A glimpse into the Ox Cart, on of the regular sections of the Schooner, reveals the following: "In her poem, "The Nebraska State Capitol," Rosemonde Richards celebrates the strength and beauty of our state house. We only wish that Mr. Goodhue were here to read Miss Richards' splendid lines."

"Two of our contributors, Joe Deming and Frederick Christian-sen, joined hands with Bess Furman in an attempt to lift the curse gloom and despair from the Schooner," reads another excerpt from the Ox Cart.

The two sections started in the last issue of the Schooner, "Cross-roads," and "The Dog in the mangeer," will continue in the present issue. Other contributions fill the pages with interesting reading. A few contributions had to be held over for the Summer number

HUNDRED SIGN TO BE 'BIG SISTERS'

Board Announces Initiation Thursday Afternoon At 5 O'clock

Tickets for Big Sister initiation which will be held Thursday, May , at 5 o'clock in the Student Activities building at the College of Agriculture must be obtained immediately, either at Long's College Book store or at Miss Erma Appleby's office in Ellen Smith hall. No tickets will be sold after 6 o'clock Wednesday afternoon as reservations must be made at the farm cafeteria by that time.

The tickets, which are on sale for fifty cents, include the twenty five cent fee required of all Big Sisters. Those who are unable to attend the dinner and initiation will pay this fee later.

More than five hundred invitations to selected upperclassmen were issued last week, and approximately one hundred girls from this group have already signed up to be Big Sisters next year. Any girl who did not receive an invitation, and who would like to be a Big Sister next year, may become one if she leaves her name with Miss Appleby in Ellen Smith hall.

ANNOUNCING $3,000.00 COLLEGE NOVEL ONTEST

sponsored by COLLEGE HUMOR DOUBLEDAY DORAN

There is no more provocative field of life in America today than the college. College men and women are sifting, experimenting, and thinking more boldly than any other group. They are building the new America.

The Campus Prize Novel Contest is open to all college undergraduates, or to graduates of not more than one year. The prize novel may be a story of college life, or of college people in other environments; it may be your personal story or the novel you always have wanted to write about your generation. A $3000.00 Cash prize will be paid the winning author.

The winning novel will be serialized in College Humor and published in book form by Doubleday, Doran and Company. Book royalties will be paid the author in addition to the prize, and motion picture and dra-matic rights will remain with the author. We reserve the right to publish in serial and book form, according to the usual terms, any of the other novels submitted.

The closing date of the contest is midnight, October 15, 1929. The contest will be judged by the editors of College Humor and Doubleday Doran. Typed manuscripts of from 75,000 to 100,000 words should be sent with return postage, name, and address, to the Campus Prize Novel Contest, College Humor, 1050 La Salle Street, Chicago; or to the Campus Prize Novel Contest, Doubleday, Doran and Co., Inc., Garden City, N.Y.
