

SEASON'S FIRST RALLY PROVES BIG SUCCESS

Daly Presides at Pep Fest; Team Introduced by 'Bunny' Oakes

An appeal for whole-hearted support of the team by the student body and the assurance that with this support the football team would put all their fight into each game, was the theme of short talks by football captains Holm and Howell at the first home-game rally last Friday night in the Coliseum.

"Click" Dox lead yells that showed the team that the students would stick to them in any game Coach Schulte gave a talk on Nebraska Spirit.

"Fritz" Daly, president of the In nocents society, presided at the rally and introduced "Bunny" Oakes, head line-coach, who in turn introduced the members of this year's squad.

A new song was introduced, and was sung several times so it could be used at the Montana State game. The band was on hand and helped with the pep in general.

Just before the rally started, a snake-dance was given by the engineers coming from the barbecue. The Tassels and Corn Cobs were in evidence and kept things moving.

Approximately two thousand students were on hand to back the team. The rally was declared the biggest ever staged for the first home-game; pep and Nebraska Spirit was everywhere in evidence.

The Corn Cobs made a house-to-house "canvass" of all sortileges before the big rally, giving yells and songs that could be heard for blocks.

that Nebraska has. What a pleasure they are missing? What is a football game without just enough sting in the air to add a little pep to the crowd? Fur coats, sheepskins and red and white gloves are the thing for one game and shirt sleeves for the next. A good old drenching rain greets at one game and a beautiful sun the next.

There is lots of variety in parties. Last night for instance, besides fraternity and sorority parties, there was the Varsity Party, the Fall Frolic, the All-University Party at the Coliseum and that big brawl at the field house. Who could ask more?

BASKET ARTISTS BEGIN PRE-SEASON PRACTICE

Workouts Are Scheduled for Tuesday and Thursday Afternoons

Candidates for the varsity basketball team will practice in the Coliseum at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. This practice will be the third of the pre-season work-outs scheduled by Coach Black for Tuesday and Thursday afternoons.

Twelve men answered the call for the initial practice Tuesday. Three of the twelve were letter men: Robert Krall, Carl Olson, and Harvey Grace. Three others, Jensen, Maclay, and Roker, were among the freshman squad last year.

Fundamentals are being stressed in these practices, and will form the substance of the drill for the remainder of the month. Basket shooting is being given the largest amount of time.

The squad is expected to increase in size when varsity possibilities in school learn of the work-outs. They are scheduled to take place every Tuesday and Thursday afternoon from four to six until further notice.

back, picked up a Nebraska fumble and raced 90 yards for a touchdown. Worthington's kick for point fell short.

The second half opened with Nebraska receiving the ball and marching down the field, taking the ball over the goal in eleven plays. Howell received the kick and assisted by Russell and Witte, marched the field in line driving smashes until the oval was on the other side of the chalk mark.

"Dutch" Witte, Cornhusker half-back, and Co-captain Blue Howell were the two outstanding footballers of the game. Witte's sensational end running was of the spectacular variety while Howell's smashing driving through the Montana line rolled up numerous first downs. "Reb" Russell, quarter, playing his first varsity game at home, demonstrated to Husker fans that he could penetrate the opposing line in great fashion. Russell's 205 pounds of weight was too much for the lighter Montana men and every time he was called on to hit the line, he delivered with five or more yards.
