Oklahoma Enters Final Dash Toward Conference Championship

(By Jack Elliott)

Nebraska's Scarlet basketeers was not evenly counted in the Big Stx percentage standing. On Friday night the Huskers from Lincoin dropped a game to the lowa State Cyclones at Ames and took revenge on the Drake Bulldogs at Des Moines, a nonconference The defeat handed the Nebraska crew at Ames put the Huskers in fourth place, giving way to the Staters who took third place.

One Big Six Foe Left,

With the Missouri game last night, the Nebraska cagers have yet one more Big Six foe to meet on the schedule and that, the Kansas Aggies from Manhattan who come to the Husker court on Saturday night. The Aggies have previously defeated the Scarlet on the Farmer's court but dopsters predict that the Nebraska quintet will take the count on the Aggies in this week's conflict. A preliminary game between Coach "Bunny" Oakes' freshmen team and the Col-lege of Agriculture five will be the curtain raiser Saturday night.

Sooners Defeat Kansas

Last week the Sooners opened then ending up the week by de-feating the Kansas Aggles in a vertible landslide. The Kansas Farmers were the ninth Big Six vic tim of the southern crew and the second time they were forced to take a beating from the Okla-homans. Missouri took the once powerful Kansas Jayhawkers to a trimming to the tune of 33 to 20 to remain in the running for the title.
At half-time of the Tiger-Jayhawk game, the score was knotted at 18-all but the second half flash of the Columbia crew ended in disaster for Dr. "Phog" Allen and his men from the Kaw. This made the third defeat for Kansas at the hands of Missouri, the first contest

IS FIRST BIG SIX MEET

Fresh from a dual victory over the Iowa State cinder athletes, Coach Henry F. Schulte's Scarlet and Cream tracksters resumed rig id training, Monday, for the First Big Six conference meet, scheduled for this Friday on the convention hall indoor boards at Kansas City. All the schools of the recently formed conference will vie for championships honors in this annual event, the headlining event of this week's athletic activities.

Speculation as to the possible winning combination is somewhat up in the air as practically all of the well balanced squads to throw into the competition. Kansas, Missouri, lowa State and Oklahoma seem the strongest, as the Kansas Aggie ath-letes, hampered by lack of indoor facilities, have not shown much strength to date.
