

FOUR ONE BIG SIX FOE STILL ON HUSKER CAGE SCHEDULE

Dopesters Predict a Scarlet Victory in Final Game With Kansas

NOW IN FOURTH PLACE

Oklahoma Enters Final Dash Toward Championship

(By Jack Elliott)

Nebraska's Scarlet basketball team broke even last week but the break was not evenly counted in the Big Six percentage standing. On Friday night the Huskers from Lincoln dropped a game to the Iowa State Cyclones at Ames and took revenge on the Drake Bulldogs at Des Moines, a nonconference foe. The defeat handed the Nebraska crew at Ames put the Huskers in fourth place, giving way to the Staters who took third place.

BIG SIX STANDINGS

Table with 4 columns: Team, W, L, Pct. Includes Oklahoma, Missouri, Iowa State, Nebraska, Kansas Aggies, and Kansas.

RESULTS LAST WEEK

Washington 29, Oklahoma 18. Oklahoma 42, Kansas Aggies 24. Missouri 23, Kansas 22. Iowa State 37, Nebraska 35. Nebraska 33, Drake 24.

GAMES THIS WEEK

Tuesday: Kansas vs. Creighton at Omaha. Thursday: Kansas vs. Iowa State at Ames. Saturday: Kansas Aggies vs. Nebraska at Lincoln; Missouri vs. Oklahoma at Norman.

One Big Six Foe Left.

With the Missouri cage game last night, the Nebraska cagers have yet one more Big Six foe to meet on the schedule and that, the Kansas Aggies from Manhattan who come to the Husker court on Saturday night. The Aggies have previously defeated the Scarlet on the Farmer's court but dopesters predict that the Nebraska quintet will take the count on the Aggies in this week's conflict. A preliminary game between Coach "Bunny" Oakes' freshmen team and the College of Agriculture five will be the curtain raiser Saturday night.

The fast stepping Oklahoma Sooners enter this week to make the final dash down the home stretch to the championship. Coach Hugh McDermott has his Sooners five in the best of condition and is going to put everything in Oklahoma basketball on the court Saturday night at Norman to snow under the Missouri Tigers and win the first championship of the Big Six conference and the second consecutive basketball title. The Tiger quintet is doped as the underdog in the Sooner game at Norman but should the Mizou five turn in a win, it would throw the conference into a tie between Oklahoma and Missouri.

Sooners Defeat Kansas

Last week the Sooners opened the week's play by losing a game to Washington of St. Louis and then ending up the week by defeating the Kansas Aggies in a vertible landslide. The Kansas Farmers were the ninth Big Six victim of the southern crew and the second time they were forced to take a beating from the Oklahomans. Missouri took the once powerful Kansas Jayhawkers to a whimpering tune of 23 to 20 to remain in the running for the title. At half-time of the Tiger-Jayhawk game, the score was knotted at 12-all but the second half flash of the Columbia crew ended in disaster for D. "Phog" Allen and his men from the Kaw. This made the third defeat for Kansas at the hands of Missouri, the first contest was a non-conference.

Churchill Still Heads

In the race for honors in individual scoring, Tommy Churchill, the big boy from Soonerland is still continuing his fast pace and almost has a cinch on first honors, although Lande of Iowa State is giving him a fast race. Grace of Nebraska is in eleventh place with a total of 61 points collected in eight games. The Sooner forward has 112 points, Lande 105. The leading scorers:

ON THE DALLEY Jack Elliott

Nebraska's Scarlet basketball team had a bit of trouble on the Iowa invasion last week and incidentally dropped into the second division in the Big Six conference. The Huskers are now classified with the Jayhawk and Kansas Farmers only Nebraska has turned in a few more victories than the Kansas quintet. The Iowa trip resulted in a win and a defeat but the win was not standing in the conference. From Des Moines Coach Black took his cagers to Columbia where they gave the Nebraskaans one game conference game and that comes off Saturday night on the Coliseum hardwoods with the Kansas Aggies from Manhattan. The Aggies have once taken the count on Nebraska but the Saturday dope favors a win for the Scarlet.

