NINE CAR TRAIN WILL BE RUN TO JAYHAWKER TILT

Husker Special to Kansas Will Leave Lincoln Early Saturday Morning

TRAIN WAITS FOR DANCE Large Number of Nebraska Students Expected To Make Trip

Union Pacific officials stated today that a nine-car special for Cornhusker fans would leave the Lincoln yards for Lawrence at 5:30 Saturday morning. Providing the demand for reservations is greater than the accommodations more coaches will be added.

Students may purchase round trip tickets for $4 which entitles them to seats in the chair cars. Pullman accommodations will cost $6.70 with privileges of a berth. Lower berths may be reserved for $1.88 and upper berths for $1.50 additional.

The Cornhusker special will leave the Union Pacific depot en route to Lawrence at 5:30 Saturday morning and will arrive in Lawrence at 12 noon. The return trip will start at 11:59 Saturday evening and the train will arrive in Lincoln Sunday morning at 7:30.

The change of the departing schedule from Friday night to Saturday morning eliminates one night's ride and also makes possible a lower rate for Pullmans.

JOURNALISM SCHOOL WILL GIVE DINNER

'Election Feed' Is First of Social Mixers Given by News Writers

Members of the School of Journalism, students on publication staffs and friends interested in journalism and politics will gather for their "Election Feed," annual dinner and social mixer for students in the School of Journalism at the Ames Cafe at 6 o'clock tonight.

Approximately 125 students are expected. The dinner, which is sponsored by Theta Sigma Phi, honorary journalistic fraternity, will include a mock political program with members of Sigma Delta Chi, professional journalistic fraternity, impersonating the three candidates for the presidency, also Calvin Coolidge, and other people prominent in the political campaign.

This is the first time that the annual meeting has included anything other than the usual dinner and get-together of the members of the school and their friends. An added feature of the evening will be an orchestra, which will furnish music both for the program and dancing. List of the "political" talks is being carefully guarded, but the program will be such as to give full enjoyment to guests.

Campaign literature, buttons, and even a "political" menu will greet the journalists when they meet tonight. A vote on various issues will be taken, and the group will have the chance to elect a president of the United States that best suits them. The affair will be over promptly at 8 o'clock.

Car Stickers May Be Obtained in U. Hall

Stickers for cars making the Kansas trip may be secured in the A. W. C. A. office in the basement of the university hall between the hours of 1 to 5 p. m. today. The slogan reads: "Jar That Jayhawk and Win the Big Six Championship."

Shin Kicking Is Punishable Offense States Chairman of Girl Reserves

"Madame Chairman, I move that we don't kick each other in the shins any more." The little colored girl who made the motion sat down, and as the parliamentary action progressed, and shin-kicking became a punishable offense, the pendulum-like regularity of the swaying legs gradually ceased.

Kosmet Klub Shrouds Show With Mystery

Call out the bloodhounds, folks, we're going to find out what Kosmet Klub has up its sleeve beside elbows. For a good long week now we've been reading The Daily Nebraskan but nary a word has the Kosmet Klub actually revealed as to its plans for the Thanksgiving morning show. The "Rally Revue" of mean proportions is getting to be a downright mystery.

Kosmet Klub has promised that the show will offer some new features. Well—what are they? Perhaps they will do something original like burning down another theater. Anyway it remains as big a mystery as why the Kappas won second in sorority decorations. Youth will do some pretty unusual things, sometimes, so we're expecting most anything from Kosmet Klub in this instance.

THIEVES BREAK INTO THREE FRATERNITIES

Theta Chi, Alpha Sigma Phi, Alpha Theta Chi Houses Are Looted

Over two hundred dollars was taken from the Theta Chi, Alpha Sigma Phi, and Alpha Theta Chi fraternities were broken into by thieves early Wednesday morning. From the Theta Chi house, a watch and cash amounting to seventy dollars were stolen by the thieves. Twenty dollars in cash, a watch valued at thirty dollars, and a diamond stick pin valued at twenty dollars, making a total of seventy dollars were taken from the Alpha Theta Chi house at 1806 D street. The Alpha Sigma Phi house at 1845 D lost the greatest amount. Their loss was estimated at $97.25.

The robbers were by no means amateurs. They stealthily entered the houses, went through the rooms, and stole keys to drawers and trunks. After rifling the rooms, the thieves placed the keys back into the pockets from which they had stolen them.

The Alpha Sigma Phi house was entered through a back window. The screen was taken off and the window pried open. The robbers entered the other houses by the front doors, which were not locked. At three o'clock Wednesday morning, Mrs. Knapp, house mother of the Theta Chi house heard a door slam. From this fact, the time of the robbery was estimated.

TIME PAYMENT GIVEN BY YEAR BOOK STAFF

Ten Percent Discount Will Be Given for the Next Three Days

1929 Cornhuskers may be reserved with a three dollar payment, according to Bruce Thomas, business manager of the year-book. This offer, and the ten percent cash discount will remain only three more days as the sales contest closes Saturday.

All salesmen are urged to turn in their books as soon as they have been sold out. This will enable the business staff of the Cornhusker to compile standings of the various contestants. "The sales contest is advancing satisfactorily," stated Bruce Thomas yesterday.

Individual salesmen competing for the trip to West Point are prominent on the campus. The purpose of the 1929 Cornhusker's present campaign is to give every student at least an opportunity to buy or reserve the Cornhusker. Salesmen may be found in the halls of Social Sciences, on the campus, and in every fraternity and sorority house.

Shivering Bird Takes Refuge in Old U. Hall

Three months ago it would have been but a chance for a bath, but yesterday's cold drizzling rain was too much for a lone sparrow that flew into the basement of 'U' Hall and camped on one of the horizontal heat pipes that pass underneath the class rooms.

