LAST RALLY OF YEAR PRECEDES WILDCAT GAME

Students Will Give Vent to Enthusiasm Wednesday In Coliseum

CAPTAINS WILL SPEAK

Members of Squad Playing Last Game Will Be Introduced

Nebraska's final 1928 fun fest, rousing rally to pay homage to great Cornhusker football team and several members of the squad who are playing their last season, is scheduled for the Coliseum, Wednesday starting at 7 o'clock, when Husker students gather to give vent to their enthusiasm, prior to the Kansas Aggie-Ne braska game, scheduled for Me-morial field, Thanksgiving day. The Turkey day game will close the 1928 schedule and will definitely decide the Big Six champion-ship, as a victory for the Huskers over the Wildcats will leave them undefeated the conference.

Introduce Seniors

Members of the squad playing their last game Thursday will be introduced to the rally attenders and a final word of appreciation will be given by co-captains Howell and Holm. Coach Bearg will his warriors for the big game with Nebraska, Thursday, and nothing would please them more than to upset the dope and Nebraska in Continued on Page 3.

WILCE WILL NOT BE ATHLETIC DIRECTOR

Rumor That Ohio State Man Will Come to Nebraska Is Denied by Dean

7 J. Thompson, dean of student affairs and chairman of the Univerport yesterday that Dr. John W. Wilce, Ohio State football coach, is sity athletic board, denied the re-There is absolutely nothing to the umor," was the statement of Dean Thompson to The Daily Nebraskan. The sports section of the Omaha World-Herald announced Sunday hat there was a possibility of Dr. Wilce becoming the University of Nebraska's athletic head. According to Dean Thompson, who, as the information is enrely without foundation.

Frederick Ware, sports editor of the World-Herald stated that Dr. Wilce has completed his contract at Ohio State and has refused to go back to that school. He continued to opinion that Tebraska authorities were attempting to convince the prominent coach that "there is no place like Ne-Bras-Ki."

KAPPA PHI HOLDS PLEDGING SERVICES

Forty-five University women sers pledged to Zeta chapter of ock. Esther Benson, Hazel scason. Beachell, Virginia Black, Hazel Bowles, Lyda Burry, Edna Carsh, NO AWARDS WILL Helen Chase, Roberta Christy, Olga Cherry, Caroline Cooper, Eleanor Cooper, Eva Cooper, Margaret Tary, Margaret Crosby, Helen Cubin, Alethia Deramer, Eleanor Dug-Helen Franklin, Elizabeth Gage, Anna Hills, Marie Horning.

valley, Helen Luid, Anita Mehrens, Ore Parsons, Lucille Pendergast. Sprague Wilhelmina Stadler Mary given this morning. Sweasy, Ruth Wells, Louise West Convocation will be presented at the Temple theater by the univercox. Hazel Wright, Winifred Yates sity orchestra under Carl Frederick and Dorothy Yeutter.

have to see them the first thing in to polish.
the morning to know if they are No fooling, this part isn't on the

Sell Tickets Is Word From Section Leaders

Students who have seats in the cheering section of the east stadium stand and are planning on leaving Lincoln before the game are requested to dispose of their tickets to some party who can sit in the section. Stunts will be carried out just as they have been in previous games, and it is aboslutely necessary that the section be filled. Throughout the season the cheering section stunts have been dependent upon the packed nature of the sections. A few vacant places mars an entire stunt.

ETA CHAPTER WESLEY PLAYERS IS INITIATED

Local Group Becomes Part Of National Society With 13 Members

MRS. BARR IS DIRECTOR

Wesley Players, Methodist dramatic organization of the University of Nebraska, became Eta chapter of the National Wesley Players night when ceremonies installing the local group as a member of the national society were conducted at the Wesley Founda-tion, 1417 R street, by Mrs. Har-rieti Dell Barr, of Chicago, under authorization from national headquarters.

