

CANDIDATES FOR PROM GIRL ARE DECIDED BY VOTE

Aspirants for Honor Place In Campaign With Fast Finishing Push

PROM COMMITTEE WORKS

Tickets for Party Go on Sale This Afternoon At 5 O'clock.

Unusual interest was displayed in the election of Senior Prom girl candidates yesterday. Juniors and seniors voted for four candidates, and the six having the highest number of votes will be eligible to election of Prom girl, which will be the night of the party, March 1. The following girls were elected candidates: Pauline Bilon, Edna Charlton, Irene Lavelly, Lorraine Gamble, Ruth Shallerross, Pauline Bilon, Edna Charlton, Irene Lavelly, Lorraine Gamble, Ruth Shallerross, Pauline Bilon, Irene Lavelly, Lorraine Gamble, Edna Charlton were chosen candidates for Prom girl, one out of the six to be selected at the Junior-Senior prom March 1.

Candidates Are Active

Pauline Bilon, Columbus, is a senior in the School of Journalism and is very prominent in school activities. She is a member of Alpha Phi, Mortar Board and is secretary of the Cornhusker. Edna Charlton, Omaha, is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma. She was junior attendant to the May Queen last year and is well known about the campus. Irene Lavelly, Lincoln, is associate editor of the Cornhusker and a member of student body.

GRADS HEAR HOLTZ AND LEROUSSIGNOL

Representatives of School Talk to Alumni Clubs at Eastern Points

Enthusiasm was expressed last week at the Nebraska alumni meetings addressed by Mr. Harold Holtz, alumni secretary, and Dean James E. Leroussignol of the College of Business Administration. Mr. Holtz and Mr. Leroussignol visited associations in Chicago, Detroit, Cleveland and St. Louis in observance of Charter Day. Kansas City was to have been included but the engagement there was postponed.

Dean Leroussignol feels that the trip was profitable in creating and sustaining good will and stimulating interest in the University.

Both of the faculty representatives spoke at the meetings which were held following dinners. They told of the needs of the university for dormitories and for scholarship and described the University as it is at present, the buildings and the professors.

Visit Chicago

Chicago was the first stop in the itinerary. Tuesday night an alumni group of about 150 met for dinner there at the Union League club to hear the Charter day anniversary talks by the two Nebraska professors.

At Detroit and Cleveland the meetings were well attended and the groups were eager to hear about their alma mater. In Detroit Dean Leroussignol and Mr. Holtz were welcomed by Dr. Sam Brownell, son of Professor Brownell of the university, who is superintendent of a large high school in a suburb of Detroit.

A group of about 50 at St. Louis also showed enthusiasm and good will on Friday night.

In each of the cities visited there are active Nebraska Alumni associations and several members initiated their intention or desire of helping the university financially.

Geography Department Prepares Map of U. S.

Department of geography is preparing a generalized map of the regions of the United States showing the principal characteristics and groups of neutral vegetation.

Edna Wallage Hopper Disapproves of Smoking, But Praises Modern Youth

Prom Committee Asks For Representatives

All fraternities are asked by the Junior-Senior Prom committee to have one junior representative or one senior representative at a meeting to be held this afternoon at 5 o'clock at room 107, Social Sciences.

RADIO DIRECTOR DIERS GIVES OPERA ADDRESS

University Station Operator Talks on 'Faust' Before Teachers' Group

KNOWS SUBJECT WELL

Theodore Diers, director of the University radio station, lectured to the Nebraska Music Teachers' association Tuesday afternoon at the Cornhusker hotel. His subject was "Faust," the opera which is to be presented at the University coliseum on March 21, by the Chicago Civic Opera company. Mr. Diers is an able and interesting speaker on this subject, and he is well acquainted with the opera.

At one time Mr. Diers sang with a group of amateurs which presented "Faust" at the Auditorium in Chicago. They were under the direction of Hermann De Vries, who is one of the greatest Meophis in the world who has ever known. At the time that Mr. Diers worked under his direction Mr. De Vries was singing with the Metropolitan Opera company. Mr. Diers has also heard the opera sung on six different occasions, once having the privilege of hearing Caruso sing the part of Meophis.

Plans to Broadcast

Next Monday, February 25, Mr. Diers will broadcast a lecture on the opera over the University station. This will be the first of a series of lectures to be broadcast preceding the presentation of the opera at the coliseum March 21. The week before the event several lectures will be given on the campus also. These talks are given in order that students of the University and people of Lincoln may acquaint themselves with the opera so that they may better enjoy it.

