

BOYD'S WILL BE ENTERTAINERS AT INTERFRAT BALL

Fraternity Houses Plan to Quarter Ten Members of Iowa Band

ALL PLANS COMPLETED Saturday Night Dance Marks Peak of Formal Season at University

Featuring Harry Boyd and his University of Iowa entertainers the Interfraternity Ball will open at 8:30 o'clock Saturday night...

Tickets Are Going Fast With recent playing engagements in Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa and Illinois...

Tickets for the Interfraternity Ball have been on sale through out the past week by Kosmet Club representatives...

Another feature of the Interfraternity Ball, in the eyes of the committee in charge, is the proposed decorative arrangement...

SOLONS VOTE DOWN EDUCATION CHANGE Nebraska Lawmakers Pass Up Bill 'to Alter Lawyers' Requirements

A bill attempting to raise the educational requirements of the legal profession was defeated in the house of representatives Tuesday...

Nebraska Lawmakers Pass Up Bill 'to Alter Lawyers' Requirements

A bill attempting to raise the educational requirements of the legal profession was defeated in the house of representatives Tuesday...

Much discussion was made of the bill by the committee of the whole last week, and those in favor of the bill were able to keep it until the third reading...

One of the proponents of the bill, Representative Van Kirk, of Lincoln, explained his reasons for favoring the bill...

The proposed investigation of the University by a committee from the State Senate has been delayed until the chairman, McGowan, can call his committee together...

Applications will be received until March 5 for junior patent examiner in the Patent Office at Washington, D. C.

The duties of this position are technical and scientific in the examination of applications for patents and of articles submitted for patents...

Applications will be received until March 5 for junior patent examiner in the Patent Office at Washington, D. C.

The duties of this position are technical and scientific in the examination of applications for patents and of articles submitted for patents...

Applications will be received until March 5 for junior patent examiner in the Patent Office at Washington, D. C.

The duties of this position are technical and scientific in the examination of applications for patents and of articles submitted for patents...

Ag Students Give Out Information Regarding Forthcoming Production

Tassels Meet Today In Ellen Smith Hall

There will be an important meeting of the Tassels at 12 o'clock, noon today, in Ellen Smith hall, according to an announcement made yesterday by Sarah Pickard, president...

STUDENTS MAY SEE ART EXHIBIT FREE

Annual Display Includes Leading Pictures of Best Artists

NEW SECTION IS ADDED The thirty-ninth annual art exhibition of the Nebraska Art association will open in Morrill hall tomorrow and continue free of charge to all University students until March 10...

Exhibits will be displayed in both galleries A and B, which will be open from 9 to 12 o'clock in the morning, 2 to 5 o'clock in the afternoon, and 7 to 9 o'clock in the evening.

Dwight Kirsch and Miss Tressa Emerson, members of the University faculty, will have paintings in the display. There will also be a number of paintings by Lincoln artists among whom are Mrs. D. R. Leland, Mrs. A. R. Edmiston, Miss Helen Wilson and Mrs. J. L. Beddeman.

Canvases shown in the forty-first annual exhibition of American paintings which closed in Chicago will be included in the display as well as contributions from Rockwell Kent, Ross Moffett and Daniel Garber.

A collection of artistic photographs which are the works of famous national photographers will be displayed under the direction of Alva Townsend as a new feature of this year's exhibition.

Men who have specialized in their fields of photography have made this display possible. A similar exhibition has never before been displayed in Lincoln.

INCREASE IS SHOWN IN SALE OF BOOKS

Students Buying More Than Usual, Stores Around Campus Report

The campus book stores report an increase in book sales of approximately fifty per cent over the second semester of last year, in spite of the fact that the present registration is lower than last year's.

The Student Book Exchange at the University Y. M. C. A. reports the greatest increase in the exchange and sale of books. The sales total amount to more than the sales of last year, according to the statement of Y. M. C. A. Secretary Hayes.

Co-Op Sales Jump The sales of the Co-Operative book store have increased more than fifty per cent over last year's, according to the statement of D. H. Downing. The supply of many of the texts has not been equal to the demand.

The College bookstore also reported more books sold or exchanged. The sales have been running well above last year's mark, according to L. L. Speer, in spite of the drop in registration.

U. S. PATENT OFFICE ASKS FOR EXAMINER

March 5 Is Set as Final Date for Receiving Applications

Applications will be received until March 5 for junior patent examiner in the Patent Office at Washington, D. C.