Thirteen members were initiated as charter members of the new Nebraska chapter. They are: Har-old Woods, Milo Price, Harl Analso speak before the final gathering of the year.

Coach "Bo" McMillin is priming

Coach "Bo" McMillin is priming dersen, Malinda Keller, Irene Fee Jenny Lind, Eva Cooper, Dudley Dobbs, Elinor Cooper, Carolyn and Mrs. W. C. Fawell.

Organized in 1922

Alpha chapter of Wesley Playrs was organized at the University of Illinois February 12, 1922. Chapters have been admitted up to the present time at the University of Wisconsin; Ohio State university; University of California; University of Minnesota; and Iowa state college.

The Wesley Players group at he University of Nebraska was rganized several years ago, but did not attempt an extended program until last year when, with W. C. Fawell as Methodist student paster and Miss Margaret Nielsen of Omaha as president of the organization, Mrs. Barr was

Attend Thanksgiving Day Game

Tickets for the Thanksgiving been the custom formerly.

Thirty-five cents is charged for the luncheon, and all students and rapidly being sold, according to re-faculty members interested are in- feminine classification may Ticket sales are increasing and all indications point to a crowd similar to the one which watched the Pittsburnh encounter

As this will be the closing game of the 1928 football season for the Cornbusker grid warriors, many out of town people are experting to attend the game to watch the team that gave the Army such a battle in last Saturday's grid speciacle. Many Nebraska letter men will be playing their last game for the Scarlet and Cream, and, according Karpa Phi Methodist girls' society to advance dope given out from the at the pledging service held reachibetic office, the game will be one of the best exhibitions of foot Those pledged were: Gladys Ad. ball seen in Memorial stadium this extent of her injuries is not known

BE MADE TODAY

Pan-Hellenic scholarship awards to have been made today have been postponed until some time before age, Anna Hills, Marie Horning Christmas, according to Miss Ma-Floy Kellenbarger, Marjorie Le-ble Lee, president of the Pan-Hel-tlley, Helen Luid, Anita Mehrens, lenic board, Monday, Katherine Lyman, student chairman of Pan-Hel-

> Convocation will be presented at Steckelberg, as announced

Fur Coats Will Be Put Out of Style at Annual Campus Frolic for Co-Eds

Funny as they do look on some to display originality and unusual people, raccoon coats will not be features with which you may be recognized as suitable costumes at gifted. If you are dark you might the girl's Cornhusker Costume go as a gypsy or the University of Party, to be held in the near future. Nebraska campus after sunset. If ome people look like fur-bearing you are light you might be an Enganimals in such attire, but it is too lish debutante or what usually goes mmon. The A. W. S. board is out at night. Don't be funny, our putting on the party, and they lights go out at night.
wouldn't sanction such dress.

Last year they gave

Wouldn't sanction such dress.

But here's your break, girls
When you go home for Thanks giving vacation get the folks to dig up some of your old clothes. They would make fine farey-dress conwould make fine fancy dress cos-less militaristic lines. There is a tumes. Those very old dresses wealth of possibility. Borrow one that used to come clear down to of the boys' cadet officers uniforms. your knees. Pardon us, we know Just try and borrow one—that's all very well that co-eds are not as most of these young gallants take had as they are painted. One would advance drill for is to have boots really as good-looking as they are front page, so we can caution you bainted. Front page, so we can caution you once more. Don't neglect to turn You have all heard about the cost he Thanksgiving holidays to good

Australians Will Use Wit in Forensic Tilt

Two widely different types of debating may be expected tonight when the Sydney, Australia, de-baters meet the University of Nebraska team, according to Prof. H. A. White, Nebraska debate coach. "There is little doubt that the Australians will be more interesting, and will employ more wit and humor, while the Nebraskans will probably use more logic, ac cording to American debate stand-

If the Australians follow the tradions of the debate form of the mother country, as shown in the debate with Cambridge last year, they will be witty, genial, quick at repartee, and always on the alert to turn a point against their op-ponents, but they will not do this according to the orthodox American style of close and careful reasoning and exact logic.