CHERRY PIES FEATURE WASHINGTON PARTY

Colonial Life Forms Theme Of Y. M.-Y. W. Program Friday Evening

Who knows a new way to celebrate Washington's birthday? Eat cherry pie, says the Y. M. C. A. Y. W. C. A. party committee. At any rate, cherry pies and cherry trees will be featured at the Y. M. C. A.-Y. W. C. A. party, to be held at Ellen Smith hall, Friday evening, Feb. 22, at 8 o'clock.

ARCHITECT CLASS ATTENDS EXHIBIT

Ten Juniors and Seniors and Supervisor Younken Make Up Group

Prof. J. E. Smay, of the department of architectural engineering, and a group of juniors and seniors in that course will attend the exhibit of the twenty-first Paris prize drawings at Ames, on Friday, February 22. The students, numbering ten in all, are as follows: James Blackman, Carlos Bullock, Carl Olson, Henry Kleinkauf, Arthur Reiter, Victor Nielsen, Samuel Miller, Russel Lindskog, Loren Almy, and Martin Aitken.

Band Schedules Date For Cornhusker Photo

Members of the R. O. T. C. band will have their picture taken for the 1929 Cornhusker at the Campus studio Thursday noon.

Miss Reynoldson Tells Interesting Facts in Early Life of Washington

"Washington was a very versatile man—not a saint or a demigod, but thoroughly human and a very interesting character," declared Miss Adelaide Reynoldson of the department of history, in an address on "Washington the Man" yesterday afternoon. The address was broadcast from the University radio station through KFAB.

Says Vanity Is Protection Of Woman Against Evils But Good Judgment Must Be Used

Edna Wallace Hopper, sixty-three year old flapper, is strong for the younger generation. But she deplores the conditions that exist in regard to girls smoking.

Smoking Detracts Charm

Then she settled down to the task of giving her opinions of the girls who smoke.

"Aside from the moral standpoint which I do not preach, and aside from the health standpoint, which I do preach, I think that women should give up smoking because it detracts from the charm, beauty, and personality," declared Miss Hopper.

"Holding a cigarette in her mouth ruins any woman's expression," she continued. "If for no other reason than that they should give it up. They should be just too vain to risk any part of their beauty. A woman needs every bit she has—and if she doesn't need more she's lucky."

PRESS BODY GATHERS THURSDAY FOR MEET

Journalism Classes Can Hear Discussions of Group at Lindell Hotel

KOSMET KLUB GIVES ACT

Nebraska Press association will meet in Lincoln Thursday and Friday for its annual convention. Meetings will be held in Lindell hotel, and all classes in the school of journalism will be excused so that students may attend the discussions.

MORTON SPEAKS AT FULLERTON

Growth of Public Schools Furnishes Talk Topic at Rural Meeting

"The Growth of American Public Schools" was the subject of an address made by Prof. W. H. Morton, principal of Teachers College high school and director of teachers' training, at a rural school standardization meeting six and one-half miles northwest of Fullerton, Nebraska, last Friday evening.

RELIGIOUS GROUP ARRANGES MEET

Lutheran Representatives Plan Kansas Trip for Student Program

The Lutheran student conference will be held at Lawrence, Kansas, the last part of the week, February 22-24. Among the representatives from University of Nebraska will be four students, including Herbert Dichen, Lutheran student secretary, and three delegates elected by the Lutheran club last Friday night. They are Elizabeth Krueger, Ethel Sievers, and Kenneth Rubrecht.

GIRLS PLAY HOST TO HOME EC. FACULTY

The girls of the Home Management residence entertained the home economics faculty at a two course buffet supper, Sunday evening at 6 o'clock. The hostesses were, Misses Evelyn Hofffield, Margaret Stallon, Helen Cupman, Helen Metheny and Nellie Hollabach.

Probation Committee Will Hear Complaints

The probation committee of the interfraternity council will convene Wednesday evening from 7 to 9 o'clock in Morrill hall, lecture room No. 9, for the purpose of listening to complaints of infractions of the probation ruling, according to James Musgrave, chairman.

Y. W. C. A. GOES ON AIR WEDNESDAY

Variety Musical Program Is To Be Broadcast For New Radio Hour

Inaugurating a radio hour which they will regularly sponsor on Wednesday evening from now on, the University Y. W. C. A. will broadcast a variety musical program over radio station KFOP at 8 o'clock, this evening, Ruth Davis, president of the university association, will preside over this initial program, which will serve simply as an introduction to the work which the organization is carrying on on the campus. Charlotte Peterson will present a number of piano solos and Julia Presson will offer some violin selections.

