CADETS WILL BE PART OF ARMISTICE PARADE

Order From Colonel Jewett Calls for Presence of All R. O. T. C. Men

By the direction of E. A. Burnett, the cadet regiment will parade in the Armistice day celebration on Monday, November 12, 1928.

According to a general order issued by Colonel Jewett, the regiment will form in line of battalions in the line of close columns on the north side of the parade ground facing south.

First Call is at 12:40 First call will be sounded on Monday at 12:40 o'clock, and assembly will be sounded at one o'clock.

The cadets will march Thursday also in preparation for the parade on Armistice day. The regiment will be formed the same as in the regular parade.

PARTY COMMITTEES PREPARE FOR DANCE

Decorations to Incorporate Indian Theme at Coliseum Saturday Night

Plans are well under way for the Varsity Party "War Dance," to be held in the Coliseum next Saturday evening.

Decorations for the "War Dance" will incorporate an Indian theme. This will constitute a compromise between the Olympic battle idea of the morning and the fact that Armistice day follows it.

Large Crowd Expected "We expect a greater crowd at the 'War Dance' than the Fall Frolic last month," remarked Jack Elliott, general chairman, yesterday.

ning the bull pen event will receive fifteen points.

An even number of men will be selected from each class to participate in the tug-of-war. This event will count ten points. Ten points will also be chalked up for the winner of the four-forty yard relay. Coach Schulte will supervise this event and will pick the runners for each class.

Wrestling and boxing will be divided into three classes.

Contestants must enter in the 145, 155, or 175 pound classes in each event. The scoring system allows five points for the winner of each class.

Presidents of the two classes have received notices of the events on the Olympics program and it will be their duty to pick contestants for the individual events.

Names of these contestants.

Records of previous years show that the first-year men have won every Olympics contest since they were started. Mass events have heretofore been a great determinant in the events. Last year the freshmen amassed a total score of 82.12 compared to the sophomore score of 17.12.

The Olympics usually do not cease at the close of the official Olympics and upper classmen will remember last year's Olympics when the freshmen covered the entire campus and downtown section looking for sophomores.

NOT SO LOUD!

MANY a man has found a better place to advertise than on the heels of his shoes. The clickety-clack, "here-I-come," "there-I-go" noise of the cowhide heel is one big reason why rubber heels have the call today.

Have you ever stepped out on Good-year Wingfoot Heels? If you have, you know they cushion away all the shocks and jars of walking. They wear like a "frat" pin. And their trim, close-seating design makes them good style anywhere.

And the growing popularity of rubber heels is a growing opportunity for Goodyear. A bigger opportunity because more people walk on Goodyear Wing-foot Heels than on any other kind.