Huskers Will Be True to Form. It is expected that the Univermore true to the form of the average traditional debate. The speaktralians at their own game of wit and humor. As Prof. White says: They may even have a few debate cards, and possibly a book or Continued on Page 3.

WORLD FORUM WILL POSTPONE MEETING

Committee Makes Change In Plans and Includes Latin America

World Forum luncheon will not be held next Wednesday, November 28, because of a shift in arrangements made by the World Forum committee. The new plans that are being made call for a series of three World Forum meet ings dealing with the general topic Figures Show of inter-national relations.

The Kellogg Peace Pact will be the subject for one of these talks, and Dr. Fling will be the speaker. One of the other talks will be given by a native Egyptian who is now attending Chicago university. The third meeting will be about Latin America. Because of Presihe will not speak until sometime during the December series on in-ternational relations. There is no justice," shouted titled "My Dear Girl." ternational relations.

rather than having each topic in dependent of all others, as has been the custom formerly.

Looking at the condition through clery would be dependent of all others, as has ferent angle, we might give the been the custom formerly.

Dorothy Maxon Is Hurt In Automobile Accident which she was driving collided with able prom collars. a car driven by W. N. Nagie, 1047 Charleston street, at Twentieth and Q streets.

Miss Maxson suffered severe bruises on her head, and her left side is badly bruised. The exact as yet. She was driving west on Q street and Mr. Nagle north on Twentieth street when the accident occurred. Mr. Nagle was unhurt. Miss Maxson's car was damaged

Sigma Gamma Epsilon Holds Seminar Banquet

cipal speaker of the evening.

MILITARY BALL TICKETS ARE NOW ON SALE

Reports Show Campaign Is Moving Rapidly for Big Event

PROMISE GOOD

Orchestra to Consist of At Least Eighteen Pieces; Wear Costumes

Tickets for the Military Ball, scheduled for Friday, December 7, are on sale at Long's College Book sity of Nebraska team will appear store, Latsch Brothers book store, more true to the form of the averand Ross P. Curtice music store, according to Elton Fee, chairman will not try to best the Aus-ans at their own game of will are requested to turn in money for tickets sold some time before Thanksgiving recess.

The three local stores report a satisfactory sale, and cadet officers announce that the tickets are selling well. The final sales campaign is being saved until after Thanksgiving vacation. The Bail comes on the first Friday after the holidays and starts officially the formal season on the Nebraska

Military Ball tickets are being sold for three dollars each. A limit of 500 has been set on ticket sales to guard against an overcrowded floor at the first formal.

Many Novelty Numbers Announcement has not yet been made by the Ball committee in regard to the orchestra for the formal. It will consist, however, at least eighteen pieces, probably a combination of two orchestras.

Continued on Page 3. Military Men Good Reasoners

for the Military Ball live in Lindent-elect Herbert Hoover's trip to coin, according to statistics com-that country, it was decided to piled by the statistical committee, give one meeting to a talk on Sunday evening dinners at local Nielsen of Omaha as president of the organization, Mrs. Barr was brought to Lincoln to direct the lecture on the Kellogg Peace Pact of taking this means of work on the correspondence of the correspo > rnational relations.

>
> The series on international rebili collector came around. Furhas been to arrange several series ger in just as early anyway-yeb.