The duties of this position are technical and scientific in the examination of applications for patents and of articles submitted for patents...

Applications will be received until March 5 for junior patent examiner in the Patent Office at Washington, D. C.

The duties of this position are technical and scientific in the examination of applications for patents and of articles submitted for patents...

Applications will be received until March 5 for junior patent examiner in the Patent Office at Washington, D. C.

The duties of this position are technical and scientific in the examination of applications for patents and of articles submitted for patents...

Local Stage Talent Will Be Displayed in Organized Show, 'Coll-Agri-Fun' to Be Staged on Campus

'Coll-agri-fun,' a student production, consisting of stunts, skits and musical numbers to be put on in the Student Activities building by March 8, emerged from the executive committee cauldron last Tuesday night.

For some months agitation has been astir, according to Professor Gooding, to bring the College of Agriculture stage talent into an organized student show. Representatives from the major organizations on the Ag campus met in joint session with the faculty representatives Tuesday night and drew up detailed plans for presenting the most elaborate student fun show that has ever been attempted.

While no prizes have been offered for the best stunts submitted it is expected that a large number of Agricultural clubs and organizations will turn in applications to the executive committee for approval. Blanks on which stunts may be briefly outlined may be secured from the Cornhusker Countryman office in Ag Hall, Room 302 according to Robert Danielson, in charge of the vaudeville night.

Tryouts for the places on the 'Coll-agri-fun' program will be held shortly after the deadline on the features submitted. The latest date that plans for stunts can be filed has been set for February 18.

This is the first year that an attempt has been made to put on a stage production of this kind at the College of Agriculture. It is expected that it will provide an outlet for the musical talent and stage talent of the campus.

While no prizes have been offered for the best stunts submitted it is expected that a large number of Agricultural clubs and organizations will turn in applications to the executive committee for approval.

Tryouts for the places on the 'Coll-agri-fun' program will be held shortly after the deadline on the features submitted. The latest date that plans for stunts can be filed has been set for February 18.

This is the first year that an attempt has been made to put on a stage production of this kind at the College of Agriculture. It is expected that it will provide an outlet for the musical talent and stage talent of the campus.

METHODISTS SECURE SPEAKER FOR DINNER

Bishop Leete of Omaha Area Scheduled for Charter Day Observance

FRED MARSH IS BOOKED Particular attention will be paid in both buildings to making to the chandises departments more accessible. Among the features to be incorporated in the Eleventh street section which will be erected first, will be rest rooms, a modern equipped emergency hospital and other first aid facilities, according to Davis and Wilson, architects.

New freight loading and delivery platforms, high speed freight elevators and other means for handling incoming and outgoing merchandise will be utilized in the Eleventh street part of which is to be occupied by Gold & Co., as soon as completed.

Results of the essay contest sponsored by Chancellor E. A. Burnett on the subject 'The Obligations and Rewards of the College Student' may be expected about March 1, according to Prof. R. P. Crawford, assistant to the chancellor in public relations.

The judges are still reading the essays submitted. There are about forty of them and the task of reading is necessarily slow as the judges are trying to read them all conscientiously. Difficulty has been added by the sickness of one of the judges.

Three prizes are offered to winners of the contest, the first, $25; second, $15; and third, $10. A prize of $25 for the best essay on the subject, 'The Benefits I Have Received From Military Training at the University of Nebraska' is offered by the department of military science under the direction of Col. F. F. Jewett and made public last Saturday by the chancellor. The prize is awarded by the state chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution at the commencement program in June.

The essay is not to exceed 1,000 words, and should be submitted in an envelope and directed 'Essay for D. A. R. Prize.' It must be in the hands of department officials not later than April 15.

COUNTRYMAN STAFF DINNER IS PLANNED

Nelson Jodon, New Editor of Publication Will Be Introduced

Members of both the new and the retiring staff of the Cornhusker Countryman will meet this evening at the Home Economics building at 6:15 o'clock. The meeting is for the purpose of exchanging ideas, acquaintanceship, and discussion of the February number of the magazine, the first issue produced by the new staff.

Professor J. O. Rankin, member of the publication board will give a short talk. Emil Glaser, editor during the 1927 term, will be present and will comment on the progress of the paper.

Jodon is New Editor. Elvin Frolk, editor last year, will introduce the members of his staff, and the present editor, Nelson Jodon will introduce the new staff. The plans and articles for the March number will be considered.