CHORUS TRYOUTS MOVE AHEAD BY ELIMINATIONS

Kosmet Klub Narrows Field In Competition for Spring Show

MEN MUST PASS TESTS

Contestants Are Tried Out For Size and Ability to Dance and Sing

Tryouts for the male chorus in the Kosmet Klub male spring show, "Don't Be Silly," were held Tuesday night. About forty-five would be pony prancers showed their wares before the reviewing staff which includes "Chick" Dox, Mrs. M. B. Cooksey, and "Jiggs" Miller. Each aspirant had to pass a number of requirements such as shape, size, singing and dancing ability.

Of the number who tried out twenty-seven were sifted out to participate in the next few rehearsals, when still further reductions will be made. The eliminations last night were made chiefly because of ineligibility, largeness or just awkwardness.

Cadets Foresee Lots of Work After Rest Days

The military department threatens to go on a strike! Colonel Jewett is ill at present and several others have followed suit. Besides, the air is better and full of flying snow; the ground is slippery and the drill field remains just one grand ditch. No war threatens.

Y. W. C. A. GOES ON AIR WEDNESDAY

Variety Musical Program Is To Be Broadcast For New Radio Hour

Inaugurating a radio hour which they will regularly sponsor on Wednesday evening from now on, the University Y. W. C. A. will broadcast a variety musical program over radio station KFOP at 8 o'clock, this evening, Ruth Davis, president of the university association, will preside over this initial program, which will serve simply as an introduction to the work which the organization is carrying on on the campus. Charlotte Peterson will present a number of piano solos and Julia Presson will offer some violin selections.

INTER-RACIAL STAFF SPONSORS Y. W. TEA

Next Meetings Concerned With Study of American Indian Tribes

An interracial tea will be held for all girls who are interested in the interracial staff of the Y. W. C. A., on Thursday, Feb. 21, in the dining room at Ellen Smith hall from 4:30 until 6 o'clock. This tea is being sponsored in place of the open house entertainments which will be sponsored on every Thursday when there is not another tea.

'Y' COMMITTEE PLANS MEETING

Nebraska in Egypt Group Make Preparations for Dinner

Nebraska in Egypt committee of the university Y. M. C. A. will meet at a luncheon at the Grand hotel, Friday, February 22, to make plans for the further development of interest among the students in the work of Steele Holcombe, Nebraska '16, who is in Egypt.

RELIGIOUS GROUP ARRANGES MEET

Lutheran Representatives Plan Kansas Trip for Student Program

The Lutheran student conference will be held at Lawrence, Kansas, the last part of the week, February 22-24. Among the representatives from University of Nebraska will be four students, including Herbert Dichen, Lutheran student secretary, and three delegates elected by the Lutheran club last Friday night. They are Elizabeth Krueger, Ethel Sievers, and Kenneth Rubrecht.

Y. W. C. A. GOES ON AIR WEDNESDAY

Variety Musical Program Is To Be Broadcast For New Radio Hour

Inaugurating a radio hour which they will regularly sponsor on Wednesday evening from now on, the University Y. W. C. A. will broadcast a variety musical program over radio station KFOP at 8 o'clock, this evening, Ruth Davis, president of the university association, will preside over this initial program, which will serve simply as an introduction to the work which the organization is carrying on on the campus. Charlotte Peterson will present a number of piano solos and Julia Presson will offer some violin selections.

Blood and Thunder Feature in March Issue of Awgwan Curdles the Blood

Headway Is Being Made for Vivid Portrayal of the Wild West Theme in the Coming Issue

Wild West Whoopie will be the theme around which contributors for the March publication of the Awgwan will lend their efforts. Indians, cowboys, Kappa Sigs, and cactus might furnish food for thought on this next issue. There will be plenty of pictures of wild bronchos, mustangs, cow-hands and sage brush for those who cannot read, all of which will serve to make the issue picturesque.

Scalps Were Unsafe Then.

Anyone desiring real, fascinating and vivid description of that era in American life, when a scalp under a five-gallon crusher was worth two hanging on the wall of some red-skin's tepee, can hardly say unenthusiastically over this issue.

DR. WOLCOTT LECTURES AT NEBRASKAN HOTEL

Religion and Science Theme Of World Forum Topic; Second of Series

World Forum will hold its second meeting of the new semester today noon at the Nebraska hotel. Dr. C. H. Wolcott, chairman of the department of Zoology, will speak on "The Religion of a Scientist." This talk will be the second of a series on religion considered from various angles.

BILL FAILS TO PASS ASSIGNED COMMITTEE

Measure Would Combine All Public Institutions With Single Management.