officers the benefit of some doubt. Authorities have long since given up the idea that only those of the gold diggers, but perhaps the cadet officers didn't have this in mind when they chose their sponsors.
Perhaps the girl's moiner will take a s. t at hundering that one and only dress shirt free of charge. Dorothy Maxson, a junior in the Pardon us officers wear their University of Nebruska was in- uniforms, leaving ordinary civil-jured, yesterday afternoon in an lank the pleasure of getting their automobile accident when the car throats punctured by unmanage-what he gets, according to some structors. modern mage. But that is refuted when one sees how many fresh-men are sponsors. Proving that father time is not always a helper. As far as the Honorary Colonel is concerned we don't know what to think. Everybody will be at the Thanksgiving will feature the Ves-Military Ball, and can argue it out per Service in Ellen Smith Hall at there. Perhaps you aren't in 5 o'clock today. love; maybe your girl didn't ask you to the last house dance. You cannot afford to miss this first the main speaker at the services, formal of the season. The chances his subject Lealing with Thanks-Sigma Camma Epsilon, national are that most of you have very giving. Dorothy Craig will lead geology fraternity, held a seminar strict scruples against crashing the service, and special music will Helen Ray, Phyllis Robinson, Evelenic, was to have made the banquet open to the department at formals, and you won't get many be furnished by Lois Styer and Inexplored Scholz, Ruth Scott, Elizabeth awards, which was to have been a sharp, Mary Shoemaker Frances part of a convocation program evening Mr. O. J. Fee was the pringer of the convocation program of the department at the Nebraskan Hotel last Thursday blds, that's sure. This is your Geschwender. Their selection is only chance to wear Uncle Joe's one by Cuthbert Harris, entitled wedding costume out in public. "I Will Give Thanks."

Country's Finest Telescope Has Been In Storage on Campus for Many Years

Large Lens Completed in Two Days Remain to 1909 But Legislature Did Not Appropriate Enough

braska department of astronomy two days.

The making of the telescope was made possible by the efforts of a loyal Nebraskan, Dr. C. H. Minnich, now a druggist at Palmer, Ne-braska. Dr. Minnich made and presented the 12 inch lens. The discs of glass were purchased by the astronomy department at a cost of over $200. This glass which must be of the finest kind came from Germany. Dr. innich spent about two years in making the lens. His work was in cutting the glass, polishing it and preparing it. This work requires a great deal of precision. The remainder of the telescope, the mounting and base, were made by Continued on Page 3.

UNIVERSITY LIBRARY RECEIVES NEW BOOKS

Works of Many Authors on Various Topics Are Put In Stacks

Five thousand new books were received by the University of Ne-braska library, according to Gilert H. Doane, librarian. As new books are received they are put on a shelf marked "New Books" and students are at liberty to use Books of all kinds and on all subjects are written each year and Mr. Doane picks what he considers the best, for the students and fac-ulty of Nebraska. To one inter-the reserved tickets are not called ulty of Nebraska. To one inter-ested in socialism two books, "A Short History of the British Working Class Movement" by G. D. H. Cole, and "The Idea of Social Justice" by Charles Wooten Pipkin, would undoubtedly be of paramount Interest.

next Wednesday, November 28, getting a quiet Sunday night meal Benjamin Franklin, dealing imgely but due to the later arrangements free of charge.

ations will be the second group thermore it is difficult to under of the motor bus business, Main of World Forum talks this year, stand the justice of the condition and Company, public accountants, The first series lasted for four uncreby Lincoln girls can stay out has published a new book on "Moseeks and was on the political sit as long as they want to, but sor- tor Bus Accounting." To one inter-Large Crowd Is Expected to warid Forum committee this year of lock. Of course they usually Brondslaw M. Thowshi's latest book on "Sex Repression in Savage So tional to the been purchased but several near health also. The most interesting of these are, "Cherokee Trails' by deorse W"Good-bye, Vier sio, W. Ogden, Gamallel Braddon best works, "Topeta a Orinion of hreats punctured by unmanagethe prom collars.

Many Freshman Sponzors.