Those attending will get their trays in the regular cafeteria line. These will be taken to one of the class rooms on the second floor of the building where the meeting will be held.

Meetings of Student Teachers Are Called

All students who have registered in the department of educational service for teaching positions, or who expect to register during this semester, are requested by R. D. Moritz, director, to attend one of the following meetings:

Candidates for high school, administrative, or college appointment will meet February 11 at 5 o'clock, T. C. 200.

Candidate for kindergarten, grade, or junior high positions will meet February 12 at 5 o'clock, T. C. 200.

GOLD'S WILL BUILD ADDITIONS TO STORE

Both Are to Be Four Stories in Height Resembling Present Style

Construction in the near future by Gold & Co. of two four-story buildings, adjoining the present store structure at Eleventh and O streets on the west and the south, was announced late Saturday by Nathan J. Gold, vice president and general manager of the firm. Most of the added room will be utilized by store departments.

Both buildings will resemble the present structure in architecture although they will not be identical. It is planned to make the new buildings into an effective setting for the department store. They will be of modern concrete construction, of gray stone or terra cotta.

The Holmes & McDonald building, across the alley directly south of Gold's, on Eleventh street, has already been vacated almost entirely and work of raising it will be started soon, Mr. Gold said. One of the new additions will occupy the entire 50x142 feet of this site.

Work is to be rushed on this section to house several of the new departments. The street floor of this part will be used by a new men and boys wear section, a mezzanine floor being planned to allow for expansion, and to make room for the section devoted to auto accessories.

Particular attention will be paid in both buildings to making to the chandises departments more accessible. Among the features to be incorporated in the Eleventh street section which will be erected first, will be rest rooms, a modern equipped emergency hospital and other first aid facilities, according to Davis and Wilson, architects.

New freight loading and delivery platforms, high speed freight elevators and other means for handling incoming and outgoing merchandise will be utilized in the Eleventh street part of which is to be occupied by Gold & Co., as soon as completed.

ESSAY RESULTS WILL BE ANNOUNCED SOON

Judges Are Still at Work Reading Papers in Theme Contest

Results of the essay contest sponsored by Chancellor E. A. Burnett on the subject 'The Obligations and Rewards of the College Student' may be expected about March 1, according to Prof. R. P. Crawford, assistant to the chancellor in public relations.

The judges are still reading the essays submitted. There are about forty of them and the task of reading is necessarily slow as the judges are trying to read them all conscientiously. Difficulty has been added by the sickness of one of the judges.

Three prizes are offered to winners of the contest, the first, $25; second, $15; and third, $10. A prize of $25 for the best essay on the subject, 'The Benefits I Have Received From Military Training at the University of Nebraska' is offered by the department of military science under the direction of Col. F. F. Jewett and made public last Saturday by the chancellor. The prize is awarded by the state chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution at the commencement program in June.

The essay is not to exceed 1,000 words, and should be submitted in an envelope and directed 'Essay for D. A. R. Prize.' It must be in the hands of department officials not later than April 15.

SCANDINAVIAN CLUB PLANS DINNER FOR LEGISLATORS

The Scandinavian club of the University will hold a banquet in honor of the Scandinavian members of the legislature Monday, February 11, at 6:30 o'clock at the Grand hotel.

Members of the faculty and students of the University may secure tickets for sixty cents from Prof. J. E. Alexis, in University hall 101; or from Mr. Dichen at the Temple.

Cosmopolitans Will Face Camera Friday

The Cosmopolitan club picture for the Cosmopolitan will be taken Friday, February 9, at 12 o'clock at the Campus Studio. Each member will pay fifty cents for the picture.

A dance and program will be given by the Cosmopolitan Saturday evening, February 9, in room 205 of the Temple. All members and friends are invited to attend.

NEBRASKA TEAM IS READY TO MIX WITH JAYHAWKS

Once Defeated at Husker Coliseum, Kansas Will Put Up Fight

LINEUP IS UNDECIDED Wittte, Stellar Forward, Now At Guard, Performs Like Veteran

Nebraska basketball eyes will be turned toward Jayhawkland tonight where the Huskers will meet Kansas for the second and last time this season. Although the Black prodigies hold one decision over the alien flippers, there is a real threat to be met, and the outcome is hard to predict before the game.