The bill before the legislature to abolish the University Board of Regents failed to find favor in the committee to which it was assigned. The committee on constitutional amendments reported the bill, H. R. 178, for indefinite postponement.

OPPOSITION IS STRONG

The bill before the legislature to abolish the University Board of Regents failed to find favor in the committee to which it was assigned. The committee on constitutional amendments reported the bill, H. R. 178, for indefinite postponement.

'Y' COMMITTEE PLANS MEETING

Nebraska in Egypt Group Make Preparations for Dinner

Nebraska in Egypt committee of the university Y. M. C. A. will meet at a luncheon at the Grand hotel, Friday, February 22, to make plans for the further development of interest among the students in the work of Steele Holcombe, Nebraska '16, who is in Egypt.

RELIGIOUS GROUP ARRANGES MEET

Lutheran Representatives Plan Kansas Trip for Student Program

The Lutheran student conference will be held at Lawrence, Kansas, the last part of the week, February 22-24. Among the representatives from University of Nebraska will be four students, including Herbert Dichen, Lutheran student secretary, and three delegates elected by the Lutheran club last Friday night. They are Elizabeth Krueger, Ethel Sievers, and Kenneth Rubrecht.

Y. W. C. A. GOES ON AIR WEDNESDAY

Variety Musical Program Is To Be Broadcast For New Radio Hour

Inaugurating a radio hour which they will regularly sponsor on Wednesday evening from now on, the University Y. W. C. A. will broadcast a variety musical program over radio station KFOP at 8 o'clock, this evening, Ruth Davis, president of the university association, will preside over this initial program, which will serve simply as an introduction to the work which the organization is carrying on on the campus. Charlotte Peterson will present a number of piano solos and Julia Presson will offer some violin selections.

Y. W. C. A. GOES ON AIR WEDNESDAY

Variety Musical Program Is To Be Broadcast For New Radio Hour

Inaugurating a radio hour which they will regularly sponsor on Wednesday evening from now on, the University Y. W. C. A. will broadcast a variety musical program over radio station KFOP at 8 o'clock, this evening, Ruth Davis, president of the university association, will preside over this initial program, which will serve simply as an introduction to the work which the organization is carrying on on the campus. Charlotte Peterson will present a number of piano solos and Julia Presson will offer some violin selections.

ELECTION RESULTS

Senior President
Charles "Chick" Dox, Blue Shirt	171
DeForest West, Independent	108
Junior President
Paul Burgert, Blue Shirt	183
Sherman Welpton, Yellow Jacket	80
Glen H. Reichenbach	57
Sophomore President
Claude Rowley, Blue Shirt	121
Robert Danielson, Non-Fraternity	93
Lewis "Bud" McBride, Yellow Jacket	1
Swanson	1
Freshman President
Harrie Shearer, Blue Shirt	137
Howard Gardner, Yellow Jacket	114
Marie Broad, Independent	52
Ivy Day Orator
Bruce Snyder, Blue Shirt	283
John McKnight, Yellow Jacket	226
Lester Schoene, Non-Fraternity	249
David Fellman, Independent	29
George Johnson, Independent	30
Prom Girl Candidates
Pauline Bilon
Edna Charlton
Irene Lavelly
Lorraine Gamble
Ruth Shallerross

DR. WOLCOTT LECTURES AT NEBRASKAN HOTEL

Religion and Science Theme Of World Forum Topic; Second of Series

World Forum will hold its second meeting of the new semester today noon at the Nebraska hotel. Dr. C. H. Wolcott, chairman of the department of Zoology, will speak on "The Religion of a Scientist." This talk will be the second of a series on religion considered from various angles.

BILL FAILS TO PASS ASSIGNED COMMITTEE

Measure Would Combine All Public Institutions With Single Management.

The bill before the legislature to abolish the University Board of Regents failed to find favor in the committee to which it was assigned. The committee on constitutional amendments reported the bill, H. R. 178, for indefinite postponement.

OPPOSITION IS STRONG

The bill before the legislature to abolish the University Board of Regents failed to find favor in the committee to which it was assigned. The committee on constitutional amendments reported the bill, H. R. 178, for indefinite postponement.

'Y' COMMITTEE PLANS MEETING

Nebraska in Egypt Group Make Preparations for Dinner

Nebraska in Egypt committee of the university Y. M. C. A. will meet at a luncheon at the Grand hotel, Friday, February 22, to make plans for the further development of interest among the students in the work of Steele Holcombe, Nebraska '16, who is in Egypt.

