

HUSKERS DRILL FOR BIG CLASH WITH MISSOURI

Nebraska Players in Fair Shape After Syracuse Game Saturday

BOTH HAVE CLEAN SLATE

Tigers Have Two Wins This Season; Bearmen Have Total of Three

The week of the great Missouri-Nebraska football battle has arrived. Huskers are on edge for the coming classic and Coach Henry's Tiger squad is also on edge although probably not in the best of shape after its vicious struggle with the Iowa State Cyclones.

Nebraska players came through the fire of the Syracuse game in fairly good shape and are now turning all their attention to the important game on the Husker schedule this Saturday. Nebraska has thrice taken the count from Missouri in the past three years and the mighty Husker eleven will meet Missouri on the football field this week as it has never met a football team before.

Both Nebraska and Missouri have come through the season so far with a perfect percentage column. Nebraska has three victories to its credit while the Tiger eleven has two, one with Centre college which did not give the Tigers much competition and one with the Iowa State eleven. Last Saturday at Columbia, Missouri had a plenty tough time in turning in a win over Coach Noel Workman's Iowa State team.

Huskies Prove Themselves.

Coming through one of its hardest intersectional football games, Nebraska has demonstrated to the football critics of the country what it can produce on the football gridiron. The Syracuse-Husker game on Memorial Stadium soil Saturday was just about as spectacular a game of football any football fan would want to ask for and Nebraska evened the count with the Orange eleven. The two eleven have met on the gridiron six times each winning three contests.

But nothing is heard on the Nebraska campus and in the camp of the Cornhuskers, but Missouri, Mizou, Tigers, and other words symbolic of the oncoming clash with the Henrymen from Columbia, Nebraska will have to produce the best of football ability to down the Mizou eleven, according to scouts and sport writers who have watched the Tiger eleven perform. Coming from behind in the Iowa State game, Missouri overcame a 19 to 0 handicap and came out the winner.

Both Teams Powerful.

With this display of football work, the Nebraska eleven can expect a powerful Mizou team here this week. But the Cornhusker machine has also a powerhouse defense that the Missouri team can expect to battle. In the third quarter of the Syracuse game, the Husker defense made an Orange threat for touchdown go sailing away to defeat.

Missouri and Nebraska comparatively speaking are just about even on the gridiron and are rated as the cream of the Big Six and mid-west. It will be a top-up in Saturday's game and although Nebraska seems to be in better shape after its intersectional battle with Syracuse, the Missouri crew is pointing for its fourth Cornhusker scalp and it is determined that the first title as football champion of the Big Six shall go to the University of Missouri.

Nebraska, Missouri and Kansas are in a tie for honors in the Big Six. All three of the Universities have won one game in the conference and have five more to go before the schedule is completed. This week will find the conference swinging into action on all six. Every member of the Big Six will meet this Saturday. Missouri-Nebraska is the outstanding game of the conference, others are Kansas Aggies-Oklahoma; Kansas at Iowa State.

Tiger Gridiron Warriors

Here are five Missouri Tiger football players, who will line up against the Nebraska Cornhuskers Saturday on Memorial Stadium field. In the corner is Captain Miller Brown, end on the Tiger eleven and one of the greatest wingmen in the Big Six conference. Keith Hursley is the other wingman on the Tiger eleven and will be seen opposite Brown when Missouri lines up against Nebraska Saturday.

1929 FOOTBALL CARD MAY HOLD SURPRISES

Gish Believes Contacts Made On Eastern Trip Will Land Big Games

Nebraska may have some great games on its 1929 and 1930 schedules according to Herbert Gish, director of athletics.

Gish, recently back from a trip east to arrange matters concerning the Army game November 24, commented on the fact that he had some surprises in store for Cornhusker football followers concerning future schedules. Definite announcement of the schedule for 1929 will be made in a few weeks.

According to Mr. Gish, he believes he has made some contacts with schools on his recent eastern trip to warrant the signing of games with them. The Nebraska-Army clash will be held at West Point where Mr. Gish has taken a large block of tickets for Nebraska boosters, living in New York, who are desirous of seeing the game. Definite arrangements for the itinerary of the Nebraska team on its way to West Point will be made later, following a conference of the Central Passenger Union in New York City.

This will be the fourth race of the season. That a great deal of interest is being placed in this sport is proven in the fact that almost two hundred men participated last week. "Dutch" Witte certainly did come up to everything that Husker fans expected in the East-West game with Syracuse last Saturday. The "Flying Dutchman" was in every play and his punting and field running were some of the outstanding features for the Husker team. But the entire Scarlet and Cream squad played a great brand of football and played a great football game. Confronted by the East's foremost passing ace, Hal Baysinger, the Nebraska squad had its hands full in trying to figure out the Orange quarterback.

Merle Zaver, playing in the line for Co-Captain Elmer Holm, was spilling everything that came his way and if it didn't come his way, he went and got it. And when Richards went from the game Saturday, the vacancy could be noticed in the Husker forward wall. Richards is heading the Husker injury list and his chance to start against the Tigers this week is fair. Richards is a tower of strength in the Nebraska line and his work in the Syracuse game was another outstanding feature in the line.

Harold Peaker, Nebraska quarterback made a brilliant showing at the Nebraska pilot position in the East-West game. He was assisted in his work by Claude Rowley, sophomore back who surprised fans by his long distance punting.

But the game of games for the 1928 season is now on deck and Cornhusker football will have to be at its best to come out victor in the Tiger game this week. The Missouri outfit had a hard time of it last week in downing the Cyclones from Ames and will be doubly hard to beat again this week after the scare of last week. Coach Gwinn Henry is pointing for this all-important game with Coach Bearg's Husker eleven and is desirous of making it four in a row for good old Mizou and carrying home to Columbia the first football title in the Big Six conference.

While up in Lincoln a Cornhusker football coaching staff is drilling three football teams for the coming game on the football schedule. Coach Bearg is sending his Scarlet and Cream warriors through the greatest test of the season in preparation for the Missouri game on the schedule this week. Injuries are few in the Cornhusker camp and this week will find unusual things going on behind the locked doors of Memorial Stadium field.

After twenty-one games between Nebraska and Missouri, the Scarlet and Cream have come out victorious in 13 encounters for a total of 407 points while the Tiger eleven has 140 to its credit and six victories. The Tigers have measured Nebraska for the past three years. In 1917 the Husker eleven administered the worst beating to the Walking, which always ought to be a pleasure, is a serious matter when it's done on old-fashioned hard heels. The jolts and bumps and shocks that come with every step gradually pile up fatigue and take the spring out of your stride. Moreover, the noise is unwelcome to your entire neighborhood. Cushion and quiet are two of the best reasons for the popularity of rubber heels.

Rubber gives and lifts and helps. Especially long-wearing, deep-cushioning and stylish Goodyear Wing-foot Heels. Preferred by 64% of all shoe dealers; more people walk on Wing-foot Heels than on any other kind.