The squad of eleven players and Clarley Black left early this morning for Lawrence. The roster of the squad making the trip is as follows: Maclay, Munn, Olson, Grace, Fisher, Davey, Wittte, Lewandowski, Krall, and Holm. Manager Harold Fulcher also accompanied the team.

Black Is Undecided Coach Black had not definitely decided who the starters would be for the Kansas clash last night, but indicated that the starting lineup would be the same as it was in the Iowa State game. The prospective lineup is as follows: Grace and Fisher, forwards; Maclay, center; Lewandowski and Wittte, guards.

Coach Black's concentration of offensive strength worked well against the Iowans, but the scheme will meet an acid test tonight against the Kansas court artists.

Although the Jayhawkers have experienced a mediocre season thus far, they have been picking up speed as the season rolls along, and their rapid improvement was very evident against the Kaggies last week, taking a 31 to 24 decision in great style. It is not often that Whog Allen goes thru a season without creating a few upsets, even

There is not much mystery as to why the Agwaan will not be out February 10. That happens to be Sunday and a poor day for mystery. Bigger and better mysteries are always committed on blue Monday.

That is just the point—the new staff is all for bigger and bluer Monday. That is just the point—the new staff is all for bigger and bluer Monday. That is just the point—the new staff is all for bigger and bluer Monday.

Mystery Tales Fill Pages of Next Agwaan

There is not much mystery as to why the Agwaan will not be out February 10. That happens to be Sunday and a poor day for mystery. Bigger and better mysteries are always committed on blue Monday.

That is just the point—the new staff is all for bigger and bluer Monday. That is just the point—the new staff is all for bigger and bluer Monday. That is just the point—the new staff is all for bigger and bluer Monday.

That is just the point—the new staff is all for bigger and bluer Monday. That is just the point—the new staff is all for bigger and bluer Monday. That is just the point—the new staff is all for bigger and bluer Monday.

That is just the point—the new staff is all for bigger and bluer Monday. That is just the point—the new staff is all for bigger and bluer Monday. That is just the point—the new staff is all for bigger and bluer Monday.

That is just the point—the new staff is all for bigger and bluer Monday. That is just the point—the new staff is all for bigger and bluer Monday. That is just the point—the new staff is all for bigger and bluer Monday.

That is just the point—the new staff is all for bigger and bluer Monday. That is just the point—the new staff is all for bigger and bluer Monday. That is just the point—the new staff is all for bigger and bluer Monday.

FERGUSON PRESIDES AT MEETING IN EAST

Nebraska Dean Is in Charge of Engineers at New York Meeting

Dean O. J. Ferguson of the College of Engineering, attending the meeting of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers in New York City, made the presentation of the Edison medal and presided at the meeting in the absence of the president, Dean Ferguson in American Institute of Electrical Engineers.

Award of the Edison medal was made to Dr. Frank Baldwin Jewett, who is vice president of the Bell Telephone and Telegraph company, president of the Bell System laboratories, and a past president of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers.

The medal is given for meritorious achievement in the fields of electrical science, electrical engineering, or electric arts. According to Dean Ferguson, it is the most prized award in the field of electrical engineering.

Dean of Women Will Speak at Biz Girls

Dean Heppner will speak at the Girls Commercial club dinner tomorrow at the Chamber of Commerce building. Her subject will be, 'Personal Qualifications for Success in Business.'

Ardent Dramatists Argue Woman's Rights in Rehearsal for 'He and She'

University Players Prepare Modern Comedy Drama To Open Monday Night As February Feature

(By a Mere Man) 'The play's the thing,' declared one of the great dramatists during his reign as an imposing author, but if that person could have attended a University Players rehearsal, his idea might have been changed.

For there, in the emptiness of the Temple theater, amidst the drab and worn curtains which have silently witnessed the efforts of hundreds of Nebraska students, the cast of 'He and She' diligently rehearse. Snow flurries and chilly winds whistle around the time-worn edifice, but still, under the careful direction of Miss H. Alles Howell, men and woman alike, practice and weigh each uttered word, in an effort to produce a perfect play.

Aside from the serious aspect, rehearsals are not so bad after all. While two or three future Barrymores, (feminine and masculine) extemporize according to Rachael Crothers, the author, behind the footlights, a few more study for their Thursday morning classes, and still others are heard whistling rag-time tunes from the Kosmet midnight show.

