Applause Sweeps House

"Many times applause swept cross the Auditorium in crashing vales, again in rapt silence the brong would receive a tender ceae botteen Faust and Marcuerice, as sung by Charles Hackett nd Edith Mason.

"Enthusiasm reached its height in the fourth act where in quick succession came the ploturesque fallet of villagers and the "Soldiers" Chorus" sung by a mighty male horus, supported by a brass band besides the swelling music of the great orchestra. Here it seemed that the audience scarcely re strained itself from rising to voice is plaudits.

Organization Asked to Make Appointments at Once

For Pictures

Organizations which have not suit made dates for their 1929 Cornhusker pictures should do so at the Campus Studio before the end of this week. There will be a deadline set for these pictures and since there are but a few hours open for appointments, it is urged by Arthur Balley, managing editor, that the matter be attended to at once.

A questionnaire is being sent to all organizations in order that information may be supplied for a writeup in the Cornhusker. It should be filled out and turned in immediately at the Cornhusker of fice.

Don't forget, that every day we serve delicious golden brown waffles, real Mexican Chili, and the best sandwiches, the best pie and the best coffee in town.