Everything comes to be or him tho waits. Provided be waits

New books have to be greated, replaced the old favorite of the and in the home economics parbooks in the noise of the most diely read held in the home economics parbooks in the noise of the most diely read held in the home economics parbooks in the noise of the most diely read held in the home economics parbooks to the noise of the most diely read held in the home economics parbooks to the noise of the most diely read held in the home economics parbooks to the noise of the noise of the noise of the most diely read held in the home economics parbooks to the noise of the noise o who waits. Provided he waits follow closely. Galsworthy is also long enough and doesn't care widely read by students and in-

VESPERS TO HOLD SERVICES TODAY

A special program appropriate to Return All Proofs All persons who had their pic-tures taken for the 1929 Cornto House Giants of Skies tures taken for the 1925 consend's studio, must return their Some twenty years ago the Ne- proofs to the studio within the next had hopes of possessing one of the finest telescopes in the United States. The telescope as well as the hope has been stored away day and tomorrow. Students in the these twenty years for lack of appropriation from the legislature to also requested to return their erect an observatory in which to proofs to the studios immediately, house the telescope.

KOSMET TICKETS ON SALE AT 10 O'CLOCK

Seats May Be Reserved But Must Be Called for by Six Wednesday

PRICE IS FIFTY CENTS

Tickets for "King Kosmet's Royal Revue," Kosmet Klub's annual form.
Thanksgiving morning show, will Lieutenant-Governor George go on sale at 10 o'clock this morn- Williams, of Fairmont, will preside ing, according to information made at the meet. Ten minutes will be public by Austin Sturdevant, ticket alotted each speaker, with five minsupervisor, Monday. They will be utes for rebuttal. At least a half sold from the box office of the Or hour will be allowed for an open pheum theater, where the show is forum, consisting of questions to be held.

cents. Sororities, fraternities and Following the custom of the past other campus organizations may seven or eight years, no regular cents. Sororities, fraternities and purchase blocks of tickets but these Must Call for Reservations vidual and small numbers of tickets will be accepted today and tomor row, these must be called for by position of favorable, neutral, or Wednesday evening at 6 o'clock or them for a few days before they they will be released. This ruling the end of the debate the other half are put in the stacks.

| See they well see they will be released. This ruling the end of the debate the other half the end of the end of the debate the other half the end of the e is made because the Orpheum seats only 1,056 and many people in the past have been deprived of seeing Kosmet shows because they did not for by 6 o'clock tomorrow evening it is thought the persons reserving the seats do not intend to see the show, and thus the tickets must be placed on sale again, to give late patrons a chance and to insure a full house. The show is under the direction of Lowell "Jiggs" Miller, assisted by Ralph Ireland. They have announced that the past few weeks

New Book on Motor Bue. Due to the tremendous advance the motor bus business Mafn INITIATES ELECTIVES of unqualified in Ceremony Is Held in Home cause of the approaching Christ-Economics Building November 24

Phi Upsilon Omieron, national honorary home economics sorority, color design by James Pickering. held initiation Saturday afternoon, November 24, in Home Economics In this the of international hall for the first semester elecstrife and all any of world reace, tives. Those initiated were Julia Allan, Beulah Deems, Neilie Hollabough, Myrtle Nelson, Margaret Osborn, Lois Davies, Margaret > members speut a social hour to-gether in the some economics din-ing room, where a delicious two course luncheon, carrying out the sorority colors, yellow and white, was served by the alumnae mem-Alumnae members present were Miss Jane Hinkley, Miss Bir-die Vorhies, Miss Agnes Sounders, Miss Helen Noyes, Miss Elsie Marsh and Miss Mae Yates.

IOTA SIGMA PHI HOLDS INITIATION

ation in Chemistry Hall. The initia- zine by Henry Brainerd, Elsie tion took place at 5 o'clock and was Brodkey, Lee A. Daniels, Elsine followed by a dinner given for the initiates. Those initiated include Cleery, Ann Peterson, Cliff San-Rebecca Gibbons, Ruth Eidam, Ludahl, Helen Simpson, Elmonte Tyrell and Edna Walker.