His feathers ruffled, and wary eyes on every person that passed through the basement, the bird remained just long enough to get dried off and warmed up.

'RED' KRAUSE PLAYS Plans Under Way for Second University Event on Eve of Armistice

"War Dance" will be presented on the eve of Armistice in the Coliseum by the Varsity Party committee. Saturday, November 10, has been set as the date for the second Varsity dance with the "War Dance" feature as a result of Olympics on that morning and Armistice the following day.

"Red" Krause and his dance orchestra will furnish music for the second Varsity Party. "Red" has become known over the campus as an accordion artist and his band is considered one of the best in Nebraska. In addition to being a Varsity Party the "War Dance" will be a duce celebration for freshmen who have thrown away their green caps. The Armistice feature will be carried out in the music.

Decorations are to be the most elaborate and fitting of any University party. The battle and combat theme presents a motive for endless original decorative ideas. The Varsity Party committee has been meeting and discussing various features to be worked out in the "War Dance." Final arrangements have not yet been announced by the committee, but are being

'Election Feed' Gets Under Way For Journalists

What is the solution for the significant problem of the great internal waterways?—Flood control?—Farm relief? Herb Hoover (Dean Hammond) has been eating Sun-kist California oranges for a week getting ready to lure university journalists, who are born skeptics, over to the fold of republicanism tonight. Herb's smile is all trained to rain California sunshine down on the throng, but Al Smith (Rowan Miller) has other plans.

He was caught playing "Side-walks of New York" on a mouth harp in front of University hall Wednesday morning. Al gave the low down to the reporter. "Personality wins every time," he shouted, tipping his brown derby to some passing co-eds.

The whole idea is this: Youthful typewriter-messengers with hopes of by-lines and undying fame as knights of the press (no, you're wrong again) are holding a conclave tonight to eat, drink, dance and wage word battles over what the next president should look like. This is a secret, but the whole program is of a farcical nature—all but the food, and dancing, in case any ticket buyers begin to have apprehensions.

Carrying the blazing standard of socialism, Norman Thomas (Bill McCleery) arrived in town Wednesday, and threatened to throw a wrench into the journalists' camp tonight by some startling statements about the dangers of socialism.

SOCIALIST EDITOR IS LUNCHEON LECTURER

Joseph Gilbert Speaks To World Forum on Labor Parties In U. S.

Joseph Gilbert, editor of a Nebraska labor paper, gave a talk on the socialist party Wednesday noon, October 31, at the fourth World Forum luncheon held at the Nebraska hotel.

"There is no labor party in the United States," said Mr. Gilbert, "but there is a socialist party that stands for labor principles. The socialist party is one of the oldest in the world. It is older than the republican party, but not quite as old as the democratic party.

"Everything must have its beginning, and the socialist party is slowly gaining more power. I believe that in time the socialist party will have complete power because the vast majority of people belong to the working classes. I believe also that the election this year marks a change and the beginning of a new issue, the principles of which are those of the socialist party. In England's next election the socialists have a good chance of winning full control, and at least it will be the largest party.

"The socialists believe in the

POLITICAL DEBATE IS SLATED FOR TONIGHT

Smith And Hoover Clubs Will Meet To Discuss Issues This Evening

OPEN TO ALL STUDENTS

Two great opposing forces that have been under control for the last week, will be turned loose tonight at 7:30 o'clock when the Al Smith and Hoover-Curtis teams meet at the Armory for the greatest political debate in the history of the University.

At 7 o'clock sharp the loyal supporters of the two teams will start a parade at Sixteenth and Vine streets, and will march to the Armory with all the old time political grandeur. Great interest has been shown in the political debate, and a large number of townspeople as well as students are expected. There will be no admission, for this debate is essentially political.

The democratic side of the question will be upheld by David Fellman, John Skiles, and Leon Sprague. Evert Hunt, George Johnson, and W. F. Matschulat will take the republican side. Each debater is limited to ten minutes and any side of the policies or platform of either party may be expounded. Prof. J. D. Hicks is to be the chairman.

The Hoover-Curtis club challenged the Al Smith club to a political debate some time ago, and the democrats quickly accepted. The idea is entirely new on the campus of the University of Nebraska, and has been creating quite a bit of interest.

The teams were picked last week by the respective clubs. W. F. Matschulat is president of the Hoover-Curtis club and James Cody is president of the Al Smith club.

Since teams are composed of only two men, special rules have been made. By H. B. Maser of Blair, Nebraska, who is in charge of arrangements. Each side will be allotted 25 minutes for argument and rebuttal. Choice of sides has been given to Creighton.

Mistake Is Made In Cornhusker Ad.

In yesterday's Daily Nebraskan, a Cornhusker advertisement announced that the year-books might be reserved for five dollars. This statement was erroneous.

Reservations may be made for three dollars according to a statement from the offices of the 1929 Cornhusker.

Animal Kingdom Makes Migration To University Campus Wednesday

At eight o'clock coons, bears, skunks—excuse me, civet cats—muskrats, rabbits—I mean seals—and ponies crawled, ran, hopped, ambled or galloped along the main thoroughfare in quest of higher education. At least what were once members of these respective families of the animal kingdom, but now adorning the backs of co-eds, littered up the streets.

Short very cone-like volcanoes of fur shuffled along steaming as they walked and congratulating themselves on their choice of wrap for the morning. Poor little trench-coated individuals murmured self-reproaches, or something else, at their poor judgment.

At ten o'clock beaming countenances trench coats ironically remark on the loveliness of the day as Jupiter sends his merciless