Amid old scenery which has been junked from previous Players productions, and the 'props' of the approaching show, the plot thickens. Although this production supposedly solves the mystery of the extent of woman's rights, as far as the writer could gain from watching the first act, was to draw rehearsals are not so bad after all. While two or three future Barrymores, (feminine and masculine) extemporize according to Rachael Crothers, the author, behind the footlights, a few more study for their Thursday morning classes, and still others are heard whistling rag-time tunes from the Kosmet midnight show.

Amid old scenery which has been junked from previous Players productions, and the 'props' of the approaching show, the plot thickens. Although this production supposedly solves the mystery of the extent of woman's rights, as far as the writer could gain from watching the first act, was to draw

PLAY SELECTION HAS OLD ENGLISH SETTING

'A Day at Nottingham' Is Title of Pageant for Farmers Fair

'A Day at Nottingham' has been chosen as the pageant to be given by the home economics students, during the eleventh annual Farmers' Fair the first week in May, at the College of Agriculture in Lincoln. The scene of the play is laid at Nottingham, England, in the twelfth century. It is one of the productions of D'Arly Mackay's productions.

Miss Bess Steele, a member of the faculty has rewritten the play and adapted it to an outdoor setting. It will be presented outdoors on Saturday, May 4. A pageant has been a regular feature of the fair program each spring for several years.

Preliminary plans for the 1929 presentation were started with the beginning of the second semester of college this week. The names of the characters are being posted so the students may sign for try-outs. About ninety students will take part in it. Practice will probably begin in a few weeks.

Miss Gladys Ruby, an instructor in textiles and clothing, is the faculty chairman of the committee. Miss Dorothy Norris of Laurel, a senior active in student affairs, is the student chairman. They were chosen by the fair board with the approval of the faculty.

Farmers Fair is the largest undertaking of any student body in the University. From 7,000 to 8,000 people attend the fair each year. Robin Spence of Crab Orchard is manager of the 1928 fair board. The other members are Marjorie Brinton of Lincoln, secretary; Mildred Hawley, of Lincoln, Helen Suchy of Omaha, and Clarence Bartlett of Bird City, Kas.

DEAN HEPPNER MEETS WITH A. W. S. COUNCIL

University Executive Speaks On 'Cooperation Among Women Students'

A. W. S. council met yesterday with Audrey Beagles presiding. The regular meeting of the council was augmented by special discussions and speakers.

Mary Ball, chairman of the committee in charge of the Co-ed Folioles presented interesting information to the group on that activity. A discussion of the election of the leadership of Esther Heine considered the question of personnel work. It was decided that special speakers, authorities on different subjects or active in special professions, should be procured to address the meetings of the A. W. S. council.

Amanda Heppner, dean of women, closed the speaking program with a talk on 'Co-operation Among Women Students.' Dean Heppner brought out the point that women students lacked co-operation in campus affairs. She was concerned and urged them to take more of part in activities.

'Y' MEMBERS TALK AT HIGH SCHOOL

A deputation team from the university Y. M. C. A., composed of Joe M. Hunt, chairman; Wendell Groth, and C. D. Hayes, visited the HI-Y organization at University Place high school Tuesday evening. Each man spoke briefly on 'A Boy's Philosophy of Life,' and Chairman Hunt led a group discussion of the subject.

This was the first of a series of like visits to be made by deputation teams from the university Y. M. C. A. to high schools in this section of the state. Definite arrangements have been made for teams to visit Bethany, Lincoln, and Seward high schools, and a team will be sent to Seward Tuesday, February 19. Dates for other visits will be announced later.

Pershing Rifles Will Hold Business Meeting

Pershing Rifles will hold a regular meeting Tuesday evening at 5 o'clock in Nebraska hall. Members need not wear uniforms, but full attendance is urged by Capt. Sherman Wheelpton.

PROM WILL BE AT CORNHUSKER HOTEL

Chairmen Are Appointed for Junior-Senior Formal Dance

MARCH 1 IS DATE SET The new Cornhusker ballroom has been selected for the Junior-Senior Prom, which will be given Friday night, March 1. Announcements concerning the election of this week, according to the Prom committee.

The Junior-Senior Prom, was revived as one of Nebraska's social traditions two years ago, will close the winter formal season. The committee is working hard and promises Nebraska's students one of the best parties of the year. Definite announcements concerning the party will be made some time next week.

