The Daily Nebraskan

Station A, Lincoln, Nebraska OFFICIAL PUBLICATION UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA Under direction of the Student Publication Board

TWENTY-EIGHTH YEAR Published Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, and sunday mornings during the academic year. Editorial Office-University Hall

Business Office-University Hall 4A. Office Hours-Editorial Staff, 3:00 to 6:00 except Friday and Sunday. Business Staff: afternoons except

Friday and Sunday. Telephones-Editorial: B-6891, No. 142; Business: B-6891. No. 77; Night B-6882.

Entered as second-class matter at the postoffice in Lincoln, Nebraska, under act of Congress, March 3, 1879, and at special rate of postage provided for in section 1103, act of October 3, 1917, authorized January 20, 1922. SUBSCRIPTION RATE

12 a year Single Copy 5 cents $1.25 a semester MUNRO KEZER .EDITOR-IN-CHIEL MANAGING EDITORS Dean Hammond Maurice W. Konkel NEWS EDITORS W. Joyce Ayres Lýman Cass Jack Elliott Paul Nelson Cliff F. Saudahl ASSISTANT NEWS EDITORS Vernon Ketring Leon Larimer

Betty Thornton MILTON MEGREW BUSINESS MANAGER ASSISTANT BUSINESS MANAGERS William Kearns Marshall Pitzer Richard Ricketts

THE KICK-OFF

Following the freshman-varsity game Saturday. Nebraska's nine-game football schedule looms ahead with the opening clash slated this week at Iowa State

Thru the mist, however, one game sticks out like a sore thumb to Nebraska football followers. That is the Homecoming day clash with the University of Missouri. The Bengals have been most effective for three years in sullying the Huskers' gridiron record. It has probably been good treatment for those ultra-patriots who cherished the mistaken impression that Nebraska had any monopoly on Missouri Valley victories. But three defeats in a row makes even the uninterested Nebraskan anxlous for variety this fall.

. . . .

Football has become a real problem to higher educational institutions of the country. As long as it furnished a medium for the development of the rugged qualities of courage and leadership, a mental agility under pressure, and a finer sense of sportsmanship, its place in the collegiate world was almost entirely on the credit side of the ledger.

It added another quality whose importance can hardly be under-estimated. That is the development of school loyalty. Probably no single influence has been so great as football in constructing a consciousness in student bodies of the fact they are all participants in a great experiment. No other factor has been so effective in binding together the ties of common interest which students in a university might be expected to acquire.

.

The development of football into a gigantic spectacle is another story entirely. It has caused the focusing of state attention on football rather than on the technical and cultural achievements of the university. It has brought an emphasis on winning, instead of an emphasis on development. It has tended to place universities in the position of being judged as to their success, not on the basis of their significant efforts with the youth under their care but on the basis of the victories of a football team.

Commercialization of the game has lessened appreciation of the moral fiber which may be developed by the participants. It has increased the tendency to seek students for their athletic prowess which the Okiahoma Daily shows such an interest. As for the problem of drama in the West, it is much the same here as in Oklahoma, despite the efforts of the dramatic department. The University Players have built up a loyal following of appreciative patrons. But neither Lincoln nor the University as a whole has awakened to the genuine offerings regularly presented in the Temple.

Monday the University Players will begin a new season. Students who have not yet made the ac quaintance of the University Players will have an opportunity during the week to add a new interest to of late, over a new play on Broad-the many expected of the cultivated citizen the many expected of the cultivated citizen.

THE JOY REIGN.

"We are not here merely to achieve joy or a vocation," declared J. H. T. Main, president of Grinnell therein, their work, their ideals college at the opening chapel service at the, lowa and to a surprising if not embarschool recently. He explained that he felt the stu- tassing extent, their language. Redents were there to get a conception of the unity of nature and of the meaning and ideals of life.

the primary requisites of a collegiate education. The critics cry "yea" and "nay" to the student who comes to university seeking merely joy authenticity of it. is rarely satisfied. He does not know the joy of serious work. Without that knowledge, he can hardly and the actions are not exaggercompass the full joy of an education. ated.