Last week's athletic events were paid a repetition of the week before.

when Nebraska made a clean sweep of all events entered which were basketball, track, and wrestling. Last week Coach Schulte's tractors were the only unaminously victorious team although the basketball team broke even in their trip up north. The wrestling team dropped a conference match to Oklahoma to end the week's activities. In track the Husker thinkdaks made a good showing and are rated as one of the leaders in the conference indoor boards. In wrestling the Husker grapplers were outclassed against the Sooners.

And now comes a report from the eastern Nebraska alumni that at last has picked a football coach that she has needed for years. In other words, Coach D. X. Bible made a big hit with New York alumni of the Cornhusker school and until D. X. loses a game they are going to be strong for him. But they of New York think D. X. has come to Nebraska to stay. His personality which won a great following in Lincoln, has done the same at Manhattan. The Husker gridiron mentor has been in New York during the past week meeting with the National Rules committee on football. Clyde Elliott writes to the Lincoln Star the report of the alumni banquet in New York at which Coach Bible was a guest. He states that the new coach at Huskerland will establish a reign of success such as Fielding Yost has done at Michigan for thirty years.

We all get enthusiastic when a new coach takes up his duties with the Scarlet men of Nebraska. We predict all kinds of successes—that he will go a long way in putting Nebraska football on top of the world. He is the super-human and has no faults—he will never make a mistake. He is placed on a pedestal and after the dust has died away from the gridiron and the new Nebraska coach has lost his first game, will all these alumni, all these faithful followers of the Scarlet and Cream stick behind their football coach? Coach Dana X. Bible has been given one of the greatest ovations ever to be accorded a Nebraska coach and it is evident that it has not been limited to the state of Nebraska as the report from New York shows that the eastern alumni have likewise been won over to Coach Bible. It is our suppressed desire that when Coach Bible turns in his initial defeat next year or year after next or whenever it is slated, that Huskerland will rise up unanimously and back D. X. Bible until the season or seasons is bygone history.

Basketball season will be over for Nebraska fans Saturday night when Coach Black's Scarlet cagers meet the Kansas Aggie five. The Scarlet five is booked to win the Aggie tilt and will climax the 1929 Big Six cage race. The Huskers now in fourth place still have a chance to climb up into the first division with the moguls of the conference hardwoods but the chance is slim and the Staters from Ames who took the Friday night game and third place will have to drop their Tuesday conflict with Kansas.

GREEKS PREPARE FOR FINAL CAGE BATTLES

Interfraternity basketball title will be at stake tonight when Alpha Sigma Phi's cage squad takes the floor against Phi Gamma Delta, at 8 o'clock in the Coliseum. Second place in the final round will be decided by the outcome of the Kappa Sigma-Pi Kappa Alpha game, also scheduled for tonight.

Table with 5 columns: Team, G, W, L, Pct. Includes Alpha Sigma Phi, Kappa Sigma, Phi Gamma Delta, Phi Sigma Kappa, Pi Kappa Alpha.

If the Phi Gams should accomplish the unexpected, and beat the Alpha Sigs, it is entirely probable that the race will go into a tie between the Alpha Sigs, Kappa Sigs and Phi Gams, since the Kappa Sigs are favored to conquer the Pi Kappa Alphas.

Four class B games will also be played this evening. The schedule: Sigma Alpha Epsilon vs Theta Xi, 7 o'clock, floor 3. Delta Sigma Phi vs Delta Upsilon, 7:25 o'clock, floor 3. Beta Theta Pi vs Delta Sigma Delta, 8:35 o'clock, floor 3. Sigma Chi vs Kappa Psi 9 o'clock on floor 3.

DAKOTA SCHOOL PLANS STUNTS

Vermilion, S. D., Feb. 25.—Song and dance artists at the University of South Dakota are busy practicing this week for the annual Strollers Vaudeville to be produced in the auditorium March 6. The program will include seven acts, six to be presented by competing campus organizations and the seventh by the members of the Strollers, campus dramatic organization. Prizes of $50 and $35 will be offered to the winning acts.