Sabata and Rider are Chairmen Ray Sabata and Julia Rider, co-chairman of the Prom committee announced the sub-committees to have charge of all arrangements for the Prom. Dean Hokanson and Helen Seymour will be in charge of entertainment, Paul Burgess and Katherine will be in charge of decorations.

Gordon Larson and Faye Williams will handle publicity. Ticket sales and refreshments will be handled by Elton Fee and Veronica Hanlon. Frank Moeckler and Helen McClesney will handle the favors for the home economics students.

Clare Sloan is in charge of chaperons and will act as general floor manager at the party.

VARSITY DAIRY CLUB SPONSORS AG DANCE

Identification Tags Will Be Necessary for Admittance to Student Mixer

Varsity Dairy club of the College of Agriculture is sponsoring a mixer which will be held Friday, February 8. It will be held at the Student Activities building on the College of Agriculture campus.

The committee in charge of the affair is made up of Dwight Anderson, Carl Smith and Frank Sampson. The committee reports that it has engaged a good orchestra, and plan to make it an especially good mixer.

Student identification cards will be required to gain admittance, according to the committee. This rule will be strictly enforced.

DEAN HEPPNER MEETS WITH A. W. S. COUNCIL

University Executive Speaks On 'Cooperation Among Women Students'

A. W. S. council met yesterday with Audrey Beagles presiding. The regular meeting of the council was augmented by special discussions and speakers.

Mary Ball, chairman of the committee in charge of the Co-ed Folioles presented interesting information to the group on that activity. A discussion of the election of the leadership of Esther Heine considered the question of personnel work. It was decided that special speakers, authorities on different subjects or active in special professions, should be procured to address the meetings of the A. W. S. council.

Amanda Heppner, dean of women, closed the speaking program with a talk on 'Co-operation Among Women Students.' Dean Heppner brought out the point that women students lacked co-operation in campus affairs. She was concerned and urged them to take more of part in activities.

'Y' MEMBERS TALK AT HIGH SCHOOL

A deputation team from the university Y. M. C. A., composed of Joe M. Hunt, chairman; Wendell Groth, and C. D. Hayes, visited the HI-Y organization at University Place high school Tuesday evening. Each man spoke briefly on 'A Boy's Philosophy of Life,' and Chairman Hunt led a group discussion of the subject.

This was the first of a series of like visits to be made by deputation teams from the university Y. M. C. A. to high schools in this section of the state. Definite arrangements have been made for teams to visit Bethany, Lincoln, and Seward high schools, and a team will be sent to Seward Tuesday, February 19. Dates for other visits will be announced later.

HUSKER CO-EDS VIE FOR A. W. S. FOLLIES PRIZES

Concluding Rehearsal Will Be Staged at Temple Theater Tonight

1928 WINNERS ARE OUT Many Sororities Are Booked To Present Skits and Entertainment

Competition for the prizes which A. W. S. is offering for the two best skits presented at the annual Co-ed Follies program to be staged Friday night, February 8, at Temple theater is growing keen, and each of the eight organizations who have won out in the preliminary try-outs for the opportunity of presenting skits in the competition are having extra practice sessions of their stunts in preparation for the final dress rehearsal which will be held tonight in the Temple.

The winners of last year's first prize of fifteen dollars, an athleticly inclined group of co-eds under the leadership of LeNette Knox, presented an unusual tumbling act, but are not entered in the competition this year. Delta Omicron, who took second prize of ten dollars last year is entered again this year with plans for a 'Musical Show-stopper' which will represent in musical dramatization a large number of foreign countries.

'Rose Revue' is Planned Phi Mu, who also competed last year, is back again this year with a 'Rose Revue' which will feature a number of rose songs which have been popular in recent years. The 'Rose Revue' will include an orchestra of four pieces, a singing chorus, and two soloists. Genevieve Brehm will act as mistress of the ceremonies.

Gamma Phi Beta, another of last year's competitors is offering a novelty, 'Inside Dope,' which will present the very latest and newest in the way of clever and original radio advertisements. More they do not care to reveal until their copyrights are assured, though it is certain that these copyrights will be in shape by Friday night at eight o'clock.

Alpha Xi Delta and W. A. A. are offering curtain acts. The Varsity Revue will be presented by Alpha Xi Delta with 'Bunk Song' and dance number featuring college songs of various colleges. The members of the chorus will be dressed in collegiate sweaters and skirts in the colors of the particular college that they represent.

Phi Beta Phi is presenting a radio