For the vocationalist, college often is viewed as grounds that journalistic ideals a place in which one learns how to avoid work and have not all gone to pot, that newsget paid for it. Where the conception arose is a papermen are not profane, callous mystery. Certain it is that those early leaders who an unfair picture of the profespinned their faith on an educated citizenry looked to sion college graduates for intelligent work, not profitable Critics, pro and con, should know loafing.

Dr. Main was primarily concerned with the student of arts and sciences. He did not begrudge him the joy which a well-rounded university program portrayed and also reporters, but brings. He did not begrudge him the acquisition of it is doubtful that the majority of such vocational fundamentals as might ease his ef- metropolitan news offices could be forts after graduation in his chosen field. But he hit judged by the standards of this a sincere chord which rings in the heart of all great "packing them in," however, and educators when he appealed for something more because of its evident popularity. than joy and vocation. He appealed, fundamentally, will become a film version, and for the development of those higher qualities of other companies will take it on the mankind which make life more liveable as well as road, in all probability. But let us more progressive. The same qualities may well be with a grain of salt. sought in students in other colleges than that of arts and sciences.

THE RAGGER: No, those fellows aren't taking a new mark at which poets may shoot. Whether he is correct in his fine arts. That's just a trench coat.

and better this year.

At least it is consoling to learn that so many students know that there is a library on the campus as well as a stadium.

Candidates for class presidencies can start brushing off their personality hand-clasps now that filings have been called for the fall elections.

students put on a real rush for reserve books at tional cages. the library for a few nights last week. Library assistants predict that such energy won't last long.

tation wasn't so had when the rest of the pledges mind. They are bookish bardlets. were put to work. Not so bad, at least, until they returned.

The country may be getting air-minded, but those students out tramping the campus the other cious anemia by interning them day were botany students trying to learn the differ- selves in their airless, windless and ence between an elm and a pine tree.

led to believe, is operated for the benefit of Uni- bilia," a series or incomprehensible versity of Nebraska students. I find, however, that verse which appeared in the "Spec-

THE DAILY NEBRASKAN.

FROM OUT THE DUST. Amid the cush of act vities, social and curricular, I rensile to my room and from the dust covered bookshelf I draw a volume, scarcely noticed before. Here I find successe from the monotonous gring of the days which seem to atmnthe upon the beels of those preceding.

Interpreted by Phill Blake and LaSelle Gilman.

DEMING GETS YEAR'S Critics are making a great to-do

Press." This portends to show to an enthusiastic public the inner sanctums of a newspaper office, ac quainting it with the laborers ferring to the impression the play leaves on a willing audience-not to the acting nor the settings which Joy or a vocation! How often they are considered seem to be extremely good-the

Some defend it as a true picture of pressmen, saying that the plot Others attack it on the tober 2 bums, and that the play, in total, is whereof they speak, as they write for newspapers themselves and are intimate with the life. Undoubtedly there are newspapers of the type "packing them in," hope that the public will take it

James Douglas, writing in the London Daily Express, has set up assertions one may not say. Com-And the Kosmet show will probably be bigger ment seems out of place; let the reader judge for himself.

"Our poets lavish their art on little themes," he states, "They polish their tiny moods into elegant versicules. They make pretty pictures out of their minute emotions. They display their ingenuity in working out new ways of saying things that have been said hundreds of times. They are clever squirrels who exhibit their agility in their conven-"But their energy is purely literary, It is remote from the great ferred to Amarillo, Tex., and Mr. tides of life. It wastes itself on the Freshmen engineers found Saturday that orien- limited sensations of the library Townsend portrait photographer-Ad of the bookworm. "Now little poets do not grow into hig poets by chewing each other's cud. They perish of pernisunless cells. What they need is a fresh set of themes; and I suggest hat the cure for their parochialism is contact with life."