DEBATERS TAKE STAND AGAINST SYDNEY TONIGHT

High School Students From All Parts of State Are Expected to Attend

AUDIENCE WILL VOTE

Evert Hunt, Geo. Johnson, David Fellman Debate For Nebraska

University of Sydney, Australia, will meet the University of Nebraska in the international debate at the Coliseum tonight at 7:45, when the Australian team, on an extensive tour of the United States, will debate with the Nebraskans on the relative merits of the parliamentary system of government as compared with the presidential raised by the audience. Seats for the revue, all of which swered by members of the two will be reserved, will sell for fifty teams in turn.

judges will be used. Instead a vote must be paid for at the time of pur-of the audience will be taken, using chase. a specially prepared ballot. The ballot is numbered in duplicate, the Although phone orders for indi-dual and small numbers of tickets fore the beginning of the debate On this the voter may indicate a opposed, and give his reasons.

DECEMBER AWGWAN COPY GOES TO PRESS

Three-Color Cover Design Is Drawn for Holiday Fun Magazine

The first copy for the December number of Awgwan was turned over to the printers today and the remainuer of the copy will be sub mitted soon. A great deal of copy has already been received for this issue but due to a change in the plans of publishing, there is still a need for a few more jokes, short poems and quips of all kinds. Hemas season the next issue will be known as the "Holiday" number and all material submitted should conform to this theme as much as possible.

The cover will be a clever, three-which have become so popular with the students this year. The Sigma Delta Chi feature, "Adventures in Dementia," has been received. Maurice Konkel and Arthur Schroeder are the coauthors of the third installment. Virginia Faulkner is at work on her section, entitled 'Mews at the Muse," a department devoted to reviews of the current books. Bill McCleery or Ray Murray will be the author of this month's feature story. Another high light of this mouth's issue will be the idea used for the double page Details of this are being kept a secret by the staff and so the exact nature of this feature cannot be disclosed until the issue is released

A number of clever cartoons and drawings along the Christmas theme have been received. Those contributing include Helen Chase, Ray Crabtree, James Pickering, Margaret Ketring, A. C. Powell, James Whitaker, Gay Williams, On Saturday, November 24, Iota Sigma Phi, honorary Chemistry Material has been submitted for on December 10.

sorority, held their annual fall initi- the editorial section of the maga-Hoverfield, Robert Laing, cille Hac, Helen Ludwickson, Mary Waite, M. B. Francis and Robert

Kappa Chorus Is Feature Headliner In Kosmet Klub Thanksgiving Show

(By a Mere Man.)

P. T. Barnum made a fortune in enjoy this revue, the circus business, Gene Austin collected his dough from "Blue Heaven," but the Kosmet Klub? Well, you should just see the show they're offering as a Thanksgiving

King Kosmet's Royal Revue

stall, it's a bargain eclipsed only by the "N" handbook which retails for a quarter. And then again the treat!

When all the acts and skits entertain Nebraska's student body which had been rehearsing in the and football guests. Greek front room for the past two the appearance of a show, the resuits were as surprising as the outcome of olympics. But then again, we told you how you were going to

Many Features in Show After the Kappa chorus went on the boards, all the lads who had been planning on seeing the fam lly in the home town on Thanksgiving, decided to remain in Lincoln for another day. And believe it or not, as Ripley cartoons in the might be a money maker at two Journal, this show has more fea-bucks a throw, but at fifty cents a tures than an open house during tures than an open house during rush week. If a promising actor or actress can "get by" with the entire cast of primary use of a handbook is to the Kosmet show in the audience keep one's dates in, providing he could rate like an A. T. O. in the fatal shooting of Dan McGrew. the actors put on their makeup and the actors put on their makeup and

The Delta Gammas have some weeks were brought together with sort of a step for their chorus that we have been trying to learn by correspondence for three years.

Debaters Meet Foreign Team

EVERT HUNT.

The Nebraska debating team that will go against the University of Sydney, Australia debaters to night at the Coliselm. The three men that make up the Nebraska team are students in the College of Law and the three men representing the University of Sydney are likewise law students. Fellman, Huni tume party. It is an opportunity advantage by looking up a costume. and Johnson are well known in debate circles at the university and are veterans on the Nebraska team