RELIGIOUS GROUP ARRANGES MEET

Lutheran Representatives Plan Kansas Trip for Student Program

The Lutheran student conference will be held at Lawrence, Kansas, the last part of the week, February 22-24. Among the representatives from University of Nebraska will be four students, including Herbert Dichen, Lutheran student secretary, and three delegates elected by the Lutheran club last Friday night. They are Elizabeth Krueger, Ethel Sievers, and Kenneth Rubrecht.

Y. W. C. A. GOES ON AIR WEDNESDAY

Variety Musical Program Is To Be Broadcast For New Radio Hour

Inaugurating a radio hour which they will regularly sponsor on Wednesday evening from now on, the University Y. W. C. A. will broadcast a variety musical program over radio station KFOP at 8 o'clock, this evening, Ruth Davis, president of the university association, will preside over this initial program, which will serve simply as an introduction to the work which the organization is carrying on on the campus. Charlotte Peterson will present a number of piano solos and Julia Presson will offer some violin selections.

Y. W. C. A. GOES ON AIR WEDNESDAY

Variety Musical Program Is To Be Broadcast For New Radio Hour

Inaugurating a radio hour which they will regularly sponsor on Wednesday evening from now on, the University Y. W. C. A. will broadcast a variety musical program over radio station KFOP at 8 o'clock, this evening, Ruth Davis, president of the university association, will preside over this initial program, which will serve simply as an introduction to the work which the organization is carrying on on the campus. Charlotte Peterson will present a number of piano solos and Julia Presson will offer some violin selections.

ELECTION POLL RESULTS SHOW OFFICE WINNERS

Dox, Burgert, Rowley and Shearer Will Fill Class Presidencies

INDEPENDENTS BALLOT

Snyder Wins Out as Ivy Day Orator in a Close Race Against McKnight

Charles Dox was elected senior class president, Paul Burgert junior class president, Claude Rowley sophomore class president, and Harrie Shearer freshman class president in a sweeping Blue Shirt election held in the Temple yesterday.

Amendments Pass

Amendment II, providing for a meeting of the newly elected student council within ten days after election day and an election of the four general officers at the first meeting of the established council, was voted in with a vote of 528 for, to 28 against.

Vote Is Large

Eleven hundred and forty-two votes were cast in the election this semester in comparison to 1043 the second semester last year. The largest independent and non-fraternity vote in history was recorded at this year's election.

INTER-RACIAL STAFF SPONSORS Y. W. TEA

Next Meetings Concerned With Study of American Indian Tribes

An interracial tea will be held for all girls who are interested in the interracial staff of the Y. W. C. A., on Thursday, Feb. 21, in the dining room at Ellen Smith hall from 4:30 until 6 o'clock. This tea is being sponsored in place of the open house entertainments which will be sponsored on every Thursday when there is not another tea.

'Y' COMMITTEE PLANS MEETING

Nebraska in Egypt Group Make Preparations for Dinner

Nebraska in Egypt committee of the university Y. M. C. A. will meet at a luncheon at the Grand hotel, Friday, February 22, to make plans for the further development of interest among the students in the work of Steele Holcombe, Nebraska '16, who is in Egypt.

RELIGIOUS GROUP ARRANGES MEET

Lutheran Representatives Plan Kansas Trip for Student Program

The Lutheran student conference will be held at Lawrence, Kansas, the last part of the week, February 22-24. Among the representatives from University of Nebraska will be four students, including Herbert Dichen, Lutheran student secretary, and three delegates elected by the Lutheran club last Friday night. They are Elizabeth Krueger, Ethel Sievers, and Kenneth Rubrecht.

Y. W. C. A. GOES ON AIR WEDNESDAY

Variety Musical Program Is To Be Broadcast For New Radio Hour

Inaugurating a radio hour which they will regularly sponsor on Wednesday evening from now on, the University Y. W. C. A. will broadcast a variety musical program over radio station KFOP at 8 o'clock, this evening, Ruth Davis, president of the university association, will preside over this initial program, which will serve simply as an introduction to the work which the organization is carrying on on the campus. Charlotte Peterson will present a number of piano solos and Julia Presson will offer some violin selections.

Y. W. C. A. GOES ON AIR WEDNESDAY

Variety Musical Program Is To Be Broadcast For New Radio Hour

Inaugurating a radio hour which they will regularly sponsor on Wednesday evening from now on, the University Y. W. C. A. will broadcast a variety musical program over radio station KFOP at 8 o'clock, this evening, Ruth Davis, president of the university association, will preside over this initial program, which will serve simply as an introduction to the work which the organization is carrying on on the campus. Charlotte Peterson will present a number of piano solos and Julia Presson will offer some violin selections.