"Methuselah Saw Many Repeat ers," a poem by Carl Sandburg ap-The Regents' Book store. I have always been pearing in Harper's for October, calls to mind the "Incomprehensi-Lest you have an experience fator." It will be remembered that follows: George E. Johnson, 1227 J Street; Squire Cassent, 1625 North 16th Street; Milton Mc Grew, 1433 R Street; Merle Jones 1630 K Street, and James Lee Rankin, 1617 Washington Street. Plans are being made to have Hoover-Curtis rally within a short time. At this rally the president of the Hoover-Curtis club will be appointed.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE Toportail Ciris Tea. Espitat student nouse 1440 & arrect 2 to 2 o'clock. University Players presenting "The Spider" Temple, 8:20 o'clock.

Chemistry Professor Accepts Position at Cambridge. Annual faculty riception, Ellen Smith

Massachusetts

Dr. H. G. Deming, professor of chemistry, will begin a one year's leave of absence next week. Dr. Deming, who has been connected with the department of chemistry in the University of Nebraska for the last ten years, will leave for

Cambridge, Mass., Tuesday, Oc-At Cambridge, he will take American college and university charge of the Department of Chem- professors, but Englishmen are as ical information for a large firm tonished at the latest bit of reof chemical engineers. "One -of absence is to rest by changing my who have just arrived here. type of work for at least a year's time," said Dr. Deming. He will return in September, 1929, when he will begin his eleventh year pute as to who was the most beau

Y. M. C. A. Members Are Attending Conference

Gordon Hager, president of the Duchess Margaret of Carinthia and niversity Y, M. C. A., Wendell Tyrol, who lived in the middle Groth and William Lancaster, to ages and was the subject of a por-gether with a number of other "Y" university Y. workers, are attending a state con- tin Matsys.

"The recent sale of Matsys' pic ference of the university Y. M. C. A. Doane college, Crete, which ture has inspired us to undertake at started Friday evening and will this quest," a member of party said. "It is remarkable that continue today. This is a conference for officers at present there are known to be of student Y. M. C. A's and is in only two candidates for the indi charge of F. C. Stevenson, state vidual distinction of being the A. J. "Dad" Elliott of worst looking woman in the world ecretary. Chicago, who spoke at last year's -a French actres and an English meeting in this city, will be the WOIIIAB. convention speaker this year.

Breboort Has Position to ear while her eyes are narrow With Bureau of Mines slits. A wapish waist of only four Maurice J. Breboort, formerly an instructor in physics here, is now at the bureau of mines experiment station at Pittsburgh, Pa. In December, the station will be trans-Breboort will go there. 148 No. 14th.

This department of The Daily Ne-braskan will be devoted from day to day to official annuncement of events of the campus. Any organiza-tion or club identified with university life may make use of the department by handing in announcements at The Daily Nebraskan office, prior to 8 o'clock each afternoon.

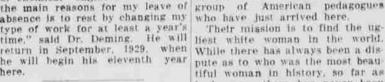

Monday, October 1 University Players open measure with The Spliter" Temple Unsater at $13

Clock University radio prostant begins Tuesday, October 2 Vasper choir plane report at fillen mith hall. Fucklay at 5 octork. Very Wednesday, October 3 University Players presenting pider," Temple, $:29 0 clock.

Men Search for Ugliest Women In Whole World is known, there has never been any doubt as to the one who pos sessed the most revolting features. This Sybil of the sex was the

"YOUR DRUG STORE"

ON THE JOB AS USUAL

The Owl Pharmacy

Phone B-1068.

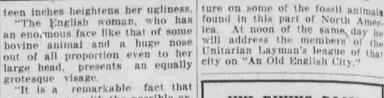

Mrs. Luella Williams Private Studio

UNI DINING ROOM

Home Cooked Meals

Reasonable

331 North 13th

TASTY SANDWICHES POTATO FLAKES RICH MALTED MILKS FOUNTAIN DELICACIES OF EVERY KIND.