Organizations, whose acts were selected as being worthy of competition include Kappa Alpha Theta, Beta Alpha, Beta Theta, Pi, Chi Omega, and Sigma Alpha Epsilon and Alpha Phi. The last two named will combine their act. The sixth act will be presented by Leone Hart, of Vermilion.

Coach Bible Wins Esteem and Support New York Alumni and Grid Leaders

Graduates, Coaches and Sports Writers Greet New Mentor at Dinner Given in His Honor

That Dana X. Bible, Nebraska's new football coach has won the esteem and support of New York alumni is assured, according to reports from the annual alumni dinner where he was the guest of honor. Sports writers, visiting football men from West Point, Yale, especially "Biff Jones" from West Point, and "Chic" Meehan of New York university, heartily endorse the success they are sure the new Nebraska coach will make with famed Nebraska material.

To a gathering estimated at 100 persons Bible talked little of football and nothing about the prospects of football in Nebraska—a feature which Cornhusker alumni liked very much. They intend to give him their support to the man knowing full well that it will take time and patience before Cornhusker football can be adjusted to the new system which will assure its success later.

The New York press is favorable and interested in Nebraska's new coach. It is taken for granted that they will watch his work at Nebraska. A team that has proved to be a perpetual stumbling block for the University of New York will need watching, is their viewpoint.

Significant among the recommendations of prominent men in football is that of E. K. Hall of the national rules committee, who, although not able to attend the banquet given to Mr. Bible, sent his recommendations. Mr. Hall said that he is easily one of the outstanding coaches of the country today. He is secure in the belief that Bible is a coach who puts the interests of the boys and the interest of the game before the mere fact of winning the games. Besides this, he characterized the new coach as a man whose influence in the University itself would be continuously and definitely to the good. His influence both on and off the field will be far-reaching, he said.

A banquet will be held for those attending the short course on the evening of March 2. This is the second annual short course for commercial florists.

LYMAN EXPLAINS INFIRMARY PLANS

Money Used for Maintenance Comes From Students, Not Legislature. Recently a letter appeared in the editorial columns of local newspapers which attacked the policy of the University in supplying free medical service to students. The letter was signed by a taxpayer of the state and is partially quoted as follows:

"What occasion or condition exists that demands this socialistic policy at the University of Nebraska? I assume that the free hospital and free medical service is made possible at least to a large extent by the appropriation of the legislature for university maintenance."

Students Pay Fees. Dr. R. A. Lyman, dean of the College of Pharmacy, wishes to correct the erroneous impression of the free medical service. "The money which is needed to supply this service," he states, "is obtained from the students alone. The legislature makes no appropriation for this purpose." Dr. Lyman goes on to say that beginning next year the infirmary will be supported by a fee of one dollar, which all students will be required to pay. The service has already been established by a special donation.

Dr. Lyman also wishes to correct the misunderstanding that students who are ill must submit to the services of a university doctor. A student may call in any physician he wishes, he said. He may even establish himself in the infirmary at the regular cost, but under the attention of his own personal doctor. Students should remember, however, that in case a city physician is called in, the University will not bear the expenses involved.

SCARLET SQUAD DEFEATS TIGERS FOR 39-33 SCORE

Continued from Page 1. but the outcome will not change the final standings. Nebraska is scheduled to take on the Kaggies here on the same evening at the Coliseum.

Missouri has tasted defeat only once before from a Big Six foe this season. The southerners took an adverse verdict from Oklahoma earlier in the season.

The summary of the game follows:

Table with 3 columns: Team, Points, Rebounds. Includes Nebraska, Grinnell, Pikes, MacRay, Lewandowski, White, Holm, Olson.

Total: Nebraska 39, Missouri 33. Officials: Quigley, St. Marys, Hoam, Washington.

February 28, Alan S. Williams, John P. McKnight and Evert M. Hunt will represent the negative in a debate with Drake University at Des Moines. Hunt and McKnight will engage in a debate with the University of Iowa before an assembly of the students of the North High School Des Moines on March 1.

STATE CAGE TOURNEY STARTS ON MARCH 7

New District Plan Restricts Entries; Over Hundred Teams Entered. GISM ASKS FOR HELPERS. Nebraska's state high school basketball tourney will get under way Thursday, March 7, with approximately 128 teams entered in the play for championships.

The athletic office is calling for men who wish to work during the high school basketball tournament. Referees, umpires, scorers and timekeepers will be needed to handle the tourney and Herbert Gish, director of athletics, requests that all men sign up at the athletic office.

Have Eight Classes. This year's tournament will consist of eight classes with sixteen teams to a class. With the small number entered in comparison to the larger number last year, tournament officials will be able to handle the play in a more efficient manner.

Classification will be based on the following: Season's record, District tourney, Size of town, Number of men in high school, Number of seniors in high school, Previous tourney experience.

There were 24 district tournaments in the state which have for the most part been completed. In SOUTH HAS ADVANTAGE. Baseball candidates are awaiting an opportunity to start out-of-doors. The entire squad works out in the Coliseum every afternoon but lack of room is handicapping the infielders and outfielders.

The team will have only about fifteen days of outside practice before they meet the University of Oklahoma, April 17 and 18, and in the initial games of the season. The early date of the first game is a great handicap to the northern teams of the loop. Some change should be made which would enable the northern teams to play among themselves and obtain some

HUSKER TRACK SQUAD BEGINS RIGID TRAINING

Scarlet Team Prepares for Meet at Kansas City Set for Friday

IS FIRST BIG SIX MEET. Fresh from a dual victory over the Iowa State cinder athletes, Coach Henry F. Schulte's Scarlet and Cream tracksters resumed rigid training, Monday, for the first Big Six conference meet, scheduled for this Friday on the convention hall indoor boards at Kansas City.

All the schools of the recently formed conference will vie for championships honors in this annual event, the headlining event of this week's athletic activities. Speculation as to the possible winning combination is somewhat up in the air as practically all of the conference teams have assembled well balanced squads to throw into the competition. Kansas, Missouri, Iowa State and Oklahoma seem the strongest, as the Kansas Aggie athletes, hampered by lack of indoor facilities, have not shown much strength to date.

Sooners Lack Numbers. The Oklahoma Sooners, according to reports from the southern school, lack numbers, their team being small in the early season workouts. The Jayhawk victory over the Missouri Tigers in their annual dual meet last week and was very impressive and last year's Missouri Valley conference outdoor championships appear to have a winning aggregation in the field again this season.

Coach Schulte plans on taking a large squad to the Kansas City meet, with the hope of picking up several extra points. Comparative dope indicates that the Cornhusker strength will lie in the ability of the scarlet jerseyed athletes to pick up seconds, thirds, and fourths and will make a strong bid for first place honors.

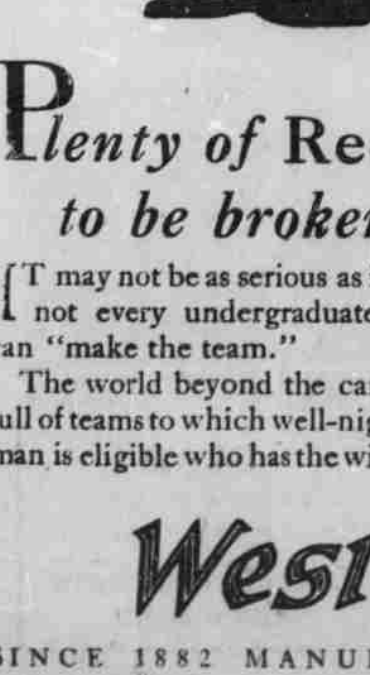

Try-outs for the fifty yard dash, hurdles, and high jump will be run off Tuesday afternoon while the other events will find practically the same men competing as took part in the Iowa State meet.
