rho, honorary debating society, during the coming week. The men selected are as follows: Robert M. Baldwin, Jacob Finkelstein, Joseph Geinsburg, Reginald C. Miller, Frank B. Morrison, and Lester P. Schoene, announces Dr. H. A. White, varsity debate coach.

An alumni luncheon will be given Friday noon for active members and pledges of the society. Professor H. A. White has given an outline of the organization and standards of the society as follows.

Delta Sigma Rho, founded in 1906, now has sixty-three chapters in universities.

Hammond Is Elected Sigma Upsilon Head

Sandahl and Ehrenberger Are Other Officers; Three New Members Are Announced

Dean E. Hammond, '29, Holdrege, was elected president of Wordsmiths chapter of Sigma Upsilon, national literary fraternity, at a meeting of the organization yesterday afternoon.

Other officers elected at this time were: Cliff F. Sandahl, '30, Genoa, secretary, and Adrain Ehrenberger, '29, Schuyler, treasurer. The new officers assumed duties immediately after election.

Three pledges were also announced at this meeting. Elton Fee, '29, Lincoln, LaSalle Gilman, '30, Lincoln, and Douglas Timmerman, '30, Lincoln, are the new members.

Demand for Geology Surveys Increases

Second detailed reports prepared by the state geological survey of the University, are not only being requested in large numbers by geologists throughout the United States, but also from many foreign countries.

The first report is concerned with the Pennsylvanian formation which underlies southeastern Nebraska. The second report, which has been prepared by Dr. G. E. Condra and Dr. Dunbar of Yale University, is devoted to a discussion of Fusulinid formations which may be readily secured from many deep wells.

Will Receive Degree

Herbert S. Evans, Nebraska alumnus and at present dean of the College of Engineering at the University of Colorado, who will be awarded the honorary degree of doctor of engineering at the June commencement of the University.

CADETS WILL MEET ON STADIUM FIELD

R. O. T. C. Companies Plan to Drill in Annual "Compet" Tomorrow; Company Order Named

The annual competitive drill put on by the cadet regiment each spring will be held tomorrow afternoon in Memorial stadium starting at 1 o'clock. Each company is to compete for the prizes and eight platoons selected previously will drill for the platoon honors.

The order of appearance for the companies is as follows: Companies A, I, H, L, M, F, B, E, Headquarters, C, G, K, and D. Order of appearance of platoons for drill are: second platoon, Company K; second platoon, Company G; the other platoons will drill immediately following.

ENGINEERS ISSUE MAY BLUE PRINT

Lawrence R. Potadle, Senior, Writes Leading Article on Chicago Inspection Trip

"Engineering Inspection Trip to Chicago" is the title of the leading article by Lawrence R. Potadle, '28, Malmo, in the May 1928 number of the Nebraska Blue Print, which is now being distributed.

In this article Mr. Potadle gives a resume of the 1928 engineers' inspection trip to the Illinois city together with a detailed description of the various places that were visited.

Other students who have contributed material to this number are P. E. Miner, '29, Lincoln, who has written on "Corrugated Culverts"; J. L. Warner, graduate student, Lincoln, with "Venezuela, a New Factor in World Oil Production" as his subject, and Bernard Robinson, '30, Beatrice, who has given a few phases of "Engineering Achievements."

Haney Writes Story

Prof. Jiles W. Haney, chairman of the department of mechanical engineering, has submitted a story on "Aviation As a Commercial Asset." In this article Professor Haney presents the possibilities of aviation and why it is gaining in popularity in the commercial field. Its use in transportation is likewise brought out.

The May issue is the last number of the Blue Print for this year. The new staff, recently appointed by the Engineering Publication board, took over the magazine with this issue. The new staff includes: Ralph E. Raikes, general manager; John C. Clerna, editor; and Carl Olsen, business manager.

Last Year's Ceremony

Above is a picture taken during the Ivy day ceremonies last year when Josephine Frisbie was crowned May queen, with Doris Pinkerton as her maid of honor. The crowning of the May queen will be one of the main events on the program this morning. The identity of the regal person is kept secret until the ceremony takes place. Speculation is running high about the campus about who will be crowned this morning.

Nebraskan Will Appear Only Two More Days

Only two more issues of The Daily Nebraskan will appear this year. They will be published on Friday and Sunday. Reporters are asked to report for work at the office Thursday and Saturday afternoons.

CLUB PRESENTS HOME CONCERT

One Hundred Fifty Persons See Singers in Last Program Of Present Year

'DRONTHEIM' IS FEATURE

To conclude the 1927-28 musical season the Nebraska Glee club presented its annual home concert last night at the Temple. More than 150 persons attended the program given by the Glee club.

Directed by Hermann T. Decker, the Glee club presented the cantata "Drontheim" as the feature of the program. Mr. Decker sang several solos, the Varsity quartet, consisting of Harold Pickett, Verne Laing, Roger Robinson, and Harold Hollingsworth, offered several numbers classical and semi-classical and Joseph McLees, accompanist, gave two piano solos. Mrs. Hermann T. Decker accompanied Mr. Decker with his vocal solos.

The Glee club recently toured in the state, appearing at Deshler, Superior, Geneva, Exeter, and Seward. Officers have been elected for next year.

Greek Singers Clear Throats For Song-Fest

"For you, old blah, blah, blah," is heard from every fraternity and sorority house the last few days. Preparations are reported to be exceedingly strenuous for the interfraternity and intersorority sings to take place today. Greek-letter organization members who are thought to have golden voices are being saved for the final competition. Embryo singers are speaking in hushed voices. All is in readiness for Ivy day, the opening of Round-Up week.

According to scouts who have been patrolling R street, the Delta Tau Delta's are in training for the interfraternity sing. Winners for four consecutive years, the Deltas are hoped to carry off musical honors again.

Theta's Work Hard

As for the intersorority sing the Kappa Alpha Theta's have won for two years running. According to reports they are gazing with fond eyes upon the trophy. Tuesday evening they are reported to have practiced for two or three hours. A delightful time was had.

Wesley Players Will Close Season Sunday

Dramatic Organization Will Present Religious Play 'The Rock' at Elm Park Church

Wesley Players, Methodist dramatic organization, will close their season Sunday evening, when they will present "The Rock," religious drama, at Elm Park Methodist church, Lincoln. This is the seventeenth production of the play by this group during the year.

"We've had an excellent year in every respect," declared Miss Margaret Nielsen, president of the Wesley Players, speaking of the activities of the organization. "We truly hope that through our work with this group during the year."

Honored

Holmes Smith, director of fine arts at Washington university at St. Louis, who will be awarded the degree of doctor of fine arts at the June commencement. Mr. Smith spoke in Lincoln last fall at the National Federation of Fine Arts meeting.

ORCHESIS PRESENTS DANCE SELECTIONS

Honorary Group Gives Program of Three Parts on Campus Lawn; Sponsored by W. A. A.

Orchesis, honorary dancing group, presented last evening on the lawn north of the Administration building, a dance drama in three parts. The dance drama is an annual affair and is sponsored by the Women's Athletic association.

The first act consisted of a number of solo and group interpretative dances opening with a frieze in white that was an effective and beautiful introduction for the other dances. In this act the music for one of the dances, "The Joy of Living," was written by Wilbur Chenoweth.

Acts Are Fasciful

The act closed with a group dance interpreting the weavers of a human soul. The mystic conception of the theme was worked out by the three weavers weaving a pattern of a "Life." The weavers were directed in their work by the "Cosmic Force."

After a short intermission the second act opened with a fanciful and clever interpretation of a Dutch family, including a Dutch "Mama," a Dutch "Papa," Hans, a roughish pie-stealing boy, and Gretchen, a shy and demure little maid. All the dances in this act were of a humorous nature and the act ended with a clever dance by the "Three Blind Mice."

Third Act Is Drama

"One Upon a Time," the dance drama proper, was given as the third act. The story was adapted from the old legend of "Sleeping Beauty." In this play appeared the good and bad fairies, the playmates of the Princess, the Princess, the Hedge which grew up to guard her in her hundred years' sleep, the unsuccessful suitors, and Prince Charming who succeeded in waking the Princess.

Music for the production was furnished by an orchestra composed of Marie Kunkler and Alice Wing, piano; Valoreta Callan, violin; and Harriet Newens, cello. Unique lighting effects were arranged by Bob Reed.

KOSMET KLUB IS SPONSORING PARTY FINALE

'Farewell Ball' Will Be Held in Coliseum Friday; Last Of Present Year

ENTRANCE PRICE REDUCED

Program Includes Individual 'Compet'; Decorations Feature Lights

"Farewell Ball", final all-University party of the 1927-28 season, will be presented by Kosmet Klub in the Coliseum Friday evening. The "goodbye party" is scheduled as one of the main events of Round-Up week which starts today. It represents the regular alumni party and a student get-together as well.

Kosmet Klub hopes to make this "Farewell Ball" the greatest dance that has ever been presented to all of the University. The price of admission has been reduced so that it will be cheaper than any party of its kind offered in other years. Students and alumni of the University of Nebraska have expressed their intention to support the Kosmet Klub in their attempt to make up all losses from the Playhouse fire, and the "Farewell Ball" will be the Klub's last opportunity to cover their final installment.

Since the exceptionally large crowd that is reported for Round-Up week will be present at the "Farewell Ball" allowances have been made to take care of a record number. The orchestra platform, which will support Beck's dance orchestra, has been (Continued on Page 3)

Miller Writes About Stay in New York City

The Daily Nebraskan received a letter yesterday from "Reggie" Miller, former University student, who is now in New York city and will sail in a few days for South America. "Reggie" describes the seaboard city and its impression on him. His letter follows:

"I've scanned every sporting page of the New York papers but no news can I find about the Missouri Valley track meet. I really expected Nebraska to win.

Seeing the Sights

"New York has some wonderful sights and since I don't sail till tomorrow I have been taking full advantage of them. I first went down to the Battery where most people are welcomed, even Lindbergh. Out in the bay stands the statue of liberty, proud and haughty—to me—yet with all her haughtiness one realizes that she has meant a lot to people coming to our country.

H. J. Gramlich Will Address Coloradans

Nebraska Professor Plans to Speak To Cattle Feeders' Meeting On Beef Production

Prof. H. J. Gramlich of the College of Agriculture will speak before the Colorado cattle feeders' convention Friday, May 25. His topic will be "Problems of the Beef Producer." While his topic is general, Professor Gramlich plans to tell the Colorado men about the age tests that have been conducted by the University of Nebraska experiment station and about the recent tests of wintering calves.

His wide contact with ranchers of the cattle country, and his experience as a judge of livestock shows, puts Professor Gramlich in an excellent position to talk to the Colorado gathering. He has personally met (Continued on Page 3.)

Will Sail Soon

Reginald Miller, former student of the University and now enroute to South America. Miller is at present in New York City, and in a letter to The Daily Nebraskan he tells of his impressions of the American metropolis. He has a position with a geology company in the southern continent.

Speaks Today

Evert Hunt, '28, Lincoln, who will appear on the Ivy day program this afternoon as Ivy day orator. Hunt is a senior in the College of Arts and Sciences and a member of the varsity debate squad the past year.

SPANISH PROGRAM NEARS COMPLETION

Plans Rounding Out for Production Sponsored by Romance Languages Department Saturday

Plans for Spanish night, to be held Saturday, May 26, at the Temple theater, are rapidly being rounded out, according to James A. Cuneo, manager. Spanish night is a novelty and the first of its kind ever to be undertaken by the romance languages department. The program will be carried out in the Spanish effect, with songs, plays and dances.

English will not be used in the program, but the occasion will be of interest to those not studying Spanish as well as to those who are. The program is as follows:

Complete Program

Short welcome address (in Spanish)—Prof. Joseph E. A. Alexis. Short sketch: "Uno de Ellos Debe Casarse." Cast: Aunt, Miss Harriet Rogers; Juan, John Redd; Luisa, Miss Mary Giangrosso; Diego, John DeFord.

Spanish songs: "Princesita," "La Perla," and "En Cuba," by Paul Pence.

Trout Elected Head Of Military Society

Elton Fee, Perry Morton, and John McKnight Are Other Officers Of Scabbard and Blade

John Trout, '29, Omaha, was elected captain of Scabbard and Blade, military organization, for next year at the meeting held Tuesday night. Other officers elected were: Elton Fee, '29, Lincoln, first lieutenant; Perry Morton, '29, Lincoln, second lieutenant; and John P. McKnight, '29, Auburn, first sergeant.

The meeting held Tuesday was informal, but the organization is planning to have a dinner dance, if at all possible, before school is out for the year.

In accordance with a resolution passed at the recent national convention of Scabbard and Blade the new officers are pledged to support Pershing Rifle organizations, not only in this city, but in schools where Pershing Rifles are just starting.

Summer Registration Is Friday, Saturday

Moritz Announces Date for Students Now in University to Enroll For First Session

Registration for the first term of the 1928 summer school for those students who are now enrolled in the University will be held on Friday and Saturday, June 1 and 2, at the Armory, according to an announcement made yesterday afternoon by R. D. Moritz, director of the session.

The hours for registration will be 9 to 12 o'clock and 2 to 5 o'clock Friday and 2 to 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon. Fees will be paid at the time of registration.

A number of educators and professors from other colleges and universities have been secured for the summer. High school and grammar school teachers of the state are expected to attend this year's session in large numbers.

LeRoussignol Plans to Address High Schools

Dean J. E. LeRoussignol of the College of Business Administration will deliver two commencement speeches this week. Thursday, May 24, he will appear at Loomis, Nebraska, and Friday, May 25, he will speak at Woodriver. The subject of his addresses will be "Time and Opportunity."

SONG CONTEST STARTS WEEK OF ROUND-UP

Annual Festivities Get Under Way on Campus at 9:30 O'clock Today

MANY ALUMNI EXPECTED

Reports Indicate That Record Crowd of Graduates Will Visit Alma Mater

1928 Round-Up week begins at 9:30 o'clock this morning with the interfraternity sing. All festivities scheduled for this morning of the seventh annual Nebraska Round-Up will be held on the city campus north of the Administration building.

Features of Ivy day, first day of Round-Up are: interfraternity sing, May day ceremonies and crowning of May queen, and planting of the Ivy in the morning, and; intersorority sing, Ivy day oration by Evert M. Hunt, masqueing of Mortarboards, and tapping of the Innocents in the afternoon.

Alumni Plan Return

According to the alumni association office, their letters to Nebraska "grads" have been very favorably answered, indicating that the 1928 Round-Up will be the largest ever held. A full program has been arranged for the alumni, starting this morning and ending with final banquets Saturday evening.

Settings for the crowning of May queen have at last been completed and all is in readiness for the opening of Round-Up. To those who have never seen a Nebraska Round-Up (Continued on Page 4)

TWENTY-FIVE PLAN TO GO TO MEETING

Joint Student Conference of Y. M. And Y. W. C. A. Scheduled From June 6 to 16

Nearly twenty-five students from the University of Nebraska are expected to attend the joint student conference of the Y. W. C. A. and the Y. M. C. A. which will be held in Estes Park, Colorado, June 6 to 16.

Special features which will be innovated at this year's conference will be a daily association hour in which students from colleges with common concerns will discuss concrete, workable ways to create the kind of an association which will really count in changing thinking and living in the colleges.

In addition to the association hour a post-conference retreat is being planned for those delegates who want an opportunity to digest the ten days experiences and to reflect on what it will mean to them in changed (Continued on Page 3.)

Condra, Upson Return From Southern Tour

Nebraska Faculty Members Study Rock Outcroppings on Trip With Other Geologists

Dr. G. E. Condra and Prof. F. W. Upson have just returned from a trip through Kansas and Arkansas where they made an extensive study of the outcrop of the rock which lies deep under Nebraska.

Dr. Condra and Professor Upson made the trip through the southern state in company with geologists from Illinois and Texas schools and geologists representing several of the leading oil companies.

Oil in Nebraska?

While away, Dr. Condra attended several interstate meetings, one at Fayetteville, Ark., and another held at Norman, Okla. Dr. Condra states that officials of prominent oil companies are becoming more and more interested in the oil possibilities of Nebraska and it is his prediction that many test wells will probably be sunk throughout Nebraska during the next few years.

He stated that the party encountered rain every day during the trip. Dr. Condra reports that corn is knee high in Oklahoma and that the straw-berry harvest at Fayetteville had been completed. He says wheat in southern Kansas has begun to head and other crops are far advanced.

Former Library Head Visits at University

Malcom G. Weyer, who was librarian here at the University from 1913-24, and who is now librarian in the Denver public library, is visiting in Lincoln for a few days. He is enroute to the annual conference of the Library association which is to convene at West Baden, Indiana. He will return to Lincoln, June 2, for the graduation of his daughter, Madeline. Mrs. Weyer will remain in Lincoln.