M. W. DeWITT

SUCCESSORS TO

DILLER'S

rescription

1545 ''O'

harmacy

We Cater to

B4423

Student's Appetites

most women-with the possible exception of the ugly duchess-who are really ugly are sweet-natured and easily attract husbands."

Margeneu Joins Yale Instructional Force

Henry Margeneu, A.M., an ir structor in physics here in 1926-27. and a fellow in physics at Yale university last year, will be an in-structor at Yale this year.

Collins Is to Speak

At Science Academy

F. G. Collins, assistant curator of the museum, will visit Sioux City Iowa, Tuesday, October 2, where he has been invited to open the winter session of the Academy of Science and Letters.

He will give an illustrated lec-

-the best haircuts are at Thompson Beauty Parlor 219 No. 12th B-2796 Learn to Dance Guarantee to teach you in aix private lessons.

VARSITY WYTHERS

CLEANERS AND DYERS

"The French woman has a mouth extending nearly from ear and to offer them financial aid, rather than forcing all students of the university to meet on a common ground of effort in attaining an education. From such standpoints, all of which have been hashed over many times in the public press, football presents debit aspects to the university.

Its new developments have made it possible to extend the physical training program to a large number of students, a commendable effort. If properly handled, it has not lessened the possibilities of in the minds of its students.

.

its need of praise and has incurred just criticism. For the present it is here. Its advantages and disadvantages need to be recognized. For years there has been a tendency for football followers to cry "Disloyal" at any voice of protest against any phase of the system. Likewise, it has been customary for those opposed to football tendencies to refuse to recognize the virtures it does possess. On the administration of the university, its athletic board, students and alumni, depends the future of the game. In the presence of the advantages and disadvantages claimed for it, it is a fit subject for discussion.

ONE DANGER GONE

Closing of R street to all classes of automobile traffic except passenger cars was announced Friday morning by the city council of Lincoln following an informal conference.

This decision will be welcomed by students, faculty, and friends of the University who led in the agitation last spring against traffic regulations inimical to the University following the establishment of parallel parking on R and Sixteenth strets.

Both The Daily Nebraskan and the Student Council last spring protested against the influx of trucking precipitated onto R and Sixteenth streets as a result of the parallel parking enactment. The trucking was a serious noise handicap to the University. It also increased the danger element on the streets mentloped.

Relief was promised by Commissioner Bair hefore school closed in June. Coming now at the beginning of the university year, elimination of trucking on R street will solve one of the major traffic problems near the University. Removal of trucking from Sixteenth and solution of the unusually heavy outside traffic in the midst of that heavily populated student street still remain for the city council. The most pleasing thing from student standpoint is the fact that the city council is seriously considering the best interests of the University.

ENTERTAINING PLAYS

An Oklahoma discussion of the place of drama in the West and in western universities is republished today under the heading, "Other Editors Say." The University of Oklahoma student publication has givan an interesting analysis of the problem confronting legitimate drama there.

The discussion might apply, equally well, to the Nebraska campus, with but one exception. A program of quality plays is not new to the University of Nebraska. Through the medium of the University Players, the citizens of Lincoln and students and alty of the University have for years been able to withous just sigh cellber productions as those in such is not the case. like mine I feel it my duty to break down and tell about it.

Yesterday morning I dropped in at the Regents' Book store and purchased a $2.50 book. I paid for it, walked out and met a friend who had taken the course last year and who offered me his book. Dollars come a little hard for the average student, so I started back to the Regents' Book store. I had not even opened the book, but I was unable to get developing consciousness of the university as such my money back or even trade the book in on something I could use.

"We don't like to be slickered," the clerk came Like any other major situation, it has received back when I asked if I might have my money back. "You went out and picked up a second hand book." Judging from the look on his face and the tone of his voice buying second hand books is a crime der the auspices of the University similar to axe murders.

Now I have two books. I have no earthly use next week. for the second. In freshman convocation we were tended mainly for upperclass girls told to be considerate of our parents and guardians but are open also to freshmen. One who are putting us thru this great university at of the big purposes of the group such a great sacrifice.

This letter will be of no interest to million-aires. But if you are getting thru school on an sign on the Y. W. C. A. bulletin allowance and have been buying your books in a board or consult Miss Appleby as trusting way at the Regents, take great caution, names must be submitted by next Once your filthy lucre enters the cash register at week our own book store, underneath the Administration different groups: Sunday afterbuilding, kiss it goodbye.

A Disgusted Student.

OTHER EDITORS SAY-

WESTERN DRAMA

For the first time in the history of the university, an attempt is being made this fall and will hold discussions of the Old winter to give to students representative drama thru and New Testament. These meet an institution created especially for the purpose, the ings will commence next Thurs University, Playhouse.

The Playhouse was started last year, but the The Playhouse was started last year, but the p. m., Mildred Cole and Inez Bolin, "greater theater season" for the University of will lead discussions of the Wor-Oklahoma actually begins this fall. Not only is the ship and great effort being made to put forth a good theater Thursday afternoons, starting at program for students to be commended, but the p. m., Frances Lederer, group Playhouse movement should have student support.

Yale university will ever stand as a model for theater effort in this country. An aroused popular interest in drama in that school has resulted in a theater tradition and a theater-going spirit which makes the Yale playhouse a living institution.

There is a splendid reason for lack of interest in the drama in the "provinces." The truth is that the provinces never have had enough plays brought before them to result in a popular taste for the theater. A man who has never read good books scarcely can be called upon to appreciate Shakespeare. That, in so many words, is what is wrong taken from a grave, and is an with the west as far as drama goes.

There is something immensely satisfying about a good play, well acted. But the, west has for so long been fed on the cinema that men in the flesh are less real to audiences than characters on cellu- Hoover-Curtis Club Is loid. Perhaps with the rise of the talkies there will be a subsequent movement further in the direction of reality-the man on the legitlmate stage.

The University Playhouse should be a real contribution to the cultural life of the university this fall. If it is properly supported it should become an institution of _reat importance in the futatre. -Oklahoma Cally

'Spectator'' was a column con ducted last year in The Nebraskan.

Development of Leadership Is Purpose of Group; Starts Oct. 7

Quest groups in Bible study, un-Y. W. C. A., will be commenced

These are discussion groups indiscussions is the development of Following is a schedule of the noons, 4 to 5 p. m., Dr. Patterson of the Philosophy department will lead discussions on the Old and New Testament. These meetings, starting October 7 and lasting un-til Christmas vacation, will be held in the club rooms of the University Episcopal church.

Thursday afternoons, starting a m., Miss Helen Blish, A.M.

Monday afternoons, 4 to 5:30 Teachings of Jesus on the New Testament.

All except the Sunday groups will meet in Ellen Smith hall. Misses Frances Williams and Eve lyn Bauer are recruiters.

Indian Wampum Necklace Is Presented to Museum

The University of Nebraska mu seum has obtained recently through the aid of Dr. H. B. Alexander, formerly of the university faculty, a Navajo Indian wampum necklace. example of true old stone wampum It has been added to the Morrill collection in the basement of Mor rill hall.

Organized at Nebraska

Appointment of the executive ommittee of the Hoover-Curtis lub at the University of Nebraska has been made by Fenton B. Flem ng, county chairman of the Hoover-Curtia club. The appointments made were as

CUSTOM TAILORING DEMONSTRATION....

During the Week of October 1st to October 6th Inclusive

> Society Brand's representative will display what we believe to be the most marvelous collection of fine made-to-measure woolens ever shown in this city. You may be measured by their expert and select your style from among their entire line of new Fall and Winter models, which will also be exhibited.

Society Brand Clothes and It's the CUT of your elothes that